Obituaries

Susan Lynn "Susie" Eisele, 51 of Superior, AZ, passed away on Nov. 30, 2013 at St. Luke's Hospital in Phoenix, Arizona.

She was born in Globe, AZ and moved to Superior soon thereafter. She attended the ARC special education program throughout her childhood. She participated in Special Olympics track and field, earning several ribbons, and even more hugs. Once she completed her education program, she traveled daily from Superior to the Kearny/Ray ARC Workshop. There she was employed and shared daily responsibilities with her co-workers and friends, completing various jobs as assigned, from local and state contracts.

She enjoyed listening to music, watching her favorite movies which included King Kong and The Wizard of Oz. In addition to music and movies, dining out was something she happily looked forward to. Mexican food was a must, and most recently, cheeseburgers and fries were her treat of choice. Her pet cat Bo, was a friend for life, and she enjoyed her niece's and nephews' dog, Mr. Peanut.

For the past few years, Susie has enjoyed her Group Home residence in Globe, AZ. She socialized daily, contributed to household responsibilities, was well cared for, and lived out her dream of 'independent' living; something she aspired for from an early age.

She is survived by her father, Edward Eisele of Superior and his significant other, Avis Hanks; a sister, Samantha Longenbaugh and brother-in-law Eric Longenbaugh; nephews, Edward Celaya, Mark Celaya and Timothy Celaya; step-nephew, Forrest Longenbaugh; niece, Samantha C. Celaya; and step-nieces, Jordynn Longenbaugh and Paisley Longenbaugh. She is preceded in death by her mother, Marcia K. Eisele.

Susie will be missed dearly by all of those who knew her. To know her, was truly to love her. A small ceremony in celebration of her life, will be held later this week, for Susie's family and friends.

Funeral services for Susie were held Thursday, Dec. 5, at the Mountain View Cemetery in Mesa.

Mountain View Funeral Home assisted the family with arrangements.

Superior Council approves zoning change on proposed Circle K, hires interim chief of police

By Nina Crowder

Superior Sun

Changes are coming to Superior. Last week, the Superior Town Council held a special hearing on the rezoning and approval of the site plans for the proposed Circle K property which will be located at 1113 W. US Highway 60. The property is currently zoned as R3 multi-family residential. The proposed change is to C-2 General Commercial.

Neighborhood meetings have been held regarding the rezoning of the property and to discuss any issues the community may have concerns about the new store. Mike Spavaro from MV Partners spoke to the council and public on behalf of Circle K about the proposed zoning change.

"In preparing the site plan layout, we have taken a lot of things into consideration," he said. "We tried to orient the store and facility towards US 60 for good visibility. Vendor deliveries are pushed to the east side of the property to mitigate some of the noise. We have offered to put in a six-foot block wall and landscaping to help mitigate issues the neighbors expressed concerns over. Side lights will be put up but will not be lighting up beyond the property. The new store is significantly larger than the current store and will have commercial grocery needs and services as well as 10 gas pumps."

Following the hearing, the council approved the rezoning for the proposed Circle K store. The council agreed that the plan complies with the requirements of the zoning ordinance and incorporates the additional landscaping and screening in deference to the concerns of adjacent property owners.

The council also approved the hiring of an interim police chief through an intergovernmental agreement with the Arizona Department of Public Safety.

DPS Sgt. Edward McNeill was named as the interim Chief of Police. Sgt. McNeill will be starting immediately.

DPS Lieutenant Dennis Young said "(McNeill) is a 17-year veteran of DPS and has a diverse background with our agency in many different areas and he is a long time resident of Pinal County."

In other business, the council approved a joint proclamation with the Superior Optimist Club naming the Red Bear Outfitters the 2013 Spirit of Optimism Community Champion. The Red Bear Outfitters selfless actions and generosity have left a positive impact on the residents of Superior, the council said. The Red Bear Outfitters group tends to the needs of residents and are considered an icon to volunteerism.

Red Bear Outfitters announced that they were contacted by some generous people who are donating more than 500 toys to the children of Superior. The Red Bear Outfitters will hold a Christmas Event with refreshments and Santa on Dec. 24 at the Magma Club at 2 p.m. to distribute the toys to children and families of Superior.

"Thank you very much for all you do in the community," Superior Mayor Jayme Valenzuela told the representatives of Red Bear Outfitters.

