Candidate Announcement: Ruben Leos to run for Supervisor District One

Picacho, AZ.- U.S. Marine Veteran and retired Pinal County Sheriff's Captain Ruben Leos announced his campaign for District One Supervisor. Leos challenges career politician Pete Rios of Apache Junction. Leos made clear that he lives in the district, while Rios continues to illegally live outside the district he presently represents.

Leos said, "Rios continues to deceive voters and violate the law by claiming he lives in an abandoned trailer in Dudleyville, when he actually lives in a single-family home in Apache Junction, a solid republican district. We need a supervisor who is honest and cares enough to live among the people he represents. I live in District One and have placed my life on the line to protect the hard-working families and my neighbors in District One. When you look at the problems of this district, Rios doesn't have much to show for his decades in office. We need a greater focus on resources from Pinal county and only a new Supervisor can deliver the change we need."

Leos continued, "I will work hard on economic issues facing district One. Many residents feel neglected as they see other areas in the county prospering. We need to work with community leaders throughout District One to coordinated efforts to create jobs and business opportunities. I will demand our county and regional economic development resources push for opportunities in the communities I represent. I have not seen or heard Rios fighting for jobs and economic development in our district unless it is an election time speech."

Leos adds, "We need more uniformed deputies in rural areas of the county and Rios has done everything to stop this from happening. Having so few deputies covering huge land areas means unacceptably extended response times to emergencies."

"Many senior citizens who are homebound are forgotten; they need support, resources and services. We can and must do more to assist our elderly with information and partner with other agencies to better address their needs," said Leos.

Finally, Leos says as a Veteran he will address challenges that many of our veterans are facing daily. "these patriots gave so much of themselves for this great nation and they've earned the right to be heard.

Leos helped establish and led the creation of Mental Health Co-response team for the Sheriff's office. This is where a mental health clinician responds to those emergency calls for suicidal subjects and mental health crisis situations.

"Mental health is a significant issue for many families; this is a sincere concern for me since I've witnessed the impact on those without help, support or where to find the needed resources. I will work hard to further support services for these members of our community so they can receive the assistance they need and have sought out in the past with no success. We must do more to support these families by building partnerships that I have

Seven young ladies vie for Pioneer Days Queen, Jr. Queen titles; to be crowned in March

Compiled by Jennifer Carnes

Copper Basin News

The 2020 Pioneer Days Queen contestants have been hard at work, earning points to see who will wear the crowns come March.

Four are competing for Pioneer Days Queen: Chelsea Boyd-Flores, Kiley Rutter, Elora Foster and Alessya Green. Three will be hoping for the title of Jr. Queen: Landree Scaggs, Faith Bracamonte and Mary Salazar Jurado.

Chelsea Boyd-Flores

Chelsea is a Junior at Ray High School and is the daughter of Tiffany Boyd and Matthew Flores. She is 17 and lives with her parents in Kearny.

Chelsea has been very active at her high school in sports and clubs/organizations. She plays varsity basketball as a guard and is one of the captains. She plays varsity volleyball (setter) and varsity softball (catcher and first base). She is president of the softball club. She also serves as the historian for National Honor Society, vice president of the Science Club and is the Junior Representative on the Student Council. She was also named Kearny Elks Student of the Month for January 2020.

Outside of school, Chelsea is a member of the Junior Chamber and helps at her church with the kids. Chelsea said that her hobby is taking pictures.

She plans to attend the University of Arizona after high school and study veterinary medicine.

When asked why she was running for Pioneer Days Queen, she said:

“I had friends that ran before and they had so much fun! So I decided to run too! Also, I love Pioneer Days and helping with the community.”

Kiley Rutter

Kiley is a Freshman at Ray High School and is the daughter of Allan and Kathy Rutter. She is 15 and lives with her parents in Kearny.

She plays basketball and is on the cheer squad. She is a member of the Science Club and was the Freshman Attendant at Homecoming.

"I like to swim and cook," she said when asked about her hobbies. She also likes to play sports and hang out with her friends and family.

Kiley plans on attending college after high school and pursuing a career as an architect.

When asked why she was running for Pioneer Days Queen, she said:

"I ran for queen because I thought it was an opportunity for me to get out and do stuff, make new friends and have a good time."

Elora Foster

Elora is a Junior at Ray High School and is the daughter of James and Casity Foster. She is 17 and lives with her parents in Kearny.

Elora is a member of the National Honor Society and plays volleyball, basketball and softball. Elora also takes welding at Cobre Valley Institute of Technology/Central Arizona College Aravaipa.

