Copper Corridor broadband study proposal goes before Pinal County Supervisors

FLORENCE - In last week's special session, the Board of Supervisors heard a proposal from Bill Bolin of the Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition regarding a proposed study for the eastern portion of Pinal County.

Bolin came before the Supervisors to inform the Board on a proposed study that would look at how to set up a broadband network that would stretch from Oracle to Superior. This would give the Copper Corridor Economic Development Foundation an estimate on what a project of this magnitude would cost. Bolin said the study would cost in the neighborhood of $17,000, he was asking the Board to consider investing $10,000 to help it get off the ground.

The study would begin January 2015 and end in June. Supervisor Pete Rios, whose district is within the Copper Corridor, spoke in support of the proposal and encouraged the other board members to also support it.

"The Copper Corridor is not competitive," Bolin said. "We need to make them competitive. The Copper Corridor is losing business, we are in the middle of a brain drain in the area."

Bolin explained that a broadband network would be a key to helping create a better communications network for public safety providers, expand educational services, bring telemedicine to the area and to help small businesses be competitive in southern Arizona.

Bolin, who represents the Copper Corridor as well as Systems Technology Staffing, LLC (STS) said his company along with One Random Act of Kindness (ORAct) would be spearheading the project.

"We have a template that is workable and that has a track record," Bolin stated. "We will be working with several broadband providers as well as with stakeholders in the area."

Bolin added that such a plan to bring broadband service to the area would need the help of large employers like ASARCO and SRP. He added that ASARCO currently has fiber optic service for internet.

"Will people buy in?" Bolin said. "I don't know. But we will have something to put on the table. This will give everyone a cost estimate of this project."

The geography of the region with its mountain ranges and valleys along with its rural spaces has made it tough for companies that depend on broadband service to survive. Supervisor Rios said such a system is desperately needed.

"In the mountain area, if you have a cell phone, you might just want to turn it off," Rios said. "You can rarely find a signal."

Bolin said that such a study would be based on the success on getting broadband services started in Safford, Douglas and Tuba City.

"In the end, success

Bill Bolin

Supervisor Pete Rios

would be coming close to the Federal Communications Commission requirements for broadband service that would help public safety, telemedicine, education and businesses," Bolin stated.

The Supervisors will decide on whether or not to help fund such a study in a January 2014 board meeting.

OBITUARY

Ernest C. Brace

Ernest C. Brace, a Marine Corps pilot who was decorated for combat service in Korea, then was court-martialed for desertion after a stateside plane crash and later was celebrated for his fortitude as the longest-held civilian POW in the Vietnam War, died Dec. 5, 2014 in Klamath Falls, Ore. He was 83.

The cause was complications from a pulmonary embolism, said his wife, Nancy Brace.

He was born Aug. 15, 1931 in Detroit Mich. to Cary and Ruth Brace. The elder Braces were former residents of Ray and later moved to Superior. Before the family moved to Arizona he joined the Marines at 15 and was commissioned as an officer at the time of his 20th birthday.

Mr. Brace spent nearly eight years in captivity. Sen. John McCain (R-Ariz.), a former Navy aviator who occupied the cell adjacent to Mr. Brace's at the infamous prison known as the Hanoi Hilton, once described him as "a man whose bravery and sacrifice for this country have had no bounds."

By his early 20s, Mr. Brace was a seasoned and accomplished pilot. He flew more than 100 missions in Korea — including one in which he encountered heavy enemy fire and was forced to crash-land in the Sea of Japan, where a U.S. ship rescued him. For those actions, Mr. Brace received the Distinguished Flying Cross.

In January 1961, he was a captain enrolled in an officers' training course at Quantico, Va., when a plane he was piloting crashed on Maryland's Eastern Shore. Mr. Brace abandoned the scene, reportedly hitchhiked to Baltimore and turned himself in 10 days later after authorities discovered his discarded flight suit.

He said at the time that he was burdened by domestic and financial problems and had hoped to "get away from it all." Law enforcement officials alleged that he had attempted to fake his own death in order to allow his family to collect on a life insurance policy.

Mr. Brace insisted that the plane had malfunctioned, and a federal jury acquitted him of purposely destroying the government aircraft. A Marine Corps court martial convicted him of desertion and sentenced him to "punitive dismissal."

