Mila Besich named a 2019 Flinn-Brown Fellow by Academy Arizona Center for Civic Leadership

PHOENIX—Thirty Arizonans have been selected for the 2019 Flinn-Brown Civic Leadership Academy by the Arizona Center for Civic Leadership at the Flinn Foundation.

In addition to representatives from the Phoenix metro area, eight of the Flinn-Brown Fellows are from northern, eastern, and southern Arizona, including Clarkdale, Cottonwood, Prescott Valley, Superior, Casa Grande, Tucson, and Sierra Vista. This is the first time Fellows have been selected from Superior and Casa Grande. Superior Mayor Mila Besich is included in this group of leaders. She was also named as a Fellow for her work with the Copper Corridor Economic Development Coalition.

The 2019 cohort members represent the private and public sectors in business and industry, government, nonprofits and education. The competitively selected Fellows come from a wide range of backgrounds, work experiences, and political perspectives and are expecting to pursue roles as state-level elected officials, state-agency executives, policy advisors, members of state boards or commissions, and executives in statewide organizations that affect public policy.

The Academy's 14 interactive seminars, with a focus on policy, politics, and solutions, will begin in early February and conclude in early May. Dozens of presenters include elected and appointed officials, judges, executives, scholars, business leaders and other experts. Topics include the state budget, K-12 and higher education, corrections, courts, water, rural and urban interests, transportation and many other issues.

More than 350 Flinn-Brown Fellows have been selected since the start of the Flinn-Brown Academy in 2011. Together, the Fellows compose the Flinn-Brown Network, which provides long-term support, including continuing education and connection opportunities throughout the state, an annual Flinn-Brown Convention, and other activities.

Rebuild Superior, Chamber and Town tackle clean up on Pinal Ave.

They were at it again!

As part of the Blight Mitigation program, Rebuild Superior, the Chamber of Commerce and the Town of Superior have embarked on a major project on Pinal Ave and the surrounding streets. A group of volunteers, under the direction of Rick Cartier, Chamber V.P., created the Pinal Ave. Project. With the help of the community members that live in the area, the group are here to help cut back, clean up and paint the exteriors of any homeowners that want to participate.

Saturday was a great day as many volunteers from Superior and 500 Youth and Leaders from the Gilbert Arizona Highland West Stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints joined together and cut, raked and hauled away, many trailer loads and roll offs of weeds, clippings and general debris. Volunteers also worked at the Caboose Park to spruce it up.

This is an ongoing "feel good" project and the group would love to have you join them. Please Rick at 602-561-0807 for more information.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Kudos to volunteers for clean up on Pinal Ave.

What a sight to see! It's Friday night and I live across from the old Superior High School. I sit outside to watch the parking lot fill up with staff and young volunteers. I know and heard a lot of these kids that are coming will be doing volunteer work for Pinal Ave, cleaning. Do you, as Superiorites, know what these kids do? Their hard work is to beautify this Ave!

A simple hello and thank you is needed. Please don't ignore this! This is for all of us. I love to see these young and old fill the parking lot as a dedication to all of us. I, for one, appreciate this. They beautify what we don't do. A lot of hard work and dedication is done by all. So take your time to acknowledge this.

A simple thank you goes a long way! A clean heart is a pure heart.

Thanks,
/s/ Karen Murrieta

talent and creativity among Arizonans and the desire of so many to dedicate their talents to the betterment of our state," said Nancy Welch, director of the Arizona Center for Civic Leadership at the Flinn Foundation. "The 2019 Fellows will strengthen our Flinn-Brown Network and form relationships with other state-level leaders and those aspiring to have a significant impact on Arizona."

Arizonans interested in learning more and applying for future cohorts can sign up for regular updates from the Arizona Center for Civic Leadership.

The Flinn Foundation is a Phoenix-based private, nonprofit, grantmaking organization, founded by Dr. Robert S. Flinn and Irene P. Flinn, in 1965, with the mission, "To improve the quality of life in Arizona to benefit future generations." Along with the Arizona Center for Civic Leadership, the Foundation supports the advancement of Arizona's bioscience sector, the Flinn Scholars Program, and Arizona arts and culture organizations.

The Thomas R. Brown Foundations of Tucson is a partner in the Flinn-Brown program. It supports solutions to community and state issues through grants and educational programs in the areas of research and education, workforce development, civic leadership, and economics education.

Proceeds to Benefit the Superior Food Bank

From the Superior Food Bank:

A very, very special THANK YOU to all of our wonderful friends everywhere! To all who donated their precious time, groceries and finances: you are awesome! To the businesses who donated space to collect donated groceries, THANK YOU for being such good friends! Many Churches, businesses, families and individuals have blessed us with their giving and help. We are not a stand-alone organization, but a community effort to support those who need extra help with food to feed their families. TOGETHER we make a big difference in the lives of those we serve.

We, the Superior Food Bank Board of Directors, Sue Anderson and the Superior Chamber of Commerce, the Superior Town Hall and our many supporters are very grateful for the wonderful outpouring of food and finances that have come in. This is not just once a year, but a year-long effort to keep our shelves filled. Without your support, we could not accomplish the task before us. THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!!

In humble gratefulness, Dennis Van Gorp, Board Chairman

It is impossible to list everyone, and we dare not leave anyone out. If you are not listed here, you are still very important to us. This is just a partial list of the larger donors: Resolution Copper, Superior High School Deca, APS, Network for Good, Queen Valley Community Church, Superior Optimist Club, Casey McKeon, Mesa United Way, Save Money Market, Superior Harvest Church, Armida P. Carlson signs letter of intent to play golf at Lewis and Clark State

By Tony Erquiaga
The Humboldt Sun

Years of hard work on the golf course paid dividends for Lowry High School senior Tatyana Carlson.

The Buckaroos senior recently signed a letter of intent to play golf for Lewis-Clark State in Lewiston, Idaho. She will be joining a team that had success this past year. The Warriors were ranked 24th in the last fall NAIA Top 25 poll.

"I did think it was possible to get where I am," said Carlson. "I know I put myself out there, I worked hard for it. I was out on the golf course from day to night and I truly wanted it for myself."

Carlson was the Northern 3A MVP this past fall in 2018 and helped the Lady Bucks win the Northern 3A Regional Championship over rival Elko. She shot a 74 on the final day of the NIAA 3A State Championships in Truckee to win the individual title with a two-day score of 155, to beat Truckee's Ryan Flynn by three shots. The last player to win an individual state title at Lowry was Makenzie Swecker in 2003.

Carlson was the co-MVP of the Northern 3A in 2017 and she placed fifth at the state tournament. She played in the state tournament in each of her four years at Lowry, including a fourth-place finish in 2016.

"There were some ups and downs," Carlson said. "I wanted to win the state championship this year so bad. After my junior year I told myself I was done playing around and time to get serious."

Carlson will be the lone Nevadan on the Lewis-Clark State roster, which features women from Washington, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Canada.

"I fell in love when I got up there," Carlson said. "I am excited to play at the next level. They have some girls that have helped me along. They welcomed me with open arms when I visited and we were able to play some golf too."

She plans on majoring in nursing, with a minor in Spanish. Tatyana is the granddaughter of Nacho and Dora Villaverde of Superior.
