OBITUARIES

Mary Contreras Velásquez

Mary Contreras Velásquez, age 90, died on Dec. 6, 2019 surrounded by her family and friends at her hospital bedside. Mary was born in Superior, Arizona on Dec. 29, 1928 and lived almost her entire life in Superior.

She was a life-long home maker, raising 11 children and numerous grandchildren. She was a devout Catholic and practiced the faith all her life. She was a strong and kind woman, welcoming to all who came to the house. Along with feeding her own children, the neighborhood kids always found a place at her table set with food only a mother can make.

Mary is preceded in death by her husband, Gilbert, and three sons, Estevan "Ephan", Alex, and Fernando "Fernie", and stepson Freddie Velasquez.

Mary is survived by her children, Richard "Viti" Velásquez, Teresa "Baba" Otero (Jerry Otero), Adelita "Apen" Velásquez, Fr. Marcos Velásquez, Virginia Velásquez, Andrea Velásquez Beltran, Andrew Velásquez and Angel Velásquez. She had 33 grandchildren, 61 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great-grandchildren. She is also survived by brothers, Patricio and Billy, and sisters Lupe and Frances.

The Funeral Mass will be celebrated by her priest son, Fr. Marcos Velásquez, with Bishop Edward Weisenburger, Bishop of Tucson, preaching the homily, at St. Francis of Assisi Church in Superior, Arizona. Vigil and Rosary will be at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 10, and the Funeral Mass on Wednesday, Dec. 11, at 10:30 a.m. with interment to follow at the Fairview Cemetery in Superior and then luncheon at St. Mary's Center.

Catalina M. Castillo

On Dec. 4, 2019, our Lord came for Catalina M. Castillo and took her to His heavenly home where she received complete, perfect healing. Our mother passed peacefully, holding on to the promise of eternal hope found in Jesus her Lord.

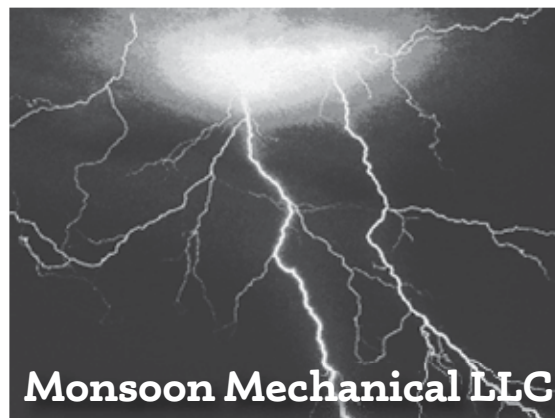

Catalina was born on Nov. 25, 1927 in Bowie, Arizona, the daughter of Tomas Carmona and Teofila Navarrette, the youngest sibling of Tomas and Isabel Carmona.

Catalina M. Carmona married Manuel Q. Castillo on Dec. 28, 1947 in Tucson, Arizona. Beloved mother of 11: Joe (Mercy) Quihuis, Carmen (Bobby) Casillas, Riaz aka Phil (Bronwyn) Castillo, Dolores (Jerrold) Chenoweth, Tony (Renee) Castillo, Rosemary (Mark) Bettermann, Peter Castillo, Sofia

(Angel) Rodriguez, Paul (Pennie) Castillo, Manuel (Jessica) Castillo and Maria Elena Castillo. Grandmother of 20, great-grandmother of 26, and great-great-grandmother of two.

Our mother taught us throughout her life that our faith must be firmly anchored in the Cross of Christ. We are fully forgiven for our sins and that ultimately when our story, in this life is over, we will stand at the entrance to heaven to begin our eternal journey. This is her legacy to all of us.

Services for Catalina will be held Saturday, Dec. 14, 2019 at St Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Superior. Rosary will begin at 9:30 a.m. followed by Mass at 10 a.m. Catalina will be laid to rest at Fairview Cemetery following services.

Town of Superior fighting blight

Since 2016 the Superior Town Council has taken a proactive approach to eliminating blight and securing abandoned properties. The Council allocated budget funds to begin a clean and lien program that legally allows the Town to clean and secure the abandoned properties then place a lien on the property. The two properties that the Town has tackled in 2019 will be sold at a Pinal County Sheriff's Auction on Dec. 19, 2019:

Both properties have a minimum bid to recover the cost of abatement, AHCCCS and tax liens, and foreclosure, but if the minimum bid is met then they will be transferred with a clean title to a new owner who will hopefully give them the care they need and deserve.

Superior Police Department welcomes new reservist: Officer Mark Figueroa

Superior Officer Mark Figueroa and Chief Frank Alanis.

Superior Police Department continues to add to its ranks, bringing on more experience to serve the community.

Recently the department hired a new police officer who will be working as a reserve.

“Police reserve officers are uniformed sworn law enforcement officers who volunteer their time to the police department,” Superior Police Chief Frank Alanis said. “They perform a variety of functions for the department such as patrolling, responding to calls for service, investigating crimes, bike patrol and a variety of other tasks.”

SPD’s new hire is Mark Figueroa who just retired from the Phoenix Police Department after 20 years of honorable service.

“We are very fortunate to have him,” Alanis said. “He starts his field training in December.”

Officer Figueroa is a 20-year law enforcement veteran, recently retired from the Phoenix Police Department. He proudly served in the patrol division, working daily out on the streets to foster positive community relations and serve the people of Phoenix Metro area.

