Letter to the Editor

A purpose to consider

For those of you wondering why I am so publicly and passionately outspoken in opposing the HR 687 Land Exchange Bill with stickers on my truck, signs in my yard and of course public posts, graphics, and comments on Facebook, I would like to tell you why I am so unwavering.

It is because I was born and raised on Apache land! Right here in Superior. And this particular area is very sacred. No one had to tell me this. I felt it always as I grew up here hiking, exploring, respecting and loving this awesome life giving land. I could always feel the gentle spirits from the past that were unjustly treated by the abrasive newcomers that should have been learning Apache wisdom and culture for a balance in nature with patience and understanding rather than taking, pushing and trying to obliterate this God created race. This is the treatment all Native Americans received for this land to be abused at will for what was known as "Manifest Destiny."

My heart hurts whenever I think about this. It may seem strange to some, but I am not ashamed to say that I feel much kinship to my home land and the Nations that first lived here. This ground knows my tears well and I thank God for making this my birth place. I continue to pray for its protection as I pray for the sinners that still to this day have not stopped trying to conquer and destroy that which does not truly belong to them.

Don't get me wrong... I am proud to be a white Bible believer and my wish is that this message in my own English tongue is heard by all. Yes, it is time for change. It is time to get back to Eden so to speak, live and respect the creation that we affectionately claim as our Mother Earth.... This can be achieved with new earthly science that is developed and enhanced every day, but change is feared because it could hurt the "all mighty dollar".... Even though it is the dollar that has hurt so many human beings throughout time by ways of crime and greed.

Hunger and thirst is quenched by gifts from God to nourish and bless us, yet technology directed by the big Power Monsters continues to manipulate using tactics that are meant to blind the public majority. "They" add destitute for profit to gain control of demand....i.e. Monsanto, fracking operations, Rio Tinto...etc. These acts weaken the true design of life! Think about it! Do you want to live off directives for a temporary forced sense of survival?

Or do we speak up? We can make life pure and better? Yes We Can! In shared hope there is light on the horizon as long as people hold on to integrity, speak out for truth and continue to make a peaceful yet strong stand! I say this now, knowing that RCM is trying to buy out our own town leaders with grandeur that cannot be honestly proven or measured. I ask that our leaders in Superior consider the greater majority that is not in this agreement with HR 687 and we should not be ignored... I am asking our leader's to set the standards for what is right. Hindsight should be considered as at utmost priority. All that we have to lose is what makes Superior so endearing and valuable. ... Again... To think about it carefully is what I implore. I am grateful for this chance to be heard.

Sincerely,
/s/ Anna Jeffrey

Resolution Copper Mine Plan of Operations now available online

Resolution Copper Mining has posted its 1,000+ page Mine Plan of Operations on its company website, www.resolutioncopper.com.

“Posting the MPO to the website demonstrates our commitment to openly and transparently working with our neighboring communities and stakeholders,” said Andrew Taplin, project director. “Often, MPOs are not available for public review until the governing agency – in our case, the U.S. Forest Service – concludes its completeness review. This review is expected to take many months.”

The plan was filed with the Forest Service on Nov. 15. It is the result of eight years of intense study and preliminary exploration by a strong team of experts from within and outside Resolution Copper. It is a comprehensive, detailed examination of how the company will build and operate what is expected to be North America’s largest copper mine.

The Resolution Copper Project, taking shape in Superior, Ariz., is an engineering and economic undertaking that will supply the nation with billions of pounds of copper and secure Arizona’s future through thousands of jobs and billions of dollars in economic benefits for years to come.

CVIT announces Building Trades as new central program for school year 2014-2015

Cobre Valley Institute of Technology (CVIT) is pleased to announce the Building Trades Program for the 2014-2015 school year. "We are very excited about this new program. In cooperation with Gila Community College we will be able to offer high quality education and meet local and state industry needs. We strive for excellence in education and citizenship for our students. With a wide variety of programs we hope to meet everyone's interest," said Beata Tarasiuk, CVIT's executive program director. CVIT is currently offering eight central programs, seven of them in partnership with Gila Community College with no cost to the student. High school students from Superior, Hayden, Miami, Globe, and San Carlos are able to get their college and professional career started while still in high school.

