LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Remember others this holiday season

It is the time of the year, again, as the holiday celebrations are taking place, to reflect on the good things in life. As we gather with our families and friends, it is also a time to remember those that struggle during the holiday times. There are many families that struggle to keep this time as a joyous occasion. The pressure of providing a good holiday dinner and Christmas gifts can be trying, at times.

I Just want the people to be aware that there is, among us in our small community, the less fortunate. This Thanksgiving, the Superior Food Bank has provided some of the fixings for a Thanksgiving dinner to needy families. Our market, over the years, has worked very closely with the food bank, in trying to find closeouts of food products or special food deals, so it can be distributed locally.

As always, there is never enough food for those in need I was shocked by the number of Thanksgiving food boxes requested this year. The leadership informed me that over 250 families made requests and were delivered to. I was also informed that this organization touches over 1,000 residents in our community. We only have 2800 people living in our small community. That is almost 36 percent of our population in need.

The food bank was able to provide 250 food boxes for Thanksgiving.. These boxes included a turkey and some of the fixings to go along. This would not have happened if it were not for the Superior Food Bank.

If you are planning to make an end of the year contribution of sorts, maybe try to direct some of those funds to the local food bank. It could be your next door neighbor that is in need. For now, at least 250 families are enjoying a Thanksgiving dinner.

God bless you and God bless our community.

Resolution Copper Mining completes deepest single lift shaft in America

Superior, Ariz. – Last week the Resolution Copper Project accomplished a key milestone completing construction of 28 foot diameter shaft 10 to final depth of 6,943 feet (2116.2m). The company has used this project to gather geotechnical information needed to design a mine that is expected to produce 25 percent of the nation's copper demand. Construction of the shaft began in 2008.

"The completion of this 1.3 mile deep vertical shaft is truly unprecedented in North America," said Tom Goodell, General Manager of Shaft Development for the Resolution project. "The safe completion of the project represents a great engineering achievement, and I am particularly proud of the team – made up mostly of miners from this area – who made it happen."

Cementation, a contract company with expertise in safe underground mine development, supported the project, using a largely local workforce.

Mike Nadon, senior executive with Cementation said, "Cementation is extremely proud of our site team who showed total commitment to the goals throughout the project. Their hard work, perseverance, and commitment to safety has put them in a class of their own."

The completion of shaft sinking is a key milestone in developing what could be one of the world's leading copper mines.

"Resolution Copper is one of the most attractive, undeveloped copper deposits in the world. It will bring jobs and meaningful economic and community benefits to the entire region," said project director Andrew Taplin. "We have invested more than $1 billion to date in the project and most of that investment has been used to sink the exploratory shaft to full depth. Now, we are focused on working with regulators and the community to finalize our plan of operation and earn the permits we need to responsibly and safely develop and operate a world class copper mine."

Project Quick Facts

- 1.52 million man hours to complete
- 475,000 tons of rock excavated
- 50,000 cubic yards of concrete
- 13 miles of pipe

Superior student named as finalist in Pinal County Anti-Drug Poster Contest

Late last week, Aubreanna Nunez, a student at John F. Kennedy Elementary School in Superior, was named as one of the finalists in the 2015 Pinal County Anti-Drug Poster Contest.

On Thursday, in front of a packed house, Pinal County Attorney Lando Voyles revealed the winners of the 2015 Anti-Drug Contest.

Cindy Furukawa of Eduprize was the grand prize winner. Her poster will be displayed throughout various businesses, schools and law enforcement agencies across the county.

Paulina Loza of Ellsworth Elementary School was the bookmark winner and Alexia Acevedo of Superstition Mountain Elementary School was the t-shirt winner.

Aubreanna and five others were named as finalists: Jesus Santiago, Dylan Carothers and Quentin Apolar, all from Red Rock

Elementary School; and Heidy Palomino and Steffanie Flores, all from Mountain Vista Middle School in San Tan Valley.

Former Dallas Cowboys player, Darryl Clack, was the event's guest speaker. He shared his life stories, including the time he tried drugs and the choice he made as to why he was never doing drugs again. He spoke to the kids about the struggles they will face throughout life when it comes to peer pressure and why it's important to choose your friends wisely.

