OBITUARY

Nancy Joy Babcock Fitch

Nancy Joy Babcock Fitch (October 4, 1927, Riverside, California) died at home in Oracle October 25, 2015.

Nancy has been described as "a wonderful, determined and thoroughly interesting person." In high school, intrigued with architectural design, she enrolled in a draftsman class. She was told that, as a woman, the highest grade she could receive would be a "C". Despite that grade, she was the top recommended student for summer employment at a local firm experiencing loss of skilled draftsmen to WWII. Skipping the final year of high school she set off by train at the age of 16 to enroll in the University of Chicago. She graduated in 1947.

Nancy married Walter S. Fitch (d. 2013), another UC graduate (BA 1948, PhD 1955). She became a resident of Tucson in 1951 when Fitch joined the University's Astronomy Department. Nancy did little public architecture but spent a lifetime as a creator of space for her family and others. All the residences of Nancy and Walter were lovingly redesigned with extravagant attention to detail and artisanship resulting in wonderful physical places in tune with their environment. Those homes were frequently decorated with her own artwork. Nancy gave just as much attention to creating emotional space from which each of her children could venture to explore beauty, structure, and travel the world. It is due to Nancy that the family became avid backpackers of the S. Az. mountains.

In Tucson Nancy was variously employed as a homemaker, modern dance instructor, and draftsman. In the 1970s she owned and operated a small plastics products business. Stubbornly overcoming a tremendous fear of water she became an enthusiastic sailor. She was a member of the Tucson Sailing Club as well as a women's club, Entre Nous, and the American Association of University Women. In Oracle she was a book club member and served on the community boards of the Oracle Library and Biosphere 2. As recently as six months ago she was musing over what she wanted to be when she "grew up".

Preceded in death by her husband, Walter, sisters Beth MacIvaine and Margaret Heers, and son-in-law Gene Houghton, she is survived by her children and their spouses (Selena Fitch Billington and Jim Dewey, Stuart Tod and Leslie Fitch, Alanah Fitch and Al B. Benson, III, and Sandra E. Houghton), and her grandchildren (architect Erika Fitch-Benson and Adam Babcock-Fitch Benson). Her quiet empathy resulted in an extended and loving circle of Oracle friends including Dolores Armstrong, Desiree Sanchez, Guadalupe Altamirano, and Amanda Jacquez and their families who grieve her passing.

Contributions to her charity of choice, the Tri-Community Food Bank (108 W. Redwood Drive, Mammoth, Az., 8518), would be appreciated. A celebration of her life is planned for Saturday Dec. 12, 2015.

CCAB: Making a positive difference in our community

A group of like-minded people remembered how our areas looked when they were growing up, and, decided to get together and form the group Copper Community Action Board (CCAB).

CCAB is trying to make a positive difference in the Copper Basin area, by uniting the communities and

Protecting our pets

San Manuel pets are at risk. As the weather gets colder, the rodent population in the desert is drawn to warmer locations, like our homes, garages, sheds, etc. In an attempt to rid ourselves of these unwanted guests many of us put out traps, and, in some cases, poisons such as Decon. The action of these poisons is to cause the rodent to bleed to death internally.

Unfortunately, these poisons put our pets, especially our kitties, at risk. Since mice are natural prey for cats, when a cat (even a well-fed house cat) finds a dead or dying mouse that has eaten poisoned bait, they will likely catch and eat it. As a result, they, too, will die the same excruciatingly painful death suffered by the mouse. I have witnessed a 12-year long friend and companion cat of mine become a victim of such a heartbreaking, horrific death. There is no way to recognize your pet's distress until the poison has broken blood vessels allowing bleeding throughout their body.

However, there are ways to protect our feline population. First, we can keep them in the house or a cage, if they don't succeed in escaping. Some cat owners harness and tether their cats just as others do their dogs. For other cats, they just will not allow such restrictions. Even fences don't stop their escape. On their own, they often learn the dangers of cars, big dogs and, sometimes, wild animals such as coyotes, but, there is no way a cat can recognize the danger caused by a poisoned rodent.

Even if you are not a cat lover, are allergic to them, or just don't like cats, all of us need to respect the feelings of our neighbors who may own a cat and restrain from use of such poisons. Mouse traps work well and don't present a grave danger for our beloved family members.

