Panthers' success comes with a price

By Andrew Luberda
Superior Sun

Most success comes with a price.
Right now, the price for success during Superior's football season is a slow start to the Panthers' basketball season.

Small-school athletic programs have to deal with the same student-athletes participating in multiple sports, and when those sports overlap it's a challenge for most, if not all.

"Almost all of the student-athletes who play basketball, played football," said Superior basketball head coach Ryan Palmer, who overlaps sports himself. "The players were given an optional week to recover from a long season, which many took. We went into our first games with only one or two practices.

"Basketball is all about fundamentals and team chemistry," he continued. "Right now, we don't have much of either. What we do have is hustle and heart, which has kept us in most games. We have also had a lot of illness and injuries that have sidelined some of our best players."

The Panthers started the season in the Benjamin Franklin/Gilbert Christian Thanksgiving Classic, where they went 1 - 4, the lone victory against Arete Prep, 49 - 35.

Since then, the Panthers (2 - 6) have just one other win, a 48 - 39 come-from-behind victory against Arizona

School for the Deaf & Blind on Monday, Dec. 9. Matthew Perez (12 pts), Sammy Lopez (16 pts) and Andrew Martinez (14 pts) all scored in double figures, combining for 42 of the Panthers' 48 points. Lopez, a senior, had a team-high four rebounds in addition to one block. Any win is a good win, but this game is an example that the team isn't currently playing at the level it could be.

"We are improving each practice and every game," Palmer said. "We were trailing for almost the entire game, but our will to win prevailed."

Palmer knows his team is talented and capable of more. He expects improvement as the season progresses.

"We need more practice," he stated. "We need to establish a foundation of solid fundamentals, and then work on the structure of our offense and defense. Right now, we are simply not a good team. We are playing as individuals in a team sport. I expect us to improve greatly with each practice and game."

Is the Panthers basketball team willing to pay the price for success?

Pantherettes narrowly miss first victory of the season

By Andrew Luberda
Superior Sun

After two lopsided losses to start its season, the Superior girls' basketball team played a much more competitive game at Miami last Thursday before a 33 – 30 defeat to the Lady Vandals.

Six players hit the score sheet in the Pantherettes' biggest scoring output of the season, including sophomore Julianna Navarro and freshman Chiara Marquez, who finished with nine and seven points, respectively. Jasmine Ortega, Marlee Estatico, Myika Cruz, and Jordan Lopez also contributed to the season-high points total.

Up next: Dec. 20 at Hayden. Tipoff is scheduled for 5:30 p.m.

Got junk? American Pickers to film in Arizona

Show of hands. How many of you, our loyal readers, secretly (or not so secretly) enjoy watching American Pickers? Don't be shy. You know you love seeing what kind of junk is really a treasure.

Mike Wolfe, Frank Fritz and their team are excited to return to Arizona! They plan to film episodes of the hit series American Pickers throughout your area in February 2020.

American Pickers, for those of you who haven't seen it, is a documentary series that explores the fascinating world of antique "picking" on the History channel. The hit show follows Mike and Frank, two of the most skilled pickers in the business, as they hunt for America's most valuable antiques. They are always excited to find sizeable, unique collections and learn the interesting stories behind them.

As they hit the back roads from coast to coast, Mike and Frank are on a mission to recycle and rescue forgotten relics. Along the way, the pickers want to meet characters with remarkable and exceptional items. The pair hopes to give historically significant objects a new lease on life, while learning a thing or two about America's past along the way.

Mike and Frank have seen a lot of rusty gold over the years and are always looking to discover something they've never seen before. They are ready to find extraordinary items and hear fascinating tales about them. American Pickers is looking for leads and would love to explore your hidden treasure. If you or someone you know has a large, private collection or accumulation of antiques that the Pickers can spend the better part of the day looking through, send us your name, phone number, location and description of the collection with photos to: americanpickers@cineflix.com or call 855-OLD-RUST. Follow them on Facebook: @GotAPick

Dear Santa ...

In modern life, childhood has changed in many particulars from how it was even just a few decades ago.. One thing that hasn't really changed , though, since the time our grandparents were youngsters is how children dream their "sugar plum" dreams as Christmas draws ever nearer. Then, upon waking, they wish, plan and, often, take time from their busy days to write to dear old Santa, with both thanks and requests for him to add a few things to his list, too. Once said letter is written and sent, they go back to their hopes and dreams, waiting in anticipation for Christmas morning, to see what delights will be under the tree. But, what happens to the letters?

They are delivered, of course. Then, Santa, with his jolly laugh and twinkling eye, reads over every one. Those he finds gets his belly shaking just like the proverbial bowl of jelly, he then sends out to share with those who live near and love the children who wrote them.

Please keep in mind, unlike Santa, we cannot read the heart, but, must use our eyes and muddle along as best as we can and, so, may misunderstand a word here or there. Don't, please, let that distract you from the good intentions of all involved.

Here are the letters from local children that Santa chose to share with us. Enjoy!

Looks like the Grinch had some 'splaining to do after crashing his hot rod into another entry in the Miracle on Main St. Light Parade. Mila Besich | Sun Miracle on Main Street – minor accident doesn't stop Santa!

The Superior Optimist Club once again hosted another successful Miracle on Main Street Holiday light parade and festival. A minor accident on the parade route caused a short delay in Santa arriving to see the children, but thanks to the Desert Express Train, they found a way to get Santa safely to Besich Park.

The accident was caused when a small hot rod car in the parade crashed into the rear of the Pinal County Attorney Mobile Victim Services Vehicle. Thankfully there were no injuries and the accident occurred towards the end of the line up. Superior Police and Fire responded to the accident, and it remains under investigation.

The Hing Family was awarded the 2019 Spirit of Optimism Community Champion Award. They served as the grand marshals for the parade.

"On behalf of the Hing family, we would like to thank the Optimist Club for choosing the Hings as the 2019 Community Champions. This marks the 100th year since the Hings established in Superior back in 1918. Superior is a great place to raise a family. My grandfather raised 10 kids, my father raised seven, and I raised four. It has been an honor and privilege to be a part in the growth of this community. We would love to continue to give back to this community for it has given so much to us. Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, and God bless Superior," said Michael Hing.

There were 16 entries in the parade this year. The first place $200 was awarded to the Mike Lopez family for their gingerbread house entry. Second place $125 prize was awarded to Anabel's Ice Cream Truck float and third place $75 prize was awarded to the Superior Unified School District for the decorated bus.

The Grinch, AKA Mike Ketron, who was driving the runaway hot rod, didn't place this year.

The Town of Superior Youth Council along with the Superior Junior High Student Council helped members of the Optimist Club support the event.
