Worst Financial Decision in Pinal County History

In 2004, the Pinal County Jail held an average of 600 to 700 inmates in a facility which was originally built to only hold 472. Then, Sheriff Roger Vanderpool worked with the Pinal County Board of Supervisors to expand the jail. County Supervisors at the time agreed with Sheriff Vanderpool's plan to offset construction costs by housing ICE detainees. The jail expansion project expanded the jail to hold 1,499 inmates/detainees.

In 2006, a contract was signed by the Pinal County Board of Supervisors and U.S. Immigration Customs Enforcement Detention Removal Operations (ICE DRO) to hold an average of 625 detainees per day. ICE DRO agreed to pay $59.64 per day for each detainee who was placed in the jail.

In January of 2013, Pinal County Internal Audit completed an analysis of the contract and determined the County was losing $2 million dollars each year. At that time, Sheriff Babeu pointed out that the auditors were using old ICE population numbers which skewed the audit and the revenue was much higher using the current population averages.

The Board of Supervisors at the advice of then County Manager Fritz Behring attempted to negotiate a new contract rate of $87 per day. Due to the Federal Government Sequestration the negotiations took longer than they wanted.

Sheriff Babeu asked the Board of Supervisors to do a staffing study of the jail before any attempt to cancel the ICE contract as our staffing levels could not return to pre ICE standards. The Board of Supervisors refused and County Manager Fritz Behring at the direction of the Board of Supervisors sent ICE a "100 day contract cancellation notice."

Per U.S. Senator Jeff Flake's Office, when ICE received the 100 day notice they ended the negotiations process.

After the ICE Contract was cancelled, the BoS had a staffing study completed by an independent company they hired. The staffing study and County Manager Stanley confirmed the jail could not return to pre ICE Contract staffing numbers and in the end 113 jail employees were laid off. The plan also only cut $7.2 million from the jails budget.

Since 2009 the County received an average of $10,975,441 per year from ICE. During 2013 which was the last full year of the ICE contract they received $11,669,758 and in 2012 they received $11,744,308.

The 100 day cancellation notice was the worst financial decision in Pinal County history. The County now has over $4 million dollars of lost revenue they would still be receiving had they not sent the 100 day notice to cancel the ICE Contract. The cancellation also resulted in 113 positions largely worked by residents residing in Pinal, that will no longer be filled.

Superior Police Report

According to state law, police may arrest suspected offenders by two methods. The suspect may be physically taken into the department and booked into jail, or the arresting officer may write a citation and release the suspect to appear in court later. All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Only criminal citations are listed. All damage amounts are estimates.

Items are given to The Superior Sun by the Superior Police Department and reflect information available at the time the report is compiled.

Feb. 4

An unattended death was reported in the 600 block of Hill.

A search warrant was served in the 400 block of Highlands.

Feb. 6

Rene Hernandez, 43, Superior, was arrested and charged with criminal damage and disorderly conduct.

Feb. 7

Michelle Duarte, 28, Superior, was arrested on warrants issued out of Pinal and Gila counties.

Superior Police and Fire Chiefs update council

Changes have been coming for the Superior Police and Fire departments with Mark Nipp and Todd Pryor at the helms.

The biggest change, so far, is the manner of dispatching for both departments.

In the past, the town has contracted dispatching through Pinal County. "All 911 calls were answered by PCSO and then transferred to the Superior PD Dispatcher," Nipp told the Sun in a press release. "This transfer took time and delayed our response to emergency calls," he explained further.

While PCSO will still answer 911 calls from Superior residents, the PCSO dispatcher will talk to the Superior Police Officers directly rather than go through another dispatcher in Superior.

Nipp tells residents not to worry when they call 911 and a dispatcher announces that they have reached Pinal County Sheriff's Office. "Please understand that you have reached the right place," Nipp said. "They will dispatch Superior Police Officers."

New phone numbers have been established for non-emergency and business at the police department.

For any police, fire or medical emergency please dial 911. For police non-emergency, the number to call is 520-866-5111 and the police department business office can be reached at 520-689-5255.

Nipp told members of the Superior Town Council last week that he hopes the new dispatching services will cut off two to three minutes off reaction time to current calls. This is a new will system to allow the Superior Police and Fire Department to be more efficient.

