OBITUARIES

Dolores B. Vargas

Dolores B. Vargas (Lolita) passed away Jan. 25, 2019 at home in the loving care of her family and friends.

Born in Tiger, Arizona to Reynaldo and Frances Burrola, she was one of seven children. She married the love of her life, Louis M. Vargas, in 1958 and they made their home in Mammoth, Arizona. Before having their own children Dolores and Louie found a special place in their hearts for a neighborhood child, Juan Barcelo, and loved him as their own. Dolores had to wait eight years to be blessed with her first born, Luis E. Vargas (Ricci) and then three more years to have her daughter Patsy V. Bowers (Randy).

Dolores leaves behind five grandsons, Ralph (Kassandra), Jesse, Andrez, Lorenzo, Marteen, one granddaughter Aria Faith, one great-grandson Steven and one great-granddaughter Ava Rae. Her grandchildren were her pride and joy; she loved sharing their pictures with everyone she talked to. Dolores also leaves behind three sisters, Eva Cruz, Mary Garcia and Carmen Aguilar; and sisters-in-law, Margie Felix and Maggie Santos.

Dolores is preceded in death by her parents, her brothers Raymond Felix, Arnold Santos and a Baby Sister Artemissa.

Dolores was known to many as the babysitter, since she cared for close to 75 children in the town of Mammoth.

Dolores always wanted a home full of children and she loved them all as her own.

A Celebration of Life for Dolores will be held at Living Word Chapel, 3941 W. Hwy. 77, Oracle, on Saturday, Feb. 16, at 11 a.m. A luncheon will be held immediately after at the San Pedro Valley Lions Club in Mammoth.

He is preceded in death by both of his parents, and his sister Patricia Bartels. Jerry is survived by his wife of 43 years, Debbie McCutcheon; children, Dionne, Kristin and Meagan; granddaughters, Kyndra, Hailey and Emiley; his brother, David; and his in-laws, Harold and Anita Clouse.

Jerry worked for 26 years for Magma Copper Company in San Manuel, where he graduated High School. Jerry loved music, singing for the Lord, his Christmas decorations, working in his garden, and fishing.

A Memorial Service was held Saturday, Feb. 9, at 2 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of San Manuel, AZ.

Donations sought for San Manuel Library

This year San Manuel Library is celebrating "A Universe of Stories." We are seeking to continue to soar among the stars as we serve our community. We have added several services this past year, including children's craft days, story time, and notary service.

Once again we are asking the community to support our efforts to remain a vital part of the San Manuel community. Your generous donations enable us to do this. Last year's donations enabled us to make some much needed repairs to the building to enhance the security, safety, and comfort of the staff and patrons.

Remember that the library is a volunteer organization, so we are always looking for qualified volunteers willing to work a couple of hours a week.

The annual fund drive will take place from February 15 – March 29. Checks can be made out to San Manuel Library and mailed to 108 W. 5th Avenue, San Manuel, AZ 85631 or cash/checks may be dropped off at the library check-out desk (just let staff know that is your annual donation).

Thank you for helping us to continue to be a vital part of the community.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Immigration and the shortage of caregivers

Reporter Carmen Duarte with the Arizona Daily Star (Feb 10, 2019) explored a much overlooked issue that has already reached crisis proportions. The headline to her story cuts to the chase: US, Arizona face major shortage of in-home caregivers.

Duarte gets it right as anybody with a family member suffering from advanced Alzheimer's, dementia or another long term debilitation can attest. Help is hard to find and it is very, very expensive.

When my father experienced an eight-year descent into what a neurologist diagnosed as "advanced Lewy body disease", then fell, broke, his hip and required 24 hour care for the rest of his years my family learned a lot about caregiving. Finding caregivers became a never ending challenge that got progressively harder over the years.

As Duarte's reporting has it, 41,000 new caregiving jobs are expected to open over the next 7 years. These crucial home care workers in Arizona - including personal-care aides and home health aides - assist the elderly and physically disabled in their homes.

