Supervisor Rios partners with Assessor's Office for Widow Exemption

Supervisor Pete Rios and County Assessor Douglas Wolf partnered to provide Pinal County residents with a tax exemption workshop in Mammoth. On Feb. 12, members from both teams opened their doors to widows/widowers and those 100% disabled in order to assist in the exemption application. Over two dozen individuals took advantage of the free opportunity, which was a hefty increase from past years.

"I wanted to thank Supervisor Rios personally because he allowed us to use his office for a place to take applications...we had a pretty good turnout," stated Assessor Wolf during the Board of Supervisors meeting on Feb. 12.

The application for the exemption opened on Jan. 6 and will end Feb. 28. To learn more about this program please call the Assessor's office at 520-866-6361 or visit their website at www.pinalcountyyaz.gov/Assessor/Exemptions

The effects of strike, new realities for local businesses

By Mila Besich
Copper Area News

As the United Steelworkers Strike at ASARCO moves into its fourth month, the local communities closest to the ASARCO operations are starting to feel the pinch. Local residents may already be noticing that grocery store shelves do not have a variety of foods as frequently as they did prior to the strike, business hours are cut back and for some workers their work hours at local businesses have been reduced.

These are all examples of how some businesses are adjusting through the strike. At the municipal level, the Town of Hayden is watching the budget closely; their reserves continue to be taxed as revenues to the town continue to decrease. The Town is considering the possibility of un-incorporating, which will have a trickle down affect throughout the region as the Town of Winkelman contracts with the Town of Hayden for police services. Gila County Supervisor Woody Cline and his staff have been looking at all options to help Hayden stay intact. Should the town be forced to un-incorporate, Gila County would have to take over governing the town. At a recent meeting, Mayor Dean Hetrick explained that it will become even more difficult to keep the Senior Center operating at its current capacity if additional funding is not available. This summer both Gila County and Pinal County provided additional funding to the Hayden Senior Center to ensure the center remains open. Reduced sales tax collection will start to affect each of the municipal budgets in the Copper Basin area, which will force each of the councils to make tough decisions as they plan their next budgets.

Myra Warren from Norm's Hometown Grocery said that the store has had to cut operating hours from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday and weekends 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. and fresh produce and baked items have been reduced to once a week deliveries.

"We are able to keep all of our vendors serving the store for now," she said. Warren also explained that while there is a somber tone to everything in town, the store has found ways to support the local striking workers. They teamed up with the Junior Chamber to host a food and toy drive over the holidays to help striking workers and their families. The store offers a 10% discount on the first and third Thursday of the month for every purchase over $10 and on the second and fourth Thursday they allow the striking workers and their families to spin the wheel for free

Pinal County to continue median work in March

Pinal County Public Works has announced that additional median work will begin March 16 in the San Manuel area as they continue to make improvements on the second median located along McNab Pkwy.

Construction may last up to two weeks. The median improvements will consist of vegetation removal and installation of stamped concrete. Traffic will be minimally impacted, Public Works said.

Median improvements with stamped concrete, the department spokesperson said, will greatly reduce the need for vegetation control maintenance. It will promote full visibility for drivers and pedestrians and reduce the number of possible safety hazards.

For questions, please call the Pinal County Public Works Department at 520-866-6411 or email proadmaintenance@pinal.gov.

SMHS student builds his way to a second place finish in construction skills competition

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

Students from San Manuel High School recently

competed at the Region 6 Skills USA Construction Championships. The competition included 175 JTED students from 10 regional high schools. It was held at Catalina High School in Tucson on Jan. 31, 2020. More than a dozen local construction companies sponsored the competition.

Anthony Villanueva from San Manuel High School took second place in Cabinet Making. The cabinetry competition was sponsored by Millwork by Design. Anthony was one of 10 students from the San Manuel High School JTED program Cabinet Making & Construction class. The students were judged by industry professionals in different construction skills which included: Construction Tech, Advanced Carpentry, Electrical, Masonry, Plumbing, Cabinetry, HVAC, Team Works and Sheet Metal.

Gary Schmidt who teaches the Cabinet Making & Construction class was happy with the results.

"I was impressed by Anthony," Schmidt said. "He only had a week to prepare and build cabinets. He has a lot of natural ability."

Anthony will go on to represent San Manuel High School at the State competitions in April.

Congratulations, Anthony, and best of luck at State.

San Manuel MBB starts journey for State Championship

By Andrew Luberd
San Manuel Miner

Prior to the season, the San Manuel boys' basketball team had two goals.

"They have two goals: win the conference and the state title," head coach Damon Lovato told the Miner in December.

The Miners, 22 – 9 overall, finished third in the 2A South Region during the regular season with an 11 – 5 record, all five losses to the three teams ahead of them in the final standings – St. Augustine, San Carlos and Miami. The most recent to Miami was a 58 – 56 defeat in the semifinals of last week's region tournament, and the rubber game after the teams split their first two games during the regular season. The Vandals were the eventual region champions.

Now the No. 14-seed Miners will host No. 24 Valley (Sanders) on Wednesday, Feb. 19, in a 2A Conference Play-In game for a berth in the 2A State Championship Tournament.

San Manuel's senior-laden roster – 10 seniors – figures to have the experience to compete for the last of its season goals. Additionally, as evidenced by the results of the region tournament, the Miners proved they competed in arguably the toughest region in 2A. Four 2A South teams are in the playoffs.

Senior Javy Tamayo leads the Miners in scoring (14.9 ppg), senior Gabe Pinedo is the team's leading rebounder (6.4 rpg), and senior Jose Moreno leads in assists (2.8 apg) and steals (2.1 spg).

With a win on Wednesday night, the Miners will play on Friday, Feb. 21, in the opening round of the 2020 AIA State Championship Tournament against an opponent to be determined. Tip-off is at 7 p.m.

items with every $75 purchase.

"We are also donating water, ice, coffee, food and wood to the picket lines," she said.

Over at Old Time Pizza, Gary Birkett shared that while sales are down, customers are still supporting their business and tourism traffic is helping to support their business.

"We have been donating pizza to the Union membership meetings and we offer a discount on food that is going over to the strike lines," he said.

The strike combined with the increase in minimum wage has forced them to reduce the hours of their staff.

As for how long will the strike last, everyone is hoping that the strike ends soon and that there will be a fair contract for workers. Both Warren and Birkett shared that they have heard many of the striking workers are starting to look for new employment or have taken retirement. There is looming concern that if more people take employment out of town, the population will continue to be reduced creating other long term stresses on the communities.
