University of Arizona study shows Pinal County as one of the top agriculture suppliers in Arizona, US

FLORENCE, AZ – A recently released study from the University of Arizona's Department of Agriculture and Resources Economics confirms what many local farmers and ranchers have known for a long time – Pinal County's agriculture footprint in the state and beyond is remarkable.

OBITUARY

Jacqueline F. Zappia

Jacqueline "Jackie" Frances Zappia, a resident of Oracle for 53 years, passed away on Jan. 18, 2019 at the age of 91 years.

Jackie was born in Santa Fe on Sept. 30, 1927 to Fred and Inez Napoleone. Jackie was the eldest of three children, her brother Fred (Nappy) Napoleone, and her sister Gloria (Bitsy) Purdue.

Jackie moved from Santa Fe to Fresno, CA and graduated from St. John Cathedral High School, Class of 1945. Shortly after graduation, she met a young WWII airman, her "Mickey", at a Duke Ellington dance in Fresno. Smitten, she and Michael A. Zappia were married on Aug. 7, 1945 and moved to Tucson. With the end of WWII Jackie and Mike started their family of six while Mike attended and graduated from the University of Arizona. Jackie and Mike had 54 wonderful years together. By all accounts those two were always up for and often instigated some sort of fun and adventure.

Jackie and Mickey were both active members of the St. Helen Parish of Oracle, and helped build the patio and fence around the church. She also spent time playing Bridge and Mahjong with friends in SaddleBrooke and Oracle. Mike and Jackie loved to travel with friends, family, and on their own. Jackie traveled the US and many international destinations. A favorite trip taken several times was on the Amazing Grace through the Caribbean. After Mickey's death, Jackie became active with the SaddleBrooke Rotary Club's VOSH of Southern Arizona, where she helped organize for trips and served as VOSH's translator on its regular trips to Mexico.

Jackie will be sadly missed by her six children, Michael A. (Mary-Grace) Zappia Jr. of Prescott, Camille Cimaglia of Scottsdale, Gino F. (Barbara) Zappia of Oro Valley, Marlene (Gary) Lavergne of Oro Valley, J. Rocky (Deanna) Zappia of Tucson, and Mario D. (Betsy) Zappia of Tucson; and her 10 grandchildren.

Jackie requested cremation and that her ashes be spread around the world to places she and Mickey had visited. She also requested no memorial service, but family and friends may make memorial donations to VOSH of Southern Arizona (vosh.org/donate) or St. Helen Catholic Church (66 Maplewood St, Oracle, AZ, 85623).

The study begins by saying that Pinal County ranks in the top two percent of all U.S. counties in the total value of agriculture sales. It also highlights that the county also ranks in the top one percent in cotton, cottonseed sales, milk sales and inventories of cattle and calves.

While looking over the study, District 3 Supervisor Steve Miller said that he knew Pinal County ranked high in agriculture production, the numbers were still an eye opener.

"I look at these numbers and it doesn't surprise me that we are a top supplier of milk and other dairy products in the state," Miller said. "But you look at the nationwide numbers and you realize that we are a major player when it comes to agriculture production for the United States. Emphasis on 'a major player'."

The study also placed the county in the top four percent of all counties in acreage for barley, corn and forage crops.

"If you want to know why water is so important to Pinal County," the Supervisor stated, "just look at this study."

In a hypothetical irrigation water loss, the University of Arizona said the effects on Pinal County and its economy

Local runners compete in Tucson relay

The "Breathless in Oracle" running team recently competed in the Run Around Tucson (RAT) Relay Race. Members were Deb Breen (who serves as the team's trainer), Todd Breen, Tina Vindiola, Maryann Truitt, Darrell Klesch and Alicia Bristow.

Despite being short two members, the group finished in the middle of the teams composed of much younger runners. Leaving in the dark of the morning the group headed for Tucson to tackle 53 miles of loop trail meandering at times through the streets of Tucson. The team pace was 10:54, a major feat given Deb and Todd ran the extra miles to make up for the loss of two runners who were ill.

It was an exciting run with a gun time of 9:41:44, resulting in a full day for the six runners. Luckily, the Breens provided motorhome accommodations and everyone brought snacks to celebrate at the end of the long day. Each team member earned a participation medal for their efforts.

It does pay off for runners to train at the Oracle elevation!

Congratulations to all the runners.

OWN makes annual 'marathon' donation

The Tucson Marathon was held in Oracle on Dec. 8. It is always a big hit in Oracle and has been run annually since 1995, growing from 800 runners to more than 4,000 throughout this period.

The race begins on Cody Loop and the start and first two stations are manned by Oracle and San Manuel volunteers. Before light volunteers gather to set-up water and Gatorade cups for the runners as they flee down the road past tables. The theme for OWN Oracle, a community nonprofit, has been "Santa's Helpers". The runners are greeted with Christmas music and encouragement.

