OBITUARIES

John Richard Dicus

John Richard Dicus passed away on Dec. 28, 2021, at Northwest Hospital in Tucson, Arizona. John was born on April 23, 1935, to Lawrence E. and Dorothy (Averyt) Dicus in Jerome, Arizona. In 1956, John married the love of his life, Jamie Fae Gardner. They began building their life together in San Manuel, where they raised two daughters, Debra Lynn and Linda Jean.

John and Jamie owned and operated Dicus Chevron Service Station, which was one of the first businesses to be established in San Manuel. John and his "guys" provided quality service to the Tri-Community area for decades. He took care of his customers as if they were family. He gave many a young person, an opportunity to work at the station, which was and still is fondly referred to as Dicus, setting an excellent example of exemplary character and work ethic.

Community service was very important to John. He was a member of the San Manuel Rotary Club, Mammoth-San Manuel School Board, San Manuel Schools Foundation Board, San Manuel Fire Department Board, Sun Life Hospital Board, San Manuel Elks Club, Salvation Army and probably, a few others.

John was an avid supporter of all programs having to do with youth. Besides being at every football, basketball, wrestling match and baseball game cheering for his Mighty Miners, he could be found selling food to fundraise in the concession stands, grilling burgers and providing sodas for players, helping build homecoming floats, transforming the high school cafeteria into a Junior/Senior prom wonderland, to name only a few things. John was a dedicated Rotarian who volunteered countless hours at the Rotary sponsored track meets.

John is preceded in death by his parents; his sisters, Harriet Dicus Smith and Margaret Dicus Munoz; and his beloved Jamie. John is survived by his daughters, who know that the sun rose and set on the ground that he walked on, Debbie Foisset (David) and Linda Hart (Bob); sister-in-law, Barbara Gardner (Jim); nephews, Bobby Gardner and Jimmy Gardner (Mary); niece, Deneen Garcia (Linn) and Bobby, Jimmy and Mary's adult children who affectionately called John their Uncle John, Casey Dwyer, (Jen), Laura Dwyer, Dustin Gardner, (Alysha), Christopher Gardner, Ariana Vanwagenen, (Tyler), Brandon Gardner, Nathan Haro and his special caregiver and amigo, Michael Miranda.

A celebration in honor of John's life is being planned for a later date.

Frank was awarded Officer of the Year in September of 1975 by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, his supervisor saying, "He's an officer anyone would be proud of."

In January of 1983 Frank was promoted to the rank of Sergeant. During his career, he served multiple communities across Arizona. Frank also worked in multiple assignments including patrol and narcotics. In October of 1992 Frank retired from the Arizona Department of Public Safety after serving the community for 20 years.

During his life, Frank attended the Santa Cruz Valley High School, Central Arizona College and the University of Phoenix.

After retiring from DPS, Frank started his own automotive repair business that served Casa Grande and the surrounding area. In 1995, Frank moved to Sanders, AZ where he worked alongside his wife Ena at the Route 66 Diner.

OBITUARIES

Richard 'Dick' Phelps

Richard "Dick" Phelps, a near-lifetime Arizona resident and respected Oracle Ford owner, passed away on Dec. 16, 2021. The cause of his death is unknown, but the family believes he took an early morning walk, perhaps searching for his cherished, long-lost F-150 truck, and passed peacefully along the way. He was 94 years old.

Dick was born on Jan. 25, 1927, in Obregon, Mexico, to Morris Calvin Phelps and Carmen Tamayo. When Dick was a very young child, his father contacted tuberculosis, so the family moved to Tucson where Morris sought care at the Veteran's Hospital. Shortly after the move, Morris passed away. Dick was just two years old at the time, leaving young Carmen with two young children in her care. Carmen then married Oscar Phelps, Dick's uncle. Together, they had Winnie Phelps, Dick's youngest sister. Tragedy hit again when Carmen passed of appendicitis when Dick was four years old. Oscar was working for the prison in Florence, Arizona and was unable to care for two young children and a 17-month-old baby. So, Dick, Anita, and Winnie were moved to Lehi (Mesa), Arizona to be cared for by relatives. Dick's aunt, Hazel Phelps Menhennet, ended up raising them, along with her own five children. This was a struggle, especially during the Depression.

