A worthy New Year's resolution: Advocate for an abused or neglected child

FLORENCE, AZ - New Year's resolutions typically focus on self-improvement: lose weight, stop smoking, exercise more often. This year, why not resolve to do something even more lasting: improve the life of a child who's suffered abuse and neglect?

As a court-appointed special advocate (CASA), volunteers receive in-depth training to advocate in court and in the community for the needs and rights of children in foster care. Volunteers come from all walks of life and professions and have one thing in common: they care about kids.

"Volunteers get to know the child they represent by talking with everyone in that child's life: parents and relatives, foster parents, teachers, medical professionals, attorneys, social workers and others. They use the information they gather to inform judges and others of what the child needs and what will be the best permanent home for them," explains Donna McBride, CASA Unit Supervisor for Pinal County.

Volunteers complete a 30-hour pre-service training. Once they are assigned to a case, they can expect to spend an average of about 10 hours a month getting to know the child, gathering information, exploring resources to meet the child's needs, representing the child in court and writing reports. Volunteers receive ongoing education and support from their local program as well as from the National CASA Association.

"It's one of the most personally rewarding experiences I've ever had," says local volunteer Anne Lewis. "For many of the kids I've worked with, I've been the only stable, supportive adult in their lives. My sole responsibility is to protect their rights and to find them a safe and nurturing forever home. I know that I'm not just helping these children, but their kids and their grandkids and generations of kids to follow."

To learn more about how you can make a difference in the life of an abused or neglected child, contact the CASA of Pinal County at 520-866-7076 or emailing www.CASAofPinalCounty.org.

"Becoming an advocate for foster children will be the best resolution you can make for this year or any year," McBride concludes.

Christmas Caroling

Let's make a joyful noise unto the Lord! If you like to sing or can play an instrument (or electric piano), let's gather together and create a beautiful sound. We'll sing this Christmas carol through January 6 (the day of Epiphany, or time when the wise men followed his star). Follow his star on Dripping Springs Road (which was named Christmas Star route in the 1980s). Nestled beneath the Dripping Springs mountains, below and west of where Christmas used to lie, is a little church; it was dedicated to God when it was built in 1982 for the Association of Universal Philosophy. There, all faiths are welcome. And you're welcome too. Just bring your heart and a joyful spirit. This is a great time to flock to make music and sing with all the angels on Christmas Star route. Call Rev. Judy, 520-742-0911, to learn more.

Celebrate the 12th day of Christmas at the Church of the Good Shepherd

Family Game Night: A wonderful tradition that Good Shepherd Church wants to honor. Some may remember game nights -- multiple generations huddled over Monopoly or Clue or a good game of cards. Grandpa claiming Boardwalk and Granddaughter learning to plot a strategy. Mrs. Peacock in the library with a candlestick!

And Good Shepherd also wants to honor the 12 days of Christmas – the 12 days that START on Dec. 25 and continue to 12th night on Jan. 5. So Good Shepherd Church, at the bottom of school hill, is hosting a 12th night party to include soup and sandwiches and a different table game on every table.

Saturday night, 6 p.m. at the tall A-frame church. Bring your family's favorite game too, and join in a good ole fashioned family game night. If you want to bring a table snack, that would be OK, too. All are welcome.

The Town of Superior seeks an experienced, collaborative, service focused professional to serve as the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police reports to the Town Manager and serves as a key member of the Town's Leadership Team. This exempt position leads a team including sergeants, police officers, detectives, records clerk, administrative assistant, and police volunteers.

The Town is seeking a strong, hands-on leader with solid ethics and integrity who has the ability to focus on teamwork, responds promptly to staffing requirements, and implements strong organizational development initiatives and modern community policing approaches. It is expected that the new Chief will have strong communication skills, utilize community policing, provide solid leadership, and have a personality style that encourages and supports others within the Department and the community.

The successful candidate will be team oriented, work with an open door, relate well to the rank and file, be an integral part of the community and lead by example. Ideally, the Town seeks an individual with at least 10 years of broad and extensive law enforcement experience. Individuals with command and administrative experience are encouraged to apply. A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with major coursework in police science, criminal justice, public administration, or a related field is a plus. A combination of college or university course work, or other law enforcement professional training and a history of progressive law enforcement assignments may substitute for a bachelor's degree.

Applicants must possess or be capable of obtaining an Arizona POST police officer certification.

To apply for this outstanding career opportunity, please submit your résumé, cover letter, AZ POST Personal History Form, a list of six work-related references (who will not be contacted without prior notice) by January 30, 2019.
