Mayor Mila Besich reappointed to serve on National League of Cities' Energy, Environment and Natural Resources Committee

Mayor Mila Besich

Mayor Mila Besich of Superior has been re-appointed to the National League of Cities (NLC) 2022 Energy, Environment and Natural Resources (EENR) Federal Advocacy Committee. First elected to a one-year term in 2020, Mayor Besich will continue to provide strategic direction and guidance for NLC's federal advocacy agenda and policy priorities. The appointment was announced by NLC President Mayor Vince Williams of Union City, Georgia.

"I am honored to once again represent the Town of Superior on this important committee. Serving on the EENR committee allows me the opportunity to affect policies that are important to our community, state and nation, especially policies that relate to environmental policies and natural resource extraction. It is a distinct privilege to share our collective knowledge and experience with leaders across the nation."

As a member of NLC's EENR committee, Mayor Besich will play a key role among a diverse group of local leaders in shaping NLC's policy positions and advocating on behalf of America's municipalities before Congress, with the administration and at home, particularly around building sustainable and resilient infrastructure.

"NLC's federal advocacy committees are a key tool for gathering insights directly from the communities that our members serve," said NLC President Mayor Vince Williams of Union City, Georgia. "I am excited to have Mayor Besich serve on the Energy, Environment and Natural Resources committee and look forward to working with her to fulfill the promise of America's cities, towns and villages."

The full leadership of this year's committee will consist of Chair Emily Larson, Mayor, Duluth, Minnesota; Vice Chair Cindy Dyballa, Councilmember, Takoma Park, Maryland; and Vice Chair Brian Jones, Councilmember, Union City, Georgia.

For more information on NLC's federal advocacy committees, visit: www.nlc.org/advocacy/committees.

The National League of Cities (NLC) is the voice of America's cities, towns and villages, representing more than 200 million people. NLC works to strengthen local leadership, influence federal policy and drive innovative solutions.

LOST to host trail work training

The Legends of Superior Trails Inc. (LOST) will host a special training class on building trails on Friday, Feb. 4, 2022. The class will be a full day class.

The class will focus on safe use of tools, and the proper steps for maintaining sustainable trails. Matt Roberts from Flagline Trails in Flagstaff will be the instructor. Matt teaches these topics to the volunteers who work on the Arizona Trails, and is recommended by both the staff of the Arizona Trail and the staff at Arizona Parks and Recreation.

There will not be a charge for the class. Anyone who has questions or who like to join the training should contact Bill Scott at (520) 840-8868 or clscott00@hotmail.com.

Trailhead parking under construction

The Tonto National Forest-Globe Ranger District has broken ground on the construction of a new trailhead parking lot at the area known as "Dumpgates" off of Golf Course Road. The new parking area was identified by many local outdoor recreation user groups. The trailhead will be called Three Canyons Trailhead, as it will be close access to Telegraph Canyon, Arnett Canyon and Woods Canyon. The Forest Service is expected to begin the construction of the re-route of Forest Road Four in the coming weeks. Forest Road Four was closed a few years back when the current road alignment was crossing the Imerys Perlite mine. Forest Road Four is an important access road connecting Superior to the Box Canyon and is a popular route with ATV users.

The Town of Superior recently approved an easement agreement with Imerys to continue to allow hiker and mountain biker trail access into Arnett Canyon.

Superior Chamber of Commerce presents Home & Building Tour and Antique Show Jan. 29-30

SUPERIOR, ARIZ. – Over the weekend of Jan. 29-30, 2022, the Superior Chamber of Commerce will present its 14th Annual Home and Building Tour, as well as a free antique show held at the recently restored Magma Club. A popular event among locals and visitors alike, the Home and Building Tour will showcase Superior's unique, historic architecture, with highlights ranging from completely renovated homes and buildings that many would have bulldozed to a "falling down" motel that sat vacant and unloved for many years, but has recently been converted to lovely single apartments. In addition, the activity-packed weekend will feature live music, guided hikes, a pancake breakfast, handmade pottery for sale from the Mexican village of Mata Ortiz and historian speakers who will bring the former mining town's past to life. The self-guided Home and Building Tour, which begins at the Chamber of Commerce office at 165 W. Main Street, will run from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday.

With a history dating back to 1875, Superior has undergone an amazing resurgence in recent years that has included efforts to give new life to the town's older buildings. Tour attendees will be able to explore some of these structures, such as a home built in 1929 with its beautiful architectural details preserved, including the original doors with glass doorknobs. While visiting the homes on the Tour, attendees may even glean some decorative inspiration for their own properties, as several of the current owners have added interesting features to the homes and yards!

Another highlight is one of the town's few adobe buildings still standing: the Alvy Building, a two-story structure built in 1930 that housed the Knights of Columbus meetings for many years. It has since been renovated into apartments with incredible views. The Town of Superior is excited to announce that it has purchased the original Superior High School and will become the Town's multi-generational facility. Once renovations are complete, the complex will feature the Town Hall operations; wellness spaces such a dance room, gym and work out facility; the Senior Center and Library. The multi-gen facility also will house the Superior Enterprise Center which will be a hub for job training and entrepreneurship development. The original Superior High School will become a hub for all things Superior, and this historic and important building will once again be accessible to the public. To celebrate the official purchase, the High School will be on the Superior Chamber of Commerce annual home tour. The Town will be maintaining the structure of the building, only slightly modifying some aspects of the building to allow for accessibility and additional functionality.

