February is Heart Month

It's here! February, the most romantic month of the year. The month where we celebrate love on Valentine's Day. We buy or loved one chocolates, flowers and other trinkets to show them how much we love them. So how did February get its name? February is derived from the Latin word "februs" meaning "to cleanse." The month was named after the Roman Festival, Februalia, a month-long festival of purification and atonement. Now that you know how February got its name and what holiday we all think of when we hear "February" what do we do you know about our heart?

Here are some facts on the organ we call our "heart". The average human heart is constantly working 24 / 7 to pump blood throughout your body and it pumps approximately 2,000 gallons of blood each day. A healthy adult heart should beat anywhere from 60 to 100 times a minute while at rest. Do the math, and it adds up to around 100,000 beats a day and 2.5 billion beats in the average lifetime. A woman's heart beats at a rate of six (6) beats per minute faster than men. But because a male heart is bigger (by about 25 percent), so it can pump more blood in a single beat. Newborns have the fastest heartbeats, at 70 to 190 beats per minute, and the hearts of well-trained athletes tend to beat slower, at a rate of 40 to 60 beats per minute.

Most people believe our heart is located on the left side of our chest but that's not true. Our heart is located in the center of the chest. That's why when you perform CPR you place your hands in the center of the chest directly over the heart.

Another thing, while it may be a compliment to be told you have a "big heart" actually having a big heart isn't necessarily a good thing. An enlarged heart is a symptom of heart disease. The average adult heart is about the size of your fist.

Here's a question for you ... What do you think is the most common day of the week when people experience a heart attack? The most common day of the week for heart attacks is Monday. The European Journal of Epidemiology found that the incidence of heart attack was 20 percent higher in men and 15 percent higher in women on Mondays. Other popular heart attack days are Christmas, the day after Christmas and New Year's. There are many factors that contribute to this phenomenon.

Our bodies contain three different kinds of blood vessels: Arteries carry blood from the heart to our other organs, veins carry blood from organs and limbs back to the heart, and capillaries connect the two. Together, all of the arteries, veins, and capillaries in the body are long enough to go around the world more than twice. Our height plays a role in exactly how many "miles" of vessels are in our body. How tall are you? Think about it.

Many people have heard of a thing called hardening of the arteries. The medical term, atherosclerosis, is the result of cholesterol and fat buildup in the vessels, which causes plaque. It can lead to coronary artery disease, heart attack, and stroke. When it comes to sneezing, many people think your heart stops for a minute or so. During a sneeze, a momentary change in the pressure in your chest may affect blood flow but your heart doesn't stop when you sneeze. That doesn't mean you should stop saying "bless you" or "gesundheit" after a sneeze, though. It's only polite! And lastly, despite the name, your heart doesn't stop during heart failure either. It just can't pump blood as effectively as it should. The only time the heart stops is during cardiac arrest.

Speaking of cardiac arrest ... do you know how to perform

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Family First celebrates 15 years of service in Pinal County

Family First Pregnancy Care Center and Family Diaper Bank has provided 15 years of service to mothers, youth and families of Oracle, San Manuel, and Mammoth at its Oracle Center at 575 American Ave. It is also celebrating 8 years of service to people living in Winkelman, Hayden, and Kearny at its center at 508 N. Thorne Avenue in Winkelman. Although we have been operating many years in both areas, we still have people who will stop in and wonder what Family First does.

The answer is hard to explain because we are a unique nonprofit organization that provides an incentive program to people of all ages. We offer free educational classes for a wide range of different parenting and life skills. We have practical lessons on infant and child development from conception through adolescence. These interesting and informative classes are tailored to meet each client's individual needs.

