San Tan Valley Think Tank to host 2014 Speech and Essay Contest in Pinal County

Water, water everywhere but here in Arizona.

By Bridgette Crosby
Southeast Valley Ledger

Water, a vital resource for life in the desert, is the focus of the 2014 Scholastic Essay and Speech contest sponsored by the San Tan Valley Think Tank. Students from local high schools and middle schools in Pinal County are invited to participate in this annual contest in order to address a critical issue that the county will be facing in the near future.

Students will have the opportunity to research, write and speak about one of the most important questions facing our nation and our county: "How can STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics) Provide Water as a Sustainable Resource in Pinal County into the Future?"

The San Tan Valley Think Tank Contest will also be a part of the Arizona SciTech Festival in February 2014. This is the first year that a speech component has been included in the contest, which the Think Tank believes will make the event more interesting and will give high school students a different platform to share ideas and explain concepts.

Deadline to enter the Essay Contest is set for December 23, 2013. The essay contest is open to both middle and high school students. High school and middle school students will be judged separately.

Deadline for Speech Contest is set at January 15, 2014.

The Speech Portion of the contest is open only to high school students. Contestants will be required to submit a YouTube Video of the speech for evaluation and must contact the San Tan Valley Think Tank for confirmation. Five contestants will be chosen to participate in the final Essay and Speech Contest Final Event.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for students to study, think about, conceptualize and propose solutions for important issues facing our county. It is also a great opportunity to win scholarship awards and be recognized in the community. I encourage all students to give this some thought and enter the contest," stated Jack Malpass, founder of the San Tan Valley Think Tank.

There will be winners in both the middle school and high school essay and speech categories.

Judges will choose the following winners in each category:

- One Grand Prize Winner
- $500 scholarship award from Pinal County Attorney's

GCC, CVIT make large donation to local food bank

The Gila Pueblo Campus of Gila Community College just wrapped up its annual Holiday Food Drive. Their goal was to collect 1,000 items in five weeks; the students, faculty and staff more than met this goal by donating 2,890 items to the local food bank!

There was a little departmental competition that was won by the Biology Department who was rewarded with a luncheon. Food for the luncheon was donated by Fry's, Vonnies Pizza, Little Ceasar's, Cobre Valley Institute of Technology (CVIT), and Pinal Mountain Foundation for Higher Education. APS donated the collection boxes.

CVIT announces Building Trades as new central program for 2014-15

Cobre Valley Institute of Technology (CVIT) is pleased to announce the Building Trades Program for the 2014-2015 school year. "We are very excited about this new program. In cooperation with Gila Community College we will be able to offer high quality education and meet local and state industry needs. We strive for excellence in education and citizenship for our students. With a wide variety of programs we hope to meet everyone's interest," said Beata Tarasiuk, CVIT's executive program director. CVIT is currently offering eight central programs, seven of them in partnership with Gila Community College with no cost to the student. High school students from Superior, Hayden, Miami, Globe, and San Carlos are able to get their college and professional career started while still in high school.

The new Building Trades program will be held at the Gila Community College Regional Training Center

(RTC) in lower Miami. Students will be taking general construction courses such as Beginning Carpentry, Drywall Maintenance and Repair, Blue Print Reading, Concrete Work, Plumbing, Forming and Framing, Electricity, AutoCAD and Electrical House Wiring. The program will lead to Certificate of Proficiency. For more information about CVIT programs contact Beata Tarasiuk at 928-425-9654.

Pastor's Corner

We are summoned

By Pastor Joe Palmer
Fellowship Baptist Church

There is a great benefit to having a time each day to sit down and talk through the issues of life with someone who cares more for you than you do and who knows exactly what is best for you. I encourage you do so. ... "But," you say, "who loves me so deeply and is so wise?" Your spouse or children or long-time friends come closest to fitting this profile, but you say I've set the bar too high!

There is, of course, only One Who loves you deeply and wisely enough for you to pour out the pleas or angst of your heartache, fear, and emptiness – God (to Whom you can be reconciled through Christ's death and resurrection). If you will, you can find the peace and grace you desperately long to have. Philippians 4:6, 7 6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Hebrews 4:16

16 Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

If you would like to talk with me (Pastor Joe Palmer of Fellowship Baptist) about it, email me at joeandsuzypal@yahoo.com.

CAC's Dr. Beth Krueger combines online learning with hands-on experience at iconic Arizona venues in new biology course

COOLIDGE, Ariz.

– Twenty-two Central Arizona College students, who live throughout Pinal County, are learning biology paired with natural history in a new course offered for the first time this fall.

Natural History of the Southwest (BIO109) was developed as part of a $3.3 million STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math) grant that CAC received from the U.S. Department of Education.

Under the direction of Dr. Beth Krueger, professor of science, students met in person for the first class session in August. Since then, students have been participating in classes through distance learning and a quartet of daylong field trips at locations throughout southeastern Arizona.

