Carniceria opens in Mammoth

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

Mammoth has a new meat market and grocery store specializing in Hispanic foods. Carniceria Rancheros Meat Market is now open and doing business. "It took longer than we expected but we're here and still working on it," said owner Luis Lopez. Luis' partner is his uncle Marco Lopez who owns a meat packing plant in Tucson, "Beef Masters" on 29th Street and the freeway. The Lopez family comes from a long line of ranchers and meat market owners.

Luis says he has been cutting meat since he was 13 years old. He is originally from Hermosillo, Sonora Mexico. He has lived in Tucson for 20 years where he has worked for a number of grocery stores. The last three years he has been the general manager for El Herradero Supermarket at Prince and Flowing Wells Road. A number of the customers he now has in Mammoth used to patronize El Herradero and recognized him from the store.

The Town of Mammoth approached him about opening the store. Luis had been considering opening his own store and had been looking around Tucson. Former Mayor Al Barcelo showed him some buildings in Mammoth but none of them were acceptable and Luis would have had to invest a lot of money to get started. Luis looked at recent census numbers for the Tri-Community, Kearny and Hayden-Winkelman. He visited all the towns and walked around the businesses. Luis met a lot of people and talked to them. They told him the area needed a store like his.

The Town of Mammoth was persistent in wanting Luis to open a store in town. Luis pointed out what work would be needed in the building to be able to open a store. The Town of Mammoth accommodated him and began upgrading the building. Luis did part of the work himself. Pinal County Supervisor Pete Rios helped with the county building regulations which are different from Pima County. Luis wanted to thank the Town of Mammoth, Al Barcelo, Patsy large and Pete "Chapo" Gallego for their assistance.

Luis found out that he has a family tie to Mammoth. As a kid his father would tell him that his grandfather used to work as a cowboy on the "Mercy" ranch on the other side of the Catalina Mountains from Tucson. After visiting Mammoth and talking with people, he was told about the Mercer ranch near Mammoth. He told his uncle about the Mercer ranch and his uncle said yes that was it. It is believed that Luis' grandfather, Ramon "Chapo"

The Day You Went Away

They say that time's a healer
But as the time goes on,
I seem to find it just as hard
To face the fact you've gone.

And today it's the Anniversary
Of the day that you went away,
And I'm standing at your graveside
And believe me when I say,

You'll never be forgotten
And every year I'll shed a tear,
But it's only because I Love You
And wish you were still here.

It snowed! It snowed! It snowed New Year's Eve night!

Kearny resident Gerry Kauffhold shared several photos he took on Thursday morning, Jan. 1, 2015, at 7:30 a.m. The Tortilla Mountains west of Kearny were covered with snow. "The Gila River," Gerry said, "causes a fog bank to build directly over the water and that 'Apache Fog' as I call it rose halfway up the mountains." If you have photos you took on New Year's Day of the snow or beautiful beginning to the year 2015, please feel free to share them with us either by email at editor@minersunbasin.com or on our Facebook page, www.facebook.com/copperarea.

Oracle resident Bonnielee Walsh found this little message in her driveway Jan. 2 after a delivery by the U.P.S. driver. Hearts in the snow.

Oracle SailCart dedication held

Artist Chris Lucic addresses the crowd at the dedication of the Oracle SailCart.
John Hernandez | CBN

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

On Sunday, Jan. 4, 2015 a dedication ceremony was held for the Oracle SailCart sculpture. Chris Lucic, artist and designer of the SailCart spoke in front of 80 people who came to thank those responsible for the sculpture and its installation. Chris told the story of how the Oracle SailCart got to where it is today from the idea of the Ore Cart Trail to the volunteers who made it happen. He also talked about the meaning of the SailCart and how it relates to the history of Oracle and the mining legacy of the Tri-Community.

Chris thanked all of the people that made the sculpture's installation possible. The SailCart was then "christened" by the Oracle Fire Department with an "arc of water" sprayed over the public sculpture. The SailCart is located on American Avenue next to the Post Office.

CORRECTION: In last week's article about the ore SailCart in the Copper Basin News, it was erroneously reported that Albert Weldon had survived a storm while sailing in the clipper ship Oracle around the Cape of Good Hope at the bottom tip of South America and not the Cape of Good Hope off of Africa. Thank you to Donald Paddock for pointing out the error.

Journey for a Clean Kearny Coming

Be sure to mark two Saturdays in January, the 17th and the 24th. The first is the Journey for a Clean Kearny, and the second is the Car Show and NAPA Grand Opening.

I wrote about the cleanup day last week, but I want to mention it again because I think it's a great opportunity for all of us. It will begin at 8 a.m. at Constitution Hall with a meeting of all the day's volunteers. Rose Bradford will "lead the charge" into a six-hour concentrated scouring of the town. Please bring your own tools, sign the liability waiver, and we can grab our bags and get started. Consider "adopting" your elderly or ill neighbors to give them an assist.

It's propitious that the cleanup is the week before NAPA's grand opening. Rip Vache has, with the help of friends, lined up a vehicle Poker Run and Car Show. He is working with the Chamber of Commerce, the Town of Kearny, and all the merchants to fill Alden Road with cars of all kinds. Check with Rip and the folks at NAPA to see how your club or organization can get involved.

