Town of Kearny seeks local residents to guide future growth

By Tyler Bingham
Town of Kearny

The use of planning and zoning by our local government are intertwined with Kearny's history. During the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s and 60s, Kearny was in its infancy. Founded in 1958, our town was one of the first in the nation to be planned with absolutely no segregation. Our culture has always been inclusive, and although we have had our struggles, Kearny remains a shining example of just how similar we all are as a people.

Today, it feels as if we have come to an inflection point.

It is no secret that our town has seen better times. Seeing the downward trajectory does nothing to inspire us. Unfortunately, this is a positive feedback loop that results in even further apathy. Luckily, we have tools in local government that can help break this cycle.

Planning and zoning were one such set of tools used to integrate our community in the years running up to 1958, and they can be used for positive change now and into the future. Planning gives our community a common goal to build towards. It requires vision and temperance. Finding a plan we all agree with is hard! But the challenge brings us together and allows us to see the wishes and concerns of our neighbors while weighing them with our own.

Zoning is simply applying our plan to the community using districts that define how land can be used. This gives builders a clear understanding of intended future growth and keeps conflicts to a minimum amongst residents. Without zoning, it would be extremely difficult to guide the growth of any city or town in a direction that pleases the majority.

These are such powerful and far-reaching tools of the government, that no one person is entrusted to wield them. In Kearny, we have a Planning and Zoning Commission and a Board of Adjustment, each made up of seven residents to guide our built environment into the future. We currently have multiple openings in both groups, each waiting to be filled by a Kearny resident aged 18 or older.

If you are interested in applying for an appointment to either the Planning and Zoning Commission or the Board of Adjustment, please submit a letter of interest to Kearny Town Hall. You can also email your letter to townmanager@kearnyaz.gov if you prefer. Don't miss this opportunity to help use some of the oldest tools in local government to encourage healthy growth in our community!

Hayden coaches expecting great things this year

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Copper Area News

The Hayden High School boys and girls basketball teams are ready to face the 2023-24 season.

"I am excited for the start of basketball season at Hayden High School," said boys head coach Ramon Gonzales.

"We have continued to work throughout the summer with conditioning, participating in open gym and joining basketball summer leagues in Tucson and Apache Junction to help strengthen our athletes and teams. We had a good season last year, earning region champions and making it to the quarter finals," he said.

"We are short some great seniors from last season, but I feel confident in our returning seniors this year, Deondre Collier and Keiston Pool. Our juniors Paul Gaither, Joshua Manriquez, Jose Fong and Frank Contreras are ready to take the roles as upperclassmen, work hard and set the tone and provide great examples to lead the team. We have a talented group of eight sophomores that really stepped-up last season when called up and played key roles in games that included Mario Hong, Tyler Garner, and Kino Lorona."

Gonzales continued, "This year the Lobo Spirit, pride, and hunger to excel is at an all-time high from our boys winning the Baseball State Championship in the Spring and ending the fall football season as 2023 Football State Champions. Our basketball varsity and junior varsity players and coaching staff are ready to start the season and continue to give it our all to represent our school, community, and Lobo family at every game. I encourage you to come out and watch these teams play with their Lobo Pride!"

Girls head coach Jacque Pool is just as excited.

"I look forward to this season with five returning players including only one senior, Alexis De Los Reyes," Pool said. "I have six new players to the team, majority of them freshman. We had a good summer playing in summer leagues and in a tournament. I was able to start the freshman off early and get them ready for the regular season. I am expecting a strong defense. My players need to be quick on their feet, have good court awareness, and communicate well to effectively defend against our opponents. As for offense, movement is crucial to be successful. My players need to constantly be moving, passing, and setting screens to create open shots and lanes to drive to the basket. Having a balanced offensive attack can keep the defense guessing and create more opportunities for the team to score. But perhaps the most important factor for a winning season is teamwork. My players need to trust each other and work together to achieve their goals. This means communicating on the court, being unselfish with the ball, and supporting each other both on and off the court. When a team has a strong sense of camaraderie and unity, they can accomplish great things together."

The Lobos and Lady Lobos began their season on Friday, Nov. 17, with an away game at The Gregory School. The girls suffered a tough loss of 28-45, while the boys team also took the loss in their 44-64 game. But they undoubtedly gained some valuable experience playing as a team for the first time.

The boys and girls are scheduled to compete in the Boyd Baker Tournament at Amphi High School starting on Nov. 20.

Low numbers means lots of hustle for small Lady Panthers team

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Copper Area News

The Superior High School girls basketball team is gearing up to kick off their 2023-2024 season.

The girls on this year's team will definitely need to eat their Wheaties.

