Head Start kids celebrating February

On Feb. 9, the Head Start children toured the Superior United States Post Office and mailed an out of state letter and several local letters. The children have been busy journaling and it makes for a wonderful memory book to look at after the end of the program year.

The children listened to Teacher Teresita Martinez-

A Head Start student stretches to mail a letter to her mom.

Olmos and the USPO Post Master speak about the post office and how important it is to learn letters and numbers.

Some of the questions asked by the children were:

- How high is the mail?
- Do we have to pay for a stamp?
- When will our letters get there?

Prior to touring the post office, the children listened to stories about communicating and writing letters.

When touring the lobby, the teacher pointed out the connections between the story and what the children were experiencing in person.

The children were able to relate their writing a letter, and placing it inside an envelope with an address and mailing it. As the children took turns to mail their letters they expressed anticipation of a family member receiving it.

On Feb. 14, the children participated in "Friendship Day." The children exchanged Valentine greeting cards with their friends, family and guests. They focused on "being a friend."

This week's theme is focusing on random acts of kindness.

Way to go, kids!

Panther season ends at State Quarterfinals

By Andrew Luberda
Superior Sun

The Superior boys' basketball team entered the first round of the 2017 1A State Playoffs hoping to advance further than it did a year ago, when the Panthers reached the semifinals of the state tournament. Following a first-round upset of No. 3 Ft. Thomas last Thursday, the Panthers had to feel good about where they were headed.

But those feelings were short lived.

A 70 - 61 loss last Friday to No. 6 Red Mesa in the state quarterfinals ended the No.14-seeded Panthers' season.

Superior avenged three previous losses earlier this season against Ft. Thomas by upsetting the Apaches in the first round, 48 - 39. Unfortunately, the Panthers were not able to repeat the magic from a year ago to advance further this year.

"This team is full of kids who work hard and they were able to put it together in time for the last few weeks of the season," Superior head coach Ryan Palmer told the Superior Sun. "We had a great win in the first round and lost a very close and tough-fought game to Red Mesa." Jalon Murray put up a pair of double-doubles in the two games. Against Ft. Thomas, Murray finished with 24 points and 21 rebounds to go along with five blocks. Marcos Bueno added 15 points in the first-round win.

Austin Navarrette was perfect from the field against Red Mesa, going 8-for-8 and finishing with 19 points. Murray had 15 points, 15 rebounds and Bueno also ended with 19 points.

The Panthers' season, which ended with their second-straight playoff appearance, was a success by any measure.

"We played some very good basketball at the end, when it counts," Palmer said. "I am proud of the fight and determination these kids brought to the court."
