OBITUARY

Jenise Sommer Marshall

Jenise Sommer Marshall passed away in Ventura, California, on July 25, 2020, after a long life, more than 60 years of which were spent in San Manuel.

Jenise was born in 1930 in Hand County, South Dakota, to Lawrence and Helen Sommer. She spent her early childhood years on the farm, but the family moved into town (Miller, SD) at the start of the depression. Jenise was the third in a family of eight children, five of whom preceded her in death.

In 1950 Jenise graduated from Mount Marty Nursing School with a Registered Nurse degree. Shortly thereafter, she married Kenneth Marshall, a local farm boy from Blunt, and they moved to the Black Hills of South Dakota. There Kenny worked in the gold mine in Deadwood until he enlisted in the U. S. Army and was sent to Korea for a year. Jenise remained in Deadwood and worked in the hospital until Kenny's return.

In 1955 Jenise and Kenny decided to leave their large families and South Dakota roots to move to Arizona – San Manuel, to be exact. They loved the weather and their cute little house on McNab, and then later, their larger place up on Sixth. Tragically, Kenny died in a mine accident in 1962, but Jenise never thought of moving back to family in South Dakota – San Manuel was her home now.

Jenise became the school nurse at the Oracle elementary school and then at the high school in San Manuel, where she later retired. She was an expert seamstress, loved to crochet, would tackle almost any crafting project, and was an excellent cook (especially Mexican recipes that she learned from her friends at St. Bartholomew's Catholic Church). She loved spending time with dear friend Dee Wolf and her family.

Jenise moved to California in 2018 to be near her daughter. She leaves behind her son Jim and his wife Sheri Winstanley; daughter Jane and her partner Gordon Dong; sister Audrey; and brother Dave. She is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews, and their children.

WHO IS RIOS' REPUBLICAN OPPONENT??

Following is a published letter to the editor from Ruben Leos that Cavanaugh claimed was supporting him & would work with him...

"Kevin Cavanaugh is a complete fake. His real name is Kevin Smith, who changed his name when he was terminated from a Midwest law enforcement job, he fled to Arizona to run for Pinal County Sheriff, congress twice, Justice of the Peace, and now County Supervisor. Kevin Smith worked for Sheriff Lamb and failed to pass a DPS background investigation which tells us something, I don't have anything to do with this man and he should know it's illegal to promise political jobs. I ran against Pete Rios, but I'm a loyal Democrat and I will vote for Mr. Rios."

Oracle Firewise presents annual awards

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

On Tuesday, Oct. 13, 2020, the Oracle Firewise Board presented its Annual FIREWISE Property of the Year awards for 2020.

Each year, the Firewise Board presents a framed certificate of recognition to the winners and a Firewise Property Award of the Year sign to be placed at each location. An award is given to the best personal property and to the best business/public property. The award is for making your property Firewise by reducing vegetation and trimming, weed eating and reducing ladder fuel, creating a defensible space against potential fires around their personal or business/public property. Oracle Firewise has been presenting these awards annually since 2008.

This year's personal property award winner is Bonnielee Walsh on Calle Futura. The business/non-profit property is the Oracle Union Church on American Avenue. Pastor Ed Nelson accepted the award for the church.

At the awards ceremony, it was also announced that Oracle Firewise completed the Firewise USA program's annual requirements for 2020 and are in good standing throughout the 2021 calendar year. They are now certified as a Firewise Community for the year.

San Manuel looks dominant in home opener

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel football team defeated Ft. Thomas in its home-opening game of the season last Friday night, 42 – 12.

The Miners have won consecutive games by 30 points or more to start the season 2-0 for the first time since 2012, and there is still room for improvement.

“We had some mistakes that we are working on this week,” San Manuel head coach Ernie Ivy said after Friday’s victory. “We just need to work on catching the ball better; we had too many dropped balls.”

Freshman quarterback Nicolas Velasquez returned from injury to throw for 203 yards and a pair of touchdown passes, though completing less than half of his pass attempts as a result of the “mistakes” Ivy alluded to.

“Our young quarterback did well passing,” Ivy said.