Sincerely,

making them a better place to live. We want to clean up our areas, encouraging businesses and people to move to our communities; but, money is needed for our efforts.

CCAB is hosting its Third Annual Community Concert on Saturday, Nov. 14 at 5 p.m., at the Hayden High School Auditorium. The cost of admission is $5. Proceeds will go towards community improvements. Concessions will be available, supporting the Hayden-Winkelman Unified School Students in their fundraising efforts for their trip to New York City.

Come out and have a great time, listening to local talent! If you cannot attend, volunteer! Find out when the CCAB is having their next project, roll up your sleeves and join us! Together, we can be part of the solution instead of the problem.

Rev. Gilbert Padilla

Rev. Gilbert Padilla, a priest with the Diocese of Tucson who ministered to Catholics in Tucson and other communities within the Diocese died Thursday, Nov. 5. He was 86 years old, Padilla's ministry lasted 60 years. He served at or pastored parishes in Tucson, Tempe, Nogales, Avondale, Willcox, Bisbee and Mammoth, Ariz.

A letter written by former Diocese Chancellor June Kellen to Father seems to aptly sum up Father Padilla's work:

"You . . . are one in a million. You always answer God's call to take care of the sick, the homeless, the weak and the poor and for that I am so grateful. You personify what a priest should do when he takes his vows before the bishop and our Lord."

Many Catholics will remember Padilla's ministry as pastor and friend, especially Msgr. Robert Fuller, his dear friend, high school classmate and tennis partner.

"(Rev. Gilbert) was very dedicated as a priest. He was concerned primarily with serving the people. He did it in the spirit of Pope Francis, reaching out in mercy and including as many people as he could and not excluding anybody," Fuller said. "I knew him since 1948. We were in the seminary together. He was one year ahead of me. We were spiritual allies. We shared our lives together. He was a very holy man. He would spend hours in prayer. He was totally obedient to whoever the Bishop was. He was asked to serve once in Avondale and he just went up there and did it. He was a great character. He had a good death too. We had just finished praying the rosary."

Padilla was born in Morenci, Arizona on Sept. 25, 1929 to Joseph C. Padilla and Sophia Doak. He attended Immaculate Heart School, before later attending Sam Hughes Elementary and Mansfeld Junior High (now Middle) School in Tucson. He graduated from Tucson High School and left Tucson to attend Our Lady, Queen of Angels minor seminary in Los Angeles. He went on to attend St. John's Seminary in Camarillo, Calif., and was ordained for the Diocese of Tucson at Sts. Peter and Paul Parish on April 27, 1955 by Bishop Francis J. Green.

He did post graduate work in Notre Dame and also the University of Seattle where he received his Master's Degree in Religious Education.

Padilla began his ministry at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish in Tempe, in May 1955 and served there until June 1962, when the Phoenix area still was part of the Diocese of Tucson.

He also served as parochial associate at Sacred Heart Parish in Nogales and as administrator pro-tem at St. John Vianney Parish in Avondale before the Diocese of Phoenix was formed in 1969. He went on to become pastor at Sacred Heart Parish in Willcox, at St. Patrick Parish in Bisbee, at St. Ambrose and Holy Family parishes in Tucson, and at Blessed Sacrament Parish in Mammoth before retiring in June 2000.

Padilla received a Community Service Award for Outstanding Leadership and Community Commitment from Chicanos Por La Causa for his work in opening the basement of Holy Family Church for use to provide services to the homeless.

He was President of the Priest Council from 1969-70, and served as the Vicar of Cochise Vicariate, the Vice Vicar and Vicar of Pima Central Vicariate, the Executive Secretary in the Province of Santa Fe and an Executive Board Member of National Federation of Priest Councils.

Padilla never slowed down after retirement. He continued to be a very active clergy support priest covering Masses at St. Frances Cabrini, St. Ambrose, St. John the Evangelist and St. Joseph parishes in Tucson and many other parishes.

Throughout his life he took an interest in the spiritual needs of the faithful.