The field days at Arizona-Sonoran Desert Museum (Tucson), Boyce Thompson Arboretum State Park (Superior), Riparian Preserve at Water Ranch (Gilbert) and Desert Willow Environmental Education Center (Mesa) provide students with perfect venues to study the geography, climate, and common plants and animals of the Southwest, specifically the Sonoran Desert.

In addition, students learn basic field and laboratory techniques used in natural history, ecology and biology studies. The program is a hands-on experience.

During their recent visit to Boyce Thompson Arboretum State Park, students were divided into teams and given four tasks to complete throughout the day. These included studying the behavior of arthropods, testing the water quality of Ayer Lake, weather observations, and completing a birding competition in which groups of students had to identify the species and number of birds they encountered, as well as their location in the arboretum.

“I love this class and would recommend it for all Arizonians and winter visitors,” Linda Lawson, a student from the Florence Center, chirped while closely listening and watching for birds.

Tanner Kemp, a student from the Signal Peak Campus, reflected upon his own bird-watching experience. “I remember being told that the more patient and still you sit, the more you will see.

This applies to any type of wildlife observation.”

As a class requirement, students design their own weebly.com website. Included on each student’s website is a copy of their weekly nature journal, a description of their individual semester project, and laboratory activity findings and data analysis from each field day.

Margaret Allen of Florence has embraced the computer technology she has learned by developing her own website - www.bio109margaretallen2.weebly.com.

Debby and Nathaniel Thompson, a mother and son tandem who attend classes at CAC’s Aravaipa Campus, decided to share this class experience together.

“My favorite things are the field days and applying what we are learning,” Nathaniel Thompson said. “Seeing it firsthand is the most rewarding part of the class.”

His mother echoed her son’s enjoyment of the new course that has fast become a favorite by the students currently enrolled in the class.

“I really enjoy this course. It has opened my eyes to our ecology and helps to bring a lot of awareness,” Debby Thompson said. “Beth is

We, of the Copper Community Action Board, were overwhelmed with gratitude for the support the community showed us at the CCAB Community Concert on November 16th! We were expecting about 50 people to attend and were hoping for 100. All in all we had over 150 people in attendance!

The concert’s performers shined like true stars, and we are very grateful to them for their volunteered time. The lineup included young local performers: Maria Avenetti, Ariella Borquez, Martina Borquez, Julianna Borquez, Johnny Angel (Silva), and Anissa Newman. Opening the show was the band Fathers and Sons (Peter Santa Maria, David Romero, Matthew Santa Maria, and Adrian Romero), performing Corrido de San Pedro, in tribute to Frank Amado. Porter’s Ghost and Fathers and Sons played amazing sets in between. Seasoned performers Johnny Silva, Myra Fontes-Warren, Danny Fessenden, Monica Badillo, and Bernadette Muñoz also contributed to this magical night, as the talented Master of Ceremonies Luciano “Lucky” Romero guided us along. Everyone from behind the scenes, doing admissions, concessions, spotlight (Annie Hinojos and Daniela Hinojos), doormen, ushers, security (Alonzo Ruiz) and producers backstage worked so well together. It seemed choreographed. It was not. It was just that kind of a special night where all the stars lined up just right.

We, at CCAB, are on our way to getting our 501c3 non-profit status, and we could not have done it without the support of the community. We are so thankful to the Hayden-Winkelman School District for allowing us to use the auditorium, their janitorial staff for their cleaning and assistance, and for the sponsors Town of Winkelman, Robin Newman, Santa, Bill Loehr, Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce and Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition for advertising, Copper Basin News, Copper Country News, and a great big thanks to Porter’s Ghost for their sound. If we forgotten anyone, it was not intentional.

Remember “If you want to lift yourself up, lift up someone else.” Booker T. Washington. VOLUNTEER today! Please contact us if you would like to volunteer with CCAB at coppercommunityactionboard@gmail.com.

Thank you and Happy Holidays from the CCAB Board,

CV Foundation hosts successful art, wine auction

Over the years the Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center Foundation Art & Wine Auction has developed into a highly anticipated occasion. November 1, marked the Sixth Annual Art & Wine Auction with over 375 community members, artists, and business individuals strolling through the streets of Paris, France. Guests were greeted with a warm "bon soir!" With stars dangling, a full moon glowing, a luminous Eiffel tower, globe lights swaying overhead, café fronts, street lamps, and bistro tables lining the European streets, French music played in the background while a mime mingled with the crowd providing entertainment and boosting their amusement. French cuisine and a street full of live and silent auction items kept the streets of Paris bustling. It was a magical evening and the CV Foundation extends their sincerest gratitude to our sponsors, our contributors, and our supporters. Thank you to all who donated and purchased art, and purchased tickets. With sponsorships, ticket sales, wine/beer sales, and art auction sales, a record high, net profit of approximately $37,000 was reached.