The Miners totaled nearly 400 yards of offense, including 177 yards on the ground. Four of their six touchdowns were rushing scores – two each by sophomore Mathias Medina and junior Noah Huerta. Senior TJ

Madrid rushed for a game-high 82 yards. Medina also caught two touchdowns, which accounted for two of his seven receptions for 101 yards. Sophomore Tony Guisa had two catches for 64 yards in the win.

The Miners’ defense has been stingy so far this season, allowing just 13 points per game. On Friday, it forced five turnovers – three interceptions and two fumble recoveries. Huerta had two interceptions and senior Jason Del Rio the other. Junior Isaiah Lopez and Madrid each recovered a fumble. Medina finished with a team-high 10 tackles while Johnathan Rodriguez had nine, including a TFL.

“The defense is doing a good job, but (we) still have some work to do,” Ivy said. “They have been working hard in practice, got back to the fundamentals of tackling and good game plans.”

San Manuel can improve to 3-0 this week, which would mark its best start since 2011, when the Miners won five-straight games to start the season.

“We just need to start off strong [on Friday] and keep pushing forward,” Ivy said.

Up next: Friday, Oct. 23 at Valley Union (0-2). Kickoff is scheduled for 6 p.m.

Oracle business owner can add 'author' to her resume

Seti the brave kitten is now one year old.

John Hernandez | Miner

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

Deb Breen is the owner of Sky Island Coffee Roasters in Oracle. She is a personal trainer who is an avid runner, hiker and mountain biker.

She is also now, a published author.

Deb's book, Seti the Brave, is an illustrated story in rhyme of Seti a small kitten lost and alone in the desert in Oracle and how she is found and becomes a part of Debra Breen's family. Deb said she wrote the story for her grandchildren.

When Deb first got the idea to write the story of Seti, she had no thoughts or intentions that it would be something she could have published. She has never written anything for mass publication although she does write from time to time, instructional and inspirational articles on fitness and well-being for her blog: debreen.com.

The inspiration for writing Seti's story came during a period of mourning for Deb. She was mourning the loss of her little Bichon, Molly. Molly had been in the family for many years and passed away suddenly in August 2019.

"Her little bed was still by my desk and I missed having her quiet presence in that cozy space next to me," Deb said about the mourning period. "I then began to think how 'lost' I would be if I did not have Seti to keep me company and help me adjust to losing Molly. For whatever reason, those moments of sadness and gratitude created in me a desire to tell how lucky I was to have found the lost little kitten of the desert. The words and rhyme for telling Seti's story came to me over a matter of minutes. After composing her story, I knew I wanted to share the story with my grandchildren. Seti the Brave is the (mostly) true story of how this one lost little kitten found her way into my life, before I even knew I needed her."

Deb describes Seti as a tortoiseshell calico whose distinct facial

Hispanic Heritage Month: Politics

Pinal County Supervisor Pete Rios has had a long career in politics.

John Hernandez | Miner

The Hispanic/Latino population of Arizona makes up 24 percent of registered voters. They are a rising political force in the state. Their activism and voting bloc helped rid Arizona of racist politicians like Joe Arpaio and Russell Pearce. They will be influential in November's Presidential election. Hispanics as a political force have come a long way from the early days of United States history.

Many Latinos now serve in the national and state legislatures. They are mayors of major cities and governors of states. This is true in the Copper Corridor where some of our local Latino politicians have been successful and have made positive impacts on state and county government. One of our local Latino politicians who has been successful is Pete Rios.

Pete Rios is the Pinal County Supervisor for District 1. He grew up in the copper mining area of Hayden-Winkelman. He attended Arizona State University, working his way through school while supporting his family. He has a B.A. degree in Sociology and a Master's degree in Social Service Administration from ASU. Following graduation, he went to work in social services with an emphasis in providing services for children and families. He was Children's Adoption Coordinator for the State of Arizona from 1978 to 1980. While at ASU, Pete became interested in politics. He was selected and served an internship in the State Senate. It gave him an inside view of what senators do and how they do it. Pete felt he could do it also.

Two of his mentors in politics also came from the Copper Corridor area. One was markings remind her of an outer space alien.

“Sometimes her face looks more like an owl than a cat. She’s a year old now, but she has a delicate, diminutive stature. Her face and markings inform of her little wild nature, but her brave wildness is what brought her safely home to live with me,” Deb said.