What her article doesn't directly address, although she notes that 1 in 4 caregivers are immigrants, is the key linkage of the caregiving issue to border and immigration policy. Professor Dowell Myers in his book Immigrants and Boomers makes that connection explicit. Myers says that rapidly graying white America will require caregivers in unprecedented numbers with immigrants the logical (and perhaps only) population capable of meeting the generational need. In this regard he says, "Demographics is destiny." Of course this wouldn't be the first time that immigrant workers responded to a national need. Consider mining, construction, field work, hospitality (including President Trump's properties), landscaping, entrepreneurial startups, and information technology.

I thought of Myers book while watching a live stream of Steve Bannon and two politicians, Kris Kobach and Tom Tancredo (both losers in recent elections), trying to stoke the immigration related fears of a mostly elderly white audience assembled in the Quail Creek Country Club (part of a Robson community in Sahuarita). The purpose of the event was to raise money for a privately funded wall between the USA and Mexico. Pleas were made to the audience for dollars to build a tiny wall section on private land allegedly made available for that purpose.

During the course of the event no one jumped up to ask Mr. Bannon or his associates questions about the pressing need for an immigrant caregiving workforce. No one cited the demographics of desperation that will certainly impact a substantial number of those present and thousands more in Robson developments like it throughout Arizona. No one took a moment to ponder the life circumstances of the triple amputee vet who served as Bannon's poster child on the panel.

Steve Bannon offered the Quail Creek crowd a bevy of oft debunked fictions to justify his pleas for private wall money. Dowell Myers advances real numbers to justify a fresh approach to immigration policy. In calling for a new social contract Myers writes that the needs of elderly white people (and others) for care giving and much younger immigrants for meaningful work match up well. Myers offers prospects for a cross generational negotiation built on mutual self interests. Hopefully Bannon's (and Trump's) aging acolytes will wake up to the potential of a win-win politics while they and the nation as a whole still stand to benefit. The same could be said of politicians on both sides of the aisle.

Family First says, all you need is love

This month we celebrate the holiday of love, Valentine's Day! We celebrate with heart shaped boxes of chocolate, dozens of red roses and cards to express our love for that someone special. Countless love songs have been written to celebrate a love for another, as the song says; "all you need is love". Shakespeare wrote his famous story of young love, Romeo and Juliet. How are we taught to love? Is it something that can be taught?

My first encounter of love was as a young child. Growing up in a family with seven kids my mother and father were the example to us all. They did not teach love, they lived it! Mom always made sure we always had food to eat, clean clothes and a warm bed to sleep in. Dad worked countless hours at all hours to provide them for us. They both gave their all to make our home a safe place to grow up in. Isn't that what unconditional love is, giving all for others no matter what the cost?

Take away the love and what kind of a world do we have? Selflessness becomes selfishness and instead of putting the needs of others first, it's me first! I think there was a song that said; "I don't care what they say, I will not stay, in a world without love". Rather than leave this world, we can do something about it!

It is because of the love God the Father has shown us that we are here at Family First! It's that love we have for families and our community that we want to share. Being here when a family needs a hand, encouraging a mom struggling to raise her family alone and has nowhere else to go. A diaper for a young child or a senior suffering with incontinence, nothing says love like a dry diaper! We give them out every day, not just Valentine's Day! It is a way we can truly change this world, a diaper for change.

Getting back to my questions, how are we taught to love, is it something that can be taught? I don't think that it can be taught, but rather it is something that is caught! How do you catch love? Same way you catch a cold, you are exposed to someone who has it! This Valentine's Day, this month, maybe this year let's make it a point to show a little love to those who need it. Let's face it, who doesn't need a little love.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son". John 3:16

Four high schools, two CTEDs and

By Jennifer R. Carnes
Copper Area News

And the partnership grows.

A historic meeting of sorts happened last week on the Central Arizona College Aravaipa Campus. Representatives of six school districts met to talk about joining forces and making technical training a little easier for students to obtain.

All four high school districts in the Copper Corridor, CAC and the Cobre Valley Institute of Technology (CVIT) are working together to bring some special classes to high school students at one location – the Aravaipa campus.

