OBITUARY

Alane Winslow Brickey

Alane Winslow Brickey of Bessemer, AL, passed away at age 67 on Tuesday, Dec. 17, 2019.

She was born in Carlsbad, NM, on Oct. 15, 1952, to Thomas "Bryant" Winslow Jr. and Callie Mae Wooldridge Winslow. In December 1974, she married Lawrence "Larry" Brickey. She completed her G.E.D. and several business classes, and taught Sunday School at First Baptist Church in Superior. Together they owned and operated several businesses, including Home Movie Rentals, also in Superior.

Planning for retirement, the Brickeys sold their business of 20 years and moved to Bessemer, AL, in 2008.

Retirement didn't last long; Larry purchased an ice cream truck, and Alane landed her dream job working as a clerk then an assistant manager at Hancock Fabrics. Sewing and quilting projects made up big part of Alane's life, and she blessed countless friends and family members with her handiwork. Her big-hearted nature extended far beyond the sewing machine. Over the years she gladly opened her home to friends—and friends of friends—who needed a place to stay. Most recently she was a "lunch lady" at a local middle school, where she had a ready smile, words of encouragement and the occasional hug for the children along the serving line.

Alane was preceded in death by her parents, her sister, Mary Ann Caillouette, and twin brother, Alan Winslow. Larry, her loving husband of 40 years, died in 2015.

Alane is survived by four daughters, Rebel Hanes of McPherson, KS, Lavina Donlin (Abe) of Hoover, AL; Leslie Bryant of Superior and R. Michelle Ernest (Ben) of Hoover, AL; her son, Larry Brickey (Lisa), Savage, MN; two brothers, Richard Winslow Sr. (Carolyn) of Helena, AL, and Charles Winslow Sr. (Gloria) of Eloy; grandchildren, Kenneth Perry, Denise Perry, Brittony Hanes, Lois Hanes, Nikolas Donlin (Bre), Abraham Donlin Jr. (Karry), Celestina Donlin, Cal Bryant (Dawn), Salina Bryant, Roman Otero, Kaidyn Ernest, Kevin Brickey and Trevor Brickey; great-grandchildren, Tyler, Olivia, Peyton (James), Cal Jr., Danika, Zachary, Kade, Jax, Jace, Abraham "Dekker" and Nikolas "Niko"; and great-great-grandchildren, Nico and Lorelei. Alane was also beloved by extended family members and friends who are too numerous to name.

Celebration of life services will be on Saturday, Feb. 15, 2020 at Hunter Street Baptist Church Chapel, 2600 John Hawkins Parkway, Hoover, AL with visitation to begin at 10 a.m. and service to follow at 11.

SUSD approves 2020 override election; approves two-year contract for Superintendent

During its February meeting, the Superior Unified Schools Governing board voted unanimously to approve the call for an override renewal election and an election to sell the Harding School property and the forty acres of vacant land that the district owns off of Golf Course Road. The board also approved a two-year employment contract for Stephen Estatico to remain as School Superintendent.

The override and property sale elections will be scheduled for the November 2020 election.

Overrides are used to provide additional funding to support what happens inside school classrooms (teaching, learning and operations). Superior voters will be asked to approve a maintenance and operations override (M&O) override which supports things such as teacher salaries, benefits, supplies and general operations.

School districts may ask for an increase of up to 15 percent of its budget for the M&O override, up to five percent for a special override and up to 10 percent for a capital override

(M&O and special overrides combined cannot equal more than 15 percent). Overrides are approved for a term of 7 years. Many school districts will ask voters to approve a renewal in year 4 or 5 of an override to maintain a consistent level of funding. If not renewed, the amount decreases by 1/3 in the sixth year and 2/3 in the seventh year.

Nathan Duarte was elected as President of the Board and Arlynn Godinez was elected as the Clerk of the Board after serving as President for two years.

Gideon Irving visits the Copper Corridor

By Mila Besich
Copper Area News

Gideon Irving is a “professional globetrotting house showman” who is traveling the western United States via horseback playing his unique and eclectic music in homes across the west. He left on his journey from Creede, Colorado and has made his way into Arizona.

Recently he visited Superior where he and his horses, Troubador and Augustus, stayed at the Box 8 Guest Ranch. During his stay he played a house concert where many residents of Superior attended the show and hosted a pot luck to welcome this adventurous and brave musician as he traveled through the region.

While many musicians may be looking for their big break, Gideon is focussed on bringing his talents to people via home concerts. Cost of the ticket, donations and referrals to others who may want to host his show in their home. He has played in living rooms, kitchens, yurts, patios, and all places in between. Any place that can gather people can accommodate a Gideon Irving home show.

Gideon realized the multi-city, late night show tours and the whole club scene was not something he wanted to do long term. After seeing a home concert in New York, he set out on his own tour across New Zealand, where he played in over 80 homes while traveling the country via bicycle. Then he returned home to New York City to play another tour across homes in the city while traveling with a shopping cart. In 2018, he moved to Utah to learn how to work with horses and prepare himself for his western states tour. During this tour he will play shows in New Mexico, Arizona, California, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming for the Horse Tour October 2019-October 2020.

