Seniors turned away from Mammoth Community Center

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

A local group of senior citizens last month were denied entry to the Charles Clark Community Center after being told they would have to pay to rent the building that they had been using free of charge.

The change in policy has left two Mammoth Council Members believing it was retaliation.

On Wednesday, Nov. 13, Council Members Frances Wickham and Joe Brewer, acting as members of the Mammoth Seniors, went to the Mammoth Town Hall to pick up a key for the Mammoth Community Center. The Seniors had planned a potluck Thanksgiving luncheon. The two said that at first they were told that a key wasn't available. Then the clerk said they would have to talk to the Town Clerk Patsy Large regarding the usage of the building. Large was informed that the Mammoth Seniors had been given permission to use the Community Center and the event had been put on the calendar on the previous Friday. The clerk then told them the key was with the town personnel at the center.

Wickham and Brewer said they went to the Community Center to await the key. They had brought decorations, plates and bottled water for the potluck.

When Public Works Director David Garcia arrived, Patsy Large was with him. Garcia and Large told the two council members that they could not use the building. Per the mayor's directive, the Mammoth Seniors would need to pay $100 deposit plus $25 per hour rental.

"After being threatened with the police coming to get us out of here, we left the grounds," said Wickham.

The two returned a little before noon to meet the 20 seniors who were waiting outside the building. The group was offered the use of the Pinal Rural Fire Station for their potluck. There was limited seating and the food had gotten cold by the time the group sat down to eat, but they were very grateful to have a place to meet.

"We are very saddened by what is going on with the seniors," Wickham said. "We have been using the Community Center since May 2012. We have always called ourselves the Mammoth Senior Citizens Organization."

Wickham was very upset by the town's decision. "This is a huge, despicable humiliation. It is an evil act of unkindness to our most frail and vulnerable citizens. Some of our members are Native Americans and Veterans," she said.

Brewer said he thought it was retaliation for some citizens exercising their lawful right to file a petition for intent to recall with the Town.

An attempt was made to contact Patsy Large by phone at the Mammoth Town Hall. A message was taken but the call has not been returned.

Mammoth Police Report

According to state law, there are two methods by which police may arrest suspected offenders. The suspect may be physically taken into the department and booked into jail, or the arresting officer may write a citation and release the suspect to appear in court later. All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Only criminal citations are listed. All damages are estimates.

Items for this report are submitted by the Mammoth Police

San Tan Valley Think Tank to host 2014 Scholastic Speech & Essay Contest in Pinal County

By Bridgette Crosby
Southeast Valley Ledger

Water, a vital resource for life in the desert, is the focus of the 2014 Scholastic Essay and Speech contest sponsored by the San Tan Valley Think Tank. Students from local high schools and middle schools in Pinal County are invited to participate in this annual contest in order to address a critical issue that the county will be facing in the near future.

Students will have the opportunity to research, write and speak about one of the most important questions facing our nation and our county: "How can STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics) Provide Water as a Sustainable Resource in Pinal County into the Future?"

The San Tan Valley Think Tank Contest will also be a part of the Arizona SciTech Festival in February 2014. This is the first year that a speech component has been included in the contest, which the Think Tank believes will make the event more interesting and will give high school students a different platform to share ideas and explain concepts.

Deadline to enter the Essay Contest is set for December 23, 2013. The essay contest is open to both middle and high school students. High school and middle school students will be judged separately.

Deadline for Speech Contest is set at January 15, 2014. The Speech Portion of the contest is open only to high school students. Contestants will be required to submit a YouTube Video of the speech for evaluation and must contact the San Tan Valley Think Tank for confirmation. Five contestants will be chosen to participate in the final Essay and Speech Contest Final Event.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for students to study, think about, conceptualize and propose solutions for important issues facing our county. It is also a great opportunity to win scholarship awards and be recognized in the community. I encourage all students to give this some thought and enter

Water, water everywhere but here in Arizona.

We would like to express our sincere thanks for all of the love and support that our family and friends gave to us when Bonnie Marquez Ivy left us to be with our Lord in Heaven.

We especially appreciate Father Sebastian for the heartwarming mass, Dawn Austin for her beautiful voice, Ramona Romero for the beautiful flower arrangements, all who took the time to prepare the food and drinks given to us, all who helped organize Bonnie's reception, and to all that we may have forgotten to mention. All of your love and support has truly not gone unnoticed.

It is going to take some time for us to get over Bonnie being gone but we are truly blessed to have such special and loving people in our lives.

We are sincerely grateful for all that you have done.

God bless you all.