This is all very exciting. Rip has offered his services to the Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce to bring another car show to town in the fall.

I'm also excited that Manuel Ramos, the Chief Operating Officer and President of ASARCO is coming to town with several people from the mine on Monday, January 19, to speak with Town Manager Anna Flores and your mayor about ways we can be mutually supportive for the betterment of the whole Copper Basin. We have many items on the agenda, including economic development, water usage, and the potential for improving the golf course. I am confident that good things will come out of this gathering and that we will continue to work closely together.

By the end of this week, I have the solid hope that I will be able to report some good news on the work that is being done on our water filtration plant, well number 2, and our storage tanks. The year ended with a flurry of work accomplish, and we hope to have it all lined up in a few days.

I like to brag to other towns about Kearny, because we have two garbage pick ups each week. With Christmas and the New Year we had just two Monday pickups, and people really felt the difference (especially with all the refuse that accumulates over the holidays). It will be good to be back to twice a week, a routine which is especially appreciated during the hot (and sometimes smelly) summer.

The next regular meeting of Town Council will be at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, Jan. 19.

Two Ray players named to AzFCA All-State Team

By Andrew Luberda
Copper Area News

A total of three football players from Ray and Superior high schools were named to the 2014 Arizona Football Coaches Association All-State Teams.

Players were selected by coaches in each division throughout the state, perhaps making this one of the players' most prestigious honors.

Jacob Pace (Sr, OL) and Destry Yocum (Sr, LB) from Ray along with Superior's Matthew Zavala (Sr, WR/TE) were selected to the AzFCA 2014 Division VI All-State Team.

Nominations needed for Citizen of the Year

It is time to recognize and honor the 2014 Citizen of the Year. This recognition is sponsored by the Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce.

The following guidelines are used in the selection process and must be included in the nomination letter:

- The nominee must reside in the Copper Basin Area.
- Only one nominee per letter, however husband wife teams may be nominated together. No groups.
- Submit a complete description of the activities in which the nominee has participated, especially the most notable.
- The person making the nomination must be available to speak to the qualifications when the selection committee meets.
- Former COY's are not eligible

All nomination letters must be signed and delivered to the chamber office in person or mail to Box 206, Kearny, AZ 85137.

The deadline for submission is Friday, Feb. 6. All nominees will be featured in the Copper Basin News prior to the Chamber's Annual Business meeting and Citizen of the Year (COY) Recognition dinner which will be Monday, Feb. 23.

Other related Chamber news is that the annual membership drive and board selection is underway. The Women's Expo will be Feb. 28 with the Pioneer Days Queens Fashion Show during the event. It is a great way for local entrepreneurs to feature their business.

Pioneer Days is March 12-15. Queen contestants have already started their meetings with a few days left to sign up.

(Shorty) Lopez worked for the Mercer ranch in the 1940s.

Besides being a cowboy, Ramon would travel to other ranches to buy and sell cattle for the Mercers. The owner's wife taught Ramon how to sign his name. Ramon did not know how to read or write but needed to be able to sign a check. Ramon would later be deported by Immigration back to Mexico. The owner of the ranch traveled to Nogales, Sonora to pay Ramon the money he owed him. Being deported worked in Ramon's favor as he would later win the Mexican lottery. His winnings allowed him to open some meat markets and be the first person in his village to own a car. Ramon lived in Carbó, Sonora a small town noted for ranching and farming.

The Carniceria Ranchero carries a variety of marinated meats, different cuts of chicken, pork, and beef as well as fish and shrimp. You can find everything you need to make tamales and menudo. There is a good selection of Mexican cheeses as well as American cheese and cold cuts. The produce section has a good variety of fruits and vegetables. They carry El Guapo spices and dried chilies. Mexican bread and rolls as well as a selection of corn and flour tortillas are available. "You can expect Tucson prices or lower. Some items will be a few cents higher due to added delivery charges," said Luis. "We will offer good customer service and a good variety of quality products," he said.

Carniceria Ranchero Meat Market is open seven days a week. The temporary hours are 9 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. There are currently not authorized for EBT (food stamps) but expect to have approval by late January. Luis said, "I am grateful for the support that the community has given me. The people tell me that they are glad to have a market here." The market is located off Highway 77 between the Circle K and Michoacanas Restaurant.

Well Armed Woman group gives back

Christmas is about giving, and in our little town giving can have a huge impact. Each year a Salvation Army Angel Tree is put up at Gordon's IGA, ran by Lora Snow and the Kearny Fire Department who do an amazing job. Our great little town does its best to pick all the angels and go shopping for them. We also have a couple of businesses and business owners that contribute hundreds of dollars worth of toys. Kearny's heart is something to be admired!

As part of The Well Armed Woman's National Community Outreach Initiative, the Copper Basin Chapter is working hard on giving back to our communities. Picking angels off of the angel tree was something that wasn't even questioned when it was discussed at the November meeting. They picked three angels off of the tree and had a great time shopping. It's a fairly small chapter so three was the limit this year. Next year's aim is bigger! Several chapter members also helped wrap all the angel tree presents, along side Kearny and Hayden fire fighters, some Kearny citizens and the mayor of Hayden.

The Copper Basin Chapter has plans for other ways to give back to the local communities as well, so be watching for them!
