OBITUARIES

Daniel 'Danny' Madrigal Sr.

On Sunday, March 14, 2021, Daniel "Danny" Madrigal Sr. passed away, surrounded by loved ones at the age of 76.

Danny was born in Clifton, AZ on Sept. 9, 1944 to Crisanto and Teresa Madrigal. His family relocated to Duncan, Arizona, where he attended Duncan High School. Just prior to his senior year, with his mother's blessing and written permission, he joined his first love – The United States Marine Corps, in which he served proudly for 14 years. During his career he fought in the Vietnam War in 1967 and 1968. During this time he earned the Purple Heart Medal and Vietnam Service Medal with two bronze stars. He attained the Rank of Staff Sergeant, Drill Instructor, Rifle Expert and Pistol Sharpshooter.

Upon return, he made his way to Hayden, Arizona where he married a kindhearted woman by the name of Aurelia "Rally" Acuna, and worked at the Asarco Copper Smelter for over 25 years. He remained in Hayden for the rest of his life.

He made numerous friends in the area, most of whom he met at work, and always enjoyed jokes and laughter with them. His wit and timing made him quick with a joke that always had people laughing. He was a photographer and animal lover who enjoyed a good Western, delicious food, and being active. He rode his bike for many years and made sure to take his daily walk until the very end.

After his beloved and devoted wife Rally passed away much too soon, he would be blessed with the companionship of Patsy Phelan, a wonderful woman with a loving family that he enjoyed spending time with. He would miss her dearly after she passed away.

Daniel is survived by his son, Daniel A. Madrigal; daughter, Kim Granado; and siblings, Lupe Madrigal, Marcos Madrigal and Margie Madrigal. He also leaves behind many nieces and nephews, all of whom loved their "Uncle" very much. He is also preceded in death by his mother, father and siblings, Martha Baca, Brigido Zamora, Socorro Juarez, and Chana Garcia.

Services for Daniel were held Saturday, March 20, 2021 at Griffith Mortuary. He was laid to rest at Mountain View Cemetery in Hayden, Arizona.

Ralph was born July 21, 1935 in Jerome, AZ. Ralph married Gloria in Superior, AZ and started a family. They were married for 65 years and had six kids together.

Ralph loved to spend time exploring the outdoors and enjoyed taking his kids with him in his '55 Chevrolet Truck often times hunting deer and rabbits together. He enjoyed working with his hands including fixing cars and doing projects around the house.

Ralph will join his parents, Raphael and Margaret Magana and sister Rose Montijo in heaven. He will also be reunited with his son, Arthur, who went to be with the Lord at an early age.

Ralph is survived by his wife, Gloria Magana; son, Reuben, his wife Jacqueline and their daughters Araceli and Ariana; son, Ralph Edward II, his son Anthony Jacob, his wife and their three daughters; son, Roy Magana; daughter, Ann Magana and her daughter Kaile; daughter, Elizabeth Malmquist and her husband Randy Malmquist; grandson, Arthur II and his wife Julie Magana and their children Brody and Willow Mae; and granddaughter, Jessica and her husband Jarret Randall and their children Sterling and Ayla. He leaves behind his brother, Chris Magana; sisters, Lupe Gutierrez and Mary Vindiola; and several other relatives and friends whom he loved and adored dearly.

Ralph was a strong man with a big heart and a sense of humor, who would leave boxes of food on his neighbors' front steps. He will be known for always giving away oranges to everyone. He will be dearly missed by all who love him. "To you, O lord, I lift my soul"

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Saturday, March 27, 2021. The viewing will be from 8-9 a.m. at Bulman Family Funeral Homes. Happiness found during Mural Madness

The Superior Chamber of Commerce hosted Mural Madness this past weekend. The event included the sale of a special map that highlighted the many murals in Superior, live art and mural demonstrations and a special painted rock scavenger hunt. Residents and visitors enjoyed a self guided tour and lots of open air activities. The sidewalks, restaurants and retail shops were busy throughout the weekend and many commented that parking was scarce. Weekends in Superior have proved to be very busy, especially following the airing of the Arizona Highways episode on Superior. Resolution Copper provided the funding for the sponsorship of the television show. If you haven't seen it, you can find it online at: <http://bit.ly/AZHwysSupie>.

