One of the cornerstone programs of the Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce has always been the Junior Chamber program. High school students from Ray and Hayden/Winkelman school districts are invited to apply to participate in the leadership and community service program. When a student participates through their senior year, the Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce gives the qualifying students a scholarship.

Like many community programs and initiatives, there was a gap in programming during COVID and leadership changes at the Chamber, which has impacted the funds on hand to continue running the program to its fullest potential. The Chamber is currently raising funds to help maintain the program. An $80 per year contribution sponsors one student and ensures that scholarships are available to the eligible students. Those that donate to this valuable community program will be recognized on a special tee shirt.

Junior Chamber Director Emilia Rutledge explained that with the new momentum and planning at the Chamber, the group has found ways to make sure that both school districts are involved equally and they will accept up to 25 students from each school.

Junior Chamber members support the activity of the Chamber by working on the important community events such as the Great Pumpkin, Car Show, Haunted House, Winkelman Christmas and Kearny Winter Wonderland.

To make your contribution, you can contact Emilia Rutledge, the Junior Chamber Director at director@copperbasinaz.org or emiliarutledge@gmail.com or by phone 520-278-4128. You can also mail checks directly to the Chamber, directing them to the Junior Chamber. Checks can be mailed to: PO Box 206 Kearny, Arizona 85137. They are also accepting electronic payments through Venmo.

Ray High School: Arizona Bui, Vanessa Bui, Josiah Warren, Cassidy Bajellos, Yasmin Rivera, Camile Bentley, James Ruiz and Landree Skaggs.

Hayden School: Alexis De Los Reyes, Jasmine De Los Reyes, Christopher Casillas, Emilio Rivera, Makayla Rivera, Marisol Zamorano, Raquela Westrope, Mariyah Mariscal, Felicity Boltarez, Yliana Montijo, Karissa Acuna, Matthew Armenta, Paul Gaither, Dallas Mariscal, Sativa Carrasco, Kiana Casteneda and Sienna Gonzales.

County hosts low-cost vaccination clinic in Kearny

It's no secret. People in the Copper Basin love their pets. It can be hard, sometimes, making sure that all their vaccinations are up to date.

But Pinal County is making it a little easier with special low-cost vaccination and license clinics. Saturday, Jan. 14, Pinal County Animal Care and Control hosted one of its several-times-a-year clinics in Kearny at the Pioneer Park Ramada. A veterinarian was on hand to examine local dogs and cats and administer vaccines for rabies, parvo and other diseases easily contracted by pets. Residents brought puppies, dogs and cats in for their vaccinations. Dogs were registered with the county per state law and county ordinance.
