Pinal County Assessor announces that 2024 property valuation notices mailed; how and when to appeal your valuation

The 2024 valuation notices were mailed to Pinal County property owners last week and should now be appearing in mailboxes. If you believe that your property is not correctly valued or if it should be listed with a different legal classification, you have two options:

- File an administrative appeal with the Assessor's Office (no fee)
- File an appeal with the Arizona Tax Court (check with the Tax Court for fee schedule)

If you choose to file an appeal with the Assessor's Office, please read below for important information before filling out the Petition for Review of Property Value. If you choose to file a case in tax court, please contact the Arizona Tax Court.

To appeal the value of a residential property, use Form 82130R (<https://bit.ly/3xnSiGc>). To appeal the value of commercial/industrial property, vacant land, agricultural land, or other non-residential property, use Form 82130 (<https://bit.ly/3lkrtsB>). Please read on about important changes due to Proposition 117.

When filling out either form, you have the choice of requesting an optional meeting to discuss your appeal. Our office will carefully and thoroughly consider your appeal if you do or do not request to meet.

If you would like to appeal your value, please indicate if you are using the market comparison, income, or cost approach to arrive at what you believe is the correct value of your property. We are required by law to use sales data from the previous 2 years when valuing your property, so please use sales, income, and/or cost data from the 2019 to 2020 time frame in your appeal.

For sales comparisons, try to select the most recent sales of like properties from 2021 and the first half of 2022.

The deadline to file an administrative appeal of your 2024 value is April 17, 2023. You may mail in your appeal or drop it off at our main office in Florence during regular business hours or at the County Annex in Apache Junction on Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., in San Tan Valley on Tuesday and Thursday 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., in Casa Grande on Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., and in Maricopa on Tuesday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Administration Appeal replies will be mailed no later than Aug. 15, 2023.

If you have not received your notice of value, please use our search page (<https://bit.ly/3YRV9CH>) to find your property and to check the value for 2024. If you disagree with the value and would like to file a Petition for Review, please follow the steps outlined above.

Property taxes are calculated based on the Limited Property Value (LPV) and in most cases that amount cannot increase by more than 5% a year. The Full Cash Value (FCV) will no longer have a direct effect on your taxes.

State law only allows you to appeal your FCV because the LPV is calculated based on a formula set in statute. When considering whether to appeal your value, check to see if the 2024 LPV is below what you believe to be the correct FCV or market value of your property. If the 2024 LPV is less than what you believe is the proper FCV of your property, winning your appeal will not reduce your 2024 property taxes.

Deciding whether to appeal or not appeal the assessed value is up to the property owner. If you still have questions about the appeal process, please contact our office at 520-866-6361 or email assessor@pinalcountyz.gov.

Hayden Lobos win first round of state playoffs; knocked out by Baboquivari

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Copper Basin News

They had the home court advantage and did their very best to use it.

Last Wednesday, Feb. 8, the Hayden boys basketball team played in the first round of the 1A State Playoffs, hosting Desert Christian. Last year, Desert Christian beat Hayden in an extremely close playoffs game and this was their change to avenge that loss.

The Lobos started off this game with intensity, scoring the first and second points of the game. The boys played very tactically against Desert Christian, passing the ball and setting up shots. Both teams went back and forth trading baskets for baskets. The Lobos kept a steady lead, and by the half the score was 29-25.

During the second half, Desert Christian began fighting back, but the Lobos made sure to hold the lead.

“Set up the offense!” Coach Ramon Gonzalez would shout to the boys when they had the ball.

The Lobos played with intensity all the way down to the final seconds of the game, avenging their loss from last year, beating Desert Christian 58-54.

The Lobos advanced to the second round of the 1A State Playoffs, and traveled to take on Baboquivari on Saturday. Unfortunately, the boys were unable to best the Warriors, and lost 55-64, closing out their 2022-2023 basketball season.

The boys had a great season with a record of 20-8.

Congratulations from ALL your fans!