Continuing on to the Magma Club – a community center that once hosted dinners, dancing, swimming and boxing matches for Magma Mine workers – visitors can enjoy a free antique show. The show will feature a selection of quality antiques for sale, as well as live music on the Club's spacious veranda.

In addition to these intriguing buildings, the Tour will feature captivating stories about Superior's past told by professional historians. For instance, Wyatt Earp, an acclaimed performer and relative of the legendary Wyatt Earp, will present a short play called "Life on the Frontier." Stories of Mattie Earp, the common law wife of the elder Wyatt, will be shared; Mattie is buried in Superior. A lifelong Superior resident will also share folklore and interesting information about various aspects of the town's history. For those who would like an even more up-close view of Superior and its past, there will be guided hikes to the old tunnel.

Another popular feature of the Tour is the selection of exquisite, handcrafted pottery from the village of Mata Ortiz in Mexico. The artists themselves will be displaying their wares – and weather permitting, they will fire pieces in an open flame to demonstrate how the pottery is made!

Each year, attendees of the Home and Building Tour enjoy learning about Superior's fascinating history while observing how the town has been forging a unique new identity. Pre-sale tickets for the Tour are $15 at <https://bit.ly/3tn5E4z>. Sales at the door are $18. All ticket holders receive 2 for 1 tickets to the Renaissance Festival and the Boyce Thompson Arboretum! Please bring a mask as some property owners may require them for entry. For more information, please call the Chamber of Commerce at 520-689-0200.

The Town of Superior will celebrate the newly acquired historic high school building at the Home & Building Tour.

Support Local: Berkeley Massage & Healing Arts

In April 2020, COVID-19 brought much of Arizona's economy to a screeching halt. All businesses not deemed "essential" were ordered closed by Arizona's governor Doug Ducey.

The lockdown continued for nearly two months. When Gov. Ducey finally gave the go ahead to reopen, businesses slowly began the road to recovery. Even those listed as "essential" had a challenge with this economic recovery.

Many small businesses and non-profits in Arizona didn't survive the lockdown. The businesses that did survive are hanging on as best they can. Copper Area News wanted to give something back to the local business community as a thank you for supporting us through these troubled times. Our newspapers (Copper Basin News, Superior Sun and San Manuel Miner) have been featuring local businesses and non-profits since the beginning of 2021, encouraging our readers to Shop at Home, stay local and support our local businesses. To date, Copper Area News has featured 134 businesses and groups in the Copper Corridor.

When the COVID-19 Pandemic reached the United States, no one could have imagined that some of the longest shutdowns and effects from closures were extreme for those in the massage, wellness and fitness sectors.

Patricia M. Berkeley is a massage therapist and healing arts professional who has over 36 years of healing experience. For her, the pandemic has had even longer lasting effects, as she lost her husband to the virus and also had to heal from having had COVID in the early days of the pandemic. She opened a shop in Superior after visiting the Sole to Soul store. Right before the pandemic shutdowns began, she had moved into a new spot located at 26 N. Magma and she is co-located in the building with another wellness business Superior Skincare.

In addition to a variety of massage techniques such as Swedish, Deep Tissue, Lomi Lomi, Reflexology and Zen Shiatsu with both deep and light techniques, she also offers a variety of healing therapies such as Cranial Neural Support for Longevity (CNSL). This type of therapy helps to keep the brain healthy and lessen the effects of the aging process. She also offers Quantum Biofeedback which can help with stress management, this treatment uses a device to detect stress at the physiological level and then helps you to return to a more balanced state.

Patricia has found it rewarding throughout her career to help her customers find relief from stress and aches and pains. With many struggling with the aftereffects of COVID-19, her therapies have been helpful for many to find relief and the CNSL treatments are a good fit to help with brain fog, stress and anxiety.

It is recommended to book a therapy by calling her directly at 480-245-2191. She books out about two weeks in advance but sometimes can fill appointments on short notice. She works out of her Superior location Wednesday through Saturday and can also offer home visits on Mondays and Tuesdays.

Patricia Berkeley offers a number of different modalities to help you be the best YOU you can be.

Lady Panthers have first wins of the season: Cicero Prep, Ray

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Superior Sun

The Lady Panthers came out ready to play some great basketball this week.

Their week started off on Wednesday, Jan. 12, with an away game at Cicero

Prep, resulting in their first win of the season. The game finished with a 46-35 final score. The Lady Panthers kept the heat when they competed against Ray, beating the Lady 'Cats in a 34-16 point game.

Great job, ladies!

Up next for Superior: On Friday, Jan. 21, the Panthers will host Lincoln Prep. They will be on the road on Monday, Jan. 24, with games at Ray High School. Tipoff times for both days are 4 p.m. for JV boys, 5:30 p.m. for varsity girls and 7 p.m. for varsity boys.
