Free arsenic and lead testing for children, pregnant women offered in Winkelman, Hayden

The US Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has determined that there are high levels of arsenic and lead in the air, in tailings and other waste piles, and in the soil of some non-residential areas in Hayden and Winkelman. ASARCO and the EPA have cleaned up lead and arsenic in residential and public areas of both towns.

The Agency for Toxic Substance and Disease Registry (ATSDR), the Arizona Department of Health Services (ADHS) and EPA believe that people living and working in Hayden and Winkelman may come into contact with arsenic and lead in the air and soil. EPA has asked ATSDR to offer urine and blood testing for community members to measure and study arsenic and lead levels.

The ADHS and ATSDR will be collecting blood and urine to test for evidence for exposure to lead and arsenic. They will be testing those samples from people determined to be at higher risk for health effects, pregnant women and young children, who are being exposed to arsenic and lead. Testing will begin in six to eight months but those interested should sign up now as there will only be 200 people tested.

Those that will be tested must be living in Hayden or Winkelman. Children aged nine months to five years will be tested for blood lead. Children aged six years to 11 years the test will be for blood lead and urine arsenic. Pregnant women will be tested for blood lead and urine arsenic. If slots are available, testing will be offered for children ages 12 to 17 and women of child bearing age. Testing is voluntary and free. The names of participants, contact information and test results will be confidential.

The possible health effects of exposure to lead and arsenic include: Lead exposure can cause learning and behavior problems in children and many other health effects. Some of the effects may never go away.

Arsenic exposure can cause stomachache, nau-

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Why does Ray Unified School District need an override?

Registered voters received an information pamphlet in the mail from the School that educates us as to why the school needs an override. How many of you have actually read the pamphlet? If you're like the majority of the people I've talked to, you looked at the pamphlet and your thought was, "the school wants more money from my pockets which I can't afford it" and left it at that. Then when you vote you see that it says salaries and you assumed that the teachers want more money.

So I started asking questions as to what this override money would be used for – basically why does the school need more money when we are already bleeding from taxes? How can I be sure they will use the money for what they say they are? What I found surprised me. If we do not pass the override, then we may LOSE ALL of our EXTRACIRRICULAR PROGRAMS!! These programs include, FOOTBALL, CHEER, BASKETBALL, BASEBALL, SOFTBALL, and JROTC. In addition to the extracurricular programs we may lose MUSIC, ART, Physical Education and elective classes.

Here are some facts to consider when deciding how to vote for the override.

Will my taxes increase? No YOUR TAXES WILL NOT INCREASE. The tax override has been in effect since 1982. Therefore, this override will NOT increase your taxes.

How do I know that the money will be spent on the students? The override funds must be implemented according to the districts override plan. Any time you have questions about how the money is spent, you have the right to go to the district office to see how the money is used. I went to the district office and spoke to Joanne Warren about the override. Joanne was more than happy to educate me on how the schools money is used.

I don't have children in school so I see no need to support the school. The students in our schools are the leaders of tomorrow. These children, will in time, be making decisions that will affect all of us. Statistics have shown that children who do not participate in extracurricular activities will find something else to do. Often they get mixed up in gangs, drugs, and alcohol abuse, and we know those choices can destroy their future. We already have a 4-day school week, so with considerably more time on their hands, kids will find something to do. As my dad use to say "Idle hands are the devils playground."

I am currently the president of the JROTC Booster Club and my son is the CO for JROTC. I am also a graduate of Ray High School. As a student I participated in sports, was an officer in the Girls Athletic Association, and a cheerleader. I know from my own experience and from my son's experience just how valuable these programs are. Research has shown that extracurricular activities can help students in many ways. It brings kids together that have the same interests, students achieve better grades, learn social and team building skills, time management, patriotism, honesty, and responsibility. Google "Advantages of extracurricular activities" and you will find pages of articles that will show extracurricular activities are important in developing well-rounded citizens. Participation in sports, music, or JROTC will set them apart from others who didn't participate in extracurricular activities. It can also lead to jobs, scholarships, and college. Extra curricular activities are a win-win situation for everyone.