The new Building Trades program will be held at the Gila Community College Regional Training Center (RTC) in lower Miami. Students will be taking general construction courses such as Beginning Carpentry, Drywall Maintenance and Repair, Blue Print Reading, Concrete Work, Plumbing, Forming and Framing, Electricity, AutoCAD and Electrical House Wiring. The program will lead to Certificate of Proficiency. For more information about CVIT programs contact Beata Tarasiuk at 928-425-9654.

Trust in the Lord

By Rev. Dennis Van Gorp
Family Life Christian Center

One interesting aspect of people, is that we always look to others as a source of information, ideas and guidance. The question comes up, are we looking in the wrong direction? Possibly.

We read in Isaiah 33:6, "The LORD is a rich supply of salvation and wisdom and knowledge." We understand that God, because He is God, does not lie. Man usually tends to deviate from the truth. So yes, we normally seek uncertain and incorrect advice.

The New Testament writer, James, told us to ask the Lord if we need wisdom. He was pointing us in the right direction for advice on how to live our lives. Bad advice from well-intentioned friends often causes us to lose our way. God's advice, guidance and direction is always correct and timely.

The Scriptures tell us to seek the Lord and to call upon Him when we need help. He loves each of us very much. He will not give us a stone to eat when we have asked Him for bread. Instead, He blesses us and supplies our every need.

Trust in the Lord for all your needs, wants and desires. Lean on Him in times of stress and anxiety. Psalm 23, the Shepherd's Psalm, explains how much God loves us and cares about us. He always leads, guides and restores. We have nothing to lose or fear, for God is on our side!

Holiday Boutique and local merchants provide opportunity for holiday shopping

By Mila Besich Lira
Superior Sun

With the holidays quickly approaching, shopping lists seem to get longer and longer. This holiday season there are several opportunities to shop local and find something for everyone on your list. When you purchase your holiday gifts locally more of those dollars stay in our community. According to Local First Arizona, shopping at locally owned businesses re-circulates money over and over and creates up to 75 percent more tax revenue to the community and state. For every $100 spent in a locally owned business $73 stays in the community and only $27 of those dollars will leave the community.

There are several options and creative ideas for shopping in Superior this holiday season.

Daystar Studios located in the home of Marilee Lasch will be hosting a holiday boutique this Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The boutique will feature nine local crafter and artisans who will be selling their wares, everything from clothes and jewelry to food items. This is a great opportunity to shop local this holiday season. The boutique is located at 200 N. Magma Ave.

The opening of Random Boutique on Main Street adds another shopping opportunity along with the Copper Gecko and Rolling Rock Gallery. All three stores have plenty of items to choose from. Rolling Rock Gallery has a large assortment of educational toys and games as well as gifts for the home. You never know what you will find at the Copper Gecko from antiques and furniture to clothing and jewelry, there is something for everyone. Random Boutique has purses, clothes, home decor and also offers a 5 percent discount to residents of Superior. La Serna on Pinal Avenue has a wide array of Mexican pottery as well as art, vintage clothes and jewelry. The new Midway Auctions are open every Friday night, you never know what treasure you may find there.

Superior Lumber has plenty of tools, gizmos and gadgets to satisfy that do it yourself-er or handy man on your list. New home owners this year may enjoy yard tools which are also available at Superior Lumber yard.

For the foodie on your gift list how about gift certificates to one of the local restaurants, baked goods from one of the home bakeries, Superior Sweets or Le Cookies and More. Kitchen gadgets and dish towels can be found at both Save Money Market or Family Dollar to make a baking basket. Fresh ingredients and unique food products are available at Leo's Grocery and Save Money Market.

The gift of service is also appreciated, consider gift certificates to local beauty shops, or Southwest Towing for oil changes and tire rotations, and don't forget a yearly subscription to the Superior Sun can keep friends and family in the loop all year long.

Enjoy the Miracle on Main Street Activities this Saturday!

Superior School District hosts Thanksgiving

By Mila Besich Lira
Superior Sun

The Superior Unified School District enjoyed an overwhelming success at its first and planned to be annual school community Thanksgiving dinner. Over 800 chairs were set around dozens of tables under the solar panels in the parking lot. Each of the chairs eventually got filled with students from all grades, teachers, staff, parents, guardians, grandparents and community members. Families gathered around to enjoy a Thanksgiving lunch and kick off the holiday season.