Officer Figueroa is an Arizona native. He graduated from the Phoenix Police Academy in December of 1998. During his career he has had the privilege of policing some of the most diverse communities in the Phoenix Metro area including the city’s Cactus Park, South Mountain, Central City and Mountain View precincts. He served as a Field Training Officer and was one of the first officers to work in and help establish protocols for the department’s Central Booking Detail, a unit that intakes and processes all prisoners for the city of Phoenix.

He has also served as the Phoenix police Department’s Santa for various community outreach efforts.

Officer Figueroa has been the recipient of numerous department commendations and awards, including the Medal of Merit, Medal of Life Saving and the 2002 American Legion Police Officer of the Year award. He has demonstrated an unwavering commitment to community based policing and has remained steadfast in his commitment to problem solving and partnership building with the citizens he has been honored to serve.

A devoted husband of 26+ years and father to three wonderful children, Officer Figueroa’s proudest moments are when he and his wife are cheering for their two teenage boys as they play baseball or for their “tween age” daughter as she dances with her competitive team.

Officer Figueroa is extremely excited and grateful for the opportunity to begin this new chapter in his life with the Superior Police Department. He looks forward to serving and fostering new professional and community-oriented relationships.

Chief Alanis will be introducing Officer Figueroa to the Superior Town Council and the community at the next Superior Town Council meeting. If you see him out and about in Superior, be sure to say hello.

HLI Copper Corridor celebrates the class of 2019

Last week Valle del Sol and the Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition celebrated the graduation of the Hispanic Leadership Institute - Copper Corridor class of 2019. Graduating from the 10-week leadership program were: Janeen Duarte, Nathan Duarte, Jessica Gerola, Valerie Garcia-Denogean, Shawn Lindsay, Arlene Diaz-Gonzales, Tianna Holder, RoseMary Ortega, Lillie Vega, Adrienne Yniguez, Alexis Rivera and Sammy Sosa.

The leadership program is designed to connect local leaders from across the Copper Corridor Region to grow their personal and professional networks while building their leadership skills. The curriculum is designed to increase leadership skills sets while also teaching the co-hort about how communities grow and develop.

To further celebrate the leaders of the Copper Corridor, two prestigious awards are given out. Jim Schenck of Superior was awarded the Pete Rios Public Service Award. Schenck is currently an Americorp Vista and independent contractor with the CCEDC. He has served a decade in the Peace Corps and during his service within the Copper Corridor he has helped many people to apply for and receive federal funding to repair their homes. He is actively involved in the Superior Rotary and is the Vice President of the Legends of Superior Trails Inc.

Jessica Castillo was awarded the HLI Copper Corridor - Magallanez Family Alumni award. This award is named in recognition of Max and Elizabeth Magallanez who have been tireless volunteers in the community and have championed the HLI program in the Copper Corridor. Jessica Castillo of Superior was awarded the 2019 Magallanez Family Award. Jessica has been a longtime volunteer in Superior currently serving as the President of the Superior Optimist Club and as an instructor for the Catholic Youth Ministry for the Saint Francis of Assisi Catholic Church. She has served in leadership positions at the Superior Little League, founder of the Superior Schools Booster Club and is always at the ready to help those in need.

The graduation ceremony also includes an award presentation to the sponsors and supporters of the program, recognized for their support were: Resolution Copper as a Premier Sponsor, Town of Superior as the location sponsor, Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition as the Community Partner along with Central Arizona College, Arizona Public Service and Salt River Project.

Jessica Castillo was awarded the HLI Copper Corridor - Magallanez Family Alumni award.

Jim Schenck of Superior was awarded the Pete Rios Public Service Award.

Knights of Columbus make donation to ARC-NEPC

Tri-Community Knights of Columbus donated $400 to the ARC-NEPC community in Kearny to support their efforts in assisting people with intellectual disabilities from Oracle to Superior, including Kearny, Hayden, Winkelman and Dripping Springs.

The funds were raised from an October Mexican food dinner at St. Bartholomew parish in San Manuel.

ARC-NEPC Director Francis Chavez said, "We appreciate this donation so much. It is a real gift to help us keep our transportation running and providing skills to more than 20 clients from throughout the Copper Corridor."

ARC-NEPC sends four vans and two truck out every morning to bring clients to Kearny and returns them home each evening.

ARC-NEPC clients can be referred to the Arizona Division of Developmentally Disabled, by friends or family to be considered for assistance from ARC-NEPC, according to Chavez.

Grand Knight Alfred Trejo and Treasurer Jerry Bribiescas present Msgr. Loyola O'Dougherty, Council 5542's, People with Intellectual Disabilities, donation to Francis Chavez, director of ARC-North East Pinal County.

Director Francis Chavez said she greatly appreciated the Knights of Columbus donation to the ARC-North East Pinal County.

Gila County and the Town of Superior have used Brownfields funding to demolish problem properties and in the case of the Belmont Hotel the funding was used to complete environmental remediations.

In addition to applying for the grant, the Town of Superior took the lead on working with the League of Arizona Cities and Towns to develop statewide policy and legislation to allow cities and towns to create a vacant building registry ordinance. In August, the Town presented a resolution to the members of the League to allow for the League to develop the legislation. The long term goal is to eventually close the loop holes in tax law that incentives blight.
