Remember to Vote Tuesday

The General Election is this coming Tuesday, Nov. 8. With the noisy presidential campaign taking so much attention, please remember that there are lots of other offices and proposals for us to vote on (including two people running for Mayor of Kearny).

I hope for Kearny's sake that we will vote for having the Ray Unified School District go with the Cobre Valley Institute of Technology (CVIT) program. The schools in Superior, Hayden/Winkelman, San Carlos, Miami and Globe are already enrolled. For a property tax increase that amounts to $5 a year for a single family with a $100,000 home, our students will have multiple technical subjects and special programs made available, such as construction technology, fire science, nursing, information technology, welding, and graphic design. This will entitle our school to additional funding through the State of Arizona for equipment for programs old and new.

There's good news on the medical front. Mike Smith is the new Physician Assistant

(PA) at the clinic. Mike is well known in Kearny, because he studied here a while back with Brad Chambers (who had to move to Utah, darn it!). Dr. Charles continues here, and there will be regular visits by a gynecologist. Then, to top it all off, ASARCO, Native Air, the Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center, the Community Health Center Volunteers (think "Hand Me Up"), and the Kearny Rotary Club have joined together to fund the paving of the medical center lot. The project has already

Small town girl heads Arizona Democratic Party, to cast electoral vote for president

By Cat Brown
Copper Area News

Alexis Tameron, the first female Hispanic State Chair of the Arizona Democratic Party, has not forgotten her small-town roots.

Alexis was born and raised in the town of Superior, Arizona. Alexis was interested in politics from a young age. While in school she served on the student council and after graduating from Superior High school she moved to the Valley and attended Mesa Community College. From Mesa Community College she went on to graduate with a Bachelor Degree in Political Science from Arizona State University. Education was her main focus, and she thought she would become a Social Studies and History teacher. It was in college where Alexis became a member of the Young Democrats, and she realized she could make more of an impact and a difference working in politics. Alexis says, “having grown up in Superior and gone to Superior schools I know what we didn’t get in proportion to other schools.” That experience ignited her passion for investing in Education.

In January of 2015, Alexis became the State Chair of the Democratic Party of Arizona and this election year she has the honor of being one of the Democratic Electors. If the voters of Arizona decide they want Hillary Clinton for President, Alexis and the 10 other Electors will cast the official votes for the state of Arizona.

The inner workings of the American political system can sometimes be confusing. According to the Constitution, it is the votes of the Electoral College that elect the President and Vice President, and the popular vote determines which candidate gets all of these Electoral College votes for each state. The number of Electors each state has are based on the State’s congressional seats. Arizona has nine House seats and two Senate seats which means we have a total of 11 electoral votes. During an election year, each party nominates and picks electoral members. Those individuals get the honor of casting the official vote for whatever party the population of a state deems worthy of being President and Vice President.

“If the Democrats win Arizona, after the election and after the election is certified by the Secretary of State, we’ll end up going to probably the Secretary of State’s office and essential casting our ballots for our candidate which will then be sent to the US House of Representatives,” Alexis explained.

As party Chair, Alexis gets to hand pick the Democratic Electors for Arizona. Because the United States has the first female presidential candidate in this election, Alexis says she was looking for people who represented firsts or trailblazers. For instance, Alexis is the first Hispanic Chair and the first Female Chair of the Arizona Democratic Party. Another Elector Corey Woods is the first African American elected to the Tempe City Council. Peterson Zah is the first President of the Navajo Nation. Alexis wanted not only diversity in terms of ethnic backgrounds in the members of the Democratic Electors, but she also wanted regional diversity. Roberto Reveles is from Gold Canyon, and there are other Electors from across the state including Tucson and Flagstaff.

Alexis will serve as the Chair for two years. When asked if she would ever run for office Alexis says no. “I care more about helping other people who will take that leap, make that sacrifice and help them accomplish great things because I also know it takes a whole lot of people to make other people successful. I would rather be behind the scenes than up close in front of the spotlight.”

Alexis has never forgotten her time growing up in a small town. She talks with pride about Superior and going to school there. The advice she would give to the students of Superior, “If you have dreams, follow through on them. Anything

Hayden's playoff run ends but optimism reigns

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

The No. 9-ranked Hayden football team had its season ended following last Friday's 65 – 26 quarterfinal playoff loss to No. 1 Bagdad. The Lobos, who entered the game with wins in seven of their last eight games, including a victory against Mayer in the first round of this year's playoffs, figure to benefit in the future from this season's success.

"I'm optimistic it will motivate some of the underclassmen who didn't come out to play football this year," Lobos' head coach John Estrada said. "There is plenty of talent in Hayden. We just need to get it out on the field. I hope the success of this season helps."

Bagdad came away with a convincing win, but Estrada came away convinced his team was more physical than the Sultans.

"We hit and executed well, and I can bet on Sunday morning they knew Hayden was in town," he said. "Bagdad just had a few more skilled and seasoned players. Our kids left it all on the field and I couldn't be more proud of these young men."

"Our kids represented well," Estrada added. "Not only their parents but our community and Hayden High School. They showed a lot of heart, never gave up, showed good sportsmanship, and were well disciplined."

Senior running back Brandon Cruz rushed for 154 yards and two touchdowns. He also threw a 45-yard touchdown pass to receiver Frankie Valencia, who hauled in a 52-yard scoring reception from junior quarterback Mario Mariscal.