Pryor, who is chief of the Superior Fire Department, was also in attendance at last week's meeting to update and seek approval from the council on changes in his department.

Pryor has been busy preparing a Fire Department Standard Operating Guidelines which he presented and which the council approved. He also requested and received approval to submit a grant to the Governor's Office of Highway Safety for the department in the amount of $34,917.

The Superior Police Department also requested and received approval to submit

CCEDC offers leadership training to local residents; deadline to apply Feb. 27

By John Hernandez
Copper Area News

The Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition is looking for local residents to step up into a leadership role in local communities.

But they aren't going to send those new leaders out into the public without a little training and guidance.

The Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition or CCEDC has partnered with Valle del Sol to bring a Leadership Academy to the Copper Corridor area.

Valle del Sol is an organization that offers primary care, behavioral health and social services to communities in Arizona and New Mexico. They were founded in 1970 to fill the gap in behavioral health and social services provided to the Latino community and underserved populations.

They also have a very successful leadership development program, the Hispanic Leadership Institute (HLI), which is open to individuals of all diverse backgrounds. This is the program that the CCEDC plans to bring to the Copper Corridor.

The Hispanic Leadership Institute-Copper Corridor is a 10 week leadership institute designed to educate and assist individuals in developing their leadership skills to take an active part in the community by serving on a non-profit/government board or commission. The mission of HLI-Copper Corridor is "to promote individual development for increased participation in leadership roles and to serve as a principal education and networking resource for expertise and advocacy on leadership issues impacting Arizona communities." HLI-Copper Corridor will proactively assist participants with tools and skills to prepare for leadership roles at the local level and beyond.

"I have had the pleasure of addressing the Valle del Sol Hispanic Leadership Institute for a couple of decades," said Pete Rios, Vice-Chairman of the Pinal County Board of Supervisors. "I have consistently been impressed with the quality of candidates and the content of program. Besides teaching how to impact political and social systems, the Institute provides practical knowledge on the 'nuts and bolts' of the governmental process. I would encourage anyone who is interested in improving the quality of life for themselves, family and neighbors to get involved with this terrific leadership opportunity and become a voice for societal improvement."

The HLI-Copper Corridor plans on holding sessions in many different locations throughout the Copper Corridor so participants will be exposed to other communities and local leaders. The different sites have not been determined but will be based on those who plan to attend. Sessions will be held weekly for 10 weeks from 6-9 p.m. There is also a mandatory all day Leadership Retreat (date and location to be determined).

The curriculum will offer the participants an opportunity to become involved with top business and public policy authorities in a continuing dialogue about leadership and those issues important to residents of the Copper Corridor.

HLI-Copper Corridor has a competitive application process open to individuals of all diverse backgrounds. The tuition cost of the program is $200. The deadline for applications is Feb. 27. Sessions for HLI-Copper Corridor Class of 2015 begins Wednesday, March 18.

To apply go to <http://bit.ly/19rJCS1>. For more information call (602) 258-6797, extension 121 or email info@valledelsol.com.

Elizabeth Magallanez, President of CCEDC, is a graduate of the HLI Leadership Institute and is excited by the possibilities that this partnership brings to the Copper Corridor.

"The Copper Corridor has had the desire to sponsor a leadership academy that would be available to the residents of the Copper Corridor," she said. "We are happy to announce that through a partnership

Pinal County Contract With ICE

Once again, the Pinal County Sheriff is attempting to place fault for the termination of the Immigration and customs enforcement contract at the doorstep of the board of supervisors.

The sheriff is also blaming Pinal County's former county manager for raising the ICE contract issue. County Manager Fritz Behring brought to the board's attention that county taxpayers were losing between $3 to $4 million dollars annually on this contract. Behring would have been totally negligent in his duties had he not raised this issue.

The sheriff knew for a long time that the ICE contract needed to be renegotiated to stop the bleeding of taxpayer dollars. This didn't pop up overnight, everyone from the supervisors to the sheriff were on the same page following several meetings about the details of the contract.

Yet, Sheriff Babeu continued to grandstand and "bad mouth" the federal government and homeland security in the press, for a variety of reasons. He would intentionally go out of his way to "slam" Homeland Security Director Janet Napolitano and ICE on immigration topics.

