Pinal County voters mostly elect incumbents in 2016 election; but McGuire loses State Senate seat

By James J. Hodl
Copper Area News

It was a good day for incumbents on November 8 as nearly all who ran were reelected by voters in Pinal County, according to the unofficial returns released by the county Board of Elections.

The sole exceptions were State Sen. Barbara McGuire and Kearny Mayor Sam Hosler.

McGuire, who has held the state senator position in Legislative District 8 for several terms, was unseated by Frank Pratt, who moves up from LD8 State Representative, by a vote of 20,453 for Pratt to McGuire's 18,453. McGuire was the only Democrat representing a portion of San Tan Valley in the Arizona State Legislature.

Replacing Pratt as one of the two state representatives in LD8 was David Cook, who topped the field with 20,164 votes. Thomas (TJ) Shope was reelected with 19,196 votes. Carmen Casillas finished third with only 16,876 votes.

In the runoff for Mayor of Kearny, Debra Sommers again topped incumbent Sam Hosler 293 to 281 votes. Both finished in that order after the August 30 Primary, but because Sommers did not receive 50% of the total vote, the top two candidates were put into a runoff.

Neither Kearny mayoral candidate has commented on the outcome pending the official results, which the Pinal County Board of Elections said will be announced on November 28.

Pete Rios defeated Thomas Sorensen by 5,362 to 4,540 votes to win reelection as District 1 County Supervisor and remain the only Democrat on the Pinal County Board of Supervisors. The other candidates, all Republicans,

Voters Have Spoken, New Mayor to Take Office in January

The people of Kearny have chosen Debra Sommers to be Mayor of the town. She will take office in January, and new Council Members Rose Bradford and Samantha Misita will be sworn in on the same day.

It was a close election. Unofficial results show 724 votes cast, with 372 for Sommers and 352 for Hosler.

I congratulate Debra. She has 12 years of previous experience serving as Mayor of Kearny. She is bright and knowledgeable and I know that she has our best interests at heart. I offer to work with her over the next two months so that the transition will be a smooth one.

Many students of Ray High School are working with our Journey for a Clean Kearny group, making plans for teams of students who will offer their services to clean yards and vacant lots. There is a need for equipment to help them in their work. Any citizens with some loose bills in their pocket are invited to call Town Manager Anna Flores (363-5547) to make the purchase of two lawn mowers and string trimmers possible. Another way to help is by donating rakes, hoes, and shovels for the use of the students. Simply bring them to Town Hall.

Residents who would like to have their yards or lots cleaned may call Town Hall and give their name and address. A date for the cleaning will be arranged.

The Kearny Town Council will hold its regular meeting on Monday, Nov. 21. The busy agenda includes the canvass of the recent election, a presentation by Ken Hall (the Director of the Central Arizona Governments), a presentation on Pinal County's United Way by Manny Bowler, ran unopposed. New to the Board from District 2 is Mike Goodman, who defeated incumbent Cheryl Chase in the August 30 Primary. Re-elected incumbents are from District 3 Stephen Miller, District 5 Anthony Smith and District 5 Todd House.

Of the two contested countywide positions, Republican Mark Lamb was elected Sheriff, defeating Democrat Kaye Dickson by 43,684 to 32,210 votes. Republican Douglas Wolf also won reelection as County Assessor, defeating Democrat Jacqueline Minto 43,980 to 29,621 votes.

Unopposed candidates elected are County Attorney Kent Volkmer, Treasurer Michael McCord, Recorder Virginia Ross and School Superintendent Jill Broussard.

Democrat Tom O'Halleran won election to the U.S. Congress in Arizona Congressional District 1, which includes most of Pinal County and runs north to the northeast corner of the state. In the entire district, O'Halleran received 110,894 votes to 93,004 for Republican and former Pinal County Sheriff Paul Babeu and 12,326 for Green Party Candidate Ray Parrish. However inside Pinal County Babeu received 650 more votes than O'Halleran.

Republican David Farnsworth rolled to an easy victory over Democrat challenger Scott Prior to win reelection as LD16 State Senator on a vote of 38,870 for Farnsworth to 21,462 for Pryor. For LD 16 State Representatives, Republicans Doug Coleman (35,489 votes) and Kelly Townsend (35,565) were re-elected over Democrats Sharon Stinard (18,609) and Cara Prior (17,583). Coleman was the bigger vote getter in the Pinal County and San Tan Valley section of the district than Townsend, who dominated the vote on the Maricopa County side of the district.

In the runoff for the fourth council seat in Mammoth, Bart Goff won with 132 votes to Frances Wickham, who withdrew from the race before November 8.

There was jubilation in the J.O. Combs Unified School District as the proposed $38.8 million bond issue rolled to a lopsided victory. But although the vote was 3,614 votes Yes to 2,192 No, Combs Superintendent Gayle Blanchard is holding off making a victory statement until the official tally is announced; perhaps hesitant because a similar bond issue in 2015 appeared to have won by 36 votes only the have the official results that eliminated some twice-counted ballots, resulting in a 16-vote loss.