“This meeting was long overdue,” said Pete Guzman, CVIT’s superintendent.

Superior, Ray and Hayden-Winkelman School Districts are all members of CVIT. Mammoth-San Manuel School District is a member of Pima County JTED.

JTEDs (Joint Technical Education Districts), now called CTEDs (Career and Technical Education Districts), were created in Arizona in 1990. There are currently 14 districts in Arizona. CTEDs provide high school students with career and technical education so that they can enter the workforce as soon as they graduate from high school.

CTEDs, Guzman said, give high school students “more options.”

Let’s face it. Not all students are college bound. CTE classes allow students to earn industry certificates. CTE classes also keep at risk students in school.

Mike O’Neal, who serves as the principal of CVIT, told the success story of one high school student who was at risk of dropping out.

The young man enrolled in the certified nursing assistant program. During the course of the program, he was required to complete an internship at a Globe skilled nursing facility. When he finished the program and successfully passed the state’s licensing exam, the skilled nursing facility hired him.

He is 16 years old and works full time at the nursing home. He does three 12-hour shifts Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights and with shift differential is making $18 an hour. He is still in high school, attending classes Monday through Thursday at Miami High School. He now wants to go to college and become a nurse.

How amazing is that?

CVIT was formed in 2000 and with Ray High School has six member schools: Superior, Globe, Miami, San Carlos, Hayden and Ray. Hayden has been a member since its inception nearly 20 years ago. Superior was also an early adopter. Ray School District joined CVIT in the 2017-18 school year after Ray’s voters overwhelmingly said, “Yes, please!”

Due to state laws governing these joint districts, school districts can only join CTEDs that abut the district boundaries. Mammoth-San Manuel School District joined the Pima County JTED.

There are two types of programs offered through CTEDs: satellite programs and central programs. Satellite programs are taught on the campuses of the member schools. Central programs are taught at a more central location. For CVIT, central programs are held at Gila Community College in Globe. For Pima County JTED, programs are taught at Master Pieces Campus (located at River and Shannon in Tucson) and Camino Seco Campus (located at Camino Seco and 22nd St. in East Tucson). Students attending schools that are members of a JTED or whose parents live in a district that are members can participate in a Central program or can attend any satellite program.

Over the past years, Hayden and Superior students have been transported to Globe-Miami to take part in classes offered by the CVIT: fire science, cosmetology, certified nursing assistant (CNA) training and a number of computer technology programs. Classes are held daily usually in the early afternoon in two-hour blocks. The classes are early so that students who also participate in sports can still do so.

Pima County JTED’s central classes are held after school and students typically attend two to four classes a week (depending on the program) from 3:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Some programs also require the students to attend two Saturday classes a month. Most of the programs are two-year programs. The EMT program, for example, requires that the student first complete Health Care Foundations, Fire Service or Law/Public Safety. This is the first year that San Manuel High School students have had school-sponsored transportation to attend the Pima County JTED central programs at Master Pieces, thanks to a grant from SaddleBrooke Community Outreach. It’s a commitment for the students.

Students can also stay at their own campus and participate in programs offered there. Classes offered include:

- Hayden – culinary, education professions, business, law and public safety and graphics.
- Ray – welding, construction and graphics/web design.

one college working together to bring CTE classes to local students

• Superior – culinary, business, education professions, early childhood development and hospitality.

• San Manuel – agriscience/animal systems, automotive, cabinetmaking, carpentry, digital communications, digital photography, early childhood education and welding.

Ray High School's welding class began during the 2017-18 school year and was a partnership between Ray and Hayden High School. Hayden students were bused to the Kearny campus and attended classes there. The program has been extremely successful under the guidance of teacher Sam Colton.

"(With CTEDs) you'll see rival schools working together," O'Neal said.

Also during the 2017-18 school year, CVIT held its first central program at the Aravaipa campus, certified nursing assistant. According to Guzman, the nursing program at Aravaipa had 10 out of 11 students complete the program – 10 Ray and Hayden High School students.

Next year, Ray's welding class will be moving to the Aravaipa campus, giving the students two central classes (along with the CNA program). The two classes will be offered to students at all four high schools in the Copper Corridor.