Well guess who ICE reported to? Yes, Janet Napolitano and homeland security!!

And the sheriff can't figure out why the ICE contract with Pinal County Sheriff's Office was not renegotiated by the feds? The sheriff may have had a good working relationship with middle management workers in ICE. But when it came to negotiating with decision-makers in Washington DC, even our Congressional delegation that was attempting to help Pinal County, asked the sheriff to stay away.

The failure to renegotiate the ICE contract and the scores of detention officers and families that lost their jobs lies squarely at the foot of the sheriff's office. And all because Sheriff Babeu couldn't resist grandstanding and mugging for the TV cameras.

CAHRA provides weatherization program

Community Action Human Resources Agency (CAHRA) has funding to assist eligible low-income homeowners in Pinal County with weatherization, according to Mary Lou Rosales, executive director.

"Under the weatherization program, improvements are made by CAHRA to help reduce energy consumption and energy costs," Rosales said. A thorough assessment of the eligible home is performed including diagnostic and blower door testing to determine where the house is losing energy and what can be done to stop the loss. The auditor will also assess health and safety issues that might exist in the home. A test to determine carbon monoxide leakage is also done.

Minor repairs are made to make the home safer, more sound and secure. "Families are counseled as to changes in their energy use habits, which will complement the work done on the homes, and help promote the conservation of energy," she explained. After making the efficiency upgrades, the home could save from 5 to 30 percent on the family's energy bill.

Based on the home assessment, weatherization repairs may include repair or replacement of old cooling and heating systems, repair or replacement of leaky ductwork, replacement of old or inefficient refrigerators and the addition of sunscreens to sun struck windows. Staff may also be able to assist homeowners with the repair or replacement of inefficient or non operable appliances and water heaters.

Homes needing larger repairs such as roofing, ceilings, floors, window or door replacement, plumbing, electrical or major rehabilitation may not be eligible for the program.

Funding is provided by the Department of Energy and Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program through the Arizona Governor's Office of Energy Policy. Utility companies, Arizona Public Service, Salt River Project and Southwest Gas Corporation also provide funding for the program. Funding for minor home repairs and appliances is provided by Utility,

Agave Didgeridoo Workshop March 7-8 at the BTA

Superior - The didgeridoo has a long history and a respected place in the world of music, both in solo work and as an addition to bands who may be playing rock, rap, jazz, adaptations of classical pieces. It is an instrument, like the guitar, which can be adapted and applied to all genres.

It is thought to be, by many, the world's oldest musical instrument, having originated in the Arnhem Land, Northern Territory of Australia. An instrument that was predominantly used by the coastal tribes, it is thought that the didgeridoo may be an adaptation of instruments from Asia, which were obtained in trade.

While today's didgeridoo may be made from glass, plastic, wood, ceramic, cactus stems, aluminum, hemp, leather or other materials that can be formed into a hollow tube, traditionally, this instrument is made from eucalyptus trees that have been hollowed out, while alive, by termites.

Even though it was the custom among some aboriginal groups for only men to be allowed to play the didgeridoo, in ceremonial situations, in many groups people of all ages and both sexes played it for fun.

Playing the didgeridoo is all about breathing properly, through strict concentration to your breathing technique. Which means that, as more research is being done into the importance of breathing in stress relief and weight loss, the didgeridoo has found a new importance, in the modern world, as a method of achieving better physical and mental health.

Playing this ancient instrument, thought by some researchers to be over 40,000 years old, can be a meditative experience, the drone of the music can improve your circulation, stamina, general health and fitness.

So, whether you are drawn to it for the music, for the relaxation, for the exercise, or simply to be the one who stands out at social gatherings, enrolling in the "Build-A-Didge" workshop at the Boyce Thompson Arboretum (BTA) could be a great way to enhance your health and happiness.

Build your very own didgeridoo, and, learn some basic steps toward the challenging technique of circular breathing, on Saturday, March 7 and Sunday, March 8, from 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.. The first day you will make your own didgeridoo, by hollowing out an agave stalk. The next day, you will finish the instrument and begin learning to play, with coaching from West Valley recording artist Scott Schaefer.

During the workshop Scott will be demonstrating on a truly 'larger than life' Agave americana stalk he plans to turn into 'The World's Largest Didgeridoo.'