"This is going to be a challenging season because I have six girls," returning coach Manuel Ortega commented. "Yes, that's right. Six. I have three seniors, two sophomores and one freshmen. Having six players, our biggest expectation is to get in shape. I have always said, 'There is being in shape, then there's being in basketball shape', and now there's being in sixth-man shape. I am returning four out of the six, but I have no returning starters. It had been an adjustment at practice to adjust to do things for six players. The six I have so far have been working very hard, and they are up for the challenge. They are not making excuses and their effort so far has been great."

Those six players are seniors Sussan Mancinas, Yeritzel Romero and Kayleigh Rogers; sophomores Lillianna Fritz and Stephanie Lopez; and freshmen Victoria Casillas.

The girls will kick off their season with an away game against Mogollon on Wednesday, November 29, with a start time of 5:30pm.

The Superior boys basketball team is also getting ready to jump into the season. Coaching the team will be Mario Lopez. The boys began their season with an away game on Nov. 21. The boys traveled to Apache Junction to take on the Prospectors. Information on this game was unavailable at press time.

Turnout good for Mike McKee Memorial

The family and friends of Mike McKee are hosted their annual car show on Saturday, Nov. 18, on Main Street in downtown Superior. The show featured vintage cars and trucks which competed in 19 different classes, a good turnout despite the rainy weather.

Mike McKee was an active member of the community and loved classic cars and car races. He was well known as one of the best storytellers to all who knew him. He would gather a crowd on the bench at the Superior Chamber of Commerce during his volunteer shifts on Thursdays.

Mike passed away in 2019 and this event is held to honor his memory and to raise funds for scholarships for Superior High School graduates in his honor.

Mural revealed honoring Vietnam Veterans

By Mike Montiel

Commander, American Legion Post 17

A town as old as Superior carries with it rich history and traditions. One history as old as Superior is military service, and one tradition as old as the town is honoring our veterans.

On Saturday, Nov. 18, a coalition of Vietnam Veterans, Veterans, community members, contributors, family members, and supporters gathered to cut the ribbon on the embodiment of the selflessness and sacrifice those men and women who served during the Vietnam War, one of the most tumultuous times of our nation's history, brought to life by artists Myron Starr, Erica Raymond, Sam Bindle and Andrew Betom.

The Mural was the vision of local Superior resident Sonny Cruz, a Vietnam Veteran who understands personally the toll of the war and the healing process a project like this has for many people and our community.

The event was well attended by locals and visitors to our community. Each person, whether young or old, walked away from the experience with a deeper understanding of the sacrifice those brave souls made and the necessity to honor all Veterans who have passed from this world but also all Veterans who have served and giving them the respect and admiration they have always deserved.

Thank you to the following organizations: American Legion Post 17, American Legion Honor Guard from Post 41 and their Auxiliary, VFW Post 1704, VFW Post 3584, and the Christian Motorcycle Association Chapter 1024.

- What is something you and your family do on Thanksgiving?

Stirling R., who is 6 and attends Ray Elementary School, said he and his family “have turkey for dinner.”

Winston G., 6, has a non-traditional dinner and has fun over the holiday. “We eat chicken and play Mario,” he said. Winston is in kindergarten at Ray Elementary School.

Riley M., who is 5 years old, spends time with her family. “Gramma and Grandpa come over,” she told this reporter. Riley attends school in Kearny.

Lane D., 5 and a kindergartner at Ray Elementary School, has lots of company for Thanksgiving. “All my friends and my parents’ friends come over and we hang out.”

Charlie C., 5, told Copper Area News: “We go somewhere and we eat a lot of food.” Charlie attends school at Mammoth-San Manuel Schools.

Maria E., also age 5, said she spends time with family. “We don’t have Thanksgiving. We go to the pumpkin patch,” she said. “We go to my house and play with my cousins.” Maria is a kindergartner at Mammoth-San Manuel Schools.

We have a history of practicing water conservation and sustainability that sets us apart from other states in the Southwest. In the same way that water conservation and sustainability secure the future of water and land resources for generations to come, shopping local in Superior secures the future in economic growth for generations to come. Shop Local – It's a Small Business Season

As the holidays approach, we will be checking our lists and, much like Santa, checking them twice. We can all avoid being on Santa's naughty list, by shopping local this holiday season. Across the entire Copper Corridor, there are a variety of places to shop, dine and create experiences that keep your dollars local.

It is estimated for every one hundred dollars you spend at a locally owned small business, $68 of those dollars stay in the local economy and save you time and money when you do not have to drive into the metro areas. Local small businesses are invested in the local community and local sales tax dollars help the local municipalities fund important community services.

We wanted to provide some holiday gift buying ideas that can easily be purchased across the Copper Corridor.