In an unprecedented move, Pima County JTED has agreed to partner with CVIT to allow San Manuel students to attend the Aravaipa classes. This will cut their travel time from over an hour one way to less than 30 minutes. According to Guzman, the Superintendent of Pima County JTED, Kathy Prather, has committed to this joint venture, including funding. Guzman said he was told to "get it done."

Maria Munoz, Director of Student Affairs at Central Arizona College, knows that they have to start small. The success of the CNA program has paved the way for the addition of the welding class next year.

She has dreams, though, of what the program would look like in the future. Building on welding, she'd like to see programs in diesel mechanics and carpentry. In addition to CNA, she dreams of high school students becoming Medical Assistants, Pharmacy Techs, Phlebotomists. She would also like to add fire science and EMT programs for high school students.

It's not the impossible dream.

"We've done it!" Guzman said. "It can be done. There are 10 community colleges (in Arizona) that are doing it now."

It just needs the students.

And they will come.

Teacher Lynn Woolever-Telleen with San Manuel FFA students, Mia Borg, Samuel Scott, Colby Sawyer and Connor Sawyer.

San Manuel Jr. High earns share of CJHL Wrestling Championship

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

Author's Note: The following story was originally published in the Jan. 30, 2019, edition of The San Manuel Miner. Regrettably, we erroneously left out one member of the wrestling team – Raymond Garcia. This version includes the complete roster of the CJHL Co-Champions.

The San Manuel Jr. High wrestling team entered the 2018 season with little experience and lofty goals. Through hard work, commitment, discipline, and the wrestlers' desire to improve, the Jr. Miners finished their season with a 12 – 4 record and as Central Junior High League Co-Champions.

"We started the season with a lot of young kids, first-year wrestlers," San Manuel Jr. High head coach Pablo Rodriguez told the Copper Basin News. "The difference with this group that we had this year was these kids were fearless.

"They wanted to learn, they wanted to practice," he continued. "These kids wanted to learn more, they wanted to be better. The improved all season long."

From the first day of practice, when they set their goal to be champions, the Jr. Miners were relentless in their pursuit of achieving the goal.

"They had that goal in mind every day at practice,"

Rodriguez said. "They talked about it and what they needed to do to accomplish it.

The Jr. Miners experienced a few obstacles at the start of the CJHL Tournament, finding themselves 20 points behind the leaders after the first of six rounds. Rodriguez gathered the wrestlers and reminded them of their goal, and what they need to do to reach it.

"They responded – in stellar form," Rodriguez said. "They just came out on fire and won all the matches we needed to win."

In total, 16 of 18 Jr. Miners placed at the CJHL Championships:

(Name, grade, weight class, place)

Raymond Garcia (7th, 78#) – 2nd

Sean McDermott (6th, 83#) – 3rd

Vicente Curry (7th, 88#) – CJHL Champion

Tommy Morris (7th, 93#) – 2nd

Franky Castillo (8th, 93#) – 3rd

Elmer Smith (7th, 98#) – 3rd

Richard Ivy (7th, 104#) – 2nd

Johnny Abrizo (7th, 111#) – 3rd

Mathias Medina (8th, 142#) – 2nd

Andres Rodriguez (7th, 154#) – 2nd

Augustine Romero (7th, 167#) – 2nd

Isaiah Ramirez (8th, 180#) – CJHL Champion

Noah Casillas (8th, 180#) – 2nd
Aiden Lozoya (7th, HWT) – CJHL Champion
Damien Foster (7th, HWT) – 3rd
Rocky Andrade (7th, HWT) – 4th
Izek Valdez (7th, 73#)
Priscilla Ortiz (6th, 98#)
Aiden Sahloff (7th, 93#)

Rodriguez was equally impressed with his wrestlers off the mat, proudly stating his team only experienced one eligibility issue all season. Further evidence of the Jr. Miners' success in the classroom includes four wrestlers – Richard Ivy, Augustine Romero, Isaiah Ramirez, and Aiden Lozoya – who are members of the National Junior Honor Society.