Mr. Brace later became a civilian contract pilot ferrying supplies and passengers into Laos during the Vietnam War. On May 21, 1965, Communist forces attacked his plane on a Laotian airstrip. He was captured and taken to the jungle prisons where he would begin his seven years, 10 months and one week in enemy hands.

That period, he recalled in an account published on the POW Network Web site, would be “spent mostly encaged in small bamboo cages, to be beaten, starved, buried alive, and humiliated as few modern day humans have known.”

Mr. Brace was said to have repeatedly attempted escape. After one effort, the Associated Press wrote, he was buried up to his neck for a week. He recalled that he endured more than four years of solitary confinement. Once, he recalled, he attempted to choke himself.

He eventually was transferred to the Hoa Lo complex in North Vietnam, also known as the Hanoi Hilton, where through taps and furtive messages transmitted between cells, he embarked on a spirit-sustaining friendship with McCain, who had been captured in 1967.

“The wall was like a confessional,” Mr. Brace recalled. “The person on the other side existed in voice only.”

On March 28, 1973, Mr. Brace was released. Soon after, he met McCain at a White House event for former POWs hosted by President Richard M. Nixon.

“A guy came up to me and I looked at him and he said, ‘I’m Ernie Brace,’” McCain told an interviewer. “It was such an emotional moment for me.”

In 1974, President Gerald R. Ford granted Mr. Brace a full pardon. Last year, in part through efforts by McCain, he received the Purple Heart and the Prisoner of War Medal.

“As a civilian, Ernie was under no obligation to adhere to the Code of Conduct,” McCain wrote in his memoir “Faith of My Fathers.” “But Ernie’s conscience demanded much from him. He kept our code faithfully. When the Vietnamese offered to release him, he declined, insisting that others captured before him be released first. No one I knew in prison, Army, Navy, Marine, or Air Force officer, had greater loyalty to his country or derived more courage from his sense of honor.”

He and his first wife, the former Patricia Emmons, had four sons before his service in Vietnam. One son, Patrick, said in an interview that his mother remarried during Mr. Brace’s imprisonment because she believed he was dead.

When Mr. Brace returned, his marriage was annulled. In 1974, he married Nancy Rusth, a nurse who had assisted him in his rehabilitation. Besides his wife, survivors include his sons, Ernest Brace of Bonita Springs, Fla., Patrick Brace of Abington, Mass., Michael Brace of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Cary Brace of Rapid City, S.D.; a sister Rose Bradford of Kearny and eight grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and sister Betty Parr.

After his imprisonment, Mr. Brace told a National Geographic interviewer, he worked in Latin America, China, Russia and the Middle East on programs including narcotics control programs, foreign military sales and fuel contracts.

During the Persian Gulf conflict of the early 1990s, he said that he helped establish a medical evacuation system for firefighters in Kuwait.

Mr. Brace wrote two books, the memoir “A Code to Keep: The True Story of America’s Longest-Held Civilian POW in the Vietnam War” (1988) and “Monkey Paw Soup: And Tales of Drugs, Thugs, Revolution and War” (2012).

Once, Mr. Brace reflected on how he had survived his imprisonment. “I never thought I would die up there, and escape seemed possible all the time in my head,” he said. “Later, after they had crippled me, I felt that they were keeping me alive for some reason and someday I’d be going home.”

But in the beginning, he observed, “I think my Marine Corps training kept me going.”

Southeast Arizona Land Exchange

By Mila Besich-Lira
Copper Area News

The Southeast Arizona Land Exchange and Conservation act was approved in the Senate on Friday, Dec. 12, through the passage of the National Defense Authorization Act. The bill was proposed by Resolution Copper in order to extend the life of the mine. The bill is expected to be signed by the President in the coming days, should the President not sign the bill it will take effect in 15 days.

Project Director Andrew Taplin explained, "There is much more work to be done before commercial mining can begin and Resolution Copper looks forward to working with all stakeholders as we continue to progress through the regulatory review process toward responsible development and operation of a world class copper mine that will safely produce over 25 percent of the current annual demand for copper in the United States."

There were a few amendments to the land exchange bill which include additional environmental protections; those amendments were approved in both the house and senate versions of the bill. The amendments included that the federal land will not be transferred to the mining company until the environmental studies are completed; it will also allow Native American tribes to access the property until the area is longer safe to use. Another critical amendment designates 807 acres of the Apache Leap Cliffs as a special management area which places it under Forest Service Protection. The designation of the Apache Leap will allow the Forest Service and other stakeholders to monitor the area and ensure that mine operations are not destroying the cliffs.