When asked why agaves make good didges, Scott answered "I've found them to be easier to make than other woods, the stalks can be harvested here in Arizona, the tone is awesome, they're easy to paint and decorate."

He went on to say, about the health benefits to playing the didge, "Playing takes me into a meditative state, and it has definitely helped my breathing and lung capacity. Those who play often, swear that it even reduces snoring! The didge is a calming instrument; studies indicate playing helps lower blood pressure."

Mr. Schaefer was asked "How will enrollees enjoy their didges after the class?" He replied, "While there are no organized didgeridoo circles in Arizona, there are Native American flute circles and drum circles locally here in the valley where didge players are welcome, due to the indigenous connection of those instruments. In addition, last March BTA hosted a 'didge jam' on the date of the Vernal Equinox, as a local part of a worldwide didge event - and I hear Bernie Haley is planning another for Sunday March 22."

Enrollment of $120 for non-members and $100 for members includes two days worth of instruction, an Agave stalk and lessons to play it, as well as daily admission for enrollees who aren't already annual members of the BTA. With a credit card ready, call Arboretum staff at 520-689-2723 to enroll. Class participant will need to furnish their own chisel, sandpaper and a few other supplies, all easily obtained from local hardware stores; Scott will supply a complete list of supplies to enrollees.

with Valle del Sol we will be able to offer the HLI-Copper Corridor Leadership Academy in the spring.”

She said that this is a wonderful opportunity for anyone of diverse backgrounds who are interested in taking on more active roles in their communities to educate and assist them.

“As an alumna of HLI-Pinal, I enjoyed the 10 week curriculum and found myself anxious to get to the next class. Each session was extremely informative,” she said, “and sparked great discussions regarding the challenges we face in our communities such as community issues, public/media relation skills and board/ commission service and much more. This was a great networking experience and I can honestly say that I was truly inspired by some of the stories shared when we learned more about each other and our backgrounds. Most importantly I learned that we have to get involved and be part of the change.”

In 2013, she attended the HLI-Reunion “Renew the Commitment.” On the program, she said was a quote: “Our ambitions must be broad enough to include the aspirations and needs of others, for their sakes and for our own” – Cesar Chavez.

“I couldn’t agree more,” Magallanez said. “I encourage anyone who has had a desire to learn about leadership or how to become a more effective leader to join us for the first ever HLI-Copper Corridor Leadership Academy.”

It's Spring in the middle of Winter but we'll take it! At least for the 27th Annual Apache Leap Mining Festival, coming up March 13, 14 and 15th. Last year the weather was horrendous so we've asked Mother Nature for some calm, warm days this year. The carnival will open Friday night and DJ David (Supetown) Sinteral will be playing terrific music all weekend. At 10 on Saturday the parade begins, followed by great entertainment including the award winning Navajo Dineh Tah dancers from New Mexico, Wyatt-Earp, Old West “Shoot Em Ups”, Chihuahua races, panning for copper for the kids, a magic show, the ever popular Samba Dancers, the great Bobby Cook and his band and more! Saturday includes the grueling Mining competition with a $2,000 purse. Bring your lawn chairs and plan to stay awhile. Lots of food and vendors. Mining companies and contractors will be there to explain mining, both locally and in the surrounding areas. Mark your calendar and enjoy the weekend with us.

What a wonderful showing of support from friends and family for the fundraiser for Florence Aldrete. Richard and Rosie Tameron part owners of Los Hermanos donated the dance hall and prepared food for the event. Many people donated items to be raffled off and some items were auctioned off. It was a very successful event with around 300 people in attendance.

Many people know Florence Aldrete who worked for the US Postal Service for many years and also worked for Los Hermanos. Due to her recent diagnosis of cancer she is unable to work now. During Aldrete's thank you speech she said, "This is very difficult for me and I want to thank everyone in the community for the support so many people have helped me and I really appreciate everything, the prayers, donations and the people in my life."

Aldrete has been a single mother raising her family in Superior and even opened her home to family or people she cared for that were in need. At the fundraiser many people spoke of how special Aldrete is and how she always greets people with a smile, a willingness to help others and is truly a beautiful person.