The council also approved an alcohol beverage permit request by Joseph Lopez III for a horseshoe tournament at Superior Park to raise money to send his daughter to the National Academy of Future Physicians.

The council approved the sponsorship for the third annual LOST Eco Tourism Festival.

During the call to the public, a few members of the public spoke regarding seeing the Town Council moving along with issues for the town and not for personal gain of the Council members; the events that are held in Superior and how the money is used to invest in the town so it is important to keep events coming to Superior and keeping things affordable; the Town of Superior needing a stable environment; and the Superior Chamber of Commerce is now linked to the Town Council website.

The council voted to go into an Executive Session (secret) for discussion regarding the open meeting law violations of Feb. 7, 2013, Feb. 21, 2013 and March 7, 2013 and possible legal options for a resolution of claimed violations. No action was taken after the Executive Session.

Mayor Valenzuela announced that CAG is working on a project for the Town of Superior and has been out taking pictures of homes and properties. He also told those present that the Town of Superior does have an Angel Tree up for anyone interested in helping out just obtain a tag from the tree and help make someone's Christmas a little brighter.

The Town of Superior Offices, Library and Public Works will be closed Christmas Day and New Year's Day. The next Town Council Meeting is scheduled for Dec. 19, 2013 at 7 p.m. all the public is encouraged to attend. The Town Council meeting scheduled for Jan. 2, 2014 has been cancelled.

Resolution Copper aids in trash removal in Superior

By Mila Besich Lira
Superior Sun

With the support of Resolution Copper, the Let's Talk Trash Committee hosted a successful clean up day for residents of Superior. Town Council Members, Michael Alonzo and Stephen Estatico, also aided in the planning of the event and assisted with coordinating volunteers. The Town of Superior provided the back hoe and operator to assist with putting the trash into the containers.

The cleanup allowed residents to bring their trash and yard waste to the roll off containers on Saturday.

Those roll offs filled up quickly, but with everyone's help and support the event helped to remove 80,000-90,000 pounds of trash.

Volunteers work to clean 80,000-90,000 pounds of trash from the town of Superior. (Sue Anderson photos)

Miracle on Main St. held despite cold

By Mila Besich Lira
Superior Sun

The Superior Optimist Club and the Town of Superior hosted the 10th annual Miracle on Main St. Light Parade despite the cold weather hitting Superior. The chilly weather did not deter the community from attending the event.

Mayor Jayme Valenzuela helped to keep everyone warm by once again providing free hot chocolate. Pete Casillas and Chris Ketron were the heroes of the evening they came out and set up and monitor several fire pits which also helped to keep everyone warm.

Leading the parade this year were members of the Red Bear Outfitters. This year the local group was recognized by the Superior Optimist Club and the Town of Superior as the Spirit of Optimist Community Champions.

There were eight entries in the parade. Winning prizes in the parade were first place $100 to the Superior Chamber of Commerce; second place $75 to Superior Substance Abuse Coalition; and $50 third place went to the great-grandchildren of Elda Vasquez. This year the parade took a little detour into the Highlands neighborhood to allow the Perez family to watch the parade from their front porch. Their daughter is currently fighting leukemia. (See related story.)

Baile Folklorico Alma de Superior braved the cold afternoon weather and performed for the crowd and Manny Guzman was the guest DJ and Master of Ceremonies for the event.

“We would like to thank everyone for coming out and braving the cold, and thank all of the volunteers and sponsors who help us to put this event on for our community,” said JoAnn Besich, president of the Superior Optimist Club.

In 2014 the Superior Optimist Club will be celebrating 10 years as a service club in Superior. If you are interested in becoming a member of the Superior Optimist Club, contact JoAnn Besich at 520-827-0592 or Olga Lopez at 520-827-4119.

Red Bear Outfitters are keeping warm, huddled around their – hey, wait a minute – is that a FAKE fire? RBO were honored this year by the Town of Superior and the Superior Optimist Club.

Baile Folklorico Alma de Superior entertained the early crowds at Miracle on Main St. although some of the younger dancers wore their coats to stay warm.

Mayor Jayme Valenzuela kept the Miracle on Main St. crowds warm and toasty with his free hot chocolate. We even heard he provided mountains of mini marshmallows. Yum! Thanks, Mr. Mayor!