A side bar to this event is that runners shed extra clothing while running down Mt. Lemmon Road. OWN Oracle volunteers gather up the clothing, hats, gloves, jackets, shirts, etc. These items are later washed by volunteers, separated according to size and type and donated to Family 1st and the Behavior Health Center in Oracle. These organizations distribute the clothing to families and people in need of warm garments during the winter months.

Susan Ruffini was Santa's extra helper this year as she delivered clothing to these organizations. Susan is also a volunteer at the Visitor Center in Oracle.

The Visitors Center is always seeking volunteers. For more information call the Visitor Center, (520) 896-3300.

Miner Wrestlers take CJHL team championship, the first year in history to have co-champions.

San Manuel Jr High earns share of CJHL Wrestling Championship

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel Jr. High wrestling team entered the 2018 season with little experience and lofty goals. Through hard work, commitment, discipline, and the wrestlers' desire to improve, the Jr. Miners finished their season with a 12 – 4 record and as Central Junior High League Co-Champions.

"We started the season with a lot of young kids, first-year wrestlers," San Manuel Jr. High head coach Pablo Rodriguez told the San Manuel Miner. "The difference with this group that we had this year was these kids were fearless.

"They wanted to learn, they wanted to practice," he continued. "These kids wanted to learn more, they wanted to be better. The improved all season long."

From the first day of practice, when they set their goal to be champions, the Jr. Miners were relentless in their pursuit of achieving the goal.

"They had that goal in mind every day at practice," Rodriguez said. "They talked about it and what they needed to do to accomplish it.

The Jr. Miners experienced a few obstacles at the start of the CJHL Tournament, finding themselves 20 points behind the leaders after the first of six rounds. Rodriguez gathered the wrestlers and reminded them of their goal, and what they need to do to reach it.

"They responded – in stellar form," Rodriguez said. "They just came out on fire and won all the matches we needed to win."

In total, 16 of 18 Jr. Miners placed at the CJHL Championships: (Name, grade, weight class, place)
Izek Valdez (7th, 73#) – 2nd
Sean McDermott (6th, 83#) – 3rd
Vicente Curry (7th, 88#) – CJHL Champion
Tommy Morris (7th, 93#) – 2nd
Franky Castillo (8th, 93#) – 3rd
Elmer Smith (7th, 98#) – 3rd
Richard Ivy (7th, 104#) – 2nd
Johnny Abrizo (7th, 111#) – 3rd
Mathias Medina (8th, 142#) – 2nd
Andres Rodriguez (7th, 154#) – 2nd
Augustine Romero (7th, 167#) – 2nd
Isaiah Ramirez (8th, 180#) – CJHL Champion
Noah Casillas (8th, 180#) – 2nd

Aiden Lozoya (7th, HWT) – CJHL Champion
Damien Foster (7th, HWT) – 3rd
Rocky Andrade (7th, HWT) – 4th
Priscilla Ortiz (6th, 98#)
Aiden Sahloff (7th, 93#)

Rodriguez was equally impressed with his wrestlers off the mat, proudly stating his team only experienced one eligibility issue all season. Further evidence of the Jr. Miners' success in the classroom includes four wrestlers – Richard Ivy, Augustine Romero, Isaiah Ramirez, and Aiden Lozoya – who are members of the National Junior Honor Society.

"As coaches, our big push was for the wrestlers to be students first," Rodriguez said. "A number of our kids went above and beyond in the classroom, and they did the same on the mat."

At the state tournament last weekend in Prescott, two Jr. Miners came home with medals:
Mathias Medina – 6th
Isaiah Ramirez – 3rd

The Jr. Miners' coaching staff includes: Pablo Rodriguez, Aaron Cruz, Bino Sanchez, Mike Borg, and Yvonne Ramirez. Managers: Maiya Salazar, Nevaeh Derrick.

FFA at San Manuel High School

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

The Mammoth – San Manuel School District Jr/Sr High School has a new Agricultural Program. The Introduction to Applied Biological Services covers topics such as: Plant Science; Growth, Nutrition and Diseases; Integrated Pest Management; Food Science; Scientific Method; Molecular Biology; Ag Mechanics; Ag Business; Future Farmers of America (FFA); and Supervised Agriculture Experience (SAEs).

Lynn Woolever-Telleen is the Agriculture Educator and FFA Advisor for the program. She has lived in Mammoth for the last six years and was teaching in the Globe School District. Lynn was the Agriculture Educator and FFA Advisor for Globe High School for four years. Her students won numerous awards and the program was popular and successful. She attended the University of Arizona and while there, worked on the dairy farm. She said “Farming is very important. There are generations of people who do not know where their food comes from.” “The students in the program learn leadership skills, time management, public speaking and pretty much what they need to be successful in the workplace.”

