Superior Chamber of Commerce Home Tour this weekend

The Superior Chamber of Commerce will be hosting the 15th Annual Superior Home Tour & Antique Show, this weekend, Jan. 28 and 29. The event offers ticket holders a chance to explore several unique homes in the historic community.

This year's tour includes "The Cozy Bungalow," a 300 square foot building that was originally a garage for the property's main house, which was built in 1930. What was once in disrepair is now a popular Airbnb with personal touches and clever uses of space throughout. The Cozy Bungalow is one of nine homes on the tour this year.

The antique show will take place at the Magma Club, a beautifully restored 100+ year old building in downtown Superior. The building once hosted dinners, dancing, and boxing matches for Magma Mine workers. Attendees can browse quality antiques, artwork and pottery from the Mexican Village of Mata Ortiz, or relax and listen to live music on the veranda while taking in the mountain views.

Both days begin with a pancake breakfast. Throughout the day, attendees can explore at their own pace, while also taking part in guided hikes, or listening to dynamic speakers. Attendees will hear stories of Superior's history and the legends who once roamed there, including Mattie Blaylock, Wyatt Earp's common-law wife, who is buried in the Pinal Cemetery just outside of town. This year's event also includes a guided downtown tour on Saturday at 1pm, where attendees can hear from Kelli, owner of Picket Post Antiques, about the history of various buildings on Main Street.
