OBITUARIES

Melissa Ann Allison

Melissa Ann Allison, 49, of Superior, Arizona, passed away on Saturday, Dec. 17, 2022, in Gilbert, Arizona, after a very courageous battle with cancer. She was born on Dec. 8, 1973, in Mesa to Donald and Paulette Wheeler. She is the third oldest of her siblings.

Melissa's greatest joy in life was being a wife and mother. Her children meant everything to her.

She loved spending time with them at home, going on trips as a family, watching them play sports or anything that involved being with them. Melissa's other passion in life was going on motorcycle rides with her husband. If you were lucky enough to be loved by Melissa, then your life has been blessed and you are a better person because of knowing her.

Melissa is preceded in death by her father Donald Wheeler, stepfather Rick Campos, grandparents Max Wheeler, Twila Wheeler Bowles, Ricardo and Frances Campos, Emmett James and Wilma Lee Allison, and nephew Benjamin Snyder.

Melissa is survived by her mother; husband, John; children, Alexis, Zachary, Tyler, Zoey, Anessa and Omari; siblings, Danny, Regina (Humberto), Nathan, Eloy and Felicia; and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Melissa loved her family, as well as her many friends, and on behalf of her family we want to thank each and every one of you for the love and support you have shown Melissa and her family.

Services for Melissa were held Wednesday, Dec. 28, 2022, at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Superior, AZ. She was laid to rest at Fairview Cemetery.

Michael J. Ybarra

Michael J. Ybarra, age 69, was called home to our heavenly father on Dec. 11, 2022. He passed away peacefully in his home with his family in Superior, AZ. Michael was born in Miami, AZ on Dec. 20, 1952, to Leo and Belia Ybarra.

Michael was raised in Superior until the age of 9. As a young boy he moved to Miami, AZ with his grandparents, Tata Mike and Nana Grace Rivera. His grandparents and Rivera family welcomed him with open arms and gave him the unconditional love that he needed. He graduated from Superior High School and was proud to have lived his life there. In 1970, he met the love of his life, Maria, and they were married June 1974. They had three beautiful daughters, Melissa, Monica and Michelle. Michael loved and adored his wife, daughters and grandchildren.

Michael spent almost 40 years working the copper mines, construction and street maintenance around the Superior-Globe area. He was an extremely dedicated hard worker with a good work ethic. When Michael was not working, he was doing what he loved the most, spending time with his family, his grandchildren, friends, camping, fishing or riding his horses. He had a great love and passion for his horses.

Michael is survived by his loving wife of 48-years, Maria Ybarra; daughters, Melissa Madrid (Charles), Monica Ybarra (Louis) and Michelle Ybarra(Ryan); eight grandchildren, Michael's pride and joy, Andrew Martinez, Adam Martinez, Gabriel Mendez, Louis Ruesing, Michael Martinez, Joshua Orona, and Kamyrn and Matthew Vidal; brother, Leo (Melinda) Ybarra; sisters, Patsy (Doug) Cunningham, Mary Helen Ybarra and Belia Ybarra Sapien; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins whom he loved dearly.

Michael was preceded in death by his parents Leo and Belia and brother Johnny Ybarra.

Michael was loved dearly as a husband, father, tata, brother, uncle, cousin and friend. His loyalty and unconditional love will be greatly missed by many. This is where the "Cowboy Rides Away!"

Sheryl Schwalm

Sheryl Schwalm née Peterson went to heaven on Dec. 19, 2022. She was born in July 1954 in Michigan to Harvey and Marjorie Peterson. She was the middle and only girl with two older brothers and two younger brothers.

Sheryl was preceded in death by her son Nicholas in 2004, her father in 2006 and her mother in 1988. She is survived by her daughters, Megan and Amber, their husbands, and a total of five grandchildren along with her brothers and their families.

She loved reading, doing crosswords and sudoku as her hobbies but above all she loved her family and held a strong faith in our Savior.

Panthers head to AJ for Lost Dutchman Tournament

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Superior Sun

Both Superior basketball teams had a light schedule last week, hosting the Ray Bearcats.

The Lady Panthers claimed the victory over the Lady 'Cats with a final score of 40-27, giving them their second win in a row. Top scorers of the game was Chiara Marquez with 11 points, Jasmine Ortega with 9 and Alyna Cruz with 8. The Lady Panthers will not return to the court until Jan. 9, with a game against Valley Lutheran.

The boys team also saw a victory against Ray, but this one was much closer of a game. The Panthers claimed a victory by only 2 points, ending the game with a final score of 44-42.

The boys will return to the court on Dec. 27 for the Lost Dutchman Tournament in Apache Junction.

Local groups share resolutions for 2023

New Year's Resolutions vary by person – some refuse to set them, while others do their best to keep them.

Regardless, the new year is a great time to set intentions. We reached out to a few local leaders on what their hopes and plans were for 2023 for their organizations.

Rebuild Superior: Chairperson Manny Guzman shared that his hope for the organization “expand our ability to help residents with home repairs and housing preservation”. Rebuild Superior is also expected to launch a new brand and website in early 2023.

Guzman also serves as the President of the Superior Food Bank - “For the food bank our wish for the new year is to attract 20 new volunteers”. The Food Bank is a program managed by Rebuild Superior Inc.

Shayna Beasley, Superior Chamber of Commerce, Executive Director, “For the Superior Chamber of Commerce my wish is that our members thrive, new businesses open in Superior and that we welcome more visitors into Superior”.

Superior Enterprise Center: “The Superior Enterprise Center in 2023 will continue to pursue partnerships and avenues of development that improve our community’s economic growth by supporting entrepreneurs, and business owners as well as creating pathways for workforce development. Our New Years wish is to be moved in to our new facility at the Multi-Gen Center with co-working spaces and new programs,” shared Director Arlynn Godinez

Your personal resolution may be to get outside and do more exercise. The LOST Trail is a great place to stretch your legs and get some exercise. Vice President Jim Schenck shared some Resolutions for the Legends of Superior Trails: “We hope that the Queen Creek Canyon trail segment survives the bridge construction slated for 2023 and that the trail can stay open during construction,” he said.

If your personal resolution is to get more involved in the community, exercise a bit more or maybe start a business, any of these organizations can help you with your 2023 Resolutions.

Rotary Club donates to SUSD

The Superior Rotary Club’s president Jerry Chilton Jr. presented a donation for school supplies to Steve Estatico Superintendent of the Superior Unified School District to celebrate the club’s meeting with Rotary District No. 5500’s District Governor Anita McDonald on Tuesday, Dec. 13, 2022. Every year, the serving Rotary District Governor travels to Superior to visit with our local Rotary Club and inform it of Rotary’s goals for the coming year.