This legislation has been introduced into Congress several times over the course of a decade. Senators McCain and Flake along with Representatives Gosar and Kirkpatrick were instrumental in gaining approval in this Congress despite the opposition of the bill from the Superior Town Council, San Carlos Apache Tribal leaders and environmental groups. Opposition groups have criticized the fact that the bill did not pass on its own but it is not uncommon for lands bills to be included in the annual Defense Authorization Act. "To maintain the strength of the most technologically-advanced military in the world, America's armed forces need stable supplies of copper for their equipment, ammunition and electronics," explained Senator McCain. "Most importantly Resolution Copper represents a game changer for an area of Arizona facing grave economic challenges."

Recently the Superior Town Council held an open discussion on the status of negotiations with the company. The town Attorney Steven Cooper is now at the helm leading the discussions. Councilmember Gilbert Aguilar was quoted in the Arizona Daily Star: "We're still going to keep negotiating our concerns. You can say there's going to be jobs, but put it in writing that they're going to be here."

Rep. Ann Kirkpatrick sent this written statement upon the passage of the bill in the Senate. "Arizona is just one momentous step from the finish line. I urge the president to sign this legislation and open the door for thousands of good jobs in District One. My vision for this district is to build a strong and diversified, stable economy-and the Superior mine is an important part of that vision. This project will lift the local economy and out working families in Superior and the Copper Corridor."

Underground miners recently celebrated a milestone in construction – the last blast of the deepest mine shaft in America at 6,943 feet. To put that into perspective, one mile equals 5,280 feet.

Arizona Senator John McCain visited the Resolution Copper Project earlier this year. He was instrumental in the passage of the Land Exchange.

Stephanie Lomeli-Alvarado attends Arizona Town Hall

By Vicki Clark
Copper Basin News

Seventeen year old Stephanie Lomeli-Alvarado of Kearny attended the 105th Arizona Town Hall last month and had the distinction of being the youngest person to participate in the session.

The 105th Arizona Town Hall, held at the Grand Canyon, was convened to examine Arizona's economy. In Arizona Town Hall's 52 year history, this in the 11th time citizens from across the state have come together to reflect on the current state of Arizona's economy and how best to shape its future.

Most participants were college age students and representatives of major businesses. Stephanie decided she wanted to attend after she took part in a Pinal County Town Hall. Because of her interest as a high school student, which is not very common, all fees were waived for the four day session.

The Town Hall began with panel discussions. There were four panels and each panel addressed the same discussion outline. Once the discussions were complete, consensus statements were taken from each panel to the Report Chairs and with assistance from the Panel Recorders a draft report was created.

A Plenary Session with all panels was then held to review the draft and prepare for a final report. All participants worked to approve, amend or reject each section of the report of recommendations.

The final draft presented four top priorities that could be addressed to improve the economy and included education, infrastructure, tourism and entrepreneurship and local business.

For the most part Stephanie agreed with the final draft consensus, but she would also like to see Arizona civic health be addressed. "We need to motivate our communities involving civic action," she said. She added that she learned a lot and made many new friends even though she was the youngest kid on the block.

Also during the event several keynote speakers addressed the assembly.

Stephanie is a senior at Ray High School and is a honor student, plays flute with the Bearcat Band and has participated in Cheerleading. Community service has included volunteering at her church as an Altar server, helping with community clean-up activities and the annual Easter Egg Hunt. She also ran for and earned both the Junior Pioneer Days Queen and Pioneer Days Queen crowns.

Stephanie is the daughter of Chris and Ruth Alvarado and she is most grateful to her parents for all their support and encouragement.

Her future plans include attending either the University of Arizona or Grand Canyon University to prepare for her career goal as a medical examiner.

Arizona Town Hall is a private nonprofit corporation founded in 1962 for the purpose of identifying and discussing critical policy issues facing Arizona and creating solutions. Much of the success of the Arizona Town Halls lies in the fact that the process incorporates the knowledge, thoughts and ideas of all the participants. The Town Hall process has been adapted and utilized by many other groups who strive to create solutions by drawing upon diverse views and building informed coalitions.

