OBITUARIES

Michael Dion Esquivel

Michael Dion Esquivel, 38, passed away on Oct. 30, 2014. He was born on Sept. 29, 1976 in Tucson. Michael is survived by his fiancé Cristi Hopper, his daughter Macey Esquivel, his parents; Betty and Larry Esquivel, his maternal grandmother; Mary Lou Hunsaker and grandfather Martin Esquivel, and his siblings; Marcos, Moses, Monica, and Laurissa Esquivel. Michael looked like your typical man, but he was a blessing to his family. He is known as a wild and crazy outdoors man. Though, in the end, when he wasn't out having an adventure; Michael was home spending quality time with his family. There wasn't anything he'd rather have than being happy with his family.

His work included driving, Michael claiming that he hates to drive. Although, the 18 years of being together; Michael and Cristi explored many parts of Arizona due to Michael's secret passion for driving. During those drives, music of Michael's was constantly played. He had an interest in so many different types of music, there's no way the family could not find a beloved song that Michael loved. No matter what, his family always stuck together. Michael was God's gift to his family, but now it is his time to return.

Funeral Services were held Friday Nov. 7, 2014, 11 a.m. at Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints of Kearny, Ariz. with burial at Kearny Memorial Cemetery. Online Guestbook: www.GriffithMortuary.com.

School budget override initiatives are approved by voters in Superior, Kearny and Oracle

By James J. Hodl
Copper Area News

For school districts in north and eastern Pinal County it was like winning the trifecta as voters approved, by mostly hefty margins, all three tax override initiatives to support their maintenance and operations budgets that were on the Nov. 4 ballot.

Voters approved the 15 percent override request by the Superior Unified School District (SUSD) by a 369 Yes to 234 No vote (61.2 percent in favor) and the 15 percent override request by the Oracle Elementary School District (OESD) by a 2,606 Yes to 2,258 No vote (53.6 percent in favor). The 10 percent override request by the Ray Unified School District (RUSD) in Kearny also was approved on a 443 Yes to 253 No vote (63.7 percent in favor).

Under Arizona law, school districts can ask voters to increase the basic funding (budget) allocated by the Arizona legislature by up to 15 percent. These overrides are authorized by voters for only seven years. If not approved for another full term after the fifth year, the tax override is reduced by one-third in the sixth year, two-thirds in the seventh year, and reaches zero in the eighth year. Override funds come from increases in local property tax rates.

Happiest at the approval of his district's 10 percent override was RUSD Superintendent Curt Cook.

"We were blessed with the support RUSD received from the community," Cook said. "We had the biggest turnout at the polls. The citizens saw our need and the kids are the big winners. We will reward their support by doing an even better job in educating our next generation."

Unlike other districts, RUSD relied entirely on a word-of-mouth campaign to get the override passed. Rather than hiring consultants and forming PACs, RUSD relied on parents who promised to get the word out to at least five other people, who in return were asked to further pass the word to at least five more people. According to Cook, they got the people who value education out to the polls.

The 63.7 percent winning margin for the RUSD override was the greatest of all override proposals on the ballot in the mining areas this year.

Despite getting funding to continue existing programs, RUSD has still had to make changes in recent years to live within the revenue it has been budgeted, Cook explained. One change involved going to a four-day school week, with students attending school only Monday through Thursday but going longer hours of from 7:55 a.m. to 4 p.m.

For SUSD, approval of the 15 percent override enables the district to continue funding schools at its current level.

"We're happy not to have to find ways to trim $83,000 from the budget that would have occurred in the sixth year of the override enacted in 2009," said SUSD Superintendent Patrick O'Donnell. "This means we can keep class sizes at a ratio of about 20 students per teacher and not eliminate any classroom aids. We also can keep computers in our elementary schools and not have to downsize Physical Education classes."

One of the positions that SUSD had been considering for elimination should the override failed and the district was forced to economize was the full-time physical education instructor.

"We are overjoyed at the level of support SUSD received from the community and will do our best to reward their confidence in us to provide the best possible education to local students," O'Donnell added.

Also ecstatic about the Nov. 4 vote was OESD Superintendent Dennis Blausner, especially since last year's attempt to continue the district's 15 percent override fell 52 votes short.