Traditional gifts, things for mom and dad, grandparents, with stores like Random Boutique in Superior and Ranch Girl Gear have housewares and ladies' clothing. Ace Hardware in Kearny and the True Value in Superior, have assortments of tools and gadgets for those on your list that enjoy DIY. Likewise the Ace Hardware and Mammoth Lumber in the Tri-Community also are great places to shop for the DIY-er in your life.

Sue & Jerry's Antiques in Oracle and Picket Post Antiques in Superior have a variety of antiques and unique local gifts. Looking for a unique and educational toy? Rolling Rock Gallery in Superior has a wide assortment of educational and STEM-based toys in Superior. You may also find a one-of-a-kind handmade item or items to fill a gourmet gift basket for the foodie in your life at the Oracle Patio Cafe Market.

Many are beginning to give the gift of experiences. Why not purchase a gift card to a local ATV rental store, for a day of adventure exploring nature? Peppersauce Motorsports & Rentals and Superior UTV are great places for these adventures. Tickets to the Biosphere in Oracle or the Boyce Thompson Arboretum are also unique, one-of-a-kind, experience gifts and both have gift shops that have many great gift ideas. How about a gift certificate to the AZ Zipline Adventures in Oracle?

Many of the local restaurants in our communities sell gift cards. Pick up a few from your favorite restaurants and share the gift of a meal. Bella's Marketplace in Superior has an assortment of gifts from many vendors but is also well known for their fresh foods!

For those foodies in your life, local grocery stores are also carrying special holiday gifts, and if you are looking for local foods, visit the Farm to Fantastic Market in Superior for local hand crafted gifts and foods. The Life Under the Oaks Lavender Farm has many locally grown lavender products and if you are looking for Arizona wines, Bruzzi Vineyard in Superior has their 2023 vintages for sale along with Arizona honeys, Ramona Farms products and local olive oils.

Picket Post Antiques has some wonderful items for sale perfect for gifts.

Arizona Zipline Adventures is a great experience gift.

Small Business Season opens in Superior

The Superior Chamber of Commerce is excited to announce Small Business Season!

New this year, the Chamber is launching a program to support small businesses. This program began on Nov. 13 and ends on Dec. 31. Throughout the holiday shopping season, the Chamber is encouraging consumers to “Spend Local” and earmark at least part of their holiday spending in support of local small businesses.

Superior’s small businesses are the first to support our community with donations and prizes for community events. They are the first to step up and support all of our non-profits with money, volunteer time and donations. It’s always a great time to support them.

“Small business is the backbone of our economy. 64% of our new jobs in the US come from small business. When people spend their dollars locally, more money stays local. On average, for every $100 sent locally, $68 of that stays here,” said Jessie

Got a car lover on your shopping list? Maybe stop by NAPA in Kearny for some stocking stuffers.

SMALL BUSINESS

Holiday flowers and poinsettias are also great gifts that can be ordered from local florists Queen Bee Flowers in Kearny and Rose’s Roses in Superior. Local artists often feature their work for sale in different stores and art galleries across the region.

Looking for something handmade? Consider attending one of the many craft sales in the Copper Corridor. Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church in Mammoth will have a Christmas Market on Dec. 2, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Come and do some Christmas shopping, enjoy good food and visit with fellow shoppers. There will be a variety of homemade items such as blankets, wreaths, baked goodies, crocheted and knitted goodies, ornaments, Christmas decorations, and many other unique items. These are wonderful one-of-a-kind items that you won’t find in the stores. Come and find great deals while supporting local artisans Obviously purchasing every gift locally isn’t always possible, but even shopping online and having those gifts delivered to your home will help to generate sales tax dollars for your community.

Arroyos, Chamber Director.

“By implementing Small Business Season, we hope to encourage people to patronize all sorts of small businesses this holiday. In addition to our wonderful retail options, there are dining establishments, personal service providers, even local artisans that need our support. Small Business Season is a way to help our residents develop a better appreciation for how their spending affects our area and quality of life.”

In addition to increased marketing efforts, the Chamber is planning the following events:

Buy Local – Win Local – Every time you spend at the small business you have the opportunity to enter in a raffle. Each week raffle items will be drawn.

The Superior Chamber of Commerce is challenging everyone in the area to support small business this holiday season.

Participating businesses include: Bruzzi Vineyard Tasting Room, Random Boutique, Rolling Rock Gallery, All Things Desert, Art 145, Bella’s Marketplace and Café, Rose’s Roses, Felicia’s Ice Cream Shop, Picket Post Antiques, Porter’s Saloon & Grill, Magma Hotel, The Superior Barmacy, De Marco’s Pizzeria, Los Hermanos Restaurant, Buckboard Restaurant, Southwest Towing, RNC Fleet, Superior UTV Rentals, Save Money Market, Superior His/Her Hair Company, Brick House Bakery, Superior Skin Care, The Valiscla and Estillo Sonora.