Arizona Town Hall welcomes questions, comments and perspectives and is located at One E. Camelback Road, Suite 530, Phoenix, AZ 85012. Phone number is 602.252.9600 and e-mail is townhall@aztownhall.org.

Love Lights and Luminaries on Alden Road

Alden Rd. will be lit up in memory or in honor of those who have meant something to those in the Copper Basin area. It is good for the soul and heals a heartache to honor or memorialize a friend or relative who has passed away or when honoring someone deserving who has done something great. This will take place Friday, Dec. 19 at 6:30 p.m.

Luminaries were lit and placed on the hills, valleys and roof tops in northern New Mexico by the Spaniards and local pueblo Indians to light the way of the Christ Child. Angels were present at the Christ Child's birth so it is fitting that angels and lights are used to fill us with the true meaning of the Christmas Spirit.

Angels will be hung on the Christmas tree at the Pinal County Building as the individual names are read and as the luminaries are lit along Alden. When you purchase the luminaries you can decorate the bags or Junior Chamber members can do it for you. The McCallister family started the tradition in memory of their son many years ago and it is a great tribute to loved ones.

Those attending can walk up and down Alden and read the names of those honored. Both ceremonies are very meaningful and inspirational.

The Angel proceeds go to a scholarship fund and the luminaries proceeds will be split between the Junior Chamber scholarship fund and the new Ronald Mac Donald house in Mesa. The Junior Chamber members will be able to do community service at the site when they deliver the money.

Help light up Alden Rd. Friday night.

Bearcats fall to rival Panthers for first time in five years

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Basin News

Freshman Marcos Bueno and senior Ricky Longoria combined for 39 points to lead Superior to a 60 – 56 victory versus Ray last Wednesday. Bueno scored a game-high 22 points while Longoria added 17 points.

Last Wednesday's win was the Panthers first against the Bearcats since 2009 and broke an eight-game losing streak versus their rival.

Superior sophomore Edgar Pacheco's field goal to end the first quarter tied the game at 14 and the Panthers never looked back from there. They scored the first four points of the second quarter to grab a lead they would not relinquish.

Already leading 28 – 27 to start the third quarter, Superior outscored the 'Cats 9 – 3 to extend its lead to seven, 37 – 30.

Longoria scored 8 of his 17 points in the final quarter, helping the Panthers increase their lead to eight points, their largest of the night.

The Bearcats' used their own 7 – 2 run during the final three minutes of the final quarter to pull within three, but couldn't get any closer. Longoria hit 1 of 2 free throws to seal Panthers first win in five years versus the 'Cats.

The 'Cats played Cibecue on Tuesday, Dec. 16. Game results were unavailable at press time.

Bearcats' upcoming schedule:

Jan. 8 vs. Hayden, and Jan. 9 vs. San Carlos. All games are scheduled for 7 p.m.

Ray High School holds successful Senior Interview Day

Jose Torres was the overall interview winner.

Ray High School's annual Senior Interview Day was held on Monday, Nov. 24. All seniors participated in a mock interview with former Ray High School graduates who have gone on to be successful in their chosen field. Seniors have to present themselves as if it were a real interview and are asked to dress professionally and have with them their application, cover letter, and resume - which are completed in their senior English class in the weeks prior to the event. Instruction on job interviewing skills and how to conduct themselves in an interview is also provided. Each student had a 15-20 minute interview with their assigned interviewer. They are then evaluated on their application materials, both interview and feedback are provided to them on their evaluation form. The experience helps better prepare seniors for real life interviews as they participate in job searches in the future.

Each interviewer is assigned seven to eight seniors to interview and from their pool of applicants they award a "Top Job

Interviewers, Jay Wernett, Karrie Sheffield, Angela Wernett, Leticia Graham, and Tiffany Boyd (not pictured Richard Verdugo) awarded the top job applicant awards to: Jacob Baca, Seth Harmon, Derek Pacheco, Hannah Mercer, Jose Torres, and Armando Rodriguez.

Applicant Award" to the senior in their group who they would have offered the job to. This year's Top Job Applicants were Jose Torres, Armando Rodriguez, Jacob Baca, Hannah Mercer, Derek Pacheco, and Seth Harmon. The Top Job Applicants then had a group interview with the five interviewers and the overall winner was Jose Torres who will be receiving a $100 gift certificate of his choice.

