Mammoth Apartments catch fire; first

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

Shortly after midnight
on Tuesday, Dec. 17,

a structure fire was reported at the Mammoth Apartments at 14930 S. Highway 77. The Mammoth Volunteer Fire Department responded immediately while calls were quickly put into the San Manuel and Oracle Fire Departments for assistance. The Mammoth Fire Department began the initial attack on the fire. It was an aggressive attack that knocked down the fire and with the assistance of multiple agencies they were able to contain the fire to one unit.

No one was injured in the blaze although two young girls had to be rescued from the back bedrooms of the apartment that was on fire. Some courageous and quick thinking neighbors got a ladder and one of them climbed to the windows of the back bedrooms on the second story of the building. They then broke the windows and were able to safely remove the young girls from danger. The cause of the fire has yet to be determined.

Incident Commander and Mammoth Fire Chief Marty Ponce said, "It was the good effort of multiple agencies that contained the fire." He added, "Everything fell into place and went like it was supposed to. Everyone worked well together." Chief Ponce wanted to thank all the agencies that responded and assisted in containing the fire. These agencies included the Oracle, San Manuel, Pinal Rural Fire Rescue, and Dudleyville fire departments. He said a special thanks goes out to Golder Ranch Fire Department for sending investigators.

The Mammoth Police Department and Mammoth Public Works assisted. The other police agencies involved were Pinal County Sheriff's Office and Hayden Police Department. Tri-City Med was at the scene and provided the rehab (medical attention, rehydration, smoke inhalation treatment, etc.) for those in need. The Pinal County Sheriff's Office Chaplain came to help and spoke to some of the people.

The Red Cross and residents of the community of Mammoth helped. "We have a strong connection to the community," said Chief Ponce. "The Red Cross came out at three in the morning and was still around during the day to see if people needed help." The American Red Cross Grand Canyon chapter is helping two families relocate due to fire damage to the apartments they were living in. They are providing assistance to one family of nine and another family of seven. They helped ten children and six adults following the fire.

Christine Ponce was instrumental in contacting staff from the Mammoth STEM School which provided use of the school cafeteria for a place to stay for people who were forced to evacuate from the apartment building during the fire. They also provided a bus to transport the people to the school. Mayor Alvaro Barcelo showed up to see if any assistance was needed. Around three in the morning Patsy Large, town clerk went to the school cafeteria and provided blankets and pillows for the people staying there.

The fighting of the fire and the assistance that followed was a community effort from the unsung heroes that rescued two girls, to the volunteer fire fighters, assisting agencies and caring townspeople. People caring about and helping others, a nice example of a little Christmas spirit in the Tri-Community.

Motorcycle Service Center opens in Oracle

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

HD First Motorcycle Repair and Service had their grand opening on Dec. 7 in Oracle. Owner Barry Johnston is a graduate of MMI (Motorcycle Mechanics Institute) and is a certified Harley Davidson mechanic. He worked over five years for Harley Davidson in Tucson. He has been a resident of Oracle since 1986. He lives with his wife Lori and they have a daughter Rachelle and son Barry.

Barry decided to go into business for himself after getting tired of being on the road working heavy equipment. He decided to sell his fifth wheel and put the money into HD First. The shop does service, parts, tires and repair for all motorcycles, dirt bikes, and ATVs. "Our rates are equal too or better than Tucson," said Barry. HD First can order any parts not in stock that may be needed.

At the grand opening, Twisted Whiskers AKA Dutch Vande Mheen had organized a motorcycle rodeo. DJ Rodney Diehl provided the music. Proceeds from the event went to the Wounded Warrior Project, a veteran's organization.

Charlotte's Way Rescue holds successful fundraiser

By Nina Crowder

San Manuel Miner

It was a sunny and beautiful day on Saturday, Dec. 14, 2013, with a great turn out to the Charlotte's Way Rescue. Cher Heath of Charlotte's Way Rescue held a successful fundraiser on Dec. 14 at Catalina Rawhide Hay and Feed Store! Cher was able to adopt out four animals to good homes and was able to earn enough money for her non-profit kennel license.

There were various raffles provided by Tea Life basket, a certificate for a one hour massage by Healing Pathways Massage, a certificate for a Tarot Card reading, ZORT (Zombie Outbreak Response Team-Arizona Sector) shirts, Candle Basket and other items. Camp Bow Wow was on hand to answer questions and help with the fundraiser. Homemade dog treats were also on hand with part of the proceeds going to Charlottes Way Rescue.