Over 10 years ago 3 different schools employed me. I worked for Cottonwood/Oak Creek School District for 5 years, Ray Unified School District for 1 year, and Hayden Winkelman School District for 1 year. The positions I had during my employment were Technical Support for 2 of the Districts in addition to teaching computer classes/labs for grades K-8. I know from my own experience of maintaining a classroom, that teachers put a lot of their money into classroom supplies. The budgets were extremely tight 10 year's ago when I was employed. Since that point in time, we have gone through a recession. The schools cannot stretch the money any further. If we don't pass the override, then we are at risk of having to do what the rest of the country is doing and that is go to "pay-to-play" for extra curricular sports. Google "pay to play" and you will find pages of articles stating that many schools across the country are implementing pay-to-play at their schools. In an article titled "Will 'Pay to Play' Become A Permanent Part of Sports?" it was stated that at Lakota Local School District in Ohio the pay-to-play fee is $550.00 per child. At Riverside Local District in Painesville Ohio the fees for cross-country are $521, golf is $715, Football is $783 and tennis was $933.

JROTC was established in 73/74 school years. We are one of the oldest JROTCs' in the state. The JROTC does many public services for this community, which includes 21-gun salute and presentation of the flag to the family at funerals for veterans, color guard for the school and other groups such as CAC and ASARCO, Toys for Tots – supplies toys for kids in Kearny and surrounding areas. This is a group that is known all around the state for their performances and dedication in providing color guards and marching in parades. The students are sent to many leadership camps throughout their four years. Let me ask you how many schools can say that their students have had the opportunity to have a day of training with the Navy Seals? Last year during the annual trip to Camp Pendleton, our students had a day of training with the Navy Seals. The students in ROTC gain respect for our country and the program produces patriotic citizens. Many of our students have joined the forces and are successful in their life due to this program. To lose a program that has been here for 40 years and is apart of this schools history – a program that few schools are chosen for would be unconscionable.

We owe it to our students to give them every opportunity to develop into successful citizens. Vote YES for the BUDGET OVERRIDE CONTINUATION.

Sincerely,
/s/ Ginger Dalton Phillips

Town of Kearny plans Community Clean-Up Day

Kearny - Saturday, Jan. 17 is the day to meet at the Senior Citizens Center to participate in the Town of Kearny Community Clean-Up Day, sponsored by the Town of Kearny in collaboration with the Kearny Senior Citizens.

Come out from 8 a.m. - 2 p.m., to show your pride in the beautiful town of Kearny. Teach your children about community improvement, spend time with friends, and, if you have the need, work toward fulfilling your community service hours.

Bring your own gloves and water; garbage bags will be provided. Contributions of supplies, water, snacks, etc. are welcome.

Items which are not acceptable for the Roll-Off containers are: paint, oil, batteries, trash from a private contractor, toxic materials, cut oleanders, shingles, or household toxic waste.

For more information, call the Town of Kearny at 363-5547.

Superior Chamber will host Night of the Cowboy Nov. 8

Superior Chamber of Commerce will host La Noche de Vaquero, Night of the Cowboy on Saturday Nov. 8, 2014. They will celebrate and honor local cowboys with a dinner and dance!

The event will be held at the Magma Club at 38 Kumpke Court in Superior from 6 p.m. to midnight.

Join the chamber for a cowboy dinner of ribs, beans and coleslaw featuring a special cowboy cookie dessert. There will be horse shoes and corn hole games.

The dance will feature music by Superior's own Bobby Cook and the Ghost Town Band. Bobby played at the Apache Leap days. There will be some really good music to dance to.

Tickets are $25 per person for dinner and dance. Tickets can be purchased at the door or get them early at the chamber office, 65 Main St.. For more information, please contact the Chamber at 520-689-0200.

Yup! Things Don't Work!

My wife, Carol, has a new saying, "Things don't work!" She says this in exasperation when her computer freezes up, when the guide wheels fall off the dishwasher racks, or when the television gets a mind of its own.

This week it was my turn to say, "Things don't work!" The town's filtration plant has been down, and it has taken quite a while to get new parts. This filter removes the sediments from the water, especially the manganese which is so prevalent here. The repair team has been working on the filter this week and all should have been going well. They were, until the State Fire Marshal called for an inspection of the town's fire hydrants.

Well, Chief Piggott complied and, as you know, quite a bit of manganese got stirred up, discoloring the water and leaving sediments in sinks and tubs. Then, on top of that, our new well (yes, the new one!) decided to quit working and we had to call in for more help.

All our fixes and repairs are complicated because the whole water system is now more than fifty years old. Pipes have settled, pipes have become encrusted, and little pockets of manganese are everywhere waiting to be stirred up.