Superior's athletes coping with missing season

By Nathaniel A. Lopez
Superior Sun

Superior High School, like many other schools, has faced a strange year in sports. After the AIA decided to resume winter sports, most schools went back to playing sports. Some schools decided to wait it out and not participate in the winter season. In an effort to protect their students, faculty, and community, Superior High School decided to abstain from participating in the winter season.

COVID-19 has taken a toll on everyone, including the senior student-athletes that were unable to participate in the winter season. To understand the effect it has had on them, we must understand what it means to be a student-athlete for Superior High School.

"Being a student athlete at Superior High School, you represent the town of Superior and the school. You need to be a leader on and off the field, and play because you want to win and work hard to achieve your goal," said senior Nathan Duarte.

Alyssa Bailey describes being a student-athlete as, putting her heart into everything, school and sports.

"Personally, COVID-19 has affected me a lot. It has changed everything for me, and has taught me how to value everything in life before it's too late," Jasmine Lopez comments on how COVID-19 has affected her school year.

Adam Navarrette recalls being bummed out by the short football season, and the cancelation of the basketball season.

"This sports season brought a lot of sadness to me. I couldn't spend my senior year with my classmates, as I should have," said Bailey. "Looking back, I am glad that I was there to cheer for the football team, and be a shoulder for my team to lean on. Though it isn't how I wanted to spend my senior cheer season, the memories I made will surely last a lifetime."

Although there has been so much change throughout the times of COVID, the student-athletes of Superior High School still are full of hope. Nathan Duarte hopes that the a widespread vaccine will be available for everyone, so people can be safer, and the juniors through freshman can have a normal year.

"My only hope is to have a baseball season, because I know we have a good chance at winning it all this year," Navarrette said.

"I just hope that I can have a somewhat normal graduation," said Bailey. "I want to be able to walk down the field with my class for the last time. That's all I ask for."

Shop at Home: Jade Grill

In April, COVID-19 brought much of Arizona's economy to a screeching halt. All businesses not deemed "essential" were ordered closed by Arizona's governor Doug Ducey.

The lockdown continued for nearly two months. When Gov. Ducey finally gave the go ahead to reopen, businesses slowly began the road to recovery. Even those listed as "essential" had a challenge with this economic recovery.

Many small businesses and non-profits in Arizona didn't survive the lockdown. The businesses that did survive are hanging on as best they can. Copper Area News wanted to give something back to the local business community. Over the next several weeks, our newspapers (Copper Basin News, Superior Sun and San Manuel Miner) will be featuring local businesses and non-profits, encouraging our readers to Shop at Home, stay local and support our local businesses. To date, Copper Area News has featured 36 businesses in the Copper Corridor.

It is hard enough making it as a small business in a small town during normal times. But to balance those difficulties during a pandemic adds an entirely different twist to things. Restaurants were among the hardest hit by the shutdown.

The Jade Grill Asian BBQ restaurant has a rich history in Superior. Lucy Wing and her brothers and sisters decided that they wanted to give back to their home town by opening the Jade Grill restaurant located at 639 US 60. Lucy who is a respected and renowned food editor for Harpers Magazine is the primary family member responsible for the day to day operations and food preparation.

Like the rest of the restaurant industry, the Jade Grill experienced many challenges and one in particular was the small size of the restaurant space, which restricted in-person dining, with the lack of events the pandemic hurt catering business as well as use of the upstairs balcony for events.

The Jade Grill features many traditional Asian foods such as orange chicken, egg roles, fried rice and kung pow chicken, in addition to those more common favorites, there is Vietnamese Beef Wraps, Ribs, Teriyaki Chicken and many fresh and hearty salads and sandwiches. Dishes such as the beef wraps, teriyaki chicken and ribs all are made with grilled and smoked meats, which adds depth to the flavors. If you are looking to fill a sweet tooth, order the rice pudding or zesty pineapple desert. Each menu item is prepared fresh, and in many dishes, the vegetables and herbs come from local gardens. The Jade Grill can also offer catering for larger meals and can prepare a variety of cuisines.

Jade Grill is open Wednesday through Saturdays. Hours are 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. for lunch and 5-7:30 p.m. for dinner. Call for take out orders: 520-689-2885.

Lucy Wing, owner of Jade Grill in Superior, stands ready to serve up any number of delicious dishes.