If you are wondering about the brave kitten’s name, Seti, it was her markings that gave Deb the name. SETI is an acronym for Search for Extra Terrestrial Intelligence. The SETI Institute is an organization that searches for evidence of extra-terrestrial life and intelligence. Seti was also the name of ancient Egyptian pharaohs and Egyptians were known to use the image of cats in their religion. Considering Deb said that she was never a cat person before finding Seti, the name seems most appropriate.

Deb’s husband, Todd Robert, encouraged her to find a way to get Seti the Brave published. It took a whole year to find a publisher and illustrator for the book. The publisher is a new company, Immerser. Immerser selected Deb’s book as their first children’s book to be published by their company. The illustrator for the book is an artist known as Isza who lives in Poland.

“We at Immerser Jr. are excited to have Deb Breen’s first book as our first children’s book as well. We felt that the story needed to be shared, and the beautiful artwork helps it come alive. Seti is a story your kids won’t forget,” the publisher said.

Seti the Brave is available for sale on Amazon.com (Kindle version is $2.99 and the paperback version is $13). Locally it is for sale from Deb for $9 at Sky Island Roasters 1575 W. American Avenue, Suite C in Oracle.

Congratulations, Deb, on being published and for finding Seti and bringing her into your family!

The precise relief sought. F. Copies of the claim shall be mailed to the seizing agency and to the attorney for the state. No extension of time for the filing of a claim may be granted. If no such claim is timely made, forfeiture of all interest in the seized property of any person who does not so claim will be applied. A person who has failed to timely file a proper claim will not be a party, will not be represented, and will not receive further notice of any proceeding. By law, no extension of time for the filing of a claim may be granted. The Complaint, when filed by the State, may be pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-4311, or it may seek relief under all of A.R.S. § 13-2314, particularly (C), (D), (E), and (F), as well as under A.R.S. §§ 13-4312, 13-4313, and 13-4314. The property was seized for forfeiture by peace officers of the Pinal County Attorney's Office and/or other Arizona law enforcement agencies. If you have not previously received notice of its seizure for forfeiture, this is also notice pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-4306(G). Owners, interest holders and/or claimants who have filed a valid claim may have remedies available pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 13-4301 et seq. In some circumstances, a person claiming a lawful interest may file, within fifteen (15) days of notice of seizure for forfeiture, an application under A.R.S. § 13-4310(B) to obtain a hearing on the provisional return of the property pending the outcome of a judicial proceeding on its forfeiture. If an application for such a hearing is filed, it, too, must comply with the requirements of A.R.S. § 13-4311(E) and (F), and must be filed in the Superior Court in Pinal County. Notice of the order to show cause hearing must be served upon the Attorney for the State at least five (5) working days before the hearing is held. Under A.R.S. § 13-4306(G), an owner of property may obtain the release of seized property by posting with the Attorney for the State a surety bond or cash in an amount equal to the full fair market value of the property, as determined by the Attorney for the State. The State may refuse to release the property if: 1) the bond or cash tendered is not in an amount equal to the full fair market value of the property; or 2) the property is retained as contraband or as evidence; or 3) the property is particularly altered or designed for use in conduct giving rise to forfeiture. A.R.S. § 13-4306(G) (1)–(3). If you post bond or cash in lieu of the property, the bond or cash and not the property will be subject to forfeiture. If you wish to post a bond or cash in lieu of the property, you may contact the Attorney for the State. If no Notice of Pending Forfeiture is made within sixty (60) days after the seizure of the property for forfeiture, any owner or interest holder may request release of the property, pending further proceedings pursuant to the forfeiture statutes, to be commenced within seven (7) years after actual discovery by the State of the last act giving rise to forfeiture. The request should be addressed to the Attorney for the State and should show that the requestor is an owner or interest holder. If the Attorney for the State declines to authorize release of the property by the seizing agency, the request may be addressed to the Superior Court for the County of Pinal. Any attempt to hide, transfer, convey, or sell any interest in any property seized for forfeiture, or to deposit it with a third party, place it beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, diminish its value or commingle it with other property may result in forfeiture of other property of equal value. If the property is conveyed, alienated, encumbered, disposed of, received, removed from the jurisdiction of the Court, concealed, or otherwise rendered unavailable for forfeiture, these acts may constitute facilitation of money laundering and money laundering, for which you may be criminally liable. Additionally, you may be sued for the fair market value of the property together with reasonable investigative expenses and attorney's fees, in addition to other criminal and civil remedies for fraud. There are a few points we would like our readers to consider when following this data.