The upshot of this is that every fix stirs up more sediment, and we still have lots of fixes to do in the next few years. We do our best to let people know ahead of time when we flush the hydrants. It's harder to let people know ahead when it's an emergency.

Anyway, thanks for your patience with all this. Here's hoping that our finances will stretch enough to make things better.

Update on EPA investigation of ASARCO Hayden Plant Site meeting held

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

Public meetings were held on Oct. 21 and 22 in Hayden to update the public on the investigation by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) of the ASARCO Hayden Plant Site. The investigation of the industrial areas of the site has been on going for a year. The EPA has been monitoring and sampling air, soil and water in the area to determine the nature and extent of contamination of the environment.

About 35 people attended the meeting including members of ASARCO, EPA, Arizona Department of Health Services (ADHS), Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ), Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR) as well as Hayden/Winkelman residents. Pete Rios, Pinal County Supervisor for district one and Ken Montoya representing Congresswoman Ann Kirkpatrick's office also attended.

John Hillenbrand, EPA Remedial Project manager provided the presentation on the investigation updates. There was a discussion session during and after the presentation. Printed information on the updates and proposed testing for blood lead and urine arsenic in Hayden and Winkelman was made available. Ben Gerhardstein, ATSDR gave the presentation on the planned lead and arsenic testing. Due to findings of arsenic and lead in levels above the EPA standards, free testing of blood and urine for arsenic and lead is being offered to children and pregnant women. (see article on free testing)

Air monitoring systems have been placed in and around residential areas near the plant site. They have measured the air quality for the past year and it has shown that arsenic, lead and cadmium are present in amounts above the EPA's safety levels. The Hillcrest neighborhood and the area around Terrace Hill Drive had the highest levels of concentration of the metals. The air monitoring will continue for another year.

Soil sampling was conducted in non-residential areas of the industrial plant around the smelter and concentrator and outlying natural areas. High concentrates of the metal have been confirmed in the Hayden plant and former Kennecott concentrator. Concentrations of the metals have been found in outlying non-residential areas including arroyos in the area. Hillenbrand said parents should keep their children from playing in those areas.

The drinking water supply wells of Hayden/Winkelman have been monitored and sampled and found to meet EPA drinking water quality standards. Storm water, ground water and river water has been sampled. Stormwater samples collected from the Kennecott wash area showed arsenic, copper and lead greater than EPA standards in the runoff. Pockets of groundwater have showed levels of metals above the drinking water standards. More testing of river water sampling will be conducted.

Most of the soil and water data has been collected and the air sampling will continue for another year. Once all the data is analyzed and information is collected, options for clean up will be determined and presented to the public at a meeting for comment. This should occur in early 2016. After plans are completed for the clean up the clean up of the site will begin. Information repositories for community members have been established at the Hayden Public Library and the Arthur E. Pomeroy Public Library in Kearny. Documents can be reviewed there.

For more information you can contact Sarah Cafasso, EPA Community Involvement Coordinator, 415-972-3076, cafasso.sarah@epa.gov or John Hillenbrand EPA Remedial Project Manager 415-972-3494, Hillenbrand.john@epa.gov. You can also contact Wendy Flood, ADEQ Community Involvement Coordinator 602-771-4410, flood.wendy@azdeq.gov.

More information can be found at the EPA website at: www.epa.gov/region09/AsarcoHaydenPlant or ADEQ website at: www.adeq.gov/enviro/waste/sps/ASARCO_Hayden_Plant.html.

The contact for information at the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry is: Jamie Rayman, Health Educator, Region 9, 415-947-4318, jrayman@cdc.gov.

The EPA held hearings in Hayden last week to help inform the public about the new safety requirements being implemented and how they will affect local employer Asarco.

Kearny Council approves reconnection fee increase, offers employment to new Chief of Police

Mayor Hosler and the Kearny Town Council presented a cash award and certificate to two talented students at Ray Unified School District. Ada Wilhelm was awarded $100 for her poster on how everyone can help keep Kearny beautiful and John Ink won $100 for his slogan. The poster and slogan will be used in marketing materials to encourage residents to participate in community clean ups and other beautification projects.

Mayor Hosler presented Councilmember Neil Gambell with a sculpture as a recognition and appreciation for his service to the Kearny Town Council. Gambell has served the town for eight years and did not seek re-election. His term will end in December. Hosler remarked that Councilmember Gambell was always the go to person on understanding many of the complex issues the town faced in Public Works and also through his involvement in other advisory committees. Gambell will be presented with an 8 year service award from the League of Arizona Cities and Towns in August of 2015.

