OBITUARIES

Samuel Odyth Hosler

Samuel Odyth Hosler, age 74, of Kearny, Arizona, died on Wednesday, Feb. 19, 2020 at St. Joseph's Medical Center in Phoenix after a long battle with Myesthenia Gravis.

Sam, as he was known, is the grandson of Arizona pioneers. He was born in Seligman, Arizona, during a rare early snowstorm on Sept. 19, 1945, in the old hotel that served as a hospital. His hospital crib consisted of bedding in a cardboard box placed on the open lid of a stove for warmth. He joined his railroader family living in a remodeled box car right by the tracks. His father, grandfather, and uncle were all railroaders. His father, Odyth Guthrie Hosler, was an engineer on the Santa Fe, working out of Seligman and Winslow until his retirement in 1976. His grandfather and great uncle came West from Pennsylvania in 1906, working for the Santa Fe as well. His grandfather, Samuel Lichtenburger Hosler, was the manager of the Childs Power Plant in Fossil Creek Canyon for a time. His paternal grandmother came west from Ohio at about the same time, providing housekeeping for her father, a traveling salesman. The couple married in Winslow and returned to Ohio for a time before living the rest of their lives in Arizona.

Sam's mother, Ada Lucretia Gould Hosler, came to Arizona from Oklahoma in the 1930s, settling in Pine.

For a time the family lived in the historic Strawberry Schoolhouse until they could be settled in their own home. Sam's parents purchased property in Strawberry in the early 1940s and are said to have been instrumental in bringing electricity to the mountain town.

Sam attended elementary school in Seligman, and high school in Winslow. He then attended the University of Arizona, graduating in 1967, and then Bexley Hall, an Episcopal seminary in Ohio. He met and married his wife, Carol Edith Smith, at that time. He returned to Arizona to be ordained an Episcopal clergyman at Trinity Cathedral in 1970 where he served for two years.

The couple's sons, Joshua Luke and Seth Stephen, were born while the family resided in Scranton, Pennsylvania. Subsequently, Sam also served Episcopal parishes in Delaware, Idaho, and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan before returning to serve, with his wife (also an Episcopal priest) in Holbrook and Winslow. They retired to Kearny in 2005 where Sam enjoyed being Mayor of the small copper mining town for a term. He worked tirelessly, even after his official term, to improve the health of the town. His biggest regret was not being able to complete, with others, the local purchase of the uptown. He always enjoyed the sound of the Copper Basin Railway trains as they zipped by their home near the tracks. The flag at Kearny Town Hall was hung at half-staff over the weekend in his memory.

Sam is survived in his immediate family by his wife of 50 years, Carol Edith Smith Hosler; son, Joshua Luke Hosler, an Episcopal priest in Seattle and his wife and daughter; son, Seth Stephen Hosler, a translator in Japan and his wife and son; sister, Martha Hosler Ahrens of Strawberry and her husband and daughter, and multiple nieces, nephews, and cousins.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Good Shepherd Church in Kearny on Saturday, Feb. 29, at 11 a.m., officiated by the Rt. Rev. Jennifer Reddall, Bishop of the Diocese of Arizona. An overflow crowd is expected but arrangements are being made for that. Rather than having an overabundance of flowers, Carol is suggesting that memorial contributions be made to Good Shepherd Church for its life and ministry in the Town of Kearny. PO Box 729, Kearny, Arizona 85137.

Diana Sixsmith

Diana Sixsmith, 72, after two years of surgeries and illness, took her journey to be with the Lord on Feb. 10, 2020. She died at home of natural causes.

Diana was preceded in death by her grandmother, Eunice Scandling; parents, Wayne and Lorraine Arnold; and, her eldest brother Wayne Arnold II.

She is survived by her husband and life-mate, John C. Sixsmith; children, John P. Sixsmith, Sara Bueno and Kara Sixsmith; grandchildren, Michael Sixsmith of Morenci, Rose Nasario of Apache Junction, Ricky Bueno of Globe, Ariel Bueno of Mesa and John T Sixsmith of South Dakota; three great-grandchildren, Madison Sixsmith, Marley Sixsmith and Michael Sixsmith II, who reside with their mother Rose Nasario; siblings, Kay Ramario, Tom Arnold, Don Arnold and Karla Richmond; as well as many nieces and nephews, all of Superior.

Diana was born to Wayne and Lorraine Arnold in South Bend, Indiana on June 17, 1948. Her family moved to Tempe in the very early 1960s, where they owned the Ox Bow Bar. Diana attended Tempe Union High School until she met and married the love of her life, John C. Sixsmith, an Irish immigrant. Soon after they married, they moved to Superior and fell in love with the place they would call home and raise their family.

She was a woman of many talents. She was a dedicated homemaker who enjoyed caring for her family and serving the Lord. She worked for several years in area hospitals as a nurses aid. She was also a talented crafter who enjoyed doing needlepoints, crochet, knitting and quilting. She was a volunteer at the Bob Jones Museum and a member of the V.F.W. Ladies Auxiliary. In her final years, she enjoyed singing karaoke with her friends.

Diana will be missed by many. Memorial service arrangements are pending.

29 Earthworks Workshop

On Saturday, Feb. 29, 2020, 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., the next step in "Planting the Rain" at the Oracle Community Learning Garden is to contour the surface to capture water and prevent it from leaving the property or eroding the surface. We need volunteers to help in digging basins, building berms, doing minor rockwork for overflows, and mulching. All are invited to this free workshop - no work required - but we do need at least a dozen people to help get the work done. The Learning Garden is located on Mt. Lemmon Rd., north of the Acadia Ranch Museum.

Superior Fire assists with several 'high risk' calls

Superior Fire was busy with medical calls all day Sunday, with two of them involving rescue and medical aircraft.

On Sunday, Feb. 23, Pinal County Sheriff's Office Search and Rescue requested Superior Fire Department to assist with an injured 46-year-old female who had fallen down a waterfall and hit her head while hiking on Picketpost Mountain. SFD met with a PCSO Search and Rescue deputy while PCSO used their rescue helicopter to reach and remove the injured woman from the mountain. An AMR ambulance assisted at an awaiting landing zone until Superior's ambulance was freed up from another call. The patient was safely removed and transferred into a Superior Fire ambulance and was transported to a Valley hospital in stable condition.

Earlier that same day, PHI Airevac had a special request for SFD to help them on one of their missions. A special Air Evac helicopter equipped to handle neonatal/birth complications was en route to the hospital in Globe to pick up a patient to take to a higher level facility in Phoenix when weather prevented it from passing Superior to Globe. SFD helped secure a landing zone for the helicopter while an SFD ambulance gave the crew a ride to Globe to pick up the patient and bring her back to the awaiting aircraft in Superior to expedite getting the expectant mother to her hospital destination.

We do appreciate our first responders. Thank you for being there for us.

God is Our Path Maker

In Isaiah 45:2A we read, 'I will go before you and make the rough places smooth. (vs. 3B) It is I, the LORD, the God of Israel, who calls you by your name.'

We all know that life can be tough at times. There are always rough spots in the road that we must learn to negotiate. That is why we trust in the Lord – who makes the rough places smooth.

What makes this easy, is that we are personally known by the Lord God. He is our friend, who is closer than a brother. Not only does He know us by our name, He has a full understanding of all the details of our life. Nothing misses His attention.

We are not alone on this path – He goes there first and we can then follow Him. An old chorus says: my Lord knows the way through the wilderness,