During the fundraiser many items were raffled and auctioned off including two bicycles, baskets with many items, a very large amethyst, baseball tickets, a 32" flat screen television, alcohol, homemade crafts by different community members and even an afghan quilt made by Aldrete. Roy Chavez was the auctioneer and raffle award announcer. It was so nice to see Mayor Valenzuela and Councilmember John Tameron among the attendee's at this special event. Everyone seemed to have a wonderful time and there certainly was a lot of money made to help Aldrete's incurring medical bills.

Continued prayers and financial support is needed for Aldrete. If you would like to donate please feel free to contact Richard Tameron at 520-689-5465. Thank you all for your thoughtful donations and continued prayers for Florence Aldrete! Everyone wishes her the best with her cancer battle!

Copper Basin Women's Expo coming Feb. 28

By Nina Crowder
Copper Area News

Martina Burnam is hard at work putting together the speakers, presenters, vendors for the 5th Annual Women's Expo at Hayden High School on Feb. 28. There is plenty of room for more vendors and speakers. This is a great opportunity for people to learn and listen about job opportunities, people who have started their own jobs, networking and learning more about businesses and things to do in the area.

The confirmed vendors are Apache Gold Casino, ZORT, Cobre Valley Hospital (blood pressure and sugar checks), Pampered Chef, She's Country Boutique, Native Air, Scentsy, Copper Community Action Board (CCAB), Central Arizona College, Avon, Mary Kay, Georgianna Woods (local author), Girl Scouts, Origami Owl, Melaleuca, Younique, Young Living Essential Oils and Ebay.

The confirmed speakers are Mediocre

Meditation, Apache Gold Casino, Living A Healthy Life by Edward Aguirre, PTSD what is it by Iona Dease and Hayden Police Department will talk about self awareness and defense.

Doors open at 11 a.m. Admission is $3 or three cans of food. The first 25 people will obtain free gift bags and there will be drawings for various gifts every hour, the grand prize gift will be Apache Gold Casino round of golf and a dinner for two. The concessions will benefit Hayden's Parent Teacher Organization (PTO). The Pioneer Day Queen Contestants will have a fashion show beginning at 1 p.m.

If interested in participating in having a free booth, being a speaker or have a special skill you would like to share with others please feel free to contact Angela Ramirez at the Copper Basin Chamber of Commerce at 520-363-7607 or email: angela@copperbasinaz.com. Help make this year's Women's Expo a day to remember! Come out and enjoy all the fun!

a grant to the Governor's Office of Highway Safety in the amount of $80,000. The monies from the grant will be used for police vehicles, modern equipment, training equipment, training materials to motorists, and other items. This grant if awarded would help the Superior Police Department in many ways.

Nipp, too, will be preparing a Standard Operating Guidelines packet for the police department as well.

Tonto Basin/Timber Camp Fees

Neil Bosworth and Rebecca Huffman from the US Forest Service, Tonto National Forest Recreation attended the Superior Town Council meeting and discussed at great length the proposed change in fee schedules for the Tonto Basin and Timber Camp.

The proposed fees for daily use would be $8, increased from $6 daily; the annual pass would decrease from $95 to $85; and the camping sites would increase from $6 to $15. There would not be a fee at sites that currently do not charge fees. The fees for group camping would increase from $75 to approximately $150 depending on the amount of people in the group. There are senior citizen discounts available.

The US Forest Service, Bosworth and Huffman explained, was seeking a letter of support from the Town of Superior and Town of Globe. They currently have obtained a letter of support from the Town of Payson.

After the explanation, questions and answers, the Superior Town Council asked to have more time to think about this issue so it was tabled for one to two months. Other Business

The Superior Town Council approved the sale of approximately 15 acres (the property south of Airport Road) to the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT) for the upcoming construction project on Highway 60. The total amount of the sale is $75,199. ADOT has agreed to move the Superior sign as well.

The council held a public hearing and later approved amendments to Ordinance No. 15-125 which governs zoning in the town's building code regarding exterior alterations or additions, as well as restoration, preservation and rehabilitation for older buildings.

A special event liquor license was approved for the local Veterans of Foreign Wars Post with the additional requirement that a security officer be present during the event.

The council approved of a Memorandum of Understanding between the Pinal County Attorney's Office and the Town of Superior for the Aquatics Program for the amount of $2,500. which would be applied to the Superior Swimming Pool and help pay for lifeguards this year and other need for the swimming pool.