Crowds wait for the parade to start during the 10th annual Miracle on Main St. held Saturday in Superior. See more photos online at www.copperarea.com. (Mila Besich Lira photos)

Dear Santa, please send a cure! Love, Marisol

By Mila Besich Lira
Superior Sun

It is every parents worst nightmare, that one day something horrible happens to your children. Whether they are 5 months, 5 years or 50 years old, dealing with an illness of a child is not easy. You wish you could take it all away, the pain, the fear, it is the way humans are designed, to protect our children.

That is the case for the immediate and extended families of Marisol Perez. Just days before Halloween she and her parents, Rusty and Julie Perez, found out that Marisol had T-Cell Acute Lymphoblast Leukemia. "We took her into the clinic here in Superior because she had unexplained bruises and a rash that looked like measles," explained her mother Julie. "She was a little more tired than her normal self and had a bloody nose the weekend before but, we were not expecting this diagnosis." Leukemia is not a disease that is hereditary; a person can get it from childhood through age 60. This particular type of Leukemia is very aggressive and can quickly spread, according to the American Cancer Society website.

The clinic ran tests on Monday and by Tuesday morning Cobre Valley Clinic Physicians Assistant Blaine Jensen had referred the family to Phoenix Children's Hospital, immediately. Marisol's blood work showed that she had a white blood cell count of 269, a healthy person usually has between 4 to 12, this count required further testing and monitoring at a hospital. By that evening doctors at the hospital had diagnosed her with

Leukemia. "The Doctors told us that if we had waited another week, Marisol may not have survived."

Marisol has completed the induction phase of her therapy and has responded well to that treatment. Over Thanksgiving she was re-admitted into the hospital due to a high fever, but came home last week. She is now in her second phase of chemotherapy. This phase combines both chemotherapy and radiation. She will undergo this phase of therapy for eight to nine months. While she continues to be a bubbly 5-year-old, this phase of treatment has affected her motor skills.

"She still tries to run around the house, she just can't run as fast as she was before and her hair has fallen out," explained her mom. Marisol's doctors have prescribed what will be at least a two and half year treatment regime. Currently she receives her treatment at the Phoenix Children's Hospital East Valley Clinic twice a week. The family has had to change their routine to help keep Marisol safe from other infections; even a ride in the desert can affect her progress.

Throughout our interview with Marisol's mom Julie, she use the word "grateful" over and over. Grateful for the staff at Cobre Valley Clinic who took care of things immediately, grateful for their family and friends who have been helping out in every which way. Her parents George and Norma Otero and Rusty's parents Brian and Kathy Long have been very helpful to them.

"My mom is helping to keep our finances in order so we can focus on Marisol and keep our bills paid," she explained. Grateful to the community of Superior who have hosted multiple benefits in the past few weeks to help raise money to cover their medical bills. Just before the diagnosis Rusty, Marisol's dad was laid off from his job constructing the number 10 shaft at Resolution Copper. The contractor who he was working for paid their COBRA health insurance for November and December to help out. Grateful for the staff at John F. Kennedy School especially Marisol's pre-school teacher Mrs. Zavala and her aid Mrs. Toner who send Marisol her school work so she can try to stay on track with what her classmates are learning.

The Superior Optimist Club along with the Superior Sun arranged for Santa to make a special visit to Marisol and her siblings, AJ, 10, Isabella, 8, and Julissa, 6. The annual light parade took a detour and drove by their home so Marisol and her family could enjoy the parade together and receive treats from Santa. Sheriff Paul Babeu has invited the family to come Christmas shopping with the Sheriff this weekend.

Marisol and her family still have a long road ahead in their journey to recovery. There will be struggles and joy along the way, but one thing is for certain, Marisol is surrounded by friends, family and community that love her and her parents and siblings.

Anyone wishing to help the family can make a financial contribution at the Bank of the West, to the Marisol Perez benefit account.

Four Panthers named to All-Section Football Team

By Andrew Luberda
Superior Sun

The Superior Panthers had four players named to the Division VI, Section IV All-Section team released by AIA365.com. Defensive back Matthew Zavala and linebacker Edgar Galindo were named to the first team. Running back Marcus Hiracheta and freshman quarterback Nicolaus Cruz were named to the second team.

Head coach Ryan Palmer said he was happy to see his players receive the recognition. The Panthers entered the season with a very young and inexperienced team. Palmer was satisfied with the players' commitment to improve throughout the season.