Gideon traveled from Safford to Superior via the Aravaipa Canyon trail and staying at the Aravaipa Inn before traveling along the road sides arriving in Superior. He was greeted and supported by residents of Kearny who helped him to navigate the horses over the divide and he visited the striking workers at ASARCO along Highway 177 in Kearny and Hayden.

After his stay in Superior, Gideon traveled south on the Arizona Trail into Oracle where he is scheduled to host another home concert on Thursday, Feb. 13, 2020, at the Triangle L Ranch. The concert is scheduled to start at 7 p.m.

Speaker of the House Rusty Bowers visits Copper Corridor

The Arizona House of Representatives Speaker of the House Rusty Bowers invited the Mayors of Globe, Miami and Superior, along with members of the Gila County Community College Board to meet with him on Saturday morning at Bullion Plaza.

Speaker Bowers was interested in learning more about the challenges facing the Copper Corridor and greater Arizona. He explained that he was familiar with the region as he owns a home near Pinto Creek and is aware how the region has struggled.

The mayors of the communities expressed their needs for more funding for critical infrastructure, education and support for the regional blight remediation bill that is currently going through the legislature. The discussion also included how many of the tax laws around the mining industry do not adequately fund the communities most affected or impacted by the mining industry.

The picnic is a large gathering of people who are from Canada or have roots in Canada. The CCEDC uses this booth to help promote the communities located in the Copper Corridor as places to visit and live.

At the booth, volunteers from the region handed out branded swag, maps of the area and coupons for local businesses. Supporting the CCEDC in this activity included the Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce, Superior Chamber of Commerce, Globe-Miami Chamber of Commerce and Oracle Women's Network.

The Americorps NCCC Southwest Crew also assisted with stuffing the goody bags prior to the event. Discover Gila County also sponsored a booth and between the two organizations the region was well covered.

Maricopa County Justice Courts NOTICE TO THE DEFENDANT: A LAWSUIT HAS BEEN FILED AGAINST YOU IN JUSTICE COURTS You have rights and responsibilities in this lawsuit. Read this notice carefully. 1. In a justice court lawsuit, individuals have a right to represent themselves, or they may hire an attorney to represent them. A family member or a friend may not represent someone in justice court unless the family member or friend is an attorney. A corporation has a right to be represented by an officer of the corporation, and a limited liability company ("LLC") may be represented by a managing member. A corporation or an LLC may also be represented by an attorney. If you represent yourself, you have the responsibility to properly complete your court papers and to file them when they are due. The clerks and staff at the court are not allowed to give you legal advice. If you would like legal advice, you may ask the court for the name and phone number of a local lawyer referral service, the local bar association, or a legal aid organization. 2. You have a responsibility to follow the Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure ("JCRCP") that apply in your lawsuit. The rules are available in many public libraries, at the courthouse, and online at the Court Rules page of the Arizona Judicial Branch website, at <http://www.azcourts.gov/>, under the "AZ Supreme Court" tab. 3. A "plaintiff" is someone who files a lawsuit against a "defendant." You must file an answer or other response to the plaintiff's complaint in writing and within twenty (20) days from the date you were served with the summons and complaint (or thirty (30) days if you were served out-of-state.) If you do not file an answer within this time, the plaintiff may ask the court to enter a "default" and a "default judgment" against you. Your answer must state your defenses to the lawsuit. Answer forms are available at the courthouse, on the Maricopa County Justice Court website at <http://justicecourts.maricopa.gov/>, and on the Self-Service Center of the Arizona Judicial Branch website at <http://www.azcourts.gov/> under the "Public Services" tab. You may also prepare your answer on a plain sheet of paper, but your answer must include the court location, the case number and the names of the parties. You must provide to the plaintiff a copy of any document that you file with the court, including your answer. 4. You may bring a claim against the plaintiff if you have one. When you file your answer or written response with the court, you may also file your "counterclaim" against the plaintiff. 5. You must pay a filing fee to the court when you file your answer. If you cannot afford to pay a filing fee, you may apply to the court for a fee waiver or deferral, but you must still file your answer on time. 6. You may contact the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney and try to reach an agreement to settle the lawsuit. However, until an agreement is reached you must still file your answer and participate in the lawsuit. During the lawsuit, the court may require the parties to discuss settlement. 7. Within forty (40) days after your answer has been filed, you and the plaintiff are required to provide a disclosure statement to each other. The disclosure statement provides information about witnesses and exhibits that will be used in the lawsuit. A party may also learn more about the other side's case through discovery. Read the Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure for more information about disclosure statements and discovery. 8. The court will notify you of all hearing dates and trial dates. You must appear at the time and place specified in each notice. If you fail to appear at a trial or a hearing, the court may enter a judgment against you. To assure that you receive these notices, you must keep the court informed, in writing, of your current address and telephone number until the lawsuit is over.