It's time for Santa letters: Miner to publish children's Christmas wishes on Dec. 18; mail them now at four locations in Tri-Community

Six-year-old Magdalena Flores was the first Tri-Community youngster to mail her letter to Santa. She writes,

*Dear Santa,
I love you. I want you to have a safe trip when you take presents to all the kids that have been good. You have to make sure you give you reindeer plenty of food and water. I would like to have a bike and other stuff for my brothers and sisters.*

Thank you, Santa

Love,

Magdalena Flores

Magdalena is in first grade at Mountain Vista School. She is the daughter of Rosa and Anthony Flores of Oracle.

Tri-Community children can mail their wishes to Santa in the special mailboxes that can be found throughout the area. In Mammoth, head over to La Casita Restaurant. In Oracle, the box is located at Oracle Market. San Manuel has two locations: the San Manuel Library and Vantage West Credit Union.

Santa has also set up a special email address if you want to send your wishes to him electronically. The email address is santa@minersunbasin.com. And please when emailing include the town where you live so that your letter can be published in the right newspaper. Hurry and get your letters in quick so they can be forwarded to the North Pole in plenty of time for the big day. The deadline to mail letters in Santa's special mailbox is Dec. 13. Santa needs time to get all the requests fulfilled.

Local Knights make two donations to food bank

The Knights of Columbus presented Joyce McClung and the Tri-Community food bank a check for more than $300, along with nearly 300 pounds of food donations, last Tuesday in Mammoth.

"The Knights would like to thank the parishioners of St. Helen, St. Bartholomew and Blessed Sacrament Catholic churches for their tremendous generosity," said Grand Knight Jerry Bribiescas.

The three parishes have donated over a half a ton of food, with help from St. Helen's youth.

The Knights of Columbus sponsor a nation wide program called "Food for Families" according to Past Grand Knight Johnnie Seballos.

"The Supreme Knights of Columbus office recognizes local Councils' food donations and reimburses us based on the tonnage we contribute. We decided to donate our reimbursement from last year's efforts to the food bank," Seballos said.

Grand Knight Jerry Bribiescas presents a check from the local Knights of Columbus to Joyce McClung of the Tri-Community Food Bank.

Biomedical Engineers Designing a Knee Brace

By Araceli Curry

In Ms. Vargas' 5th/6th grade class, we are working as biomedical engineers. We are working to design a knee brace, but to do this, we measured the range of motion of a healthy knee. A healthy knee could bend backwards, we used a goniometer to see what angle we can bend our leg. The average of the angle in our class when we bent our knee backwards is 2 and 3. We also tested to see if we could bend our knee sideways and upward without moving our thigh; we couldn't so that means we all have healthy knees. We then tested on a model unhealthy knee to determine where the support for a brace was needed. To make the knee brace we are going to follow the engineering design process. The engineering design process is ask, imagine, plan, create and improve. In the human knee we have four ligaments attaching our knee joint and if we injure one of those ligaments then our knee won't move how it is suppose to. We have collected our data and our next step is designing the brace.

Fast Foot Shoe Company

By Victoria Zazueta

In Ms. Vargas' 5th/6th grade class we worked as biomedical engineers. The Fast Foot Shoe Company contracted us to see how many different types of shoes they should make. We tested a small group of people to see how many shoes we should have. Each person in the group measured their arches so we could see how many different types of arches there are. The way we measured their arches was by spraying their foot with water, and then placing their foot on a piece of paper. After they placed their foot on a piece of paper, they traced their footprint. After we collected all the data, we came up with 5 categories. We had high, medium high, medium, medium low, and low. It is important to Fast Foot Shoe Company that they only design the necessary amount of styles because too many would cost too much and not enough could cause someone injury. We have reported back to them that we feel they will need 5 designs of shoes.

TAG: Desert Shelters

By Riley Stewart

We are participating in the Talented and Gifted Program at MESS. There are nine students in our class. For this 6 week project, we are constructing a desert shelter model to scale with each inch equivalent to one foot or 12 inches and the model's perimeter can't exceed 32 inches. We have collected a variety of materials from scrap materials to cardboard. Our project will conclude with a field trip to the Frank Lloyd Wright Architectural Institute to see the desert shelters that have been built there by architecture students.

Specialist helps with new health care program

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

Melissa Zazueta is the new Outreach and Enrollment Specialist at Sun Life Family Health Center in San Manuel. She lives in San Manuel with her husband Vincente, nine-year-old daughter Eliana and two-year-old son Isaac. She is a certified Marketplace Application Counselor. She attended Pima College for two years and has her degree in Healthcare Administration from the University of Phoenix. She has had training in the application of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) and can help people understand the enormous amount of information and insurance options. She will help you through the application process and provide information about the insurance marketplace to assist you in selecting the best insurance for you and your family.