Volunteers needed for Foster Care Review Board

The Foster Care Review Board (FCRB), a program within the Dependent Children’s Services Division of the Arizona Supreme Court, is seeking volunteers. Statewide, the FCRB has about 108 Boards and a little over 500 volunteer positions filled by dedicated board members who have a desire to advocate on behalf of children in Arizona’s foster care system. In Gila and Pinal Counties, the FCRB facilitates 10 boards which are each comprised of 5 citizens from the community. The Board members are appointed by the Presiding Judge of each county’s Juvenile Court.

“We have an urgent need to fill vacancies in both counties,” explained Gioia Kaid who works for the Arizona Supreme Court. Currently there are five vacancies in Gila

County and 15 in Pinal County.

Foster Care Review Board volunteers commit to meeting one weekday per month to review the cases of children who are in out-of-home care. The meetings are completed via video conference. Each Board reviews its assigned cases until permanency is achieved. As children return home, are adopted, have guardianship granted or age out of the system, new cases are added to the Board’s review day. The Board makes recommendations to the Juvenile Court and interested parties involved in the case. Currently, Boards in Gila and Pinal Counties are reviewing the cases of about 900 children. Volunteers receive the training needed to serve in this role.

Jesse Leetham is starting his third term serving on the Foster Care Review Board in Gila County. Leetham is an active member of his community, serving on the Globe City Council and several other boards.

“I enjoy serving on this board, it is a great feeling to help both the children and parents, and be advocates to ensure they get what they need,” he explained.

Leetham also explained that the board members receive training and serving on the Foster Care Review board isn’t as demanding as serving as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA).

“For those wanting to be service in these roles, but maybe don’t have enough time to serve in a CASA role, this might be a better fit,” he explained.

In preparation for a board meeting, volunteers receive court documents and other case materials via a secured website about 10 days before the review date. Board members prepare questions to clarify and gather information with the attending interested parties (case managers, attorneys, parents, foster parents, counselors, licensing workers, Court Appointed Special Advocates, etc.).

On the day of the review, an FCRB staff member (program specialist) facilitates the case reviews. Interested parties for each case have an opportunity to appear before the Board and speak about their concerns, successes, wants and needs. The

Shop Local: Ranch Girl Gear

Jolene and Taylor Phillips have taken their business, Ranch Girl Gear, to the next level – moving into a brick-and-mortar location just four short months ago.

The two have been in business for three years and opened their storefront at 354 Alden Rd., Kearny just in time for the holiday shopping season.

“We sell the cutest western graphic tees and sweatshirts, jeans, jewelry, purses, boots and shoes, jackets and other western accessories,” the pair told the Copper Basin News.

They invite everyone to “come check us out at our store.” They can be found on Instagram @ranchgirlgear and on Facebook.

The store is open Wednesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The Copper Basin News reminds our readers to “shop local”. What a great source for all your Pioneer Days gear!

Around Town

Old stucco from the front of the Kearny Innovation Retail Center is being removed this week. New stucco will be done soon. Doing the work are workmen from Construction Done Right, a local Kearny contractor.

Natural Gas Safety

Wherever you live, work, or play.

NATURAL GAS LINES

can be buried anywhere, even in areas where homes don't use natural gas. So it's important that EVERYONE knows how to recognize and respond to a natural gas leak, wherever they are.

A LEAK MAY BE PRESENT IF YOU:

SMELL:

a distinct sulfur-like odor, similar to rotten eggs, even if it's faint or momentary.

HEAR:

a hissing or roaring coming from the ground, above-ground pipeline, or natural gas appliance.

SEE:

dirt or water blowing into the air, unexplained dead or dying grass or plants, or standing water continuously bubbling.

IF YOU SUSPECT A LEAK

- Exit the area or building immediately. Tell others to evacuate and leave doors open.
- From a safe place, call 911 and Southwest Gas at 877-860-6020, day or night, whether you're a customer or not. A Southwest Gas representative will be there as soon as possible.
- Don't smoke or use matches or lighters.
- Don't turn on or off electrical switches, thermostats, or appliance controls; or do anything that could cause a spark.
- Don't start or stop an engine, or use automated (garage) doors.
