SUPERIOR, Ariz., Jan. 28, 2014 – Resolution Copper Mining is beginning a Worker Trainee Program as part of its commitment to develop local employment opportunities. To launch the program, the company is offering three trainee positions that will last six months and pay $15 per hour. One position is in the mine's water treatment plant, a second is in core-handling operations, and a third is in Resolution Copper's administration offices.

The water treatment plant trainee will gain an understanding of water treatment operations and design, learn water laboratory best practices, and acquire basic data analysis skills. The core-handler trainee will be certified in forklift operation, gain warehousing experience, and learn how to work with tools such as grinders, saws and scrubbers. The administrative trainee will work with Microsoft Office programs, learn letter writing and formatting, gain filing skills, and work as an office receptionist.

"Our objective is to provide trainees with skills needed to succeed in a modern workplace setting," said Andrew Taplin, project director for Resolution Copper. "Beyond the job-specific skills, trainees will learn techniques for resume writing and job interviews, workplace etiquette and ethics, communication skills, and the ability to be flexible and adaptable on the job."

Acceptance into the program is not an offer of permanent employment. To be considered for the program, an applicant must be at least 18 years old, have a high school diploma or a GED certificate, and have a valid Arizona driver's license. Before final acceptance, selected applicants are required to undergo a background check, a physical fitness test, and drug and alcohol screening. Trainees also will undergo safety training as required by the Mine Safety and Health Administration.

Applicants can email resumes to Monica.Denogean@resolutioncopper.com or apply in person at Resolution Copper's office at 402 W. Main St. in Superior. More information is available by calling 520.689.9374.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Not My Way

By Pastor Joe Palmer
Fellowship Baptist Church

The song I think of when I think of Frank Sinatra is, "My Way." In this song, Sinatra ends each verse with "I did it my way." It has an appeal for all of us. No one wants to be bossed around and enslaved to someone else. We want to be thought of as brave enough to be free. There is, however, a limit to the freedom any wise person would cherish. There is a point at which a wise and good person will say, I will no longer just do it my way, but instead I will obey.

When we depend on others to the point of being demanding and of being in conflict with them, we find ourselves not only angry with others but also hating ourselves. Where does one go from here? We either destroy ourselves, or we arrogantly determine to find a way to cope and get what we want. (This often leads to a neurosis of some sort.) OR, we can go back to the beginning and rethink our perspective of the universe.

If God is there, and if He is good, and if He loves me, and if He has a plan for me which will include freedom from guilt and the hope of eternal life, then I can quit demanding from people the things I think will make me happy. I can love them instead. I can bear with them, and I can humble myself to admit my faults when I am at fault. If God loves me, then I can love Him and obey Him when He tells me to love my neighbor. – Freedom in the greatest way is experienced as I learn to do it God's way.

Hayden High School wrestling is back

The Hayden High School wrestling team is back and better than ever. The Lobos ended the season winning six out their last seven team dual meet matches in preparation for the state sectional tournament this weekend.

The Lobos achieved more than Hayden High School head wrestling coach Jeff Gregorich expected this year. One of the biggest wins of the year for the Lobos was beating state wrestling power house San Manuel High School 42-30 on Jan. 7. "The Lobo wrestling program had a 20 year losing streak to the Miners," said Gregorich.

"Other notable victories include team dual meet wins over San A Cruz Union High School, 33-30, and Globe High School, 42-30, as well," Gregorich Added.

The Hayden wrestling team ended their season with 11 dual meet team wins, 10 loses, and one tie. He said that the most notable achievement of the season was the fourth place finish in the 16 team Salt River Wrestling Championships. Nine out of 11 Lobo wrestlers walked away with individual medals. Gregorich said that it was a big improvement considering the Lobos placed 16th last year or in last place.

Individual wrestlers placing in the tournament were: Brandon Cruz, placed second at 106 pounds; Austin White, placed fourth at 120 pounds; Ryan Donovan, placed second at 126 pounds; Manuel Palofox, fourth place at 126 pounds; Jacob Marquez, placed fifth at 132 pounds; Roman Romero, placed third at 145 pounds; Manny Armenta, placed second at 170 pounds; Francisco Moreno, placed fourth at 195 pounds; and Juan Hernandez, placed fifth at 220 pounds.