Although we are not professional counselors, we have many years of experience and training in our educational resources that will help parents raise their children to grow to be happy, healthy, confident young adults. We also provide a caring, confidential listening ear for all caregivers, mothers, and fathers who feel insecure about how to best raise children in all family settings. The lessons are easy to understand and are done as individual or small group classes. Appointments can be made by calling the Oracle center at 520-896-9545 or the Winkelman center at 520-664-5795. The Oracle center is open Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday for appointments from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The Winkelman center is open Wednesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The benefit of taking classes here is our "Earn While Learn" program which lets you earn "Mommy or Daddy Dollars" for each class taken that can be used to purchase things needed by most parents and caregivers at our center stores, including: diapers, wipes, clothes, formula, and many other items. We also have beautiful handmade quilts and crocheted blankets made and donated by groups of talented and generous people who create these unique gifts of love. Our stores are stocked by donations from churches and individuals who donate items needed by our families.

Wednesday mornings feature Story Time for all one to four year old children from 10 to 11 a.m. Besides hearing a story, they enjoy doing crafts, sharing snacks, and playing with other children. It is a fun time for the children and for the parents to observe and talk with other mothers.

Our services are free to all people, regardless of age, ethnicity, income level, or religious beliefs, are invited to come here for information, classes, or confidential help. Family First is always looking for volunteers to become involved with the Family First team of women who are dedicated to our mothers, youth and families. If you have any questions about different Family and life issues, we probably have classes to help you as you navigate through the changing developmental stages and much more.

Come help us celebrate and meet us in person. Our friendly volunteers are waiting to meet and greet you soon.

Hyperbaric Oxygen Therapy Now Available at the CV Wound Center!

What is Hyperbaric Wound Therapy?

Hyperbaric oxygen therapy involves breathing pure oxygen in a pressurized room or tube. Hyperbaric oxygen therapy is a well-established treatment for decompression sickness, a hazard of scuba diving. Other conditions treated with hyperbaric oxygen therapy include serious infections, bubbles of air in your blood vessels, and wounds that won't heal.

In a hyperbaric oxygen therapy chamber, the air pressure is increased to three times higher than normal air pressure. Under these conditions, your lungs can gather more oxygen than would be possible breathing pure oxygen at normal air pressure.

Your blood carries this oxygen throughout your body. This helps fight bacteria and stimulate the release of substances called growth factors and stem cells, which promote healing.

Conditions for Treatment

Hyperbaric oxygen therapy is used to treat several medical conditions. And medical institutions use it in different ways. Your doctor may suggest hyperbaric oxygen therapy if you have one of the following conditions:

- Anemia, severe
- Brain abscess
- Bubbles of air in your blood vessels (arterial gas embolism)
- Burn
- Decompression sickness
- Carbon monoxide poisoning
- Crushing injury
- Deafness, sudden
- Gangrene
- Infection of skin or bone that causes tissue death
- Non-healing wounds, such as a diabetic foot ulcer
- Radiation injury
- Vascular wounds
- Skin graft or skin flap at risk of tissue death
- Wounds that won't heal

During Hyperbaric Therapy

Hyperbaric oxygen therapy typically is performed as an outpatient procedure and doesn't require hospitalization. If you're already hospitalized and require hyperbaric oxygen therapy, you'll remain in the hospital for therapy. During hyperbaric oxygen therapy, the air pressure in the room is about two to three times normal air pressure. The increased air pressure will create a temporary feeling of fullness in your ears — similar to what you might feel in an airplane or at a high elevation. You can relieve that feeling by yawning or swallowing. For most conditions, therapy lasts approximately two hours. Members of our health care team will monitor you and the therapy unit throughout your treatment.

After Hyperbaric Therapy

You may feel somewhat tired or hungry following your treatment. This doesn't limit normal activities.

Call the Cobre Valley Regional Medical Center Wound Center for more information regarding Hyperbaric Wound therapy.

Volunteer to be a voice for young children in your Arizona community

If you are passionate about children's issues and want to impact the early childhood programs available to young kids in our community, First Things First (FTF) needs you. FTF is Arizona's early childhood health and development agency and seeks about 150 volunteers for the opportunity to collaborate with other dedicated community members in local communities across Arizona.