Dick served in the Army as part of the Post War Army Occupation of World War II in Munich, Germany, and was discharged honorably in January of 1947. Utilizing the GI bill, he graduated from Arizona State University in 1951 with a degree in English. During college, he stumbled upon the used car business as a way to make a living. This experience led him to many years of working for Read Mullan Ford in Phoenix. Dick decided he would prefer to be the "captain of his ship" and gambled everything he had plus a borrowed sum to become a Ford Dealer in Kearny, Arizona in 1966. Later, in 1979, he purchased San Man Ford in San Manuel, which was relocated to Highway 77 and renamed Oracle Ford, still in operation today. Dick has always been admired as an honorable, passionate, and capable new and used car dealer.

Dick was a man who enjoyed working hard and playing hard with his wife Loy, his children and his friends. Dick loved spending time four-wheeling in Arizona and Mexico, and never shied away from a challenging trail. During his 30 years of living in Kearny, he also enjoyed riding horses and flying his small aircraft. Dick was a strong father figure and a devoted husband, and had many lifelong friends. He was known for his intelligence and command of the English language. His motto was "age is a state of mind." Dick enjoyed his nightly Dewar's Scotch and club soda until the end and attributed this ritual to his longevity. He lived life unafraid, adventurously, and with integrity.

Dick Phelps is survived by his beloved wife and soulmate of 67 years, Loy Phelps; his two children, son Richard Markham Phelps and spouse Jacque Phelps, and daughter Patrice Phelps Ross; his youngest sister, Winnie Phelps; and grandchildren, Rosalind Prather and spouse Bryan Prather, Raquel Williams and spouse Vlad Williams, Richard Phelps, Matt Phelps and spouse Demi Phelps, and Brooke Gladden and spouse Clint Gladden. In addition, he is survived by four great-granddaughters, Kyley Prather, Brynley Prather, Iris Williams, and Capri Phelps. He was preceded in death by his oldest sister, Anita Phelps Theemling.

Our mother Loy misses you terribly but wants you to know that you were the one and only love of her life, a strong provider, and a fun companion with whom she shared many treasured memories.

Rest in Peace, Dick.
I am the master of my fate; I am the captain of my soul.

Andrew was a loyal worker, having only missed 2 days of work in his 50 plus years as a career miner. He devotedly worked for the Magma Copper Co., and BHP copper mine. He also took pride in working and volunteering with the Boy Scouts of America in his free time.

Pinal County Supervisor

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
San Manuel Miner

On Jan. 6, at the San Manuel Community Center on Fifth Avenue, San Manuel residents were given the opportunity to question the Pinal County District 1 Supervisor on the state of the community.

Understandably, the town hall meeting drew a large crowd. The Community Center's seven rows of chairs was almost completely full, with residents curious as to what type of news they'd receive from the meeting.

The meeting opened with San Manuel Revitalization Coalition president Kennedy Ivy introducing guest speaker, District One Supervisor, Kevin Cavanaugh. The supervisor started off by thanking his team for being there to help him. Cavanaugh then took a moment to recognize to Cecilia Trujillo of the Simply Something Groceries and More in San Manuel.

"One of my campaign promises was to get a food co-op or grocery store, or something in San Manuel," said Supervisor Cavanaugh. "I was working real hard at it, and then I heard that a lady named Cecilia was working hard at it also. So being an entrepreneur myself, and learning what Cecilia was doing, we stopped and visited and talked for a while, and I am so proud of Cecilia."

Supervisor Cavanaugh presented her with a challenge coin, in award of her excellence, to which she assured the audience, "If we don't have it, and you want it, I'll bring it to you, let me know."