Mariscal finished with 145 passing yards. Valencia, a junior, totaled 176 receiving yards. Running back Ryan Donovan added 60 yards rushing in the game.

Hayden finished the season with a record of 6 – 4; the losses coming against the Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 5 teams in the state.

"That's up there with the best," Estrada said.

Estrada said his team worked hard over the summer and he was proud to see the players rewarded for their efforts.

"I challenged the seniors to work hard and end their careers as winners," he said. "I wanted them to change the culture with Hayden football. They took on that challenge and led an overachieving team to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs."

And now, hopefully, the Lobos' football program can reap the rewards of this season's accomplishment.

is possible.” She says it’s important to “finish school. If you don’t go directly to a university, go to a community college. Be a lifelong learner, and that will really open doors of opportunity for you. “ By going to college, “You’ll meet a variety of different types of people and coming from a small town where everyone kind of knows each other it’s good to expand your horizon.” Most importantly she says, “You can do anything you can set your heart and mind to, but never forget where you come from. “ Alexis is proud to be from Superior, “Superior is my home, and I’ll always be a Panther.”

Alexis will keep working hard to help elect Democrats, “So we can invest in education and ensure people have access to health care.” She wants to make sure that the Arizona her nieces and nephews and folks from Superior inherit is a better one. She also wants to remind the people of Superior that, “Everyone’s vote counts. In order for your voice to be heard, you have to make sure you go out and cast your ballot.”

Alexis is the daughter of Richard and Rosie Tameron of Superior.

Official Bio: A native Arizonan, Alexis Tameron was born and raised in the mining town of Superior. She has worked in government, public policy and electoral politics for over a decade, serving in various management capacities at the congressional, state and local level. Most recently, Alexis served as the 2012 Statewide Campaign Manager for Dr. Richard Carmona’s U.S. Senate race – an effort that captured more votes statewide than any other Democratic candidate in Arizona history. Alexis also worked for Harry Mitchell’s 2006 congressional campaign, an effort that resulted in the upset victory over six-term incumbent J.D. Hayworth. She served as Congressman Mitchell’s first District Director before becoming his Chief of Staff in Washington. Alexis graduated from Arizona State University and attended the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton University as a Public Policy and International Affairs Fellow. She resides in Tempe and works as a public affairs professional for an Arizona-based technology company.

begun, and will be finished by the middle of November. We owe thanks to Dave Orzell and our own board of the health center for coordinating this extensive work.

There are four great events scheduled in the Copper Basin this Saturday, Nov. 5. The K-Town Car Show and Fall Festival, sponsored by our chamber and Rip Vache's NAPA Store, will feature cars, music, special raffles and many other things on Alden Road. This event keeps getting bigger and better. Saturday morning all sees the launch of two benefit golf tournaments, one at the Kearny Golf Club and one at the golf course in Hayden. The first is sponsored by the Kearny Rotary Club to benefit its scholarship program, and the second is a benefit for St. Joseph's Church. Topping off the day, the Kearny Rotary Club invites the public to a benefit steak fry at the General Kearny Inn from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Enjoy large and tender steaks with all the fixings at available for $25 a person, which gives you a pleasantly full stomach and the good feeling of making a contribution to the Rotary Scholarship Fund.

Amazing Teens join Journey to a Clean Kearny

Kearny - This past week over 70 young adults joined the "Journey to a Clean Kearny", working with other volunteers to continue offering free yard maintenance services to the elderly and people with disabilities in our community. This will dramatically increase the number of yards that can be maintained through the program.

These young adults will be circulating around town, offering their voluntary services. Many of them are in need of volunteer hours to aid them in their application for scholarships in their own journey to a post high school education.

This is an excellent opportunity and a fine example of neighbors helping neighbors. Accommodate the willingness of these youth to maintain your yard and everyone will reap the benefit. They offer lawn care and weed eating services, including bagging cut limbs, grass and weeds; but, will not be able to haul away large items,

"Together we will make a positive difference," stated Tom Herbst, member of the Journey to a Clean Kearny Committee.

If you have time to spare, volunteers are still being sought for "Journey to a Clean Kearny". Join in as they strive to enhance the safety and appearance of Kearny. Show how much you love this town, in keeping with the spirit and love these youths have displayed.

Road closures listed

Motorists traveling on State Route 77 south of Globe will encounter full closures of the highway beginning and ending earlier than previous closures for a rock removal project in the Dripping Springs area.

There will be no full closures of SR 77 next week, but closures between mileposts 154 and 161 will resume the week of Nov. 6 and continue Sunday nights through Thursday nights between 8 p.m. and 2 a.m. through late January 2017.

Daytime flagging operations will continue daily in the project area Monday, Oct. 31 through Thursday, Nov. 3 and motorists should plan for 15 minute delays.

When full closures for blasting operations resume Sunday, Nov. 6, motorists can use State Route 177 and US 60 to get around the closure. The detour adds approximately one hour to travel times.

After full nighttime closures resume, the daytime flagging operations will continue as well through late January 2017.

For the most current information about highway closures and restrictions statewide, visit ADOT's Travel Information Site at www.az511.gov, follow us on Twitter (@ArizonaDOT) or call 511, except while driving.
