San Manuel Senior Center gets some much needed attention

During the Christmas holiday, the San Manuel Senior Center was renovated by 6 very willing men: Frank Martinez, Dan Dean, Carl Matthews, Bob Van Dielen, Bob Barrett and Bill Mayer. Volunteers Dorothy Staggs, Hazel Cooper, Ruthie Wentworth and Dena Matthews helped with the painting, cleanup and shampooing of the carpet. They have added new tables and chairs and they look wonderful. The center's logo was painted on the front of the building by some students from Aravaipa Campus.

The year 2016 is going to be a great one for the Center as it continues to implement new programs, new excursions, and meeting new friends.

The San Manuel Seniors recently traveled to visit the Greek Monastery and then continued on to Florence to have lunch at Mt. Athos Restaurant. A wonderful time was had by all who attended, and the seniors are looking forward to the next excursion.

The next potluck is on Feb. 11 at 5 p.m.; please bring your favorite food to share. The group will be treated to a special

San Manuel wrestlers ready for Sectionals

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

Six San Manuel wrestlers will compete at this weekend's Division IV Section IV Tournament that will take place at Willcox High School on Saturday, Feb. 6.

Wrestlers who qualify will compete for state championships later this month at the Prescott Valley Event Center beginning on Feb. 12.

Junior Franky Renteria, who is ranked No. 1 at 160, is one of the Miners who figures to advance to the state tournament.

Freshman Julian Rodriguez (120), senior Joseph Lopez (132), and junior Colbey Stratton (170) also have a great opportunity to advance with Renteria.

The Miners have competed in tournaments at Skyline, Mountain View, and Salpointe Catholic, which are all Division I, II, or III schools. That level of competition has prepared them for this weekend and beyond.

"The schedule we've had this year has definitely prepared for the Division IV Sectionals and state tournament," San Joseph Lopez works to bring down his opponent.

Maryssa Sanchez | SMHS

Manuel head coach Daniel Najera told the Miner. "We're battle tested and we should have our guys reach the placing rounds."

Lady Miners win three straight, clinch berth in Sectional tournament

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel girls' basketball team punched its ticket to the postseason with three consecutive wins last week against Hayden, Gilbert Classical, and Miami.

The Lady Miners, now 6 – 4 and in fifth-place in the Section IV standings, will finish no worse than sixth in the final standings and will face either Ray or Duncan in next week's Section IV Tournament, which will begin on Tuesday, Feb. 9, at Thatcher High School.

Ashley Vargas' three-point play was the play of the game that sealed the 38 – 30 victory against Hayden. Eneida Quintero scored a game-high 17 points in a game that was close throughout until the Miners' took the lead for good in the fourth quarter, thanks in part to a steal by Vargas that led to her key play.

A lackluster 36 – 27 win at Gilbert Classical followed the victory against Hayden.

"We played one of our worst games of the year," San Manuel head coach Dave Jungbluth said. "We won, but we played down their level."

Quintero led the Miners with 12 points while Lysette Campa added eight points.

Perhaps the most important game of the week came on Friday versus Miami with the winner clinching a spot in next week's tournament.

The Miners held the smallest of leads at halftime (15 – 14) before their strong man-to-man defense in the third quarter helped them increase their lead to seven points before going on to win, 32 – 25.

Quintero, once again, led the team with 10 points. Angela Navarro and Ashely Vargas added six and five points, respectively.

Upcoming schedule: Feb. 5 vs. Ft. Thomas. Game is scheduled for 5:30 p.m.

San Manuel Elks honor local First

By Jennifer R. Carnes
San Manuel Miner

Public servants are usually the last ones to be thanked. Policemen, firefighters, paramedics are always there to see us on our worst days. They are there in times of tragedy and seldom see folks at their best.

The San Manuel Elks have found a way to say thank you, a way to say we care about you, to those first responders in our community.

Every year, the Elks host the First Responders Appreciation dinner. It allows the men and women in service to our community a chance to talk and laugh with friends and family. It also gives the organizations a chance to honor one or more of their own, name them Officer of the Year or Trooper of the Year.

The dinner comes with its share of dignitaries, all wanting to say a public thank you and this year was no different.

On Saturday, Jan. 30, the Elks held its annual appreciation banquet. In attendance were State and County elected officials. Pinal County Attorney Lando Voyles attended, as did Pinal County Sheriff Paul Babeu. Also in attendance were State Representatives Frank Pratt and T.J. Shope. All spoke, thanking the policemen and other first responders for their service. Babeu and Pratt also commended the Elks.

One of the most touching things said that evening came from Arnold Estrada, the Justice of the Peace for Mammoth-San Manuel.

“When you hear a call,” he said, “my first reaction is a prayer.” He said he has lived in the Tri-Community for 47 years. The officers and firefighters, he said, are his neighbors. It’s his prayer that they return home unharmed.

He also thanked the families of the first responders “for supporting these people.”

Glen Swavely, who attended as district commander of the Arizona Department of Public Safety, said that despite the fact that they wear different uniforms and report to different bosses, “In the end,” he said, “it’s for the same purpose, for the same people.”

He thanked all of the first responders for working to make life better.

Award winners

DPS Trooper of the Year is Bruce Fletcher. Swavely presented the award

Pinal County Sheriff’s Deputy of the Year is Joey Hogan. Sheriff Babeu also presented an official commendation to a member of the support staff, Pilar Clark, who serves as the secretary in the San Manuel substation. In spite of being a relatively new employee, Pilar assisted heavily in the overhaul of the Spillman system which PCSO uses for its reporting system.