By Mila Besich-Lira
Copper Basin News

The Kearny Town Council approved a service disconnection and reconnection fee increase and amendment to the Kearny Town Code at last week's meeting. The increase will help improve the efficiency of utility operations. Currently the fee for reconnection is $10 for both the disconnect fee and the reconnect fee. The Council studied this item at the September meeting and it shall take effect within 30 days. The new fee is $35.

After months of searching, the council voted to offer an employment contract to Alfred Alameda as the new police chief for Kearny. The employment offer is contingent upon him passing necessary background checks and health physicals.

During the regularly scheduled meeting the council also approved a road closure request for the Copper Basin Chamber, approved a work contract with the Arizona Department of Corrections for inmate labor, and voted to approve repairs to the old well number 2 and the lake well pump repair.

Elder Yocum's four TDs leads Bearcats to playoff win

Ray Defensemen Desty Yocum, Jeron Coleman and Julian Cruz stopped the Salome runner.
Paul Wormwood | Copper Basin News

By Andrew Luberd
Copper Basin News

Senior quarterback Destry Yocum threw for three touchdowns and ran for another in the sixth-ranked Bearcats first-round playoff victory over the Salome last Saturday night. The 'Cats defeated the 11th-ranked Frogs, 41 - 6.

Yocum, who passed for 167 yards and ran for 85 more, threw one of his three touchdown passes to his brother Cole Yocum, a freshman. Robbin Newman and Jeron Coleman also caught scoring passes from the elder Yocum.

Newman, who also scored a rushing touchdown against the Frogs, ran for 124 yards on 14 carries. Senior Triston Gantt added a 59-yard touchdown run.

Six defenders finished with double-digit tackles including Jose Torres (14), Seth Harmon (10), Destry Yocum (19), Jeron

Coleman (10), Jacob Pace (12), and Steven Lucero (11).

The 'Cats forced three turnovers against the Frogs. Robbin Newman and Wyatt Miller each had an interception in addition to Cole Yocum's fumble recovery.

Destry Yocum (Overall), Robbin Newman (Offensive), and Seth Harmon (Defensive) were named Players of the Game for their efforts.

The victory over the Frogs sets up a rematch for the 'Cats in the second round against third-ranked Pima. The Roughriders defeated the 'Cats in the season-opener, 50 - 25. Just like the opener, Saturday's playoff game is at Pima.

Pima finished their regular season with a record of 7 - 1, their only loss coming against top-ranked Bagdad. Saturday's game will be the Roughriders first playoff game after having a bye last week.

Saturday's game is scheduled for 6 p.m.

Ray Running Back Tristan Gant runs for a 55yd TD.

State tournament up next for Lady 'Cats

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

The eighth-ranked Lady Cats' volleyball team closed out its regular season Tuesday night at Superior. Regardless of the results against the Panthers, the Lady Cats will be one of 16 teams in the Division V State Championship Tournament.

The tournament will take place Nov. 7-8 at the Prescott Valley Event Center.

The first round and quarterfinal matches will be held on Nov. 7 with the semi-final and championship matches being played on Nov. 8.

The AIA's website, www.aia365.com, will stream the 2014 State Volleyball Tournament Selection Show on Oct. 31 at 3 p.m. to announce the teams and bracket pairings.