"We will be returning all of our players next year," he told the Superior Sun. "If these kids commit to putting in the work during the off-season then next season (has) a lot of potential."

Here's what Palmer said of each player who received post-season honors:

Zavala: "Matthew is a great athlete and a natural leader

both on and off the field."

Galindo: "Edgar led the team in tackles as a freshman despite battling injuries throughout the season.

Hiracheta: "Marcus has a lot of speed and is an explosive playmaker."

Cruz: "(Nicolaus) has the potential to be one of the best quarterbacks in recent history at Superior."

Panther cagers continue to compete

By Andrew Luberda
Superior Sun

The Superior boys' basketball team has 12 players on the varsity roster with only two upperclassmen – junior Ricky Longoria and senior Tyler George. Freshmen and sophomores fill out the roster.

Despite being winless so far in the early season, the Panthers' basketball team is talented, if not experienced. Longoria leads the team in scoring with 11 ppg. Freshman Austin Navarrette is second on the team, scoring just over 9 ppg. Freshman Nicolaus Cruz is the team's top rebounder with 8 rpg. As a team, the Panthers average nine steals and seven blocks per game.

The Panthers will play four games in eight days beginning at San Manuel on December 10, 2013. Their next three games will all be at home; Ray (Dec. 11), Combs (Dec. 12), and Hayden (Dec. 17). The game versus Combs is scheduled for 1:00 p.m. All other games tipoff at 7:00 p.m.

New book features photos of Superior

By Mila Besich Lira
Superior Sun

Lou Oates, a well known photographer of Superior, has published a book of Superior and the Boyce Thompson Arboretum. The book is called Images of Superior through the Lens of Lou Oates. Oates has been photographing Superior for 14 years. The 96-page book is mostly photos of Superior with three to four pages dedicated to the Boyce Thompson Arboretum.

Oates explained that over the past 14 years, he has taken more than 10,000 photos of Superior: the buildings, people, landscapes and events. The book has photos of the inside of the Magma Hotel before the first segment fell as well as the original High School. While many of his photos are seen in several local businesses, the book features many images that have not been seen publicly. The book is not just focused on buildings or landscapes – many local residents, several of whom have passed away are included in the book.

Oates found Superior after moving to the Mesa area. He had been a photographer for sometime and was looking for an interesting place to photograph. He chose Superior after driving through Superior and meeting Lynn Heglie back when he was the President of the Chamber of Commerce.

"Superior has been a great place to photograph, as well as make friends," he said.

Porter's Cafe will be hosting a book signing on Saturday, Dec. 14, 2013 at 4 p.m. Light refreshments will be available.

The book retails for $29.95. If you can't make the book signing, you can pick up a copy of the book at the Copper Gecko or order a book from the Rolling Rock Gallery.

Lady Panthers get first win of season

By Andrew Luberda
Superior Sun

The Panthers' girls' basketball team won their first game of the season on December 4, 2013 at Thunderbird Academy, 38 - 8.

It was balanced scoring effort from Panthers to go along with a determined defensive effort to earn the victory. Nine Panthers' players scored in the game. Senior Mariza Padilla led all scorers with eight points in the game. Freshman Elizabeth Ochoa hit the team's only three-point field goal in the game. Ariana San Miguel was three for four from the free throw line. Junior Hunter Flanagan finished with 10 rebounds to lead the Panthers.

The Panthers have four games remaining before the holiday break beginning with a game at San Manuel on December 10. They'll battle Ray on December 11 before games at Hayden (Dec. 17) and home versus Miami (Dec. 20). All games start at 5:30 p.m.

FCCLA to host senior adult prom

By Mila Besich Lira
Superior Sun

The Family Career Community Leaders of America students at Superior High School are hosting their annual Senior Prom on Saturday, Dec. 14, 2013.

This event is held each year to provide a prom-like celebration for local senior citizens. This type of event has become very common throughout America as today's generation of students have learned that many from the World War II generation were unable to attend their high school proms. It is not uncommon to find

SHS students escorting their grandparents to the event.

The SHS FCCLA prepares an evening of food, dancing and Christmas cheer for Superior Senior adults. This year the theme for the event is "A Glamorous Christmas in Hollywood."

The event is open to the public and there is no cost to attend. The event will be held from 6-9 p.m. at the Superior Junior-Senior High Multipurpose Room. The DECA group will be taking pictures during the event.

For more information contact Terry Villaverde at 689-3100.