Local children share Christmas

By Santa Claus
Copper Area News

North Pole - It's that time of year, again, when I receive letters from young people, who write to me from every land on the planet, sharing their good wishes and hopes for special presents. As you know, I have a special place in my heart for the children in the Copper Corridor and greatly enjoy their letters. They are so special, that I want to share them with their friends and family.

I hope you all enjoy them as much as I did, when I sat down to read them, during a break from packing my sleigh. Try reading them, while sipping hot cocoa, that's been gently stirred with a candy cane. It's the way I like to read them best, and, it's a very relaxing holiday treat.

Dear Santa,
My name is Javier Robert Ortega. I am 5 years old and go to Kindergarten. I have learned so much this year and I think I have been a good boy. It's kinda tough to focus sometimes at school because I am still learning and want to learn as much as I can. My Mommy calls me "Doug" the dog from the movie UP, when she helps me with my homework because I am easily distracted. I think it's funny.
This year for Christmas I would like to have an XBOX with 2 controllers, Madden 14, and WWE 14 games. I love to wrestle so can you bring me some WWE wrestling stuff? My Daddy is getting tired of me pinning him all the time so I need some WWE toys to keep from beating him up. I would also like to have a Ryback and Mark Henry WWE action figures.

I hope this isn't too much to ask for, I have been super good, I think. I would also like to have a basketball game, an Olaf blanket, a Arizona Wildcats water bottle, a cherry Pepsi sold, some hot Takis, a lunch box like my Daddys and a new mom (she's mean sometimes and make me clean my room and do my homework before I can play with my friends. I will leave some of your favorite cookies and milk and some food for your reindeer out back. But this time tell the reindeer to stay off my trampoline, they left me not go good surprises on it last year.
Love Always, Javier "Harvey" Ortega
PS. My Mommy and Daddy want to know if you can make me stay little because they say I'm growing up too fast. I think you should have a talk with Jesus and tell him to bless us with a new sister or brother and you won't have to bring me a new mom.

2014

Sincerely:
Ashton Rodriguez

A special message to the boys and girls I have quoted, above: Please forgive me if the twinkle in my eye got in the way of being able to read every word just right, and, don't worry about the spelling or grammatical mistakes. I know you are young and are learning more each day and I am proud of your efforts in doing so. For now, it's just part of the charming way that you are you. Thank you for taking the time to write to me.
Love, Santa

Lily Camacho and her big win.

Lily Camacho gets big win with lottery ticket

Lily Camacho of Kearny may be 101 years old, but she's sharp as a tack and loves to play Arizona Lottery Scratchers tickets, especially ones that are quick and easy. Her son Eusebio Camacho buys the tickets for her about four times a week. They keep her mind occupied.

Recently, Lily's son purchased some tickets for her. One of the tickets he bought for himself was Money Tree. She hadn't played it for a while, as she hadn't been winning with it. However, when Lily saw the Money Tree ticket, she decided she wanted to try it. When he returned a couple of hours later, he asked her how she'd done, and she gave him the ticket to check. Lily had won the top prize of $50,000. The odds of scratching the big winner in that game is one in 240,000.

Five members of the family accompanied Lily when she redeemed her ticket. "We could not have been happier to award Lily Camacho with her $50,000 top prize check," said Karen Bach, director of budget, products and communications for the Arizona Lottery. "At 101-years old, she is one of the oldest Arizona Lottery winners we have had the pleasure of meeting and hope this win brings joy to her and her family this holiday season."

Lily is outgoing with a quick sense of humor and keeps her family on their toes. She lives for baseball and is a diehard Diamondbacks fan. Although her mother lived to 101 and her grandfather to 110, she considers her close-knit family a big contributor to her long and good life.

Lily has seven children and, at last count, 24 grandchildren, 39 great-grandchildren, 19 great-great-grandchildren, and one great-great-great-grandchild.

Lily is going to use the money for some home repairs and share some with her son. The ticket was purchased at a Gordon's Market located at 345 Alden Road in Kearny. Congrats!

Seeking Christmas Angels

I really enjoyed the Mayors' Group which met last week at the Town Hall in Winkelman, hosted by Mayor Louie Bracamonte. Louie is the "old man" in

MAYOR'S CORNER

By Sam Hosler
Special to the Copper Basin News

the group. The other mayors are either new or have two years or so of mayoral experience. The Town of Mammoth was welcomed to the group as a new member.