"I'm absolutely thrilled at the outcome," Blausner said. "Everybody involved in the override effort worked hard to get the message across about what good education means to the community. This effort was especially effective among the retired people in our community; for whom schools may be an abstract idea. We educated them as to the value of schools and how having good schools benefits them, and they voted for the override, putting it 352 votes over the top."

Approval of the override restores the funding lost when the referendum failed last year and OESD had to trim its budget by nearly $154,000 during the first reduction year. OESD can thus resume programs it dropped last year, including art and music, though the district will have to find qualified teachers to head these programs to replace those who were let go and moved elsewhere.

Had the override not passed, OESD might have had to trim its budget further, which could have resulted in fewer teachers, large class sizes, and the loss of physical education classes.

Elsewhere in the area school tax override referendum fared worse. While the Casa Grande Union High School District and the Eloy Elementary School District received voter approval, those in Coolidge, Maricopa and Queen Creek saw their initiatives rejected. However, an $80 million bond issue to build new schools was approved in Queen Creek.

Central Arizona College honors veterans

By Nina Crowder
Copper Area News

The Student Leadership of Central Arizona College (CAC) held a spaghetti dinner in honor of the local veterans. The Kearny ROTC attended in their military gear to show their support to our veterans. The guest speaker who has been inducted in the Arizona Veterans Hall of Fame served in the US Army and is currently a member of the American Legion Post 48, Joe Aguilar.

Aguilar said, "It is an honor and privilege to speak at this college regarding Veterans Day, I have been here the past three years and I enjoy coming. To me anyone who wears a title and is a veteran we are proud of them. We love them, we are grateful for their service we are their friends, families, coworkers it's up to us to make sure every veteran is appreciated by their fellow Americans. The easiest way to thank them for their service is to walk up to them and offer a handshake and thank them for their service to our country."

Aguilar also read the following poem, "A Simple Soldier":

He was getting old and paunchy and his hair was falling fast and he sat around the Legion telling stories of the past, of a war that he had fought in and the deeds that he had done in his exploits with his buddies; they were heroes, everyone. And 'tho sometimes to his neighbors, his tales became a joke, all his buddies listened, for they knew whereof he spoke. But we'll hear his tales no longer, for old Bob has passed away and the world's a little poorer, for a soldier died today.

No he won't be mourned by many, just his children and his wife, for he lived an ordinary very quiet sort of life. He held a job and raised a family, quietly going on his way; and the world won't note his passing; 'tho a soldier died today.

When politicians leave this earth, their bodies lie in state, while thousands note their passing and proclaim that they were great, papers tell of their life stories from the time that they were young, but the passing of a soldier goes unnoticed, and unsung.

Is the greatest contribution to the welfare of our land some jerk who breaks his promise and cons his fellow man? Or the ordinary fellow, who in times of war and strife, goes off to serve his country, and offers up his life? The politician's stipend and the style in which he lives, are sometimes disproportionate to the services he gives, while the ordinary soldier, who offered up his all, is paid off with a medal, and perhaps a pension small.

It's so easy to forget them, for it was so long ago that our Bob's and Jim's and Johnny's went to battle, but we know it was not the politicians, with their compromise and ploys, who won for us the freedom that our country now enjoys. Should you find yourself in danger with your enemies at hand, would you really want some cop-out with his ever waffling stand? Or would you want a soldier who has sworn to defend his home, his kin, and country, and would fight until the end?

He was just a common soldier and his ranks are growing thin, but his presence should remind us, we may need his likes again. For when countries are in conflict, then we find the soldier's part is to clean up all the troubles that the politicians start. If we cannot do him honor while he's here to hear the praise, then at least let's give him homage at the ending of his days. Perhaps just a simple headline in the paper that might say:

"OUR COUNTRY IS IN MOURNING, FOR A SOLDIER DIED TODAY."

Written by A. Lawrence Vaincourt 1985

As the attendees enjoyed Aguilar's speech and the spaghetti dinner prepared for them. Everyone enjoyed a real treat as Andrew Madrid took out his guitar and shared a story of his brother being in the armed forces and he wanted to find a way to thank his brother for his service, so he wrote and sang a beautiful song dedicated to his brother.

The Veterans Event was well attended and the CAC Student Leadership prepared a nice celebration. Thank you for all the people who attended and the hard working Student Leadership for volunteering their time to make special events like this one take place.

Voters send Kirkpatrick back to D.C.