1. This will continue to be a rolling total of positive cases. It does not reflect recoveries or deaths. The Arizona Department of Health Services does not break out this data.
2. If you see a reduction in numbers from day to day it is most likely due to a data entry error or mis-coding of a zip code (at the state level).
3. This is all zip code based data; most of our zip codes include unincorporated areas. There is no way to track exactly which areas each of the positive cases are. Example, Kearny and Winkelman each have small communities in their zip code that are not in the Town's incorporated boundaries.
4. If you live in Gila County, please follow the Gila County Health and Emergency Management, Facebook. They have maintained their data on recoveries and current positive cases.
5. You can follow other data such as ICU bed use, Ventilator use and hospital capacity online: <https://bit.ly/3inh280>

Working together, we can slow the spread of the virus across the Copper Corridor. Wear a mask in public, remain physically distant (6 feet apart or more), practice good hygiene (wash your hands frequently, sanitize high touch areas) and stay home if you are not feeling well.

Autumn Ln. Florence, AZ 85132 Re: Loss of October 17, 2018 Dear Ms. Quintero:
We appreciate your choosing our firm to help you with your personal injury case.
We regret that due to the lack of response and your failure to communicate with us as stated in the fee agreement, we now have to cancel our Contingency Fee Agreement. You should know that the statute of limitations in Arizona for a tort action is generally two years from the date of injury, or when you knew or should have known of your injury. If your claim involves a state public entity such as a city or town or school district, then the statute of limitations is only one year, and you must also properly serve notice of your claim on the state public entity within 180 days from the date of injury. Also, if your claim involves a worker's compensation claim, or a claim that arises by statute (such as a dog bite claim), you may have only one year from the date of injury to preserve your claim.
These and other time periods, subject to several exceptions, may cut off your right to claim for your injury. We appreciate the opportunity to have represented you.
We regret we cannot proceed further for you. If we can help you or a loved one in the future, please let us know. Sincerely, GOLDBERG & OSBORNE Amanda L.

Natural Gas Safety

Wherever you live, work, or play.

NATURAL GAS LINES

can be buried anywhere, even in areas where homes don't use natural gas. So it's important that EVERYONE knows how to recognize and respond to a natural gas leak, wherever they are.

A LEAK MAY BE PRESENT IF YOU:

SMELL:

a distinct sulfur-like odor, similar to rotten eggs, even if it's faint or momentary.

HEAR:

a hissing or roaring coming from the ground, above-ground pipeline, or natural gas appliance.

SEE:

dirt or water blowing into the air, unexplained dead or dying grass or plants, or standing water continuously bubbling.

IF YOU SUSPECT A LEAK

- Exit the area or building immediately. Tell others to evacuate and leave doors open.
- From a safe place, call 911 and Southwest Gas at 877-860-6020, day or night, whether you're a customer or not. A Southwest Gas representative will be there as soon as possible.
- Don't smoke or use matches or lighters.
- Don't turn on or off electrical switches, thermostats, or appliance controls; or do anything that could cause a spark.
- Don't start or stop an engine, or use automated (garage) doors.

PETE RIOS

in the Arizona Senate. He is an immigration activist and fought for justice against Senate Bill 1070 when it was being enforced in Arizona. Pete said he learned a lot from Alfredo. Another mentor was the late Joe Ruiz, who was a Justice of the Peace for many years in Mammoth.

"Joe knew a lot of people around the county," Pete said. "He told me who to talk to and said if they like you, they can help you. I guess a lot of people liked me because they helped me."

Supervisor Rios served 20 years in the State Senate and four years as a State Representative. In 1991, he was elected President of the Arizona State Senate, the first and only Latino Senate President in the history of Arizona. He has served 12 years as Supervisor of District 1 in Pinal County and is up for re-election.

Congratulations on a great career in politics and for the good work you are doing in making Pinal County a better place to live.

"I can always count on Supervisor Rios to support the men & women of the Sheriff's Office. Rios understands and prioritizes public safety in Pinal County."