There are still many animals available for adoption. Cher has approximately 65 dogs and 42 cats. Upon adoption of the animals from Charlotte's Way Rescue the animals are spayed/neutered, fecal tested, up to date on shots and they are even taught manners. Many of the animals are house trained with Ceasar Millan dog training. Cher is dedicated to reducing euthanasia of adoptable pets. She helps bring a quality of life to all abandoned, abused and neglected animals that are in the tri-community area. It is a serious commitment when choosing to adopt an animal but well worth it. Charlotte's Way Rescue is always looking for good volunteers for walking dogs, cleaning of crates and kennels, washing animals, playing with the animals and help with the adoption clinics. They also need donations of items such as clean old towels,

Synergistic fusion of music, art and poetry

By Evaline Jones Auerbach
Special to the Miner

Oracle Piano Society truly "showed its stuff" with a remarkable performance of a remarkable fusion stage event on Nov. 30 at the Desert View Performing Arts Center, SaddleBrooke Two.

Turn-of-the-century Oracle residents would have been as proud as current residents - who were and are here for the informality and friendship as well as the culture of the place. They would be and are proud of the new entity, Oracle Piano Society and its debut performance for the society - which was also the debut for the musical, artistic, poetry-laden play itself "Picture Rachmaninoff".

The play, set in the drawing room of a fictional art collector-pianist who has accumulated each of the nine paintings which inspired Rachmaninoff to compose his "Etudes Tableaux, Op. 39," is a monologue by Dr. Stephen Cook, sole actor and pianist.

Although Cook had presented the program of paintings and music before, the presentation as a stage play made this performance a debut. Written by Paul Harvey, Jr., the son of the famous radio broadcaster, the story pulled together all the elements of live performance and paintings onstage, as well as screenings of the actual paintings and voice-over by Harvey himself, with his paraphrases of Russian poems. Harvey had been quite impressed by a performance at Arizona State University in Tempe where Cook, presented the art-poem-music selections. Harvey wrote the play, the story that held the individual triads together, and paraphrased the poetry to fit the audience and retain each poem's essence.

The resulting work came alive that night: a performance - a pure synergistic artistic experience - we were lucky enough to see and hear, we current residents of Oracle and SaddleBrooke, along with interested friends, and lots of students, some of whom had participated by painting the props. The on-stage paintings which the "art-collector" picked up and showed us had been reproduced on canvas (in one case, in a book) by Stacy Marko and her advanced art students at Desert Vista High School in Phoenix (and had been on display at the Patio Cafe in Oracle for two weeks before the performance).

To meld each art piece with its "Etudes Tableaux" (picture study), the large on-stage screen showed parts of the actual painting and then zoomed out gradually while the reproduction sat on an easel in front of the screen for comparison. Meanwhile, Paul Harvey's reading of the attendant poem fitted both the music and the visuals perfectly. One would say that this truly was the art and poetry that Rachmaninoff had meant to be connected to each. It was easy to believe the art collector (Cook) when he told us that he had discovered a diary in which Rachmaninoff explained which works of art had inspired the pictures he painted.

The Etudes themselves ranged from a demon showing itself, to a fairy tale, to creation from chaos, and many other themes.

For the Demon, Mikhail Vrubel's The Demon Downcast provided the on-screen visual, with Mikhail Yuryevich Lermanov's "The Demon" read by Harvey, accompanying the Etude No. 1 in C minor: Allegro agitato played masterfully by Cook. Around this performance the story developed that this "art collector" had acquired all the paintings mentioned in the diary and intended to sell them for a fortune. We, the audience, were his co-conspirators in this project.

During the showing of other paintings, one in particular appealed to young and old - based on a fairy tale. The painting by Wladislaw Wankie Alone in the Park presented a person dressed in red in the midst of a nearly colorless winter park. With the poem "Wolves" by Tolstoy, the performance of the Opus 39, no. 6 in A minor seemed to be a perfect depiction of "Little Red Riding Hood." However well the pieces fit, we are soon reminded that the coordination of art/music/poetry is that of Steven Cook himself. As the art collector in the play, he gradually comes around to telling us, prompted by an on-stage phone call, that the diary was not real. So his commercial project falls apart.

However, even though the art collector blames us, his co-conspirators, for sabotaging his scheme, the artistic project definitely holds together — never more so than in the depiction of Creation out of Chaos, a metaphor for the whole artistic experience opening up on stage. Ivan Aivazovsky's Chaos: Creation of the World is matched with, not a Russian poet this time, but the Bible's Genesis 1:2 for the presentation of Etude-Tableau No. 5 in E-flat minor: Appassionato.

By the time Cook is finished with the whole program of nine etudes, nine paintings and nine literary selections, we believe, not so much that he has found a secret diary, but that he has some magical inspiration to have fitted all these pieces together so well - and played everything, including the stage persona, so magnificently.

Oracle Piano Society

How did Oracle get so lucky to have a piano society at all, and especially one as sophisticated as this? It may become clear when we tell you that Founder and Artistic Director Stephen Cook is married to Oraclean Rachel Opinsky's daughter. And that Rachel's mother was Sally Fender, musical aficionado to whom the concert was dedicated: the "Sally Fender Memorial Concert".