Many knew Padilla to be an independent thinker and published writer who expressed his ideas about the life of priests and the Church in articles for the National Catholic Register, the Arizona Daily Star and in the diocese's Catholic newspaper.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Margot Padilla Reckart, and a brother, Joseph Doak Padilla. He is survived by his nieces and nephews: Elena Long, Timothy J. Reckart (Jane), Diana Reckart Miles, Marla Reckart (Larry Cronin), and Laura Marie Reckart (Bruce Bowers). He also is survived by 15 grand nieces and nephews and a great niece and a great nephew, as well as his aunt, Sister Corina Padilla, O.P.

A rosary will be said on Friday, Nov. 13 at Saint Augustine Cathedral Parish, 192 S. Stone Ave. Visitation will begin at 5 p.m. The rosary will begin at 7 p.m.

The funeral Mass will take place at the Cathedral on Saturday, Nov. 14, at 10 a.m. with internment at Holy Hope Cemetery after Mass. The cemetery is located at 3555 N. Oracle Road in Tucson.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Supervisor's response to alleyways problem is much appreciated

Speaking for the 70 San Manuel residents who signed the first letter to Supervisor Pete Rios, we'd like to thank our Supervisor for resolving the problem we were having with our alleys not being maintained by Pinal County. Mr. Rios has gotten the county to access the problem areas, and they will soon start the repairs and continue the maintenance process.

Other areas of concern were also addressed. County Supervisor Rios has let us know that the county is looking into the deteriorating buildings in town, street repairs have started, and median maintenance is also being dealt with.

Mr. Rios has stated that he'd like to have a town hall meeting to listen to other problems in our community from a larger group of people. We look forward to finding out when this will happen. Once again, we thank Mr. Rios for his help and supporting our community.

Visiting the Carlink Ranch

By Nina Crowder
San Manuel Miner

Many students from San Manuel's First Avenue Elementary School and the Mammoth STEM School enjoyed a beautiful sunny day at the Carlink Ranch in Redington last week. The Carlink Ranch has been in operation for 131 years raising cattle, crops and families. Owners Andy and Stefanie Smallhouse enjoy having the youth visit and showing them the day-to-day operations of the ranch.

Ranch employee Levi Tuck drove a tractor pulling students in a large hay wagon while Stefanie explained the ranch and sustainability of ranching and crops to the students on the hay ride. There are several different crops grown at the Carlink Ranch including alfalfa hay, oats and wheat. While on the hay ride several students were able to observe coyotes in the hay fields. They also observed the horses and cattle on the ranch.

Andy demonstrated the procedure they have used at the Carlink Ranch for making bio-diesel. He also gave all the students a chance to sit in the big ranch tractor and look at the way the tractors are operated for work on the ranch. Water and soil conservation practices were also explained to the students.

Rose Medina demonstrated the use of mesquite flour from mesquite seed pods and other plants in the area that can be used for healing and nutrition. Rosa made mesquite tortillas for each of the students. There was also fresh honey and prickly pear jelly to add to the tortillas. All the students enjoyed the information and fresh treat!

Harmony Wormwood was able to talk with the students about products and bi-products that can be produced from ranches. The students were also able to see some wildlife and learn about the animals that live in different environments as well.

In all it was an educational and fun day for everyone! Special thank you to the Smallhouses and their employees for taking the time with the students and teaching everyone about ranch life!

Andy Smallhouse gives students an up close demonstration of a tractor.

John Medley to speak at Acadia Ranch Museum

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

John Medley has been collecting crate labels for close to 40 years. He has one of the largest collections in Arizona and has an extensive knowledge about crate labels, their art and history as well as the history of produce growing in Arizona. John's desire to acquire and preserve produce box labels originate from his family's work history as well as John's work experiences and his connection to the arts through his wife Karen. Karen is an artist/potter and taught art at San Manuel High School for many years before retiring.

John's parents worked directly in the fresh produce industry. John worked as a produce manager while his wife was attending school, studying to be an art instructor. The Washington State Apple Commission supplied stores with vintage apple crate labels from the 1950s for in store advertising. John liked the art work and took some extra ones home to show his wife. He then became interested in collecting labels.

He went to retired managers and foremen from various citrus packing companies. Some of them gave him multiple copies of labels, allowing him to trade with other collectors. As he met more collectors his interest grew. He also developed a curiosity in about the history of the produce business which he saw in the changing of the art work of the labels.