Alan Urban from Central Arizona Governments (CAG) encouraged the towns to work together to acquire a Planning Assistance for Rural Areas (PARA) grant from the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT). ADOT encourages applications from regional groups because the projects are often best handled regionally rather than town by town. ADOT would fully fund the planning, which provides potential projects with the documentation necessary to apply for completion grants.

The mayors also enjoyed hearing from Richard Rosales of Arizona Public Service (APS) about that utility's desire to work closely with the towns. When Richard learned of the Mayors' Group's plan to develop an area brochure, he volunteered the use of APS's graphics arts department to collaborate on the brochure and to pay for its printing. The Mayor of Kearny and Vice-Mayor of Hayden (Maria Muñoz) were asked to work with APS on the project.

Well, things haven't been slow in Kearny. A special meeting of Town Council with our candidate for Chief of Police, Edward Alameda, resulted in his gracious decline of our offer. So we are off to the races again! The Council authorized our Town Manager, Anna Flores, to appoint a new interim chief, and Sergeant Richard Corso has accepted the interim position. He will do a good job.

Meanwhile, we said "goodbye" to Sheriff Vargas, who has been our interim chief for several weeks. He did a great job, and put us a long way toward the completion of the new policy manual for the Police Department. He will now serve as interim Chief of Police for the City of Casa Grande.

Christmas will soon be here. Do you want to be an angel? Here are two ways to be an angel. Either take one of the angels from the tree in Gordon's Market and procure gifts for the family listed, or give a call to Lynda Smith, who is working with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to provide family gifts. A big "thank you" goes to the Kearny Volunteer Fire Department for all their work, too. And don't forget the Salvation Army kettle in front of Gordon's Market; the funds raised are used here throughout the year.

Public Notice TOWN OF WINKELMAN FIRST PUBLIC HEARING REGARDING USE OF CDBG FUNDS

The Town of Winkelman is expected to receive approximately $226,279 in FY 2015 Federal CDBG funds from the Arizona Department of housing Regional Account (RA). The Town of Mammoth also intends to apply for $300,000 in FY 2015 CDBG funds from the State special projects (SSP) account. CDBG funds must be used to benefit low-income persons and areas, alleviate slum and blight or address urgent need. A public hearing will be held on Monday, January 12, 2015 at 7:00 p.m., Winkelman Town Hall Council Chambers, 206 Giffin Avenue, Winkelman, Arizona, to gather citizen input on the use of the CDBG funds. Examples of possible uses include the following:

- 1) Public infrastructure (e.g., water, wastewater, street improvements);
- 2) Community facilities (e.g., parks, health clinics, libraries, senior or youth centers);
- 3) Housing (e.g., owner-occupied or multi-family rehab, utility connections on private property, new housing constructed by a non-profit);
- 4) Public services (e.g., paying the salary of an additional staff person to expand a Head Start program, purchasing a van to transport persons with disabilities, equipment and rent to start a new job training program);

Hayden Senior Center enjoys Christmas luncheon

By Nina Crowder
Copper Basin News

Hayden's Senior Center enjoyed a terrific turnout for their annual Christmas Luncheon. With close to 150 people in attendance everyone had a great time! Thank you to everyone who participated. Special thanks to Annie Hinojos and her staff for thinking of the elderly people and making sure they have a special time during the holidays.

Entertainer Tom Chestnut came from Tucson to sing and interacted with the crowd. As Mr. Chestnut sang and danced around the room it warms your heart to see all the people enjoying, clapping and singing along. Besides a nutritional and good lunch each attendee received a treat bag with goodies in it and then prizes were picked from all the names of people in attendance. Everyone seemed to enjoy the gifts they received as well as the entertainment and lunch.

The Hayden Senior Center celebrates six different holiday events every year, consisting of a Halloween Party, Thanksgiving Celebration, Christmas Party, Valentine's Day, Easter Party and Mothers/Fathers Day Celebration. If you are interested or have any questions, you may contact the Senior Center at 520-356-7035. Remember you don't have to be a senior to attend daily lunches and the special events.

Cards of Thanks

My name is Brittany Smith. I wish to thank all of those who bought a raffle ticket for the Friendship Quilt I was raffling off to make money for my trip to Washington DC in June with my 8th grade class. Thank everyone again. I had someone draw for it December 12 and the person who won the Quilt was Cyril & Cindy Butler of Claypool, AZ. Again thank all of you for your help.