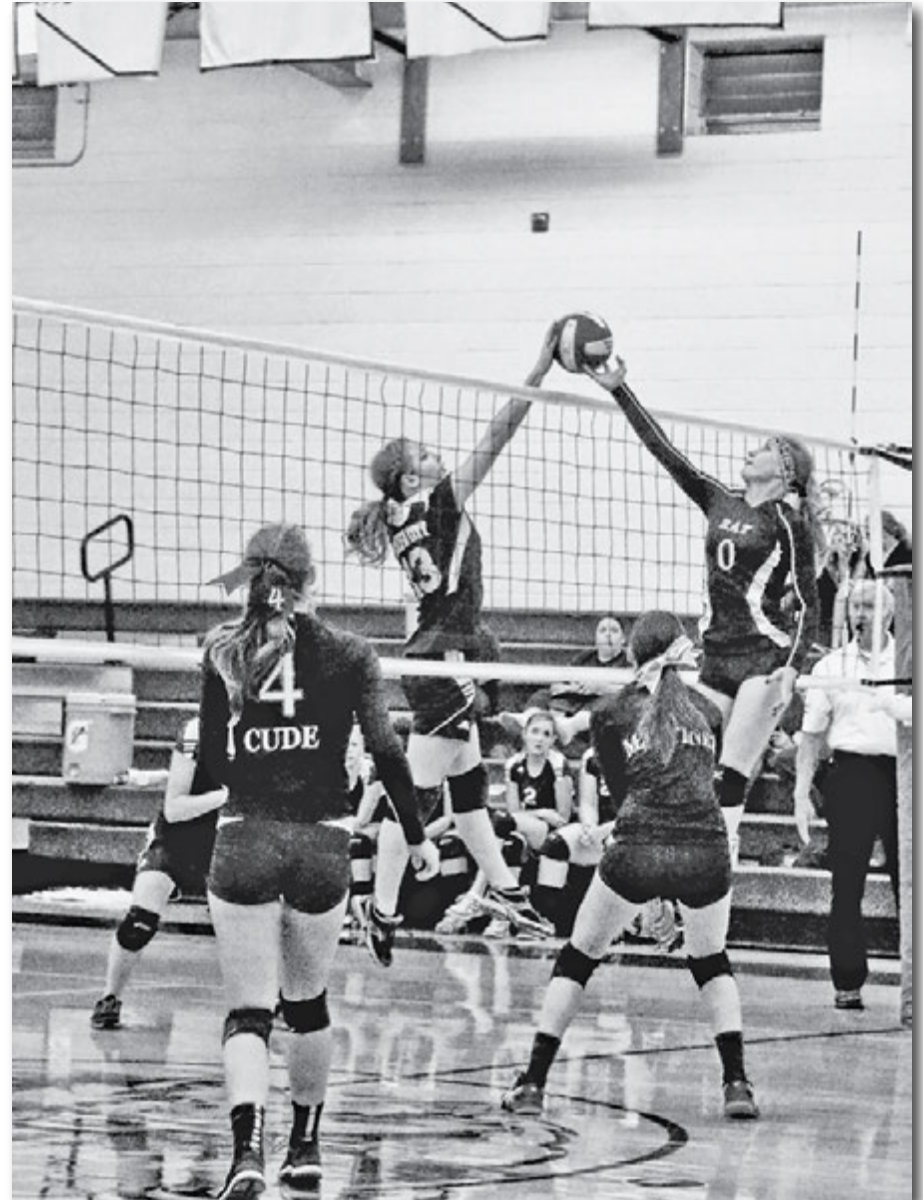

More information on the state tournament, rankings, and the selection show can be found at the AIA website.

Bobby Padilla

Bob Padilla joins the Florence Hall of Fame with brother Art

Florence - Bobby Padilla was excited when he got the call that he would be entering the Florence Hall of Fame for his accomplishments as a Florence High Gopher football player. His nomination was for outstanding performance in high school athletics. An article from the 1956 Arizona Republic, describing the footballs season's preparations of championship contenders (Florence, Superior, Clifton and Eloy) states, "... key to the Florence attack will be All Conference quarterback, Bobby Padilla, a good passer and faker. He will operate behind a trio of veterans in tackles." Conferences in the 1950's were different from today. Almost all schools played each other, regardless of size and balloting, for All Conference was done statewide by coaches, not just within the conferences. The Arizona Class B 1956 and 1957 All State teams included "Bob Padilla who nudged out the state's other signal callers for quarterback honors. The year prior to that Bob and three other teammates from the Florence football squad received honorable mention in the coaches' selection of all conference teams."

As we all age, so does the paper some of our mementos are written on, but, easy to decipher. One clipping with a

Bobby lettered three years in baseball, two years in track, was in FFA, Letterman's Club four years serving as vice president his Junior and Senior years; but, with all of these sports, four years as a football quarterback, starting at age 14, earned him the honors and was his passion. He also holds the record for the most concussions per game, over a span of four years. In those days, when you came to, the coach had you count fingers and back in the game you went. The first day of practice as a Freshman, Coach Cisterna threw a shirt to him with the #52 and that was his for four years. At some point in the late 1950's, numbers for football players were changed to single digit for the backs and quarterbacks.

When playing baseball, his toughest opponent was when, as a batter, he had to face his brother Chaco (Henry), pitcher for Hayden, who was one of the toughest in the conference.