Although Melissa is not affiliated with the Department of Economic Security (DES), she is trained in providing application assistance and screening for state funded health insurance programs including AHCCCS and Kids Care II. The process is web based and provides quicker processing for the applicant and a shorter wait time for application determination. Since the DES office closed in Mammoth, she has helped a number of people with their DES paperwork and provided benefit updates for them. Enrollment and the application process are by appointment only. For people who have been denied AHCCCS, she can help with the sliding fee discount offered by Sun Life. She also said if you were denied AHCCCS last year, under the Affordable Care Act it is now easier to qualify and she can help you look at your insurance options.

Part of Melissa's job is community outreach. She is currently working with the Oracle TRIAD and is a member of the Copper Town Days Association. She works with the Regional Lead Navigator for the Affordable Care Act in giving presentations that provide information about the ACA to groups and organizations. If your group or organization is interested in having a presentation or you need to explore your insurance options, contact Melissa at 520-350-7556 or email at Melissa.zazueta@slfhc.org.

- Type of volunteer(s) you are seeking
- A brief description of the volunteer's job
- The number of hours expected from your volunteer
- Any other relevant information

Family First Pregnancy Care Center & Family Diaper Bank

Email pregnancycenter1@yahoo.com; phone 520-896-9545 or go online to www.familyfirstpcc.org. Type of volunteers: receptionist, store manager, grant writer, social media person/marketing person, mentor (training for all volunteers throughout the year) Volunteers will be in the office 3 hours a week or any time they can be available to work in the office on a task or project, volunteers give the client their lesson from the model they are assigned to do and work with them. Store managers keep the shelves sorted, stacked, and supplied with items as they are donated to us. They would only have to schedule their time once or twice a month. A tour of the office will give you an opportunity to see what we have and what transpires when a client comes in for a class.

We need more volunteers to greet visitors who drop by (11 a.m. to 4 p.m.) to see the museum and its displays of historic photos, authentic exhibits, and restored rooms. We also need volunteer tour guides to take visitors "back in time" with the help of our 45-minute room-to-room script.

Mammoth Fire Department offering smoke detectors for town residents

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

The Mammoth Volunteer Fire Department has been community oriented since they were first organized in 1950 but will be getting more involved in the community said new Fire Chief Marty Ponce and Fire District Board Chairman Rick Sanchez. "We have a lot of low income and needy people in the area," said Rick. The fire department will be offering smoke detectors to low income homes at no cost. The department will install the detectors, train the family in their use and show them how to have an emergency evacuation plan in place should they have a fire in the home. They will also do regular battery inspections on the smoke detectors.

The fire department is planning to offer CPR and First Aid classes to the public. "Having people trained in first aid and CPR makes our job easier," said Rick. They will also be getting more involved with the seniors in the community and have done some cooking for them at the senior center. "We want to have more community awareness about the fire department." Plans are for events such as "Meet Your Firefighters Day" where the community can come out and socialize with their firefighters and first responders while they enjoy some food. "We want the community to get involved with the fire department," said Rick.

The fire district is also upgrading the quality of their equipment and training. They are actively pursuing grants and funding from available resources as well as going out to businesses in Tucson and all over the state seeking donations. This will allow them to make improvements in the fire district and serve the people of Mammoth better. "This is our community and if we can't give something back, we are not going to be a very productive fire department," said Rick. If you are in need of a smoke detector or would like to get involved with the fire department contact them at 520-487-2050. Leave a message if no one is available to answer the phone.

Catalina church offers Advent services

Advent is a season of expectant waiting and preparation for the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ. Mountain Shadows Presbyterian Church will hold weekly Advent Worship Services from December 1 through the 22nd, beginning at 10:00AM. Sunday school classes are available for youngsters, and will include Advent related material and crafts.

Each Sunday will include the lighting of an Advent Candle and Scriptures anticipating the coming of Christ. The 4 Advent candles represent hope, love, joy and peace.

On Christmas Eve the 5:00PM service will include a 5th candle referred to as the Christ Candle. There will be carols and candlelight to welcome families and people of all ages. The choir, along with special guests, will consist of instrumentalists, vocal solos and duets

The Sanctuary has been decorated in seasonal colors of purple and blue. The Christmas tree is covered in chrismons (Christian symbols) made by friends and members of the church. A special nativity scene at the back of the Sanctuary was created by member Dotty Voss. Additional decorations include wreaths and swags at the entrance to the ramada, as well as throughout this outdoor area used for fellowship following Sunday services.

The church is located at 14024 Oracle Road, at the intersection of Mountaineer Dr. For more information about this very active church we invite you to go to our website: www.mountainshadowchurch.org.