Voyles agrees. "Kids are the foundation of our community. We must teach them the difference between right and wrong at an early age. I want to thank the parents and teachers for educating their kids on the importance of their choices. We are all in this fight against drugs together."

More than 900 students across Pinal County participated in this year's event.

The posters were narrowed down to 60 and then the top nine by a selection committee. All 60 winners were invited to the ceremony and all were recognized for their wonderful art work.

The Pinal County Attorney's Office would like to thank the chiefs from Florence, Coolidge, Apache Junction and Maricopa police departments for attending. Also, a thank you to the Florence Boy Scout Group 904 for the posting of the colors, the owners of the Windmill Winery, the Fudge Shop and the Pinal County Sheriff's Office Explorer Troop for helping with parking.

Pinal County residents urged to take survey

FLORENCE - Pinal County leaders want to know: "How are we doing?"

The County is conducting a Citizen Satisfaction Survey that began on Tuesday, November 18. The survey will run until Friday, Jan. 23, 2015.

"We ran a Citizen Satisfaction Survey in 2010," said County Manager Greg Stanley. "We contracted with National Research Center to conduct the survey. They mailed out 3,000 surveys to residential addresses within the county."

Stanley added that the response rate was 35 percent.

"What we are doing this time is going online," the County Manager stated. "This will allow us to reach more residents and it is much cheaper than hiring a firm to do the survey for us."

The county is going through Survey Monkey to conduct the poll. Residents can access the survey at: <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/pinalcounty>. There are a total of 40 questions in the survey ranging from rating county services to getting an opinion on county taxes versus services offered.

"These are virtually the same questions that were asked in 2010," Stanley said. "We have the baseline numbers, this next survey will tell us if we have improved or regressed as a provider of mandated services."

Frequently asked questions about the survey:

- Is the survey available in Spanish? We are working on that now and anticipate having a Spanish version available soon.
- I'm a winter/temporary resident, should I/can I complete the survey? Yes, we encourage that.
- I don't have computer access at home, can I still complete the survey? Yes, you can use any computer to complete the survey including County Libraries.
- There are several people over 18 in our household, can we all complete a survey? Yes.

SUSD thankful for the community

The Superior Unified School District hosted a community Thanksgiving dinner last week. The second annual event was held under the solar panels in the parking lot. Students from all grades and their families enjoyed a turkey dinner with pumpkin pie. The event was made possible by donations from throughout the community.

Resolution Copper gives to Superior Food Bank

Several staff members from Resolution also helped with the sorting and packing of the boxes. The Thanksgiving meal food boxes were distributed last Thursday, just in time for the holiday.

Arboretum's 'Fall Foliage Finale Festival' Thanksgiving Weekend

Pistachios are approaching their prime color this week at Boyce Thompson Arboretum - just in time for the popular Arizona State Park's annual "Fall Foliage Finale Festival" Thanksgiving weekend Nov. 29-30.

BTA is open Thanksgiving Thursday until 4 p.m., and all-day of 'Black Friday' for visitors who prefer peaceful gardens, birds and butterflies - over big box stores and doorbusters.

How's the foliage this year? BTA staff have been answering that question for the past few weeks and will tell you that while the Honey Locust and Jujube trees have already shed their bright yellow canopies of leaves, the more famous Chinese pistachio trees are predicted for peak foliage somewhere between Nov. 25-Dec.5, most likely at their loveliest the weekend of Thanksgiving, and for about 7-10 days following.

Consider an outdoor Thanksgiving meal in the picnic area - visitors can use BBQ grills adjacent to table watch for the family whose annual tradition is to sit down to their holiday meal dressed as Pilgrims and Indians.

Thanksgiving weekend Nov. 29-30 brings a festival with live music by West Valley recording artist Scott Schaefer (flute, didgeridoo, guzheng) and guest accompanists. Carry a little cash; volunteers serve hot spiced cider and donuts near exhibits by arts and crafts vendors both days of the weekend, with events from about 10 a.m. to 3 p.m..

Death changes everything!
Time changes nothing ... I still miss the sound of your voice, the wisdom in your advice, the stories of your life and just being in your presence. So no, time changes nothing.

I miss you as much today as I did the day you died. I just miss you!
Love, Dina
