OBITUARIES

Angel Diaz

Angel Diaz (Michael) passed away on Nov. 18, 2019 with family at his bedside. Angel was born on Dec. 10, 1941 in Madrid, Spain. The family immigrated a few years later and landed in Superior, AZ, a copper mining community 50 miles East of Mesa.

Angel was raised in Superior where he graduated from high school and went on to attend ASU.

After a brief stint in college, Angel ended up back in Superior where he started working as a copper miner to help provide for his growing family.

When the mines shut down, Angel moved his family to Mesa and found his dream job, a sports equipment manager at Dobson High School. He worked at Dobson until his retirement. Being able to work around sports and with athletes was not a job for Angel it was a joy and a dream come true. He loved it so much he spent his spare time umpiring for youth and adult baseball and softball teams. His happiest years were spent at Dobson High School. He loved "his kids" and they loved him.

Angel was also an avid golfer and as long as he had a pencil with an eraser, he rarely lost a match. The eraser was the "equalizer" and Angel never crossed a scorecard he could not beat.

Angel was definitely known as an entertainer and one of his pastimes was singing karaoke. He was well known for his singing voice throughout the karaoke circuit. His favorite song to sing was "Amarillo By Morning" and his favorite stage was at the "G Bar G".

Angel is preceded in death by his parents, Alberto and Nieves Diaz; his grandson, Christopher; and his great-grandchildren, Lorenzo and Brooklyn. He is survived by his children, Michael, Gina, Joseph (Isabel), Shavonne (Albert) and Angel; his brother, Joe Diaz (Lilian); his grandchildren, Andriana (Anthony), Joseph (Vy), Albert, Mariah, Jalena, Isaiah, Angel, Ace, Michael and Nickolas; six great-grandchildren; and two nephews, Steven and Paul.

Services were held on Monday, Nov. 25, 2019 at Valley Baptist Church in Mesa.

Rest in peace, Angel, rest in eternal peace.

Manuel H. Macias, 76, of Superior Arizona passed away unexpectedly on Nov. 14, 2019 with his family by his side.

Manuel H. Macias, born on March 21, 1943, is preceded in death by his parents, Juana and Manuel Macias, who raised their family in Terlingua, Texas. He is the eldest of eight children.

He is survived by his loving wife of over half a century,

Mercy; daughters, Lugarda and Veronica; sons, James (Pam) and Manuel Jr.; adopted daughter, Brenda (Saul); 12 grandchildren, and 22 great-grandchildren.

Manuel proudly served in the U.S. Army and was a proud member of the VFW Superior Post #2584. He worked in the Magma mine until it shut down in 1982. He then moved into his career job with the Department of Corrections (Globe Unit). He happily retired in early 2005.

Manuel was a dedicated family man, who had a nickname for everyone. He never said "no" to his wife. He loved spending time with his grandchildren, building things, eating, the holidays and especially rooting on his Dallas Cowboys!

"How lucky were we to have someone that makes saying goodbye so hard" (adapted from Winnie the Pooh).

We love and miss you Dad/Tata!

Services for Manuel were held Saturday, Nov. 23, 2019 at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Superior, Arizona. He was laid to rest at Fairview Cemetery.

Family was assisted with exceptional service by Superior Funeral Home.

It's the Start of the Fall Holiday Season: Time to Think 'Safety'

Can't you just see it now? The family gathering at the Thanksgiving table and enjoying all that delicious food? Think of it ... the stuffing, the pumpkin pie, the yummy mashed and sweet potatoes, the green bean casserole and the star of the feast the turkey!!

But did you know that Thanksgiving is the day, out of all other days in the year, when most residential cooking fires occur? The U.S. Fire Administration reports that the number of residential building fire are more than double (2.3 times more) than the average number of fires in residential buildings on any other days during the year.

