Mike McKee Car Show raises funds for scholarships

Mike McKee was a well known resident of Superior – he was a leader and a storyteller and unofficially, the Mayor of downtown Superior. He and his wife Deb helped to raise thousands of dollars for the American Cancer Society through their “Superior has Heart” fundraisers. Mike was also a mechanic, a fan of car racing of all types and loved a good car show.

When he passed suddenly in 2019, his loss left a void for many, as he often gathered a crowd during his Thursday shifts at the Superior Chamber of Commerce office. In his honor, his family and friends with support from the Superior Chamber of Commerce decided to host an annual car show to raise money for scholarships for students from Superior High School planning to attend trade schools.

This year the car show had 69 entries. The best in show award was awarded to Tudy Ybarra with his 1972 Chevy C10 Truck. The event also included a steak dinner hosted on Friday night by Felicias Ice Cream shop, raffles, a silent auction and 50/50 raffle. Johnny Diaz Gonzalez won the 50/50 taking home $1,260.

Where's Albo?!

Recently a variety of new murals have been created on many private businesses and home in Superior. Jules Muck a well known mural artist known for her graffiti style art recently made two stops in Superior. On her first visit she completed a large mural of Frida Kahlo on the La Mina building which is now owned by another artist Mark Hobley who is renovating the La Mina bar and patio into a new art gallery. Hobley is also a renowned artist that has chosen Superior to showcase his work. Jules met local legend Albo Guzman, who many of the young Superior residents, refer to Albo at the G.O.A.T

(Greatest of All Time), an accolade often given by young people to legendary people. Mural artist Jules Muck began painting murals of Albo's face and his trademark comment "How You Doin'" all around Superior. New Albo murals are on the old jail in the alley behind Main Street, the patio at Silver King Smokehouse and the patio of the La Mina Bar.

Albo and his grandson David also commissioned Jules Muck to help honor their family history with murals of the Guzman Family construction equipment and murals of Albo's parents on the family home on Kellner

Ave. Recently, David also restored a work truck used by Guzman Construction and re-painted it to match the original branding of Guzman Construction to honor his family's contributions to Superior..

Muck also created several other murals in addition to the Albos and the Frida mural in Superior on buildings and homes privately owned. Town Code in Superior allows for murals to be created on privately owned buildings and homes without any prior approval which has allowed for many of these murals to be installed easily and without any permits.