"As coaches, our big push was for the wrestlers to be students first," Rodriguez said. "A number of our kids went above and beyond in the classroom, and they did the same on the mat."

At the state tournament last weekend in Prescott, two Jr. Miners came home with medals:

Mathias Medina – 6th

Isaiah Ramirez – 3rd

The Jr. Miners' coaching staff includes: Pablo Rodriguez, Aaron Cruz, Bino Sanchez, Mike Borg, and Yvonne Ramirez. Managers: Maiya Salazar, Nevaeh Derrick.

Has America Lost Its Sense of Humor?

I just finished reading an article about some people in the Vegan community being offended by the Hyundai commercial shown during the Super Bowl. Apparently the commercial made fun of a Vegan party portraying it as something unpleasant comparing it to a dentist visit for a root canal or shopping for a car. Now “beetloaf”, a word play on meat loaf used in the commercial, I thought was funny and the word for turkey substitute, tofurkey, makes me smile, and please don’t call soybean tempeh with special flavorings ... vegan bacon. It’s not bacon! Seriously, I have nothing against vegetarians or vegans but you are being much too sensitive.

I was watching the classic motion picture comedy Blazing Saddles the other night. This Mel Brooks directed movie was a satirical western involving a black sheriff in an all white town. It was made in 1974 and it was interesting to see how our sense of humor has changed over the years. The film was the first to show cowboys passing gas after eating beans for supper. The movie made fun of blacks, white people, Native Americans, gays, Jews, and Hollywood, etc. I don’t remember the channel I was watching but the movie was bleeping out the “N” word and curse words. The censorship pretty much took the comedy away from the original film.

It seems as if the country’s changing its sense of humor. We are no longer laughing at or accepting the use of derogatory words concerning race or ethnicity and rightfully so. Any joke that hurts someone should not be funny! We are turning away from Polack and other ethnic directed jokes. Jokes about gays and even blondes are no longer considered acceptable by many people. I admit, I have laughed at ethnic jokes including some about Mexicans and blonde jokes can be hilarious. Are we becoming too politically correct?

Even some political humor is becoming offensive too many. Telling a Trump joke can result in threats or anger directed at you.

People have the right to eat what they want and should have the right to laugh at what they think is funny. We need to be more sensitive towards others but still be able to laugh at ourselves. There are more serious things going on in the world. Some of them you almost need to laugh at just to keep your sanity, after all, laughter is the best medicine.

Now, how many Russians will it take to build Trump’s wall?

Two sisters charged in connection with fentanyl operation in San Manuel

The Pinal County Sheriff's Office Narcotics Unit last week announced that it had completed a four-month investigation after receiving information about fentanyl being sold in the San Manuel area.

According to the Pinal County Sheriff's office, investigators learned Angela Melton, 45, of San Manuel was selling fentanyl pills from the convenience store where she worked near 28500 block of Veterans Memorial Blvd. Investigators say the drugs were being delivered to Melton by her sister, Judy Burfield, 49, who lives in Tucson.

"People do not realize just how dangerous fentanyl is. We have seen so many lives lost because of this drug and we are proud of the work our narcotics detectives did to get these drug dealers off the street. San Manuel is much safer today because of their investigation," said Sheriff Mark Lamb.

Both are facing charges of possession for sale of narcotic drugs and transportation for the sale of narcotic drugs.

Assessor Wolf sends out 2020 Notice of Value statements

FLORENCE, AZ – The 2020 Notice of Value statements were mailed to property owners in Pinal County on Friday, February 8th, 2019.

A rise in values for 2020 does not automatically mean an increase in property taxes next year. Each taxing authority will set their levy and tax rate next year. If the levy (portion of the budget collected through property taxes) is the same or similar to the year before, then the average tax bill is not changed significantly. If a taxing authority raises their levy substantially, the property tax from that individual authority could rise accordingly.

Property taxes are based on the Limited Property Value (LPV) as a result of Proposition 117. The LPV, in most cases, cannot increase by more than 5 percent per year and cannot exceed the Full Cash Value (market value). The Full Cash Value is still listed for each property but no taxes are based upon this number.