Gregorich said, "I believe the key element to the success of the Hayden wrestling team this year is the number of wrestlers that came out. Hayden wrestlers started the season with 13 wrestlers and finished with eleven. Prior to this year, the Lobo wrestling teams averaged only five wrestlers a year. That made winning team dual meet matches and tournaments impossible. Not only did we have more wrestlers, but the toughness of our wrestlers made other teams' wrestlers and coaches take notice. On more than one occasion, I had officials and coaches tell me how much the Lobos had improved this year and that they were all glad to see the Lobo wrestling program back in action."

"I feel that we made significant improvement this year, but I know we need too and will continue to improve over the coming years. Most of the wrestlers are first or second years wrestlers which make it difficult to compete with some of the more experienced and established wrestling teams, but surprisingly my wrestlers outperformed my expectations this season," stated Gregorich.

"I look forward to the next few years as some very talented junior high wrestlers come up to the high school with prior wrestling experience. I believe if we continue to improve and work hard we will be taking the next step with our program, which is to bring home a state wrestling championship," Gregorich said.

The Lobo wrestlers are preparing for the State Sectional Wrestling Tournament this weekend in Benson. Individual Lobos ended their regular season with good overall records and high hopes for the state wrestling tournament. Individual regular season records are; Brandon Cruz (19-13 overall), Austin White(12-18 overall), Ryan Donovan (17-12 overall), Manuel Polofox (12-10 overall), Jacob Marquez (9-3 overall), Roman Romero (21-8 overall), Ernesto Magallenez (5-12 overall), Manny Armenta (17-12 overall), Francisco Moreno (21-13 overall), Juan Hernandez (23-10 overall), and Antonio Treviso (23-9 overall).

The Lobo wrestling motto this year is "No Excuses." Good luck Lobo wrestlers at State!

Lopez, Isabella Mendoza, and Katlyn Gantt.

The 7th Grade team also can be very proud of its accomplishments on a successful season as well. They finished their season as runner-up after falling in the championship game.

The 7th grade team is: Myranda Figueroa, Kailey Gillaspay, Haily Rutter, Daniella Hinojos, Riley Cude, Julie Meza, Ameer Kenyon, Tara Lorona, Jori Hudson, and Destiny Gonzales.

Lady Bearcats get important win against Wildcats

By Andrew Luberda

Copper Basin News

The Bearcats girls' basketball team put itself in good position to secure a sectional tournament spot by beating the Cibecue Wildcats last Wednesday, 71 – 56. The 'Cats are currently in third place in the Section III standings.

After trailing at the end of the first quarter, 15 – 13, the 'Cats outscored the Wildcats 26 – 10 in the second quarter to take a commanding lead at halftime. The Bearcats did not let the Wildcats close the gap in the second half and cruised to the win.

Sidney Chenoweth was 1 of 4 Bearcats' players to score in double figures and scored a game-high 22 points. Stormee Galka (16), Breaua Hathaway (15), and Savannah Willis (12) were the other players to reach double digits.

The Bearcats close out their regular season with three straight home games including a game versus Division III Miami (AZ) on February 4, 2014. They'll play Superior on February 5 before their regular season finale versus the section's first-place team, Joseph City. Joseph City is currently undefeated in sectional play. All games are scheduled to begin at 5:30 p.m.

Big road win for Bearcats

By Andrew Luberda

Copper Basin News

The Ray boys' basketball team earned a big win at Ft. Thomas last Friday night, 64 – 62. In addition to avenging a season-opening loss to the Apaches, the win almost assures the Bearcats a spot in the Sectional Tournament. The first round of Sectional Tournament will be played on February 12, 2014, at Miami (AZ) High School. The tournament final is scheduled for February 15.

Even with a postseason berth seemingly locked up, the 'Cats still have three games left in their regular season beginning with a home game versus Miami (AZ) on February 4. They'll play their final two regular season games at home, as well. First, against Superior on February 5 before finishing against Joseph City on February 7. All games are scheduled to tipoff at 7:00 p.m.

Congratulations to both teams for having outstanding seasons!

Editor's Note: In last week's Copper Basin News, a photo of the Ray Jr. Lady 'Cats was published with information in the caption that they had lost to San Manuel. This information was in error and the Copper Basin News regrets the error. Our thanks to the parent who called our office alerting us to it. In our attempt to rectify the error, we tried to contact the Jr. Lady 'Cats coach Jason Cude, but he did not return emails and did not contact us prior to press time. ~JRC