Paramedic of the Year for Tri City Med is Peter Chen. Anna Mischel from Southwest Ambulance presented the award.

Mammoth Fire Department named Lisa Casillas as the Firefighter of the Year. She was instrumental in applying for and winning a grant which was used to help purchase more bicycles and toys for the department’s annual Fourth of July event. Mammoth Fire Chief Marty Ponce presented the award.

Oracle Fire Chief Larry Southard presented the Firefighter of the Year award to Michael Parra. Michael has been with the fire department since he was 16 and a member of the Explorers.

Mammoth Police Department named one of its reserve officers as the Officer of the Year. Mammoth Mayor Don Jones explained that the department has a real manpower issue and have to rely on reserve officers to fill shifts. Jim Salazar is one of those officers. He spends his weekends in Mammoth, helping to patrol the town and keep its residents safe. And he does it all free of charge. Mammoth PD Sgt. Michael Green presented the award.

San Manuel Fire Department honored its fire board this year. All live in San Manuel and all care about the community, Chief John Stanford said. Honored were: Robert Van Dielen, Alfonso Cordero, Danny Riekofski, Jan Herrick and Darryll Kyle. Named as an honorary honoree was John Dicus, who served on the board for several decades.

Michael Parra, center, was named Firefighter of the Year for Oracle Fire Department. Also pictured are Battalion Chief Brian McGinnis, left, and Fire Chief Larry Southard.

Incumbents remain on San Manuel Library Board

By Chaille McGrew
San Manuel Library

The results of the recently held election for three spaces on the San Manuel Library Board of Trustees resulted in the retention of all three incumbents: Linda Lee, Louise Krouse, and Chaille McGrew. The Board appreciates all those cardholders that voted. The Board voted for the current officers to remain in place with Chairman Linda Lee, Vice Chairman Verne Fischer, Secretary Louise Krouse, Treasurer Pat Collins, Member at Large Chaille McGrew.

A great big "Thanks" to all the community members who so generously donated to our donation drive. Your generosity resulted in a total of $1,682! Of course, the library's needs are always there and your support throughout the year is also important. A donation to the library is a wonderful way to honor the death of a loved one or the celebration of a special event. When such a donation is made, the library will send a card to the family of the deceased or the person whose life had a celebration to notify them of the donation made in their honor.

The Board has selected Louise Krouse as VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR. Louise serves as secretary on the board and is a volunteer at the library. She graciously gives of her time and talents to the library and is willing to go the extra mile whenever there is a need. The Board would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank Louise for her outstanding service to the library.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: As of Monday, February 1, 2016 there will be a change in the library's policy concerning the 5 free b/w copies per day for students' homework assignments. This policy is now limited to high school and elementary school students. High school students must show their school ID card in order to have the free copies printed.

Women, ages 18 -98, are invited to a retreat!

Oracle - Based on the book, The Wall: A Parable by Gloria Jay Evans, the message of an all ages women's retreat that will be held in Oracle on Saturday, Feb. 13, is all about the walls we build that prevent us from developing a relationship with God, ourselves and others.

The retreat is designed to be a day for you to get away, to be able to retreat from worldly stress, allowing attendees to be present for their own self and to God, and, to take time to reflect on the message of the retreat. In the morning sessions will be focused on understanding the blocks that have built relationship walls and the healing message through the forgiveness prayer. In the afternoon, attendees will renew, with skills learned from a presentation/ demonstration and handouts on communication skills that will give you the power to grow and prevent those block that build the wall.

Oracle Union Church is supporting the retreat which will be held at 700 E. Kingston St. in Oracle, at the Oracle Piano Society building, which is also known locally as the old Masonic Temple. Signs for the retreat will direct you to the address off of American Ave., across from the Oracle Library. Doors will open at 8:30 a.m. for registration and the retreat will begin at 9 a.m., continuing on until 3:30 p.m. The cost for attendance is $10, which will cover cost of lunch, breaks and materials.

While late registrations will be accepted at the door on the day of the retreat, pre-registration is preferred, to ensure that enough materials will be on hand for everyone. To pre-register, mail a check made out to Oracle Union Church with "retreat" written on the subject line to Jane O'Mahen, P.O. Box 5043, Oracle, AZ 85623.

Arizona Zipline has grand opening, ready for adventure seekers

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

It's finally open!

On Friday Jan. 29, 2016, the zipline near Oracle officially opened for business. Arizona Zipline Adventures celebrated its grand opening in style.

Brandon Luthy introduced his partners and thanked all of the people that helped make the zipline a reality. Brandon thanked Tim Kanavel, Pinal County Economic Development Director, for his support.

Speeches were made by Pinal County Supervisors Pete Rios and Todd House. All five Pinal County Supervisors showed up for the event. Former Secretary of State Ken Bennett was in attendance. He is running for Congress in District 1. Mayor Don Jones of Mammoth and Louie Bracamonte of Hayden attended as did representatives of the Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition and the Arizona Trail.

Charley Goff rode the zipline, breaking or zipping the ribbon signifying that Arizona Zipline Adventures is now open. Pete Rios and Tim Kanavel also rode the zipline. The zipline is the first Zipline Eco Tour in southern Arizona and the longest zipline run (1,500 feet) in Arizona.

To make reservations or find out more information about Arizona Zipline Adventures contact them at (520)308-9350 or info@ziparizona.com.

Pinal County Supervisor Pete Rios was one of the first people to ride the zipline at the grand opening of the Arizona Zipline Adventures. It officially opened on Friday, Jan. 29.