The deadline to file an administrative appeal of the valuation or legal class for the 2020 notices is April 9th, 2019. More information on the appeal process and the required forms can be found on the Assessor's website at www.pinalcountyaz.gov/assessor or by calling 311 from anywhere in Pinal County.

Being the Voice for The Child

FLORENCE, AZ - Across the nation Americans will be celebrating Black History Month in February. And CASA of Pinal County recognizes the positive difference that our advocates of color have made to children in the foster care system.

Sisters Bridgette Gibson and Deborah Hollman of Coolidge are two residents who may never be mentioned years from now in any history books, but they are making a tremendous difference in the lives of abused or neglected children in the foster care system.

These children have already faced tough situations, and entering the foster care system can be traumatic. When a child is placed in a culturally different setting, it is even more challenging. They aren't just removed from their homes but removed from their schools, community, place of worship, etc.

The overall wellness of every child is important to CASA advocates. Bridgette and Deborah have volunteered with CASA together for nine years. Both have served as exceptional resources in this area by sharing their life experiences and cultural knowledge. They have bridged the gap to help staff and volunteers learn better ways to provide quality care for children of color.

In Arizona, African American children are over represented in the state's foster care system. Statewide, 5 percent of the child population is African American, but 15.4 percent of the children

 PUBLIC NOTICE
 REMOTE READING WATER METER SYSTEM
 CDBG Contract #126-18

Town Hall, 125 N Clark St, Mammoth, AZ 85618

The Town of Mammoth, hereinafter referred to as Town, through a Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) from the State of Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH), will accept bids from qualified municipal potable water system firms or vendors to furnish and provide a complete and fully functional remote reading water meter system.

Project Description
 This federally funded procurement consists of the following requirements:
 The Town of Mammoth's water system includes approximately 550 residential customers with existing water meters that are dated and dissimilar equipment and have to be manually read each month for billing purposes. The Town's primary goals for the procurement are as follows:

1. The Town would like to reduce the total labor time and expense it takes to read the meters each time
2. The Town believes that the existing meters are underreporting water usage; therefore, the Town is losing significant revenue to fund ongoing operations and maintenance activities

The Town's principal objectives for this procurement are to obtain new equipment and software as follows:

1. New water meters that are highly accurate in measuring water flows (to be installed by the Town) – furnish 550 water meters
2. New water meters that are equipped with remote reading capabilities – include with above
3. New equipment and software that will enable the Town to read the meters from a vehicle that is driven by the meter location – furnish 3 mobile units
4. New equipment and software that will allow the meter reading equipment to download the data into the Town's computer system and directly into their water customer billing software database – furnish, install, verify, and train staff on use of all system components

Objective/Scope of Work
 The proposing firm/vendor shall furnish all materials, labor, equipment, services, transportation, and provide all the required products and perform all the work for the Town's procurement known as the REMOTE READING WATER METER SYSTEM for the Town of Mammoth, Arizona, as called for in the REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL DATED FEBRUARY 07, 2019. The proposer should prepare a time schedule for completion of the system work. The successful proposer will be required to lend all possible assistance in the preparation, investigation, and documentation necessary for compliance with all applicable federal Labor Standards/Davis-Bacon and other requirements of ADOH. The successful proposer should be prepared to comply with all local, state, and federal safety and environmental requirements. The project shall be accomplished in accordance with all federal program and state statutory requirements to include 2 CFR 200, Executive Orders and the Arizona Administrative Code.

