volunteering in the community. He has served on the Governing Board for Superior School District, served as a Town Councilman and was a teacher for many years. Most recently he has been the lead on many community beautification projects and has been making benches that are located all over town. Beto was recognized by the Superior Town Council in November with a special proclamation and will be the grand marshal in this year's Miracle on Main St. parade.

The Miracle on Main Street festivities begin with a benefit corn hole tournament for the Superior Food Bank at Felicia's Ice cream shop on Main Street at noon. Registration is $5 per person and five cans of food. They will also have raffle tickets and food for sale.

Free train rides, entertainment and other food and game booths will open at 4 p.m. Balle Folklorico Alma de Superior will perform at 4:30 p.m.. The parade will begin promptly at 7 p.m. on Main St. and Santa will greet children at the Besich Park following the parade. Calvary Superior worship band will play following the parade. The SHS Senior Class will be hosting a cake walk and bake sale to raise money for their upcoming senior class trip throughout the day.

There is still plenty of time to enter a float in the upcoming Superior Optimist Club Miracle on Main St. light parade on Saturday, Dec. 5. The theme this year is Christmas at the Cinema; you may register your parade entry online at <http://bit.ly/2015MiracleonMain>. Prizes are $100 for first place, $75 for second place and $50 for third place.

Any local non-profit groups or churches wishing to participate in the event or still need to register a parade entry should contact Mila Besich-Lira at 520-827-0676 or JoAnn Besich at 520-827-0592.

Santa's Little Helper reminds you to send in your letters to Santa

Ashley Lopez, a pre-schooler at John F. Kennedy School, has been tasked by Santa to remind all the children in Superior to drop off their letters to Santa at Save Money Market. Letters will be published in the Superior Sun.

Ashley posed with some great gift ideas located at the Rolling Rock Gallery on Main St. The local store features many games and toys for children.

Ashley is asking Santa for Little Mermaid toys, accessories for her play kitchen, makeup and lots of candy, "all the candy in the world" she said.

Ashley is four-years-old and the daughter of Steve and Toni Lopez of Superior. She has an older sister Stephanie and a younger sister Natalie.

Superior children can mail their wishes to Santa in the special mailbox that can be found at Save Money Market.

Santa has also set up a special email address if you want to send your wishes to him electronically. The email address is santa@minersunbasin.com. And please when emailing include the town where you live so that your letter can be published in the right newspaper.

This year, Mr. Claus has given us permission to accept letters through our Facebook page (www.Facebook.com/CopperArea). Just send us a private message (PM) with your child's letter to Santa. Please be sure to include the town where you live so we can publish it in the right newspaper.

Hurry and get your letters in quickly so they can be forwarded to the North Pole in plenty of time for the big day. The deadline to mail letters in Santa's special mailbox is Dec. 18. Santa needs time to get all the requests fulfilled.

Letters will be published on Dec. 23.

Ashley Lopez sits among some of her new favorite things, ready to offer suggestions for wish lists.

Shopping, aromatherapy classes, gallery opening this Saturday in Superior

This Saturday, Dec. 5, there are several activities coming up in the downtown shopping district. Those events include the soft opening for Keaton Fine Art Gallery located in Smokey's Mercantile at 161 Main St. The gallery will feature original art pieces as well as a gift shop. The gallery will be open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday

Sole to Soul will be hosting an aromatherapy make and take class from noon to 4 p.m. at their shop located at 16 N. Magma Ave. This class is designed to teach you about the benefits of aromatherapy and each participant will have a product to take home. Minimum cost is $5 with additional costs for other products.

Daystar Studios will be hosting their annual holiday boutique on Saturday, Dec. 5, and Sunday, Dec. 6. The studio is located at the home of Marilee Lasch at 200 North Magma. The boutique runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday and runs from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday. This boutique includes several other local artists.

Ray Federal Credit Union, focusing on the future – new branch and small business loans available

By Mila Besich-Lira
Copper Area News

Adam Perlman the Manager for Ray Federal Credit Union set out on a mission to grow the Kearny-based credit union into more a regional financial institution. Perlman's first interactions with the branch was when he was working as an auditor that audits credit unions. When the branch manager job opened up he applied and the board hired him.

Two of the most recent projects by the RFCU is the successful application to the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) which provides funding to local financial institutions to create a revolving loan fund small and emerging business loans. The USDA loans can be applied for at the Ray Federal Credit Union, and can be used to purchase capital expenses, equipment and in some cases operating expenses. These loans are only available to businesses in rural Pinal and Gila Counties focusing on the communities of the Copper Corridor. In other areas of the country these loans are used to help a business grow or get off the ground; with low interest rates and flexibility these loans often to help fill a niche that other financial institutions can not meet. Businesses are still required to have solid business plans in their loan application process.

The other major project is the opening of a new branch in Superior. Construction of the branch is underway and RFCU is awaiting final clearance from the town council in Superior on the installation of an ATM on Main St. The branch will be located in the co-op space Smokey's Mercantile next door to the Superior Chamber of Commerce on Main St. The branch will feature the services available at the Kearny branch. Perlman is anticipating the Superior branch to be open by mid March.

He has been with the RFCU since 2012 during his tenure, the credit union has had a 57% growth in total

Why do you love Superior? Let your voice be heard!

By Mila Besich-Lira
Superior Sun

The Superior Chamber of Commerce has been hard at work over the past few months to develop a plan to attract new businesses and help maintain existing businesses in Superior. They have hired three consulting groups to assist with this planning and many locals will be contacted to have one-on-one interviews about their individual businesses and thoughts on what can be improved in Superior and also share about what is working. The program is called the "Business Attraction Program."

On Monday, Dec. 14, 2015, at 6 p.m. at the Superior Chamber of Commerce building (165 W. Main St.), there will be a second and final meeting for the public to attend to provide input on what the community needs. You do not have to be a business owner to attend and everyone is encouraged to attend and participate. This meeting will provide a background on the project but will also allow meeting participants to share in a discreet manner what they love about Superior and what they would like to see changed or improved in Superior. The discussion is not just focused on business needs but the entire needs of the community, topics such as code enforcement, recreation, internal community relations and arts and culture all play a role in developing a stronger community.

The findings at these meetings will help the Chamber of Commerce and community leaders to identify what the next steps are in growing a stronger more sustainable economy that is not reliant on the mining industry. The process has been funded by Resolution Copper in their efforts to help grow a sustainable economy in Superior.

For more information on the program or to learn more about the meeting contact the Superior Chamber of Commerce at 520-689-0200. Those planning to attend are encouraged to RSVP.

assets, membership has grown by 75% from 1,514 in 2012 members to 2,651 members in 2015. Perlman was also quick to become actively involved with the community and increased donations to the community.

RFCU has tried to meet the banking needs of the community after the closure of Bank of the West. In addition to offering savings, checking and loans they also provide bill payment service to over 1000 creditors and utilities for those that prefer to make cash payments in person, these payments are posted directly to those accounts using the service at the credit union. The Kearny branch also features a coin counter. Membership is still required and they have many ways that you can qualify as a member explained Perlman.

Perlman encourages local residents to come in and see how RFCU can provide financial services to for both personal and business needs.
