LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

We can't abide a liar

Really? The Mayor of Superior makes cash withdrawals of our money with a town debit card assigned to him not once, not twice, but eight times? And pays it back – some of the withdrawals were over two years ago – after a new-hire at town hall recently questioned the withdrawals in the bank statements. Are you telling me that the town clerk/manager or the finance person didn't happen to notice the disappearing unaccounted for and undocumented money over the past two years totaling over $2,300? Have the bank statements not been reconciled in two years? I would ask the manager and finance guy but they both abruptly quit their jobs when things heated up at town hall.

Some of you may remember we had a financial consultant set up a 5 year budget plan for the town finances in the summer of 2013. It was an endeavor that was going to be like a starvation diet plan, but made sense in getting our town finances back on track. As a business owner I shuddered because the mayor and council voted to DOUBLE the town sales tax making us among the highest in the state. That comes out of the pocket of our Superior people who shop local (thank you) and our visitors. In order to be competitive with other towns many of us have offered "tax free" days and paid the sales taxes ourselves. Additionally, the property taxes were raised. I know that everyone who owns property felt that financial slap.

So, while the caboose restrooms were closed due to lack of money, the Senior Center and library hours were cut, light bulbs weren't being replaced, toilet paper was in short supply at the police station, dogs were running the streets, there were potholes that a small child could disappear into, and on and on and on, the Mayor was helping himself to some of our hard-earned cash.

Going back to Dec. of 2013, the month the raise in the sales tax became effective, the town debit card (not the one assigned to the mayor) seemed to be out running the roads. Starting on Dec. 11th it began its travels at the Family Dollar in Superior and the next day wandered on down to Apache Junction, made a couple of shopping stops, then moved on to the Dollar Tree in Mesa. The town card and its carrier (whoever that was) took the weekend off and then on Dec. 16th went to Walmart in Claypool. On the 17th there was a debit charge in, ready folks?, in Show Low and then back to the Dollar General in Globe. Total -$1,467.85. I call this the traveling debit card. I hope all these purchases were for light bulbs and toilet paper for the town. Oh wait – we can check the receipts, if there are any.

Just take a look at Superior! There are many more people shopping at the stores on Main Street, new businesses on Highway 60, a new clinic, a beautiful historic hotel ready to open, a future mining industry, many new residents and a feeling of renewal for this spectacular town. I care deeply about Superior and all the people who live here – you have made me feel like I'm home. Mayor and council – those of you who have lied, stolen or participated in cronyism in any way in your duties as elected officials, please resign immediately. Mayor Valenzuela I am disappointed and ashamed of your behavior and I can't abide a liar. Residents of the town of Superior - you don't deserve, and you don't have to tolerate this behavior. I am asking you to speak up and step up. We need excellent leadership with a unified Mayor/Council in order to move forward.

To the Sheriff: how is doing something eight times still a mistake?*An Open Letter to Sheriff Paul Babeu,

This is in regards to your employee Jayme Valenzuela who is Jail Commander. He is Mayor of Superior and has committed felony by using more than two thousand dollars of town funds for personal use. An investigation is being done by the DPS. (We hope!)

You became friends with Valenzuela in 2008 when he promised his support and his 'town' of voters to you for your run for Sheriff. You succeeded and you rewarded him with the Jail Commander job in spite of the fact that PCSO advised not to hire him again due to poor performance.

At this time, the majority of the Town has asked the Mayor to resign. He says that using the town debit card eight times over a period of at least fifteen were mistakes. Your PCSO Spokesman Tim Gaffney, also one of your Elite Squad, said that since Mr. Valenzuela had paid the money back it was a non-issue.

Perhaps you feel that way too? Perhaps the rest of us in Pinal County can just commit mayhem and take whatever we want from our neighbors, then give it back months or years later, and your department wouldn't blink an eye? We gave it back, didn't we? I think the PCSO would be out of a job in a few weeks!

Mr. Babeu, if you want to help yourself, you will help the people of Superior! Ask Mr. Valenzuela to step down as our mayor so we won't be strapped by a long and costly recall election. Our town is already broke, which the mayor keeps telling us.

You are facing a primary election in August for the First Congressional District and if you stonewall us in not helping, you can be sure you will receive zilch votes from the Superior voters. If you are foolish enough to believe Gaffney's comment that this was a mistake eight times over, then I do not want you handling our affairs in Congress!

High speed internet is almost a life necessity in this day and age. For those working from home, operating a business or just enjoying some sofa (Yoga on the Sofa) catching up with the latest movies and television program, Internet speed has a huge impact on how we enjoy these technological conveniences. Bill & Janice Reynolds are local distributors and installers for Excede internet services.

How did you get into the Internet business: The Reynolds found Excede high speed internet when they decided to live off the grid. They needed an Internet service that would meet their needs in a very rural location. The Reynolds do not have access to traditional utilities. When they installed the service on their home they were asked to become sales and installation representatives for the company.

What services do they provide: Bill & Janice help to coordinate your internet service package based on your needs for high speed internet. They then arrange for the installation of the necessary equipment and come out and install the service. Excede Internet offers different monthly packages to fit your needs and installation costs may vary.

How to find their business: Bill & Janice are involved in many groups and organizations throughout the Copper Corridor and you can see their bright orange road signs almost everywhere. The best way to set up service with them is to call: (928) 961-4614.

Best advice for other business owners or future business owners: The Reynolds suggest creating systems and procedures that help to save time and create efficiencies. They also suggest that you talk about the advantages of using your business, understand them and communicate them regularly.

Creekside house featured on Home Tour

By Mila Besich-Lira
Superior Sun

Have you ever wondered what the insides of some of the homes in Superior look like?

We have all driven by and seen some of the older homes in Superior get a facelift. Often times it is more than just a coat of paint that is being done. The insides of these homes are remodeled to reflect the personality of the owners.

This year one of the featured homes is the house that has sat vacant for decades next to the creek on Stone. It has been remodeled and is one of the newest homes on the home tour this year. The owners have carefully preserved the adobe structure only adding a small porch to the front and modernizing the bathrooms and living quarters. A home that looked ready for the bulldozer is now a cute creekside cottage.

You can check out this home and several others at the annual Superior Chamber of Commerce home tour, pre-sale tickets are available for $10 or $12 day of the event.

The Home Tour is open Saturday, Jan. 30, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, Jan. 31, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The Magma Club will feature the antique show and the art show will be held on Main St. next to the Rolling Rock Gallery. There is no admission to the art or antique shows.

For more information on the event or to pre-order your tickets, contact the Superior Chamber of Commerce at 520-689-0200.

Superior residents clean house and yards and...

Superior residents were lined up at the John F. Kennedy Elementary School on Saturday morning to take advantage of the free dump day that was provided by many community entities. Tires, metal, old furniture, trash, yard waste, and so much more filled the dumpsters quickly and unfortunately the gates were closed by 11 a.m. when the bins were filled.

The clean ups had been missing from the Superior event schedule for a few years and with the transfer station closed it has been difficult for residents to get rid of trash.

The following organizations were instrumental in coordinating the clean up and they plan to host additional clean ups throughout the year.

The clean up was sponsored by Republic Services, OMYA, Resolution Copper, Superior Unified School District, Town of Superior, Footprints Matter, Copper Area News Publishers and many local citizens who volunteered with the organizing and on the day of.