Bid Proposals
 To be considered, one (1) original and two (2) copies of the bid proposal package must be provided and be prepared in accordance with the REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL DATED FEBRUARY 07, 2019.
 Sealed bid proposals will be received in the office of the Town Mammoth, Mammoth Town Hall, 125 N Clark St, Mammoth, AZ 85618 until 2:00 p.m., on Wednesday February 27, 2019, at which time all bid proposals received will be opened and the total amount of the bid proposal read aloud. Failure of the proposer to complete and provide all of the required documents may result in rejection of the proposal. All bids should be identified as "Proposal for Remote Reading Water Meter System". For additional information on how to obtain the "Request for Proposal" and on the request for proposal requirements and procedures, contact: Ken Hebert, Community Development Specialist, Central Arizona Governments (CAG); phone number: (480) 4749300; fax: (480) 474-9306; or e-mail: khebert@cagaz.org.
 The Town of Mammoth reserves the right to accept the lowest priced, responsible bid proposal; to consider equipment and software alternatives; to reject any or all bid proposals; and to waive irregularities of information in any bid proposal. Bid proposals received after the specified time of closing will be returned unopened. The Town of Mammoth also reserves the right to hold any or all bid proposals for a period of ninety (90) calendar days after the date of opening. Bidders will not be allowed to withdraw submitted bid proposals during the ninety (90) day period.

A Piano Playing Packard Man (and so much more)

If you want to talk Packards, David Hardin is your guy. And for David, listening to opera, especially Puccini is the ideal music to accompany the assembly of a Packard Straight Eight Engine. With his love of classical music, he and his wife Sarah have supported the Oracle Piano Society's mission from its very beginnings, through their financial sponsorship, time, and hard work. And lucky for us, David has recently offered to care for OrCA's building maintenance.

Hardin Brothers Automotive has sponsored many concerts through the years and is once again the concert sponsor for our upcoming annual gala event, making it possible to have legendary pianists, Ursula Oppens and Jerome Lowenthal perform on Feb. 16, 4 p.m.

David moved to Oracle in 1948 because his father, a miner, started work on the first shaft at Red Hill. In 1952, they moved to Tucson where his father worked at the Pima mine. He moved back to Oracle in 2003 with his wife Sarah. In the years between, he lived in So. California, Saudi Arabia, and Shanghai, China.

His first exposure to music was playing the trumpet in third grade at Helen Keeling Elementary School. He switched to the Sousaphone in seventh grade because the band had too many trumpet players, was losing their only Sousaphone player, and David was big enough to carry it.

About age 12, he started piano lessons. His mother planned on him becoming a concert pianist, but David didn't quite agree with that plan. He did develop a lifelong love for classical music as a result. He still enjoys and plays a variety of piano styles; classical, ragtime, Broadway, and even Christmas tunes for the fun of caroling.

David has had several "careers" such as working the Pima mine for 3+ years, at two California petrochemical engineering companies, owning and operating a repair shop specializing in antique cars (primarily Packards), service manager at an Acura dealership, setting up an auto repair shop in Shanghai, and even worked at Intuit (Turbo Tax). In 2000, he opened Hardin Brothers Automotive, a successful shop in Catalina. Since July 2018, he's been "mostly retired". Don't worry, we'll keep him busy at OrCA...

Thank you, David Hardin, for all of your amazing contributions to the community!

CASA OF PINAL COUNTY

removed from their homes are African American. There is no evidence that African American children are abused or neglected at higher rates compared to children of other races and ethnicities. It is important that the CASA volunteer pool reflect the children who are under served. Unfortunately, only 4 percent of the more than 1,000 volunteers in Arizona are African American.

CASA volunteers are specifically trained to advocate for children in foster care. Volunteer advocates get to know the child and speak to everyone involved in the child's life, including their family members, teachers, doctors, lawyers, social workers and others. The information they gather and their recommendations help the court overseeing the cases make informed decisions. CASA volunteers commit to a child until the case is closed and the child is in a safe, permanent home.

CASA advocates must be sensitive to cultural differences and help foster parents work through the issues that child is facing by being positive role models for children in care. We all like to think we're color blind, but the reality is unless you've walked in the shoes of someone who has faced discrimination or not fitting in, you really don't understand the challenges a child of color experiences who has been uprooted and placed in a strange setting.

And so, as we celebrate the many faces of history like Rosa Parks and Martin Luther King, Jr. during this special month, let us not forget the names of CASA Advocates Bridgette Gibson and Deborah Hollman. For these selfless, caring volunteers are making history of their own by creating a safe environment for children of color.

They are for the child.