With over 750 RSVP's, having enough chairs ended up being one of the biggest concerns for the event. The school had to gather chairs from everywhere in Superior including the VFW, Los Hermanos, Town of Superior, and a few families who have chairs

Those attending the luncheon were treated to a turkey complete with mashed potatoes, corn, rolls and of course everyone's favorite, pumpkin pie. The food was prepared and served by the Superior High School Culinary students and district food service staff. Much of the food served was donated by local community leaders, businesses and organizations.

Superior Unified School Superintendent Patrick O'Donnell explained that this event was a way for the school to give back to everyone that helps the school in so many ways. He also thanked the school teachers and staff for assisting with the event.

Dear Santa ...

While she can't actually write her alphabet and letters, young Noelle Duarte was ready to put her Christmas dreams and wishes down on paper. The Superior Sun was on hand to capture the two-year-old hard at it. Noelle's not worried, though. She knows that Santa Claus can read any letter from a kid.

She said she wants just a couple of things. She's asked for a 'lil car she can drive herself, dress up clothes, a princess doll, a Dora bike and a Mini Mouse Motorcycle. She has places to go!

Noelle is the daughter of Billy Duarte and Carmen Chaidez.

Superior children can mail their wishes to Santa in the special mailbox located at Save Money Market.

Santa has also set up a special email address if you want to send your wishes to him electronically. The email address is santa@minersunbasin.com. And please when emailing include the town where you live so that your letter can be published in the right newspaper. Hurry and get your letters in quick so they can be forwarded to the North Pole in plenty of time for the big day. The deadline to mail letters in Santa's special mailbox is Dec. 13. Santa needs time to get all the requests fulfilled.

A large hometown crowd turned out for first Thanksgiving dinner hosted by the school district. (Christine Martinez photos)

Think Tank to host 2014 Speech & Essay Contest in Pinal County

By Bridgette Crosby
Southeast Valley Ledger

Water, a vital resource for life in the desert, is the focus of the 2014 Scholastic Essay and Speech contest sponsored by the San Tan Valley Think Tank. Students from local high schools and middle schools in Pinal County are invited to participate in this annual contest in order to address a critical issue that the county will be facing in the near future.

Students will have the opportunity to research, write and speak about one of the most important questions facing our nation and our county: "How can STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics) Provide Water as a Sustainable Resource in Pinal County into the Future?"

The San Tan Valley Think Tank Contest will also be a part of the Arizona SciTech Festival in February 2014.

This is the first year that a speech component has been included in the contest, which

Contest

the Think Tank believes will make the event more interesting and will give high school students a different platform to share ideas and explain concepts.

Deadline to enter the Essay Contest is set for December 23, 2013. The essay contest is open to both middle and high school students, High school and middle school students will be judged separately.

Deadline for Speech Contest is set at January 15, 2014.

The Speech Portion of the contest is open only to high school students. Contestants will be required to submit a YouTube Video of the speech for evaluation and must contact the San Tan Valley Think Tank for confirmation. Five contestants will be chosen to participate in the final Essay and Speech Contest Final Event.

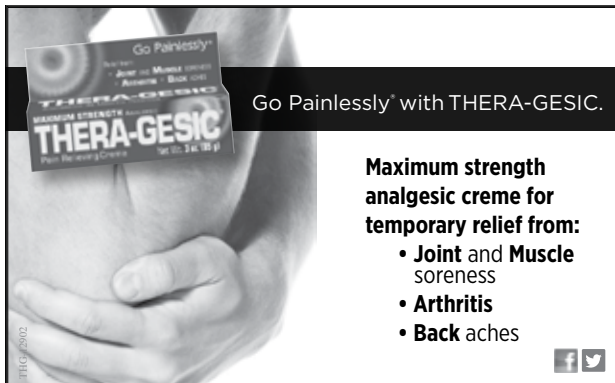

"This is a wonderful opportunity for students to study, think about, conceptualize and propose solutions for important issues facing our county. It is also a great opportunity to win scholarship awards and be recognized in the community. I encourage all students to give this some thought and enter the contest," stated Jack Malpass, founder of the San Tan Valley Think Tank.

There will be winners in both the middle school and high school essay and speech categories.

For complete contest guidelines and rules, visit www.santanthinktank.org or email contact@santanvalleythink-tank.org.