Outside of school, Elora is a member of 4-H and volunteers at the Family First Center in Winkelman. She plays softball and helps man the concession stand for the Junior class. She has also volunteered her time cleaning up the Sheriff's Posse Arena.

"I like to ride horses and spend time with my animals," Elora said. "They are a huge part of my life and I love the so much."

She added that she likes to play sports, to better herself individually and as a teammate. She likes to draw, paint and sing.

Elora, too, plans a career as a veterinarian. "I plan on going to the U of A because they have a good and updated source of knowledge on the veterinary practice. It's what I aspire to do."

Running for Pioneer Days Queen is in Elora's family, so to speak.

"My grandmother ran for Pioneer Days Queen when she was in 11th grade, so I wanted to do something that was a part of her childhood," Elora said. "My grandma is Josephine Foster and even though she didn't win queen, she still had a great experience, which inspired me to do something out of my comfort zone. No matter what the outcome, I am proud to be a part of the Chamber of Commerce Kearny Pioneer Days."

Landree Scaggs

Landree is a seventh grader at Ray Junior High School and is the daughter of William and Nicole Scaggs. She is 13 and Landree is involved in art and keyboarding at school and outside of school, she enjoys dance and art classes.

She counts listening to music, singing and dancing as her hobbies and she loves taking care of her pets, her dog Lacey and her cat Callie.

When asked about her plans for the future, Landree said: "I am hoping to become a mermaid but in case that doesn't work out, I plan to study songwriting and possibly become a singer."

She decided to run for Pioneer Days Jr. Queen because she thought it would be a fun way to represent her school and hometown.

Faith Bracamonte

Faith is an eighth grader at Ray Junior High School and is the daughter of Jacob and Veronica Bracamonte. She lives with her parents in Kearny.

Faith was recently named to the honor roll and serves as secretary for the Student Council. She has played percussion in band for five years and participates in Community Schools Cheer and Junior High Cheerleading. She plays volleyball, softball, track and cheer. She says she's excited to continue cheering in the future.

Outside of school, Faith was a student leader/volunteer for College for Kids (first time this year!) and attends church in Mesa or online. She loves going to church camp.

Faith enjoys singing and writing stories and doing flips on the trampoline. She likes to hang out with her friends at school.

She plans on attending college after high school, although she hasn't decided which one she'll attend. She wants to be an actress and have a (pet) baby monkey.

When asked why she was running for Jr. Queen, Faith said:

"I am running for Jr. Queen because I wanted to try something new and see what the experience is like. I've tried something like this before and it was fun so I thought I would do it again!"

Mary Salazar Jurado

Mary is a seventh grader at Ray Junior High School and is the daughter of Shando and Christalie Norris. She is 13 and lives with her parents in Kearny.

Mary plays basketball, volleyball, soccer and cheer. She is in the band and plays the flute and baritone. She has been named Student of the Month and received awards for being most improved in band and for her outstanding performance on the AZ Merit test. She is also a Girl Scout.

She likes to play basketball and walk her dog, Tam. She also enjoys climbing mountains and exploring the desert with her sister and cousins.

She's been through a lot these past years and when she told me about it, I knew it would make her happy if I did it." She added that she thought it would be a good way for her to become more confident about herself.

Copper Corridor communities represented at Great Canadian Picnic

For the fourth year in a row the Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition (CCEDC) has sponsored a booth at the Great Canadian Picnic in Phoenix. The picnic is a large gathering of people who are from Canada or have roots in Canada. The CCEDC uses this booth to help promote the communities located in the Copper Corridor as places to visit and live.

At the booth, volunteers from the region handed out branded swag, maps of the area and coupons for local businesses. Supporting the CCEDC in this activity included the Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce, Superior Chamber of Commerce, Globe-Miami Chamber of Commerce and Oracle Women's Network.

The Americorps NCCC Southwest Crew also assisted with stuffing the goody bags prior to the event. Discover Gila County also sponsored a booth and between the two organizations the region was well covered.

Superior to host first ever Copper Corridor Trail Run; guided hike planned and new trails to open Superior is becoming a destination for outdoor recreation and competitions.

This week Aravaipa Running opened registration for the Copper Corridor Trail Run. The race will feature a 50k, 33k, 18k and 12k race on Saturday, Feb. 29. Runners and spectators can learn more about this race online at: <http://bit.ly/CopperCorridorRace>

If running the trails is not for you, the Legends of Superior Trails Inc. will be hosting Hashbrowns, History and Hiking on Feb. 14, 2020. The event starts at 7:30 a.m. with a hearty breakfast and a presentation on the history of Pinal City. The presentation will be given by Steve Germick the Tonto National Forest Historian. Tickets are $25 per person and seats are selling fast.