Town Manager Margaret Gaston received several quotes for audit proposals from several different firms. The cost varied from $25,000 to $11,500. After the discussion the Town Council agreed to award the firm of Hinton Burdick the sum of $14,750 for the 2010/2011 fiscal year audit.

The council held an executive session (secret) with the purpose to consult with the town's attorney, Steve Cooper, regarding settlements to avoid or resolve litigation; the status of negotiations with Resolution Copper Company on the mutual benefits agreement; the status of rental tax payments; and the potential annexation of real property. No action was taken after the council resumed the open meeting.

Under council comments, Mayor Jayme Valenzuela spoke at length about the changes he would like to see in the future of Superior.

"Our town is changing," he said, "and there is much we can do to change the future of our town. I would like to see community centers for the young and the old. I would like to see a library that gains necessary resources to be utilized in many different ways to help our citizens expand their knowledge and skills. I would like to see new ballparks for our children and a bustling, diverse economy that respects our natural environment. We are capable of making these changes if we can look at our past objectively and into the future without fear together.

"I would like to thank you all for your time, concern and input. To the citizens, volunteers, businesses, groups, organizations and employees who have dedicated their time and efforts, your hard work has not gone unnoticed thank you!"

He added that all the people who work for the town continue to do their very best and have not received raises for over eight years now. All efforts are truly appreciated by the citizens of this community and the Mayor and council members, Valenzuela said.

The next regularly scheduled Superior Town Council meeting will be held March 12, 2015 at 7 p.m. and upcoming current events include Apache Leap Mining Festival, March 13-15, 2015.

The Mayor and council members look forward to your attendance and participation at the Superior Town Council meetings.

Enjoy the Blessings of the Lord

Have you ever promised God that if He helped you out of a situation, you would do certain things? Did you then follow up on your promise or forget about it?

From Numbers 32:23 we read – “If you fail to do what you promised the Lord, you are sinning against Him; and you may be certain that your sin will find you out.” Yes, God heard your promise and expects it to be done.

God does not lie and neither should those who serve and worship Him. He expects total obedience to His commands and rules. This is not to be a burden for us, but a joyful experience.

The Christian life can be a wonderful time. Simply choose to do what God commands or requires. So that it would be easier, He wrote them all down in the Bible. Fulfill any and all promises that you have made to Him. You can enjoy the blessings of the Lord in your life. Every experience can be a promise fulfilled.

To all our friends,
What a blessing to live in Kearny with such wonderful friends and neighbors. As we went through the last week of Bill's life, we knew your thoughts and prayers and love was with us. Thank you for that. And for all the food that was brought as you saw our large family gather. For all the cards and phone calls and visits - each one is appreciated. To those who sent flowers - I didn't get any cards and don't know who you are - but thank you! Thank you. I have the plant in my kitchen. A special thanks to my sisters for a wonderful luncheon - and to those who helped at the cemetery in the mud and rain - it is truly a blessing to live in Kearny.

Pancakes, guided hikes, mine tours, BBQ, ghosts and history collide at annual LOST festival in Superior

The fourth annual Legends of Superior Trails Festival will be held on Saturday, Feb. 21, 2015.

The event kicks off with a Pancake Breakfast hosted by the Superior Optimist Club and the day continues with a guided tour of Resolution Copper and history discussions on Superior and the surrounding area. The guided hikes will begin following the history luncheon.

Added to the hike schedule this year is a sunset hike to the tunnel on the Canyon segment of the LOST and a ghost walk and talk by the Crossing Over Paranormal Crew. Intermediate and beginner mountain bike riding trips will also be available. An outdoor adventure expo will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The event will be held at the Magma Club, 38 Kumpke Ct., Superior.

There is a small fee for the meals and the ghost walk but all other events are free.

Breakfast is $6 and includes pancakes, eggs, ham juice and coffee. Lunch is a BBQ lunch with sandwich, beans, potato salad drink and desert for $10.

Pre registration for the hikes, walks tours and meals encouraged. To register online visit: <http://bit.ly/LOSTEVENT15> or you may call Nancy Vogler at 520-827-9461 or Mila Besich-Lira 520-827-0676.