John has collected over 550 different sweet potato labels. His oldest label is an Arizona Brand by the Arizona Orange Association. It was created in 1900. John considers the crate labels as "some of America's best examples of 20th Century commercial art. He has a book that has been published "Images of the Sweet Potato: An American Art Form".

John will be giving a lecture at the Acadia Ranch Museum on Sunday Nov. 15, 2015 at 2 p.m. The award winning presentation "An Illustrious History of Commercial Row Crops in the Arizona Desert" won the Barry Goldwater at the 2015 Arizona History Convention for Best Convention Paper.

Oracle School District Showcase at Support Our Schools AZ's Education Excellence Expo

The Oracle School District was one of only three Southern Arizona districts that showcased a program at Support Our Schools AZ's (SOS AZ) first-ever Education Excellence Expo on Oct. 24, 2015 at Salt River Fields. According to SOS AZ, this expo was held to help promote their vision that "public district schools are an optimal choice for the children of Arizona."

The event was a great success with 25 public school districts participating and numerous sponsoring businesses. The objective: "a visual and experiential display of the accomplishments and achievements of Arizona Public District Schools" was more than achieved and is just a start toward encouraging a broad public conversation in favor of public education in Arizona.

The Oracle School District showcased its "Cosmo Kidz" program. The idea behind Cosmo Kidz is to provide time each day (without cutting into the core curriculum) for teachers to lead brief discussions about how children can talk about and act into their social worlds more skillfully. The goal of Cosmo Kidz is to help children SOAR. SOAR stands for: Sense what's around you; Open your hands to help others; Act with kindness; Respect other people. Teachers spend 5-10 minutes during the school day to reinforce this message to their students, often using puppets to demonstrate the concepts.

The program was first piloted during the 2013/2014 school year at Oracle's Mt. Vista Elementary School and only one other school in the nation. Results have been very positive and the researcher who brought the District the program was able to get a grant from the Kettering Foundation to keep the program running, now for the third year.

Windy Messing, a kindergarten teacher at Mt. Vista Elementary, lauds the program for the positive impact it has on her student's social skills and in building their compassion for others. "It has made my students more aware of how their actions impact others" she said, "and since much of their success in school depends on their ability to get along with others, I see Cosmo Kidz as a good foundation builder."

It is unique programs like Cosmo Kidz, combined with high expectations, caring staff and small town roots and values that drive the Oracle School District's mission "to expand expectations by providing an innovative and boundless educational environment that develops adventurous learners and responsible citizens."

District at www.OSD2.org and about the new Oracle Schools Foundation at www.OracleSchoolsFoundation.com.

Knights to host taco dinner

Since local Knights of Columbus do not have a Fry's or Safeway store, they will sponsor a taco dinner this Saturday, Nov. 14, to support People with Intellectual Disabilities.

Most KofC Councils hand out Tootsie Rolls in front of grocery stores or other businesses for their PID drive, taking donations from generous passers by, according to KofC District Deputy Drew Mansager.

"Our taco dinner last year allowed us donate nearly $600 to help people with intellectual disabilities in our area. We should top that this year. Everyone in the Tri-Community is invited," said Grand Knight Johnnie Seballos.

"We will be selling three tacos, rice and beans for $7 from 4 to 7 p.m. at Blessed Sacrament hall in Mammoth. We will have take out too," he added.

Funds from the PID drive are donated to public schools' special education programs, St. Joseph Youth Camp and Southern Arizona Special Olympics to name a few recipients, according to Mansager.

Last year, statewide, the Knights of Columbus donated over $150 thousand to numerous organizations who help people with intellectual abilities, according to State PID Chairman, Ken Gallagher.

"We want to do our part, even if we are a small Council," Seballos said.

Council 5542 serves Mammoth, San Manuel and Oracle.

Andrea Castaneda, left, and Patrick Lopez both ran in the state meet.

Cards of Thanks

Thank you all so much for attending Arturo Ramirez's funeral. Our family really appreciated your presence during this very difficult time.

Your concerns for us family meant a great deal to us. We appreciate all the loving support and words of kindness everyone has extended to us during this period of sadness. Thank you for your prayers and donations; they were a blessing.