Following Trujillo, Cavanaugh brought Constable Mike Sloan in front of the crowd. Constable Sloan was also given a challenge coin.

"We appreciate what you do. Mike works very hard," said Supervisor Cavanaugh. "He gets out there and does the job, serves people well, and for this we provide you with this award of excellence."

Dave Marshall of Snowflake was given a couple minutes to speak next. Marshall is running for Legislative District 7. He gave some detail on his military and law enforcement background, while also informing residents that he would probably be seeing them more as his campaign started.

Cavanaugh then touched briefly on some noteworthy accomplishments for the district. The first thing being discussed was the Community Center Park Project nearing completion. Supervisor Cavanaugh then mentioned something that perked up many ears: "We're getting Broadband internet out here. That was one of my campaign promises, because we can't have economic revitalization without good internet."

Cavanaugh then informed residents that 10 new Sheriff's Deputies had been sworn in, fully staffing the sheriff's office for the first time in many years.

"The Sheriff promised me that he would keep the Copper Corridor fully stocked with deputies, so you

They started their family and had three children together. Terri attended Glendale Community College and earned her Nursing degree in 1983. Terri dedicated her life to helping others and stayed with the practice until her ALS diagnosis in October of 2020.

Terri remarried in 1996 to Lance Knight of Buckeye, AZ. She was best known for her positive attitude and caring for others. She enjoyed cooking and baking for her family. Sundays were reserved for family time and a home cooked meal.

She leaves behind her husband, Lance Knight; mother, Janet Thurman; and her three children, Rick (Tiffany) Hahn, Jarrod (Amanda) Hahn, and Lynsey Clay. Terri had eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her father, Yvon Cooper, and her sister, Renee Tafoya.

Services will be held on Thursday, Jan. 13, 2022, at 11 a.m. at Summit Community Church, 20555 W. Roosevelt Street, Buckeye, AZ.

Cavanaugh hosts town hall meeting in San Manuel don't have to wait, they can be proactive and so on, so I'm very happy about that," the Supervisor said.

Touching on paving projects, Cavanaugh mentioned something that will have an effect on Oracle, and surrounding areas.

"We've got some paving projects. They're paving Mt. Lemmon Road, from the zip-line, to Summer Haven, to make it more useable and safe, so that's a good thing coming," Cavanaugh commented. "So my goal, at the end of my four years, is to have the bulk of that paved."

Once done covering the notable district accomplishments, it was time for the Q and A section of the meeting. Residents were given the opportunity to write questions on cards and give them to be read to the Supervisor then answered.

Q: "When are we going to get good internet?"

A: "So I think it's by June," responded Cavanaugh. "We don't want to make any promises we can't keep, but I think it's going to be by June."

Q: "Are we still doing the voucher program [for dumping], and how many do we get?"

A: "They split it down to three per January through July, and then three for July through December," answered SMRC president Kennedy Ivy

Q: "The school property sale?"

A: "So there was a vote taken, and the voters elected to sell the property," commented Cavanaugh. "[now] it's got to go through a big process."

Q: "Is there any effort being made to promote San Manuel as a retirement community?"

A: "We just had a discussion about this yesterday with our development department," began the Supervisor. "So, there's the Oro Valley Airport, and they're thinking of moving some of their stuff, their airplanes and things here [to San Manuel], and a natural consequence of that is, if you own a plane you're probably not 21 years old, and you're probably going to buy a house closer to your recreational airplane. As a consequence of that, you might see an older population move in, but we don't have any plans underway to make San Manuel a retirement community."

Q: "Copper Mine?"

A: "San Manuel Revitalization Coalition has been working with Eagle Mountain Mining, and they recently purchased the Oracle Ridge Mine, as well as a drilling company," answered SMRC president Kennedy Ivy. "They're doing a two-year geo-exploration. They were very interested in San Manuel. They wanted to exclusively hire from here, and have their business here, so they moved from Oro Valley, and leased a building from the county. We were able to help them get all that done, so we do have a mining company here in town now."

