helps Coolidge boy become more independent

When it came to their youngest son, Thunder, Jessica and Sammy Moore handled his early education differently than their three older children.

"I was afraid to let the other kids go (to preschool) when they were young," Jessica Moore said. "I did everything for my kids, so much so, that they were the opposite of Thunder when they entered kindergarten; they were much less confident and much neeider. Now I see the difference of what preschool can do."

The Moores enrolled Thunder in Kids Klub, a Quality First center in Coolidge. Kids Klub is one of about 1,000 child care and preschool providers throughout Arizona that partners with Quality First, a signature program of First Things First, to improve the quality of their early learning programs.

Thunder attends Kids Klub with help from a Quality First scholarship, which helps eligible families afford to send their child to a quality child care centers and preschools. Quality is one of the most important factors to consider in child care and preschool. Research shows that quality early learning settings help young children develop important skills — like motivation, self-control, focus and getting along with others — that make a big difference in their ability to succeed in school and in life.

Sammy Moore has watched his son grow emotionally and physically.

"Thunder is the most disciplined of our four children and is learning how to be more grown-up," he said. "He even packs his lunch to get ready for his day and he follows rules. Thunder is just way more advanced than his siblings were at that age."

After attending Kids Klub for almost three years, Jessica Moore said Thunder, now 5, has transitioned from being shy to very outgoing.

"He is happy, confident and more independent," she said. "Thunder learned about team work, how to play within a group and how to be a friend to others. He looks forward to learning. Then he comes home, eats dinner and talks with his family about what he learned that day."

About First Things First – First Things First is a voter-created, statewide organization that funds early education and health programs to help kids be successful once they enter kindergarten. Decisions about how those funds are spent are made by local councils staffed by community volunteers. To learn more, visit www.FirstThingsFirst.org

Kudos to Kearny Donors & Lighting Contest

The Kearny Public Library would like to thank all the people and businesses who sent in money during the recent donation drive. Thanks to your generous support they will sponsor the annual Christmas Decorating Contest (under the Kearny Library instead of the Friends of the Library). Judging will be Dec. 14. First, second and third places will be awarded and the winners will be announced in the Dec. 19 Copper Basin News.

Santa Suit for Rent

The Kearny Library has a complete Santa suit for rent in December. The suit can be rented for a 24-hour period. Cost is $25 rent with a $25 deposit, refunded when the suit and all accessories are returned in good condition. Accessories include: beard, hair, hairnet, glasses, gloves, shoe covers, belt and hat. Any damage or repairs should be reported to the Library.

Lights Out?

Kearny Residents: please inform the Town of Kearny at 520-363-5547 if you notice a street light out in Town. Please write down the number on the light pole and call it in to the Kearny Town Hall or you may call APS directly to: 1-800-253-9405. There are several street lights out throughout the Town. Thank you for your support.

Christmas Caroling

Let's make a joyful noise unto the Lord! If you like to sing or can play an instrument (or electric piano), let's gather together and create a beautiful sound. We'll sing this Christmas carol through January 6 (the day of Epiphany, or time when the wise men followed his star). Follow his star on Dripping Springs Road (which was named Christmas Star route in the 1980s). Nestled beneath the Dripping Springs mountains, below and west of where Christmas used to lie, is a little church; it was dedicated to God when it was built in 1982 for the Association of Universal Philosophy. There, all faiths are welcome. And you're welcome too. Just bring your heart and a joyful spirit. This is a great time to flock to make music and sing with all the angels on Christmas Star route. Call Rev. Judy, 520-742-0911, to learn more.

Submit information to CBNSUN@minersunbasin.com or call 520-363-5554. Listings are free. The Copper Basin News reserves the right to edit or refuse submissions. Submissions are due the Friday before Wednesday publication.

They learn job skills, life style skills, work in the thrift shop and do yard work and other small jobs according to Chavez.

"Then at 3 p.m. we take them back home," Chavez explained.

"Transportation is probably the largest expense we have," she continued.

"Oil changes, tires and fueling five vans, as well as paying drivers takes a lot of money. This donation will help so much," Chavez said.

"We thank the Knights of Columbus for all they do and for their generosity to us," she said.