Of course, Rachel had some great help in Oracle. The board is chaired by retired Psychologist and Cellist, Dr. Elizabeth LaFarge with Architect and Soprano, Mary Huebner, Voice and Piano

Lady Miners extend win streak to seven games

By Andrew Luberda

San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel girls' basketball team extended their winning streak to seven games last week with victories over Tohono O'Odham and Hayden. The Miners' last loss came on Nov. 27, 2013 against Tombstone.

The Miners are getting it done on both ends of the court. During their seven-game winning streak they are holding their opponents to an average of 21.5 points per game and are outscoring them by an average of over 19 points per game. In other words, the Miners have been dominating teams during the streak.

In Friday's 29-point blowout win against Hayden, Angelic Zuniga recorded another double-double with 15 points and 14 rebounds. Zuniga, a senior, is averaging 18 points and 12 rebounds per game. Junior Kadi Manfred played a very solid game as well with 10 points, six rebounds and four steals. The Miners recorded 16 steals as a team which largely accounted for the lopsided score.

The Miners will return to action after the holidays with two games on both days, Jan. 3, 2014 and Jan. 4, 2014. They will play Coolidge at home and at Hayden on Jan.

3. On Jan. 4, they will play Imagine Prep Coolidge before traveling to Immaculate Heart in Tucson. Game times for both days are 8 a.m. and 6 p.m., respectively.

Elks announce Hoop Shoot winners

The winners of the San Manuel Elks Hoop Shoot free throwing contest were announced Tuesday at the San Manuel Elks Club. Around 45 kids participated in the contest which was held Saturday at the San Manuel High School Gym. It was the biggest participation the contest has held in years. The winners were presented with certificates by Elks Lodge members Sam Pyritz and Andy Salas. They will receive trophies later on. Andy spoke to the kids and parents about the Elks, their history and traditions and giving back to the community. He talked about how the membership is dwindling and the club is in need of younger men and women to step up and become the next generation of Elks.

The winners of the San Manuel Elks Hoop Shootout were Analicia Ahumada, Girls 10-11 Division; Alex Medina, Boys 12-13 Division; Jose Zazueta, Boys 10-11 Division; Ariza Castillo, Girls 8-9

Division; and Damien Foster, Boys 8-9 Division. These five local champions will travel to Sahuarita to compete in the district hoop shoot. Winners from the district will then go to Phoenix.

Volunteer Connection

Volunteers provide all types of community services and assistance. There are volunteer health care professionals, firemen, coaches for youth sports, tutors, teachers, food bank workers, grant writers and more. Just about every job skill available out in the community can be used by volunteer groups and organizations in our communities.

The San Manuel Miner is sponsoring this regular feature that hopes to connect non-profit organizations, churches, schools and events with volunteers. To have your volunteer opportunity posted here, please submit:

- Name of organization
- Contact information
- Type of volunteer(s) you are seeking
- A brief description of the volunteer's job
- The number of hours expected from your volunteer
- Any other relevant information

Send your information to editor@minersunbasin.com.

Family First Pregnancy Care Center & Family Diaper Bank

Email pregnancycarecenter1@yahoo.com; phone 520-896-9545 or go online to www.familyfirstpcc.org. Type of volunteers: receptionist, store manager, grant writer, social media person/marketing person, mentor (training for all volunteers throughout the year) Volunteers will be in the office 3 hours a week or any time they can be available to work in the office on a task or project, volunteers give the client their lesson from the model they are assigned to do and work with them. Store managers keep the shelves sorted, stacked, and supplied with items as they are donated to us. They would only have to schedule their time once or twice a month. A tour of the office will give you an opportunity to see what we have and what transpires when a client comes in for a class.

Tri-Community Food Bank

Phone 520-487-2010 or stop by 108 Redwood Dr., Mammoth. We are looking for volunteers that can lift about 20 pounds. A volunteer is needed to work 2-4 times a month. The volunteer will fill food boxes, move stock from storage to the pantry and sort donations for the thrift shop. The food bank is open Monday through Thursday and Saturday from 9 AM to noon. Call the food bank and leave your name and contact number if you can help. The food bank provides food boxes to residents who are income eligible living in or near Mammoth, San Manuel and Oracle.

Oracle Historical Society

Email Charla Wright at wrightcharla@yahoo.com or call 520-896-9609 (leave a message) If you're fascinated by regional history, the Oracle Historical Society invites you to join us for a few hours on Saturdays when the Acadia Ranch Museum is open to the public. We need more volunteers to greet visitors who drop by (11 a.m. to 4 p.m.) to see the museum and its displays of historic photos, authentic exhibits, and restored rooms. We also need volunteer tour guides to take visitors "back in time" with the help of our 45-minute room-to-room script.

"Volunteering is an act of heroism on a grand scale. And it matters profoundly. It does more than help people beat the odds; it changes the odds." – President Bill Clinton