Q: "You mentioned the sale of the shopping center?"

A: "Basically, my wife and I lived here 20 years ago, and the town was in the throngs of going downhill, but we still had a grocery store and a bank," Mel Coonrod of Kenilworth Development Co., the new shopping center owner commented while taking the floor. "We obviously bought the shopping center to make profit, but at the same time, we really are going to do our damndest to get this community back to what it was. I'm counting on everyone here to help make this work. We're really anxious to see something positive happen."

The meeting concluded with Supervisor Cavanaugh calling the members of the San Manuel Revitalization Coalition to the front. Cavanaugh presented them with a symbolic gavel, for them to close out their future SMRC meetings, telling them, "We really appreciate the work that you're doing in partnership with the county."

World View staff launched a high-altitude balloon flight on Jan. 5, 2022. The flight departed from the San Manuel Ray Blair Airport at approximately 10 a.m. The payload consisted of photography and videography equipment used to document and evaluate the curvature of the earth. The flight was scheduled to fly up to 75,000 feet with the payload being recovered near San Simon, Arizona, later the same day. Additional launches from San Manuel are possible in the future.

Oracle School District: Fueling the Future

By Linda Lyon
Special to the Miner

Just as in 2020, communities of the Oracle School District (OSD) came through recently to ensure students did not go hungry. This time though, the effort renamed “Fueling the Future” was even more successful.

The brainchild of Governing Board member Edie Crall, this year’s food drive collected over 120 large bags of non-perishable food from residents of SaddleBrooke Ranch and SaddleBrooke. Donors also contributed enough money to buy two pickup trucks full of eggs, milk, butter, apples, oranges, potatoes and carrots.

These generous donations provided 55 families with at least two bags each of non-perishables along with a good supply of perishables. Over 70 percent of the students at the District’s one school, Mountain Vista Elementary, qualify for free and reduced lunch. These donations were key to ensuring students were fed while the school cafeteria was closed over the two-week winter break.

Of course, collecting the food was only half of the job and fortunately, numerous volunteers from the SaddleBrooke communities as well as Oracle, stepped up to put the donation bags together, pick up the perishables, and hand them out to families. The Rotary Club of SaddleBrooke, the Oracle Fire Department, the OSD Parent Teacher Organization, and five students from the 8th grade are due special thanks for coming out on a cold morning to hand out the bags of food.

When asked if she thought “Fueling Our Future” would be an annual project, Crall responded with an enthusiastic, “Absolutely. Our students can’t learn if they are hungry and wondering where their next meal is coming from.” She also said that she was “blown away by the generosity of donors as well as by the willingness of community partners to bring it all together. I’ve been approached by other organizations that want to ensure this effort continues, and am confident our communities will continue to deliver.”

Miners, Lady Miners split games with Fort Thomas

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel Miners and Lady Miners had mixed success this week, flip-flopping wins.

On Jan. 4, the San Manuel High School basketball teams traveled to Fort Thomas. The Lady Miners had a tough game and, unfortunately, were unable to walk away victorious. The final score of the girls’ game was 21-70. The boys’ team played a close game, but in the end the points were in the Miners’ favor. The final score against the Apaches was 58-45.

Later in the week, on Jan. 7, the teams hosted Tempe

Prep. In a turn from their previous game, the boys’ team was unable to secure the win, resulting in a 28-70 loss. The Lady Miners on the other hand, were able to turn it around from their last loss, and beat the Lightning. The final score of the girls game was 45-33. Up next for the Miners: On Thursday, the varsity boys head up the road to Winkelman for a one-off match against the Lobos. Tipoff is at 7 p.m. On Friday, Jan. 14, the Miners play host to the Leading Edge Academy-Gilbert. On Tuesday, Jan. 18, they will host the Ray Bearcats. Boys JV, girls varsity and boys varsity will play at 4, 5:30 and 7 p.m. respectively for both games.

World View High-altitude balloon takes flight from San Manuel Ray Blair Airport.
