There's no place like hope for the holidays

A child's future shouldn't fit inside.

BECOME A CASA VOLUNTEER.

CHANGE A CHILD'S STORY.

Think of the holiday season ... for most people, happy memories come to mind and being surrounded by loved ones. For children in the foster care system it can be a harsh reminder of what is missing – family.

There are over 14,000 children in Arizona spending the holidays away from their parents and often their siblings too. While caretakers may try to make the day special, all the excitement of the holidays can leave children in foster care feeling very alone. With the help of the community, more children can find hope for the holidays.

If you find it in your heart this holiday season, this is an invitation to join CASA, in whatever capacity you can. Not a single one of us has the power to change these children's past— what they have seen, what they have done, what they have suffered.

Every one of us has the power to change their future. All it takes is the heart to do so.

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA advocates) are everyday community members who donate their time to be the voice for a child. CASA volunteers are the eyes and ears of the judge in the community. Children with a CASA advocate are more likely to find a safe, permanent home, more likely to succeed in school, and are half as likely to re-enter the foster care system.

No specific background or training is needed to become a volunteer CASA advocate. Anyone 21 years of age or older, who can pass a thorough background check and complete 30 hours of free training, is encouraged to apply.

For more information, visit www.CASAofGilaCounty.org. Follow us on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/GilaCountyCASA>.

Dear Santa ...

In modern life, childhood has changed in many particulars from how it was even just a few decades ago.. One thing that hasn't really changed , though, since the time our grandparents were youngsters is how children dream their "sugar plum" dreams as Christmas draws ever nearer. Then, upon waking, they wish, plan and, often, take time from their busy days to write to dear old Santa, with both thanks and requests for him to add a few things to his list, too. Once said letter is written and sent, they go back to their hopes and dreams, waiting in anticipation for Christmas morning, to see what delights will be under the tree. But, what happens to the letters?

They are delivered, of course. Then, Santa, with his jolly laugh and twinkling eye, reads over every one. Those he finds gets his belly shaking just like the proverbial bowl of jelly, he then sends out to share with those who live near and love the children who wrote them.

Please keep in mind, unlike Santa, we cannot read the heart, but, must use our eyes and muddle along as best as we can and, so, may misunderstand a word here or there. Don't, please, let that distract you from the good intentions of all involved.

Here are the letters from local children that Santa chose to share with us. Enjoy!

The Town of Winkelman threw a Christmas party and invited the entire Copper Basin. Oh what fun ensued! With hot dogs, chili beans, fun and games, not to mention Santa and Mrs. Claus and snow (WHAT???), what wasn't there to love? It's been said that it takes a village; in this case it was a town. According to Sylvia Kerlock at the Town of Winkelman, "Emilia Rutledge and Fred Ruiz are the main persons that help the Town host these events. She is very creative and did most of all the decorations outside Town building and street. She decorated the building where Mr. & Mrs. Claus were seated. If it wasn't for Emilia and Fred I don't think the Town would host a Halloween or Christmas event." So thank you, Emilia and Fred. This event was just super!

Got junk? American Pickers to film in Arizona

Show of hands. How many of you, our loyal readers, secretly (or not so secretly) enjoy watching American Pickers? Don't be shy. You know you love seeing what kind of junk is really a treasure.

Mike Wolfe, Frank Fritz and their team are excited to return to Arizona! They plan to film episodes of the hit series American Pickers throughout your area in February 2020.

American Pickers, for those of you who haven't seen it, is a documentary series that explores the fascinating world of antique "picking" on the History channel. The hit show follows Mike and Frank, two of the most skilled pickers in the business, as they hunt for America's most valuable antiques. They are always excited to find sizeable, unique collections and learn the interesting stories behind them.

As they hit the back roads from coast to coast, Mike and Frank are on a mission to recycle and rescue forgotten relics.

Along the way, the pickers want to meet characters with remarkable and exceptional items. The pair hopes to give historically significant objects a new lease on life, while learning a thing or two about America's past along the way.

Mike and Frank have seen a lot of rusty gold over the years and are always looking to discover something they've never seen before. They are ready to find extraordinary items and hear fascinating tales about them. American Pickers is looking for leads and would love to explore your hidden treasure. If you or someone you know has a large, private collection or accumulation of antiques that the Pickers can spend the better part of the day looking through, send us your name, phone number, location and description of the collection with photos to: americanpickers@cineflix.com or call 855-OLD-RUST. Follow them on Facebook: @GotAPick

'Blight Busters' continue to combat blight: properties in Superior to be auctioned 458 W. Newmont St.

Since 2016 the Superior Town Council has taken a proactive approach to eliminating blight and securing abandoned properties. The Council allocated budget funds to begin a clean and lien program that legally allows the Town to clean and secure the abandoned properties then place a lien on the property. The two properties that the Town has tackled in 2019 will be sold at a Pinal County Sheriff's Auction on Dec. 19, 2019:

Both properties have a minimum bid to recover the cost of abatement, AHCCCS and tax liens, and foreclosure, but if the minimum bid is met then they will be transferred with a clean title to a new owner who will hopefully give them the care they need and deserve.

- 309 N. Magma Ave. (Nelly Devine residence)

Minimum bid: $15,962.32 Dec. 19, 10 a.m. in the lobby of the Pinal County Sheriff's Office located at 971 N. Jason Lopez Circle #C in Florence, Arizona.

- 458 W. Newmont St. (Soledad Vasquez residence)

Minimum bid: $16,140.94 Dec. 19, 10:30 a.m. in the lobby of the Pinal County Sheriff's Office located at 971 N. Jason Lopez Circle #C in Florence, Arizona.

Affectionately called the Copper Corridor Blight Busters, the Mayors of Globe, Miami, Hayden Kearny, Superior have teamed up Gila County to apply for an Environmental Protection Agency regional Brownfields Grant. If awarded, the Brownfields funding can be used for environmental assessments of properties and in some cases funding can be used to make necessary environmental repairs. Gila County and the Town of Superior have used Brownfields funding to demolish problem properties and in the case of the Belmont Hotel the funding was used to complete environmental remediations.

In addition to applying for the grant, the Town of Superior took the lead on working with the League of Arizona Cities and Towns to develop statewide policy and legislation to allow cities and towns to create a vacant building registry ordinance. In August, the Town presented a resolution to the members of the League to allow for the League to develop the legislation. The long term goal is to eventually close the loop holes in tax law that incentives blight.
