Pinal Board of Supervisors appoints replacement to Rep. Pratt's seat

Last week, the Pinal County Board of Supervisors met to appoint replacements for two legislative seats for Legislative Districts 8 and 11. The task was left to the Pinal County Board of Supervisors after the death of former Rep. Frank Pratt left a vacancy in LD 8 and the resignation of former Rep. Brett Roberts from LD 11. Both districts represent two different counties, state law requires the Board of Supervisors from the County of the Representative home of record select the replacement.

Neal Carter, a lawyer and small business owner from San Tan Valley, was appointed to fill the Legislative District 8 vacancy. He ran in the 2020 election and lost by a small margin to Rep. David Cook. Carter has spent time in the Copper Corridor and plans to use the next few weeks before the 2022 session starts to catching up with local leaders across the district.

He is licensed as a lawyer in Arizona, holding a Juris Doctor from New York University School of Law and a B.A. from UCLA. Neal's extensive local community involvement includes acting as general counsel for both the Pinal County Republican Committee and for the San Tan Valley Advisory Council.

Additionally, Neal volunteers with Compassion Queen Creek, as well as for veterans organizations, Pinal County's 'Adopt-a-Road' program, and with his church, including at the prisons in Florence.

Lobos fall in the quarterfinals

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Copper Basin News

They gave it their absolute best, but the Lobos were unable to avenge an early season loss to the Williams powerhouse.

On Friday, Oct. 29, the Hayden football team traveled to face off against Williams in the quarterfinals of the 1A

Division State Playoffs.

The Vikings stuck it to the Lobos' defense from the start of the game, running up 22 points in the first quarter, and another 22 by the half. Hayden was unable to break the Williams' defense, leaving them with zero points on the board.

During the fourth quarter, the Lobos were finally able to get into the end-zone.

The game ended in the Vikings' favor, with a 6-58 final score, ending Hayden's quest for the state championship finals.

The team will be losing eight seniors; Isaac Castillo, Jeremy Aguirre, Damien Smith, Romeo Cruz, Juju Cruz, Rene Arbizo, and Andrew Waddell.

The Lobos end their 2021 football season with a positive 5-4 record. Your fans are so proud of you!

NEW LEGISLATORS

state representative is a position of sacred trust, and it is my commitment to serve the people of District 8 with as much diligence as I can to live up to that trust," said Carter in a recent press release.

LD 8 is comprised of communities from Pinal County and Southern Gila County, including the Copper Corridor communities of Globe, Miami, Kearny, Mammoth, Oracle, San Manuel, Hayden, Winkelman and Superior. The district also includes parts of Casa Grande, Coolidge, Florence, Eloy and portions of San Tan Valley. Former Rep. Pratt was a resident and business owner in Casa Grande.

The Board also appointed Theresa Martinez to the LD 11 position following the resignation of the former Rep. Brett Roberts. LD 11 consists of the communities of Maricopa, portions of Casa Grande, Arizona City, Red Rock, SaddleBrooke, a portion of Pima County and North Tucson.

Teresa is a lifelong resident of Casa Grande, Arizona and has been involved with the Pinal County Republican Party since 2002 and has worked for Congressman Paul Gosar since 2004, where she serves as Director of Coalitions and Hispanic Outreach. In previous roles, she has worked for Secretary of State Michele Reagan and Congressman Rick Renzi.

Teresa Martinez said of her appointment, "I want to take this opportunity to thank the members of the Pinal County Board of Supervisors for their hard work and commitment to fulfill the representation for State District 11. It is with great honor and privilege to be selected to fulfill the term of Brett Roberts and represent the great people of this district. We are in a very fragile time in our state which I intend to face head-on. I am a believer that hard work and conservative principles are still a guiding light to success for our great state."

Pinal County Board of Supervisors Chairman Steve Miller commented: "I want to thank all six candidates we interviewed for putting themselves forward, it was a highly competitive process, and all six candidates presented well. Congratulations to both Neal and Teresa, and we look forward to working with and supporting them in any way that we can in their new roles."

Both will fill the remainder of their predecessor's terms which will end in December 2022.