Bob was born in Winkelman. His father died in a mining accident in Tiger when he was one year old. He was in the fifth grade when he moved to Florence with his mother and brother Art. After high school, he worked for Foxworth-Galbreath Lumber Yards in Nogales and Winkelman, and joined ASARCO in the warehouse, until his retirement. He served as president of the Lobo Athletic Booster Club, and, in 1970 - 1973, as a volunteer quarterback coach at Hayden High.

He married his high school sweetheart, Mary Ward, to whom he has been married for 57 years. They have four children: Diane (David), Sandy, Bob (Patti) and Edwina; eight grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

The banquet honoring Bob was Oct. 14, kicking off Florence High School Homecoming. His picture will hang next to that of his brother Art in the Celaya Building on the Florence Campus.

Chicken Drop for 4-H

This confused participant in the Chicken Drop wasn't quite sure what he should be doing. It took awhile for the reluctant rooster to catch on, but he finally did his thing to name a winner. Several other winners, courtesy of hens, were also named throughout the afternoon. All this fun was during the Harvest Festival last Saturday. Proceeds from the drop project benefited the Kearny Koyotes 4-H Club.

Angelo Laguna

July 16, 1982 – October 27, 2012

Angelo, it's only been a little while
Since the day you left our side
So if you hear us crying
It's because we never said goodbye

All of us know that in our hearts
We hold memories of you
The words you'd say, the tricks you'd play
Or the things we'd see you do

Some of us hear your laughter
Others recall your smile
The moments that we'd spend with you
Even for, just a little while

So loving and so caring
You'd greet us with a hug
Then ask for everybody
In the family that you loved

You had a way to joke around
You'd always make us laugh
We never saw you angry or sad
And never, ever mad

You'd greet, you'd hug and talk awhile
And then we'd see you go
We never thought that you'd be gone
How could we ever know

That God had plans to take you home
To be there at his side
While heartbreak, pain, and tears have rolled
For two years from all our eyes

Some of us pray for you each day
While others call your name
Hoping you'll answer us one day
To say that you're O.K.

Your love did send a message home
In a dream our mother had
That calmed the pain she felt inside
So for everyone that's sad

She heard you calling out her name
Then saw you happily
You were dancing in the clouds above
Your spirit seemed so free

She saw the smile on your face
The one we grew to love
You were dancing happily in the clouds
In Heaven up above

We know we'll see you there one day
Where you will greet us home
There's family at your side we know
We know you're not alone

So dance away from cloud to cloud
You're our Angel in the Sky
We'll hold you in our arms again
And we'll never say goodbye

We love you and we miss you
Your memories fill our hearts
Someday you'll greet us home again
And we will never, ever part

Taking the fear out of Halloween for young kids

Halloween can be a fun time of year, but for infants, toddlers and preschoolers, who often can't distinguish between fantasy and reality, scary experiences can ruin the holiday and create long-term fears. Below are tips for minimizing anxiety and helping young kids enjoy Halloween.

Teach kids the difference between real and imaginary. One way to do this is to connect to something kids already do, like playing dress-up or pretend. Talk with your child leading up to Halloween about how people will be dressed up and how some costumes, while scary, aren't real.

Choose costumes and decorations carefully. Something may be cute or funny to us, but uncomfortable, scary or downright dangerous to young kids. Consider how long your child will wear a costume. Avoid masks, which can be scary and restrict vision; try face-painting instead. If your child is old enough, let her help choose a costume.

Practice for trick-or-treating. This is more than just what to say to get candy. Talk about holding hands when crossing the street and going only to well-lit homes. Remind kids that some people will be strangers, but that you will be with them the entire time.

On the big night. Go trick-or-treating early in the evening. Stay with your children always. If your child is fearful, don't tell them to not be afraid. This invalidates their concerns and may prevent them from expressing anxieties later on. Remind them that you are there to protect them.

Choose treats wisely. Hard candies, gummy snacks and caramels get stuck in tiny teeth and can cause tooth decay. The best selection of treats is plain chocolate, which melts easily. In addition, look out for very small treats or toys with small parts, which can be choking hazards.

Make holiday learning fun. Engage your child in family traditions, like baking seasonal favorites or carving pumpkins. Read books about Halloween. Talk about your past Halloweens and ask kids to share what they like about the holiday.

By following these simple tips, we can make this time of year fun for the entire family, especially those new to Halloween.

Sam Leyvas is the Chief Executive Officer of First Things First. He can be reached at sleyvas@azftf.gov.

It's important to remember young children when choosing costumes or decorations.