There are currently 45 students in the program. They have been competing in FFA competitions and some of them have won awards. At the Arizona National Livestock Show held in Phoenix, Sam Scott won 1st Place in his class showing a British white bull. Riana Bowser took 1st Place in her category poster contest – goats. Shawnee Jackson came in 3rd Place in the horse poster competition. There were people from all over the country competing. At a midwinter FFA Career Development Event, the San Manuel FFA Club Agricultural Sales Team took 6th Place out of 1,801 exhibitors. Connor Sawyer earned a National Industry Certification for Livestock Judging which is a prestigious award.

In October, four students and Lynn traveled to Indianapolis, Indiana for the National FFA Conference where they attended leadership workshops. They will have more opportunities to compete in FFA competitions and attend learning workshops and conferences. The program looks like it will be successful in producing trained workers for the Agricultural Industry. There are plans to expand the education program in the 2019 – 2020 and 2020 – 2021 school years.

The Agriculture Industry and Agri Business will be important in the future and there will be a demand for trained technicians familiar with the new farming technology. Pinal County reported in 2018 that food manufacturing is the largest manufacturing sector in the county, providing more than 25% of manufacturing jobs, 18% from dairy farms alone and 33% of manufacturing wages. Crop, livestock and agricultural support service industries in Pinal County accounts for 45% of Arizona's cattle and calf sales; 42% of Arizona's cotton and cottonseed sales; 39% of Arizona's milk sales; and 22% of the state's other crops and hay sales. On farm agriculture and agribusiness is important to the county and state economy.

In a county with a rich history of farming and ranching, the Agricultural Program is a welcome addition to the community and education system.

Teacher Lynn Woolever-Telleen with San Manuel FFA students, Mia Borg, Samuel Scott, Colby Sawyer and Connor Sawyer.

would be enormous.

If there were a loss of 300,000 acre feet of water, the study estimated the following:

- $63.5M to $66.7M loss in gross farm-gate sales (this accounts for seven percent)
- $94M to $104M loss in total county sales (farm and non-farm sales)
- $31.7M to $35M loss in county value added (this includes net farm income, profits in other industries, employee compensation and tax revenues)
- 240 to 480 in full and part-time jobs lost

Pinal County Economic Development Program Manager Tim Kanavel said the loss would be not only felt in Pinal County, but across the nation.

“Anytime you have a stoppage or slowdown in production, prices go up,” Kanavel said. “This study shows damaging effects across the county, but the U.S. consumer would be feeling the ripple from such a cutback in water.”

Statewide, the study reports that Pinal County accounts for the following:

- 45 percent of cattle and calf sales
- 42 percent of cotton and cottonseed sales
- 39 percent of milk sales
- 22 percent of other crops and hay sales

“Our farming community is the backbone of our economic development success,” Todd House, Board of Supervisors Chairman said. “Many of these operations are family owned and have stayed that way for decades. They have been through the up and downs and have always supplied our county, our state and our nation with the agriculture goods we need.”

When it came to the agribusiness totals, the study found that a quarter of Pinal County manufacturing jobs are in this sector, providing 33 percent of the total manufacturing wages.

The latest numbers available to the study are from 2016.

During that time Pinal County’s economy was a major beneficiary when it came to the contribution of On-Farm Agriculture and Agribusiness.

The study showed the following from On-Farm Agriculture:

- $1.1B in sales
- $372.8M in value added to the county
- Nearly 5,200 full and part-time jobs
- Looking at agriculture and agribusiness as a whole:
- Nearly $2.3B in sales
- $611.1M in value added to the county
- More than 7,500 jobs

“I know a lot of the economic development news coming out of Pinal County has to do a lot with hi-tech and the future of transportation,” Supervisor Miller said. “But we cannot and will not forget that Pinal County ranchers and farmers plays a major role in producing the goods that feed and clothe America.”

Permit Test @ Home a huge hit for customers in 2018

PHOENIX – The introduction of the online Permit Test @ Home learner's permit exam has proven so successful that it created the equivalent of approximately 18 additional business days for Arizona Department of Transportation Motor Vehicle Division offices in 2018.

"The Permit Test @ Home has proven to be very popular, and even customers who don't have a potential teen driver at home benefit from this online service," said MVD Stakeholder Relations Manager Jennifer Bowser-Richards. "Every time this online test is taken, that means a teenager and at least one parent or guardian does not have to visit an MVD office for that purpose," she explained.

The online test requires a parent or guardian to establish an account at AZ MVD Now, which is accessed through ServiceArizona.com. Once the test is passed, the only office visit now required is the one in which the teen has the test process confirmed and the actual permit is issued. This visit can be scheduled through an online appointment.

The Permit Test @ Home was introduced in March of 2018 and at the close of the year, more than 66,700 online tests had been taken. Since the office test requires a parent or guardian to be present, that number would at least double to more than 133,000 people coming into an MVD office for the test. Since the MVD averages 7,300 office visits statewide every day, the reduction of more than 133,000 office visits equals about 18 business days.

"Reducing the number of office visits people need to make is part of MVD's vision to get Arizona out of line and safely on the road. This means less customer traffic and better service, which are among the goals of the Arizona Management System," Bowser-Richards added.
