United Food Bank mobile food distribution in Kearny more vital than ever; next one scheduled for Nov. 1

Every month on the first Friday, United Food Bank delivers a truckload of food to Kearny for folks in need. The food bank typically serves around 80 people each month.

This month, due to the ongoing strike at Asarco's Ray Mine and Hayden Smelter, United Food Bank will be bringing additional food to assist families impacted by the prolonged strike. The food bank estimates that nearly 1,700 people are impacted by the strike.

The Copper Basin is part of Mesa-based United Food Bank's 19,000-square-mile service area and is served by a mobile food distribution on the first Friday of each month. United Food Bank expects to serve 300 people at the next distribution event.

The next food distribution is set for Friday, Nov. 1, at 8 a.m. United Food Bank will distribute food until 10 a.m. or when the food runs out. To accommodate the anticipated increase in people served, United Food Bank has made arrangements to move the distribution site from the courthouse where it normally has been held to Church of the Good Shepherd at 617 Senator Chastain Rd.

There are no income requirements to receive the assistance.

"If you are hungry, we want to feed you," a representative of the food bank said.

Area residents who would like to help defray the transportation costs of bringing additional food assistance to Kearny can donate at www.unitedfoodbank.org.

Hayden advances; Lobos face longer and tougher road in Quarterfinals

By Andrew Luberd
Copper Basin News

The No. 5 Hayden football team easily defeated No. 12 St. David last Friday in the opening round of the 1A State Championship playoffs, 48 – 6. Now the Lobos will make the more than three-hour trip to face No. 4 Salome this Friday.

“(The team) played well,” Hayden head coach John Estrada said. “(We) executed and got the job done. Our younger players got a lot of playing time which is always good for the future of our football program. It also allowed some of our starters to rest and heal.”

Indeed, the Lobos are banged up, as they have been all year. Still, they’ve persevered and expect the same as they move on through the playoffs.

“It’s been an uphill battle all season with injuries,” said Estrada. “Our kids have handled the adversity very well which defines our team.”

The No. 4 Frogs enter Friday’s game with a record of 6 – 2, with their only losses to No. Williams and No. 2 Bagdad. “Salome is a sound team with some seasoned players,” Estrada said. “Their skilled players are very quick and fast. They run a lot of misdirection plays and throw the ball well.

“We beat them last year in the quarterfinals (36 – 14). I’m sure that will be a big motivator for them. They’ll be hungry and we will need to play at our best.”

Despite the injuries, Estrada said his team needs to focus on what it does best. He also believes the Lobos are playing their best at the right time of the season.

“Last Friday’s game looked more like Hayden football,” he said. “That’s our plan this Friday, play Hayden football.

“We’ve had to make a lot of adjustments during the season to our offense and

“Each year, the Great Pumpkin rises out of the pumpkin patch that he thinks is the most sincere. He’s gotta pick this one. He’s got to. I don’t see how a pumpkin patch can be more sincere than this one. You can look around and there’s not a sign of hypocrisy. Nothing but sincerity as far as the eye can see.” (Linus from It’s the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown)

Each year, kids of all ages head to Kearny to visit our own Great Pumpkin. Judges see the costumes and choose winners in each age group for Cutest, Funniest, Scariest, Most Creative and Best Group/

Family.

This year was no different. The judges had their work cut out for them naming this year’s winners. And here they are:

- 0-2 age group: Cutest, Snow White and the Little Chicken (tied); Funniest, Joe Dirt; Scariest, Chucky; and Most Creative, Sloth.
- 3-5 age group: Cutest, Scarecrow; Funniest, Chicken; Scariest, Chucky; and Most Creative, Autumn Princess.

Most Creative, Hardworking Woman and the WWI Pilot. 10-13 age group: Cutest, Cheetah; Funniest, President Trump and the Mexican; Scariest, Dead Softball Player; and Most Creative, Invisible Man.

Best Group/Family: Cutest, Carousel Horses; Funniest, Dumb and Dumber; Scariest, Evil Twins; and Most Creative, Sheriff and Prisoner.

This year's judges were Donna Hatfield, Kristina Ruiz, Jennifer O'Brien, Jean Hamilton and Becky Dunn. The awesome Dave Orzell hosted the event.

Editor's Note: This year's Great Pumpkin was more chaotic than usual. Some of the winners weren't pictured because the kids were excited for Trunk or Treat and left before our photographer could get their photos. We also were unable to put names to the kids, so the winners are listed by their costume.