We appreciate every single one of you who came to the service and participated in assisting our guests. The list of names is far too long, but know that we will be forever grateful and will not forget you when you reach out to us. May the good Lord bless you all in abundance.

Special thanks to Father Wally, Deacon Bill Romero and the choir of Blessed Sacrament Parish.

Thank you, All of the Arturo Ramirez Family

Swimmers are limited to swimming 2 individual events and 2 relays or 1 individual event and 3 relays.

The Girls Medley Relay team of Senior Rebekah Head, Freshman Gianna Sweeney, Freshman Darien Apuron, Sophomore Raya Woods, and Senior Mariela Canisales qualified as first alternate but ultimately did not get to compete. Gianna Sweeney and Darien Apuron, two outstanding Freshman Girls, both qualified in several events and were able to choose the two individual events they competed in. Darien Apuron swam the 100 Butterfly and 500 Freestyle to 26th and 32nd place finishes, respectively. Gianna Sweeney swam the 200 IM and 100 Breaststroke to 25th and 20th place finishes, respectively. The coaches were in agreement that the Girls team gained some valuable experience, since this was the first time Miners Girls had competed at the state championship meet.

Of the seven Miner Boys that swam at the meet, six had been there before. Freshman Michael Primero-Predgo joined Sophomore Will Newman, Junior Michael Garcia, Junior Colbey Stratton, Junior Robert Sweeney, Senior Jacob Christian, and Senior Taylor Woods to return to the Championship Meet. On Friday the Medley Relay Team of Primero-Predgo, Christian, Garcia and Stratton finished 30th with a time 2:00.19, with each swimmer swimming a personal best time in each relay leg. Taylor Woods narrowly missed a School Record in the 200 Freestyle (1:56.48 for 25th place) while breaking the School Record he held in the 100 Freestyle with a time of 51.62 on his way to a 22nd place finish. Jacob Christian swam a personal best time of 5:33.96 in the 500 Freestyle for a 28th place finish. Colbey Stratton swam a great 100 Butterfly on his way to a 32nd place finish.

Several Miners qualified for Saturday finals with great swims on Friday. Will Newman achieved top 8 finishes in both the 200 Individual Medley (2nd place, 2:00.74 School Record) and 100 Backstroke (5th place, 55.43) to advance to the Championship Finals. The 200 Freestyle Relay team of Stratton, Woods, Sweeney, and Newman advanced to the Consolation Finals (9th, 1:35.18) and the 400 Freestyle Relay team of Stratton, Woods, Christian and Newman advanced to the Consolation Finals (9th, 3:31.61).

"Having Newman advance in the top 8 in both individual events and having both Freestyle relays (200 and 400) advance to the finals fulfilled many team and individual goals," said Head Coach Alex Gort.

On Saturday, Will Newman entered the 200 Individual Medley (IM) as the number 2 seed after a fabulous swim in Friday prelims. The IM is always an exciting race because as swimmers work through each of the four strokes, each swimmer shows his strength. Newman's outstanding Butterfly and Backstroke had him in front at the midpoint of the race, however the strong breaststrokers and pure size of the upperclassmen were too much to hold off in the Freestyle and he finished in 4th place for a medal (top 4 places medal in High School Championships).

The Boys 200 Freestyle Relay team of Stratton, Woods, Sweeney, and Christian finished in 16th place with a time of 1:38.32.

Newman set a new school record in the 100 Backstroke with a time of 54.59 on his way to 3rd place finish and a bronze medal.

In the final event of the meet, the Miner 400 Freestyle relay team of Stratton, Woods, Christian and Newman won the Consolation Final Heat with a school record time of 3:27.11 (breaking old record of 3:29.42 by over 2 seconds) to place 9th.

Coach Alex Gort was proud of the team's performance at the meet.

"We gained some valuable experience for the Girls Team," he said. "The Boys Team built on the experience gained from last year and had great swims. Newman came home with the first medals from a Division II High School State Swimming Championship Meet in school history. Seniors Taylor Woods and Jacob Christian had great swims at their final High School meet. Both boys swam personal best times in every event and were tremendous on the relays."

The boys finished with 51 points and finished in 15th place overall. Four school records were broken and Newman came home with two Medals. By any measure it was a fantastic finish to what was a great season for Miner Swimming.