The Combs bond issue will be used for school and building renovations, including the construction of additional classrooms, technology upgrades, new classroom furniture, and better student transportation. Bigger ticket items include a new maintenance/transportation facility and a 600-seat community auditorium/concert hall adjacent to Combs High School on Germann Road.

But there was no joy in the Queen Creek Unified School District (QCUSD) as its $95 million bond issue suffered a 6,027 NO to 4,435 YES defeat. Voter and taxpayer fatigue may have contributed to the rejection as QCUSD had enacted a 15% override and another bond issue during the past two years.

The bond issue would have been used to build two additional elementary schools and a second high school in the district to accommodate student enrollment currently rising at more than 10% a year, said Crystal Korpan, QCUSD chief financial officer.

No decision has yet been made on whether another attempt to win bond approval will be made next year.

Camille Bentley, center, at the Elks Soccer Shoot.

Camille Bentley, who is 9 years old and a second grader at Ray Primary School, is a straight shooter. And a champion.

Camille participated in the Kearny Elks Soccer Shoot on Sept. 29 and took first place in her age group.

That win advanced her to the regionals on Oct. 9 in Casa Grande.

Her kick was true and she took first place at Regionals in her age group.

That win advanced her to the state championship Nov. 13 in Tempe.

And guess what? She did it again.

Camille brought home the first place trophy from the state finals of the Elks Soccer Shoot.

Understandably, her parents, Ginger Chester and Joseph Bentley of Kearny, are proud.

We are too! Way to go, Camille!

Thanksgiving Traditions - Is it the meal, the memories or the leftovers?

By Mila Besich-Lira
Copper Area News

It seems the years keep flying by, faster and faster. Each year as the holidays arrive, there is anticipation of tasty foods, family gatherings, parties and gift giving. From the first Thanksgiving until today, food plays a significant role in the holiday; the act of breaking bread and sharing a meal has become symbolic in our culture. Whether its and elaborate meeting of leaders, a business meeting, lovers or family members food plays a role.

We thought about just providing a few recipes for leftovers but quickly the discussion changed into what is your favorite Thanksgiving food, do you have a favorite dish that you use your leftovers for? I asked a few of our community members what is their favorite dish and why.

Superior Councilman Michael Alonzo said his favorite Thanksgiving food was his Nana

Vicky Alonzo's turkey and stuffing. For Melissa Rabago, of Resolution Copper, her favorite dish is the stuffing, every year she makes the recipe that her mother-in-law, Dora Rabago gave to her.

Lucy Wing a local food expert said her favorite part of Thanksgiving is eating the Turkey wing. "My husband and I fight over the wings (every year)," she said. She explained that he was a little upset that this year, she plans to only cook a turkey breast. "It is less calories," she said. Lucy recommends making a simple turkey pot pie using vegetables, chicken gravy and a single pastry crust for the top for left overs or even a turkey tetrazzini which uses leftover turkey, Alfredo sauce, mushrooms and fresh veggies along with pasta base.

Susan Anderson, President of the Superior Chamber of Commerce said her favorite Thanksgiving dish was the turkey dressing and gravy.

If this was some kind of scientific survey, the stuffing or dressing would be the winner. My grandmother Mickey Preciado made a one of kind dressing, there wasn't a secret recipe it was a little bit of this and that, days old bread and parsley. Her turkey wasn't the focus of the meal, it was the hope of having leftover ham for "Ham Noodles" which is our family favorite leftover, simple at best: some spaghetti noodles, chopped up ham cooked on the stove, diced boiled eggs and green onion. It was simple but even today that is a special recipe reserved for those holiday leftovers. Her recipe just like most families held the secret ingredient of love and gratefulness that is probably what made these special dishes, extra good.

In the publisher's household, Cranberry Apple Salad is the favorite. Even the teenagers request it be put on the table. A double batch ensures enough for leftover snacking.

From our family to yours, everyone at the Superior Sun, Copper Basin News, San Manuel Miner and Copper Area News wishes you an extra special Thanksgiving!

AmazonSmile Foundation supports SaddleBrooke Community Outreach

Do you shop on Amazon.com for holiday gifts or other items? Would you like a percentage of your purchase price to help needy youngsters in our area? Then AmazonSmile Foundation is for you!

When you are ready to shop, go to smile.amazon.com. Millions of items are eligible for a 5% donation to SaddleBrooke Community Outreach (SBCO), and are marked "eligible..." on the product detail pages. All your current accounts remain the same, which includes shopping cart, Wish List, registries, and other account settings.

AmazonSmile donates the 5% on the purchase price, minus whatever rebates you might have, and does not include shipping, handling, gift wrapping fees, taxes or service charges. Because Amazon is making the donation to SBCO you cannot claim it as a tax deduction. Watch for special promotions that might increase the amount you "gift" to SBCO. Imagine the impact your purchases can have on the lives of our neighboring youngsters!