According to the U.S Fire Administration the pattern of fires on Thanksgiving Day differ greatly from the national fire profile. It is important to understand how fires on Thanksgiving Day differ from the over all fire profile in the United States. Do you know during what time period that most of the fires occur? Almost 48% of Thanksgiving Day fires in residential buildings happen between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. when most people are preparing their scrumptious dinner. This time frame differs from the rest of the year when residential building fires caused by cooking peak during the "normal" dinnertime hours of 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. Why is there such a huge time difference between cooking on Thanksgiving versus a normal dinner time? It has to do with the amount of food being prepared. We cook way more food for the Thanksgiving feast than we do for our daily dinner meal.

The U.S. Fire Administration further states that cooking was, by far, the leading cause of Thanksgiving Day residential fire at 77% with only 50% of residential building fires on any other day of the year. Add heating at 7% to those statistics as the next leading cause of residential fires on Thanksgiving. Most residential fires were limited to the room of origin and the object of origin, i.e. kitchen and stove/oven. These statistics reflect fires that occurred between 2014 – 2016.

What should you do if a fire starts while you are preparing your Thanksgiving dinner? First turn off the heat source (oven or stove top burner). Second if the fire is on the stove top put a pot lid on top of the pot/pan and NEVER open it to check to see if the fire is out. By opening the lid, if the fire isn't completely out you will be providing fresh oxygen to the fire causing it to re-ignite. The same goes for the oven. Turn off the heat source, keep the oven door closed until the fire is extinguished. Never, never, NEVER pour water on a grease or oil fire! When in doubt ... CALL THE FIRE DEPARTMENT!

Now let's talk about turkey fryers. While fried turkey is a delicious alternative to an oven-baked turkey it can be very dangerous to fry a turkey. Most people overfill the oil they add to the pot of the fryer and when they turkey is added that causes the oil to splash over the edges of the pot.

Here are some suggestions from FEMA for the safe use of a turkey fryer:

- Turkey fryers can easily tip over spilling hot oil across a large area. Use your turkey fryer only outdoors on a sturdy, level surface that is well away from anything that can burn. Make sure you have a child and pet free zone of at least 3 feet around your fryer to help prevent against burns.
- An overfilled pot can cause oil to spill over when the turkey is placed inside.

AZ SAFETY SOLUTIONS

By Karen Hauca
Special to Copper Area News

Determine the correct amount of oil needed by placing the turkey in the pot and filling with water to determine the "fill line".

- A partially frozen turkey will cause hot oil to splatter. Make sure your turkey is completely thawed and dry before you fry it.
- Turkey fryers can easily overheat and

SUSD recognizes students for passing AZ Merit Testing

Over the summer, parents and students at the Superior Unified School District received their AZ Merit Test scores. The test taken each spring is what measures the academic progress of students starting in third grade.

In 2019, many of the students in Superior scored proficient or highly proficient on the tests. To recognize their progress and their academic achievements the faculty and staff treated the student and their families to a recognition dinner, making the student and the parents the VIP guests of honor.

Superior Superintendent Stephen Estatico, welcomed the students and their families. He congratulated them on their academic success. He explained that growth on these tests are important to school as the letter grades given by the state are partially measured by the the student test scores. He thanked the teachers and staff for going the extra mile. Due to the improved scores, the John F. Kennedy and Superior Junior Senior High earned C's on their recent letter grades.

Teachers and administrators lined the red carpet entry and cheered and greeted each family enthusiastically and then they were ushered over to a special photo booth. Teachers and staff prepared and served the meals to the students and their

JFK kindergarteners get ready for Thanksgiving

From the sounds of the cheers in the class, everyone was looking forward to sweets, including Pumpkin, Apple and Cherry Pies, Ice Cream and cake. Some students preferred ham over turkey. As for cooking the turkey the class said that they only needed to cook their turkey for five minutes. Green bean casserole was also a class favorite when asked which foods are they looking forward to.

When asked what they were thankful for, everyone was thankful for friends, families and pets and their teacher, Mrs. Majors.