The CV Foundation is continually looking to improve, support, and provide excellent healthcare throughout the region and puts 100% of their fundraising efforts toward growth in services offered, employee education, and equipment; further enhancing the patient experience for Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center and its regional clinics in Kearny, Superior, and Pleasant Valley. Providing our communities with compassionate, quality, efficient care is not only our mission, but our standard. A sincere "Thank You" to all who contributed to the success of this event.

Those attending the Art and Wine Auction enjoyed viewing the storefront painted by Diana Tunis.

We especially appreciate Father Sebastian for the heartwarming mass, Dawn Austin for her beautiful voice, Ramona Romero for the beautiful flower arrangements, all who took the time to prepare the food and drinks given to us, all who helped organize Bonnie's reception, and to all that we may have forgotten to mention. All of your love and support has truly not gone unnoticed.

It is going to take some time for us to get over Bonnie being gone but we are truly blessed to have such special and loving people in our lives.

We are sincerely grateful for all that you have done.

Dear Santa ...

Besties Kyrah Faucette and Sadie Fuller are barely able to reach the top of the special Santa mailbox, but they were there together to mail their Christmas dreams and wishes to Santa Claus.

Kyrah said she wants a Sophia the First toy and has been good this year. Sadie wants Santa to bring her a Princess Sophia and an Ariel dress. She said she and her best friend Kyrah have both been good girls.

Kyrah is three and is the daughter of Quentin and Courtney Faucette. Sadie is also three and the daughter of Jared and Jana Fuller.

Copper Basin Area children can mail their wishes to Santa in the special mailbox located in front of the Copper Basin News office at 366 Alden Rd., Kearny.

Santa has also set up a special email address if you want to send your wishes to him electronically. The email address is santa@minersunbasin.com. And please when emailing include the town where you live so that your letter can be published in the right newspaper. Hurry and get your letters in quick so they can be forwarded to the North Pole in plenty of time for the big day. The deadline to mail letters in Santa's special mailbox is Dec. 13. Santa needs time to get all the requests fulfilled.

Kearny Elks to hold Local Hoop Shoot contest Dec. 7 at the Ray High School gym

The Kearny Elks will be holding its 41st annual Local Hoop Shoot contest on Saturday, Dec. 7 at the Ray High School gym. Hayden/Winkelman School and Ray schools are helping the Elks to determine the first, second, and third place contestants that will be competing in the local shoot. The first place winners of our local shoot out will then compete against other shooters, from the district, in their age group, at the district contest to be held at the Ray High School gym on Jan. 4.

Anyone know the meaning of antidisestablishmentarianism? Kearny Elks award dictionaries to help local kids look it up

The Dictionary Project was founded in 1995 by Mary French of Charleston, SC. It's primary focus is to promote literacy to children in third-grade as they transition from learning how to read to identify and use information. Elks joined this movement in 2004. Nationwide they have donated more than 1.2 million dictionaries to third-grade students and their teachers as sponsors of the Dictionary Project over the last 6 years. There are 600 lodges that actively participate in the program. Kearny Elks Lodge #2478 with the help Frank Buso, Angela Buso and Sheila Stephenson distributed 72 dictionaries to 3rd graders at the Hayden/Winkelman (Pictured) and at the Ray Primary Schools. It's time to be winter safe!

From the Pinal Rural Fire Rescue

Sadly, many do not take the time to prepare before using their heating sources in winter and lose everything they own in a fire. In 2011, heating equipment was involved in an estimated 53,600 reported U.S. home structure fires, with associated losses of 400 civilian deaths, 1,520 civilian injuries, and $893 million in direct property damage. These fires accounted for 14% of all reported home fires.

Facts & figures

Based on 2007-2011 annual averages:

Space heaters, whether portable or stationary, accounted for one-third (33%) of home heating fires and four out of five (81%) of home heating fire deaths.

The leading factor contributing to home heating fires (28%) was failure to clean, principally creosote from solid-fueled heating equipment, primarily chimneys.

Placing things that can burn too close to heating equipment or placing heating equipment too close to things that can burn, such as upholstered furniture,

An Advertising Proverb

When Mark Twain was editing a newspaper in Missouri, one of his subscribers wrote in, saying that he had found a spider in his newspaper and wondered whether it was a sign of good or bad luck. Twain's response: "Finding a spider is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our newspaper to see which merchant was not advertising, so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

an excellent teacher. It was a good choice to take this course."

Krueger's student-focused teaching style that stresses engagement, coupled with the programs she has planned, is reaping benefits in the form of active participation and learning by her students.

"It is very rewarding to see students learn to enjoy and appreciate the Sonoran Desert ecosystem,"

Krueger explained. "Many of them are applying what they learn to their lives and to their communities. For example, one student's project is to transform her yard into a more bird-friendly space - removing invasive species of plants and replacing them with native plants."

Some of her students are taking what they learn and applying it to their own classroom.

"Another student is finishing her bachelors' degree in education from Northern Arizona University and her BIO109 project consists of creating a week-long group of lesson plans for elementary students about cacti. As part of her BIO109 project, she will be implementing these lessons during her student-teaching, and will reflect on and analyze the success of her lesson plans."