By Mila Besich-Lira
Copper Area News

Congresswoman Ann Kirkpatrick, the Democratic candidate for Congressional District One, has secured her seat to return to DC.

Kirkpatrick has been elected to her third term. However, this is her first time to have two consecutive terms.

Kirkpatrick beat Republican Andy Tobin with 52.23% of the vote. Tobin received 47.34%.

During her service to CD1, Kirkpatrick has been instrumental in protecting jobs in the district and in the Copper Corridor. She introduced the Southeast Arizona Land Exchange and Conservation Act which is needed for the Resolution Copper project and has been working with the Environmental Protection Agency to finalize the repairs at the Hayden smelter. She has also worked on the VA reform bills to help ensure that Americas veterans are receiving the care they deserve.

Barbara McGuire was leading the race for Senator of Legislative District 8 with 50.70% of the votes. She was just ahead of Republican Irene Littleton who had 49.11% of the votes. At press time a winner was not declared in this race as final vote counts have not been submitted by Pinal or Gila counties.

Larry Bravo faced write in candidate David Orzell for the Superior/Kearny Justice of the Peace. Bravo the incumbent won his seat with 69.27% of the votes. The write in candidate votes received were 30.73%. While it is assumed that all the write in votes went to Orzell, Pinal County does not provide a breakdown of other names that could have been submitted as a write in vote. Nancy Discher beat Gary Graham for the Oracle Justice of the Peace and Arnold Estrada ran unopposed for San Manuel/Mammoth/Dudleyville Justice of the Peace.

Henry Velasquez ran unopposed for the position of San Manuel Constable as did Mike Sloan for the position of Oracle Constable. Three candidates vied for the position of Superior Constable: Chris Alvarado Sr., a Democrat, won this position with 59.90% of the votes. Trailing him in the race were John Reilly Breneman with 27.77% and Jack Orozco with 11.79%.

The race for the two positions on the Superior School Board has been tight since Tuesday night with the front runner changing on a daily basis. Five candidates were vying for the two positions which split the vote extensively in this race. At press time Pinal County election results showed that Catherine Sommer was the lead candidate with 381 votes (24.14%) with Ignacio Max Magallanez having 367 votes (23.26%) of the votes. Nathan Duarte was close behind in third place with 347 votes (21.99%), Yolanda Najera-Ewing, the incumbent in the race, received 251 votes (15.91%) and John Tameron was in last place with 230 votes (14.58%). This race has not been determined at this time.

Kearny Council Welcomes New Member

Next Monday, November 17, at 7:30 p.m. the Kearny Town Council will hold its regular meeting, and Nancy Hinojos will be sworn into office as a Council Member. She will be a welcome addition. She has deep love for Kearny and the whole Copper Basin, and has been very active in community affairs. Earlier this year, David Herrera was appointed to fill out an unexpired term of office, so he and Nancy are our newest members.

Both Nancy and David will soon be attending a conference designed for them. Offered by the League of Arizona Cities and Towns, it is two days of immersion into the intricacies of municipal government, including such things as conduct of meetings, the Open Meeting law, ethics in government, and financial affairs.

MAYOR'S CORNER

By Sam Hosler

Special to the Copper Basin News

It was less than three years ago when I went to the conference, and I still make use of the thick binder and many other materials from the gathering. I am thankful that the annual gathering of the League of Arizona Cities and Towns provides continuing education for the mayors and council members of Arizona. The swearing-in will be one of the first items on the agenda, and Nancy will immediately take her place on the Town Council.

There will be a full agenda on Monday, much of it having to do with engineering and financial issues surrounding our aging water delivery infrastructure. Our interim Chief of Police, Chris Vasquez, will be on hand to make his first public safety report to the town.

No matter how full the agenda, one of this first things is always the Call to the Public. This is the time for town residents to make inquiries about town affairs which are not already on the agenda, to suggest a possible course of action, or simply to seek an answer to a question. At its best, the Call to the Public can serve to stimulate new and helpful ideas as well as improve the flow of communication.

I hope many people will be present at Nancy's swearing-in and will witness the rest of the meeting as well. The best government is that which is closest to the people.

A final note: I will miss the wise counsel of Neil Gambell, who completed his second term on Town Council last month. He was always a patient and constructive influence, and his engineering knowledge helped us on many occasions. Thank you, Neil.
