It was as if two arms wrapped themselves around me and my family during this difficult time in our lives. Thank you all for your constant prayers, generosity and daily trays of food. We send our deepest gratitude and appreciation. It will never be forgotten.

To three wonderful friends who sent food and money to me, my dad and grandkids while me and my mom were hospitalized, thank you again for your constant support and prayers; Regina Arbizio, Barbara Martinez and Sally Chavez.

To Norm and Myra Warren for your generosity and years of kind words through the course of my mom's life, it is greatly appreciated.

Local teams play the tournament circuit during winter break, holidays

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Copper Basin News

Just because school was out for the holiday/winter break didn't mean that our dedicated athletes were taking time off.

Hayden and Ray varsity teams, men and women, used the time off to get in some competition practice and play teams they might not encounter in their regular schedule.

Over the holiday break, the Hayden basketball teams were busy competing in tournaments. The boys team played in the 2021 Santa Cruz New Year's Shootout Basketball Tournament that started on Dec. 27. The Lobos faced off against Tucson's Pueblo High School. Hayden came up short, in this close, 46-51 loss. The following day, the Lobos were able to turn the tides against hosts, Santa Cruz Valley. The game ended with the boys leading the game by a large lead, the final score being 72-39.

On Dec. 28, the Lady Lobos traveled to compete in Epic

Tourneys New Year's Classic presented by Chandler Prep. Right off the bat, Hayden was up against hosts, Chandler Prep. Unlike the boys, the girls were unable to defeat the tournament hosts. However, the Lady Lobos played a close game, resulting in a close 22-29 loss. The girls didn't play again until Dec. 30, against Lincoln Prep. The girls were able to come back from the preceding loss, winning in an even closer game. The final score of the Lincoln Prep game was 23-21. The Lady Lobos were scheduled to play against Skyline later that day, but according to AZPreps365, the game was cancelled for unspecified reasons.

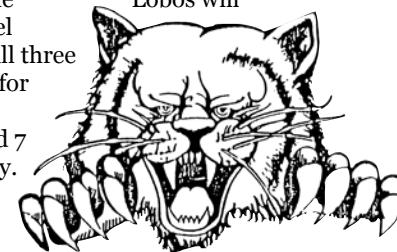

The Ray High School boys basketball team competed in Epic Tourneys New Years Classic, on Dec. 28. The tournament proved to be a tough event for the Bearcats. In their first game, against the Gregory School, the boys suffered a 10-point loss of, 48-58. The following day, the 'Cats went up against Williams. The Vikings were able to walk away with the victory over the Bearcats, the final score being 48-73. On Dec. 30, the last day of the tournament, the boys played two games. The first game of the day was against Red Mesa. The Bearcats were able to keep the score of this game closer than the previous one, but were still unable to claim the win, resulting in a 52-55 loss. Their final game of the tournament was against Miami. The Bearcats were able to take it to the Vandals, and walk away with a 62-46 win.

Up next for Hayden: On Wednesday, Jan. 5, the Lobos host the Cibecue Wildcats. On Friday, Jan. 7, the Lobos head to Tempe Prep for games against the Knights. On Tuesday, Jan. 11, the Lobos will host the San Manuel Miners. Tipoff for all three games is at: 4 p.m. for boys JV; 5:30 p.m. for girls varsity; and 7 p.m. for boys varsity.

Up next for Ray: The 'Cats and Lady 'Cats will be busy over the next week. On Friday, Jan. 7, the varsity boys will travel to Immaculate Heart High School to face off against the Knights. Tipoff is at 6 p.m. On Saturday, Jan. 8, Ray will host the San Miguel Vipers. JV boys will play at 12:30 p.m.; girls varsity will play at 2 p.m. and the varsity boys will play at 3:30 p.m. On Tuesday, Jan. 11, the 'Cats host the Cibecue Wildcats. Tipoff is at: 2:30 p.m. for girls JV; 4 p.m. for boys JV; 5:30 p.m. for girls varsity; and 7 p.m. for boys varsity.

Support Local: Hayden Senior Center

In April 2020, COVID-19 brought much of Arizona's economy to a screeching halt. All businesses not deemed "essential" were ordered closed by Arizona's governor Doug Ducey.

The lockdown continued for nearly two months. When Gov. Ducey finally gave the go ahead to reopen, businesses slowly began the road to recovery. Even those listed as "essential" had a challenge with this economic recovery.

Many small businesses and non-profits in Arizona didn't survive the lockdown. The businesses that did survive are hanging on as best they can. Copper Area News wanted to give something back to the local business community as a thank you for supporting us through these troubled times.

Our newspapers (Copper Basin News, Superior Sun and San Manuel Miner) have been featuring local businesses and non-profits since the beginning of 2021, encouraging our readers to Shop at Home, stay local and support our local businesses. To date, Copper Area News has featured 130 businesses and groups in the Copper Corridor.

As the COVID-19 Pandemic took its toll, businesses, families and even local non-profits had to adjust their strategies to keep their missions moving forward while working through the pandemic. Meetings were moved to Zoom and fundraisers had to become creative as in-person events were not allowed.

Services provided by senior centers are more than a necessity – they are a lifeline. Senior citizens are, perhaps, one of the most vulnerable populations when it comes to COVID-19. Senior centers quickly had to reconfigure their operations so that they could continue to provide the needed services in a way that wouldn't endanger the lives of our older citizens.

The Town of Hayden Senior Center, under the guidance of the Executive Board of Pinal-Gila Council for Senior Citizens since 1974 located in Casa Grande, although slowed by this COVID-19 pandemic, has continued to ensure the clientele registered to receive meals through the meals on wheels program has indeed been successful.

Ten senior centers located in both counties fall under the umbrella of guidance from the Pinal-Gila Council and are able to offer information, assistance, advocacy and education through a variety of sources, which includes assistance with prescription medicine, housing, rent, utilities, furniture and food among other needs that seniors and residents should encounter in their daily lives.

The Hayden Senior Center, much like everyone in the country, faces shortages of availability in food supplies and deliveries that Center Director Annie Hinojos seeks every opportunity to insure meal deliveries are continued to the home bound.

The center's dining room reopened in November to those wishing to eat in or continue to pick up carry out meals. They offered a Thanksgiving meal on Nov. 18.

If you'd like to participate in any of the center's activities or just have a nice meal, please call 520-356-7801 ext. 1401 and any assistance needs contact the Town of Hayden Senior Center.

The staff at the Hayden Senior Center stands ready to help.