This year, FTF has made the application process simple with an easy online application (<https://www.firstthingsfirst.org/serve-az-community/>)

Volunteering on a regional council is a unique, high-level leadership opportunity to make a positive impact on children and families in our community. Regional council members help define priorities for the local services and supports for young children and their families. By collaborating with other dedicated community members, they provide opportunities for young children to get a strong start in life.

Research has shown a child's early experiences lay the foundation for a lifetime of success in school and beyond. FTF partners with parents and communities to give children birth to age 5 the tools they need to arrive at kindergarten prepared to succeed. Regional councils made up of community volunteers inform decisions about how First Things First can help strengthen families, expand early learning opportunities and increase access to preventive health services in their area.

FTF is accepting applications in the Pinal Region from various backgrounds for the following seats that are open either due to vacancy or terms about to expire: individuals from the business, education, health, faith and childcare communities – who want to be a voice for children in our community. Regional council members must live or work in this region. The six regional council seats open in this region are:

- Child Care or Preschool Provider: Individuals applying for this seat must be licensed by the Arizona Department of Health Services, certified by the Arizona Department of Economic Security, authorized by tribal government or the U.S. Department of Defense or registered with Child Care Resource and Referral
- Educator: Individuals providing early childhood professional development instruction, including but not limited to community college and university level instructors or administrators and other professional development organizations
- Business: an owner, officer, CEO or member of the executive management staff of a for-profit or not-for profit business
- Health: Health care service provider serving children birth through 5 years. This may include, but is not limited to, physicians, nurses, county health department lay-health workers, school nurses, dentists, dental hygienists, registered dietitians, physical therapists, occupational therapists, speech therapists, psychologists, or other physical and mental health service paraprofessionals
- Faith: An individual with a voluntary or paid role within the faith community, a traditionalist in a tribal community, or other faith-based representation consistent with the community norms and titles
- At-Large: At Large membership is first available to tribal representatives the Ak-Chin community, located within the Pinal region. The balance of each membership must be a community member who lives or works in the region and who may, but is not required to, represent any of the categories identified above.

If you or someone you know can commit to about 10 hours per month to make a difference in the lives of young children in our community, please visit FirstThingsFirst.org/serve. There, you can learn about the volunteer positions available in our area, read a detailed description of the position, and fill out an application.

The job of getting kids ready for school starts the day they are born. Please consider lending your expertise, insight and community spirit to help ensure that all Arizona children are ready to succeed in kindergarten and beyond!

About First Things First – First Things First is a voter-created, statewide organization that funds early learning, family support and children preventive health services to help kids be successful once they enter kindergarten. Decisions about how those funds are spent are made by local councils staffed by community volunteers. To learn more, visit FirstThingsFirst.org.

CPR on a loved one, or anyone, who has experienced a cardiac arrest? You don't have to be an EMT or Paramedic or Doctor or Nurse to perform this life-saving technique. You don't even have to do rescue breathing, also called mouth-to-mouth breathing any more. Calling 9-1-1 and pushing hard and fast on the person's chest while waiting for first responders to arrive can mean the difference between life and death for the victim of a cardiac arrest.

Want to give your Valentine a unique and potentially lifesaving gift this Valentine's Day? Why not sign them and yourself up for a CPR class? A hands-Only CPR class takes about 1 hour or so to complete and the best part is that ANYONE can take a CPR class! So, you might have physical limitations and not be able to perform compressions yourself but, you CAN tell someone else who may not know CPR how to do it when it is needed.

Want to know more about taking a CPR class or having a CPR class brought to you and your group? Contact us here at AZ Safety Solutions and we can schedule training for you. AZ Safety Solutions is a firefighter/EMT owned safety education company dedicated to providing the community we serve the very best in safety education. Our instructors have a combined 85(+) years of field emergency response and teaching experience. You can contact us by calling AZ Safety Solutions at (520) 838-4508 or via email at info@azsafetysolutions.com
