LETTER TO THE EDITOR

From Family First: Take Some Time

As I look out of my shop to the distant snowcapped mountains, I see the Mesquite trees that have been bare all winter just starting to bud out! On the ground below are flowers of all kinds popping out, just like that ground hog looking for his shadow to see if winter is over. The sun above looks brighter today as I marvel at all the new life surrounding me. Even though I am a grandpa now, with my children grown up with children of their own, I marvel at the wonder of a newborn child!

We are blessed at Family First to see this miracle of new life up close and personal every day. We are here to encourage, buildup, and teach the new moms and dads during the best time of their lives.

Sometimes they just need to hear that having children is the best thing they will ever accomplish! We all need to hear that as we pass through this life!

That's why I love this time of year as we celebrate spring and the Easter Holiday. It's a time to celebrate our life, a time to celebrate God's gift of life for us, the giving of His Son so we could have life!

So, if you want to feel a little younger take some time and go outside to take in the marvel of spring time, the new growth and the new life! Take some time to be around young children and pour into their lives.

Join with us at Family First to help that next generation be the best they can be! Family First; "helping mothers, youth and families!"

Happy Easter!

"For God so loved the world He gave His only begotten Son." John 3:16

God Bless,

/s/ Frank and Clare Grochocki

Prevention is key when it comes to wildfire risk reduction

The adage is true. One spark can start a wildfire – just like the Sawmill Fire in Southern Arizona. And every year, people continue to be the number one cause of wildfires in the state.

With the abundance of winter moisture across Arizona, the Department of Forestry and Fire Management wants to remind people not to get complacent.

Sunday, April 7, kicked off Southwest Wildfire Awareness Week with this year's theme, 'Prevention today for protection tomorrow.'

The goal of the week is to promote actions that prevent human-caused wildfires and reduce the risk of wildfire to homes and our Arizona communities. And prevention is key when it comes to wildfire risk reduction.

Homeowners can do simple tasks to keep wildfire threat low by creating defensible space around their property. Oracle Firewise suggests that the defensible space be 30 feet around your home. The Town of Kearny, this week, announced that on April 19 it will begin warning and citing homeowners for having weeds, dry shrubs or dead trees on their property.

Drivers can help by ensuring tow chains are secure, never tossing cigarette butts out the window, and making sure the vehicle – and tires are in good condition before getting on the road.

To promote the week, DFFM will be focused on increased social media marketing and public service announcements.

The Arizona Department of Transportation will also put up messaging on their highway signs, including "Don't Drag Chains, One Spark Can Start a Wildfire."

Recently, DFFM released a mobile phone application as another tool to provide wildfire information, fire restriction details, and fire prevention tips. You can download the free app by searching the Arizona Department of Forestry and Fire Management on the iTunes or Google Play stores.

This year, Southwest Wildfire Awareness Week runs April 7-13 and is a joint collaboration between DFFM, the Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Bureau of Indian Affairs, National Park Service, U.S. Forest Service, and New Mexico State Forestry Division.

For more information about how you can protect your property and community, please contact your local fire departments:

Just say no-no: San Manuel frosh Waddell throws no-hitter

Jazmyne Waddell (13) hitting the ball, just one of 20+ hits that resulted in scoring against Santa Rita.

By Andrew Luberd
Copper Area Sports

San Manuel freshman Jazmyne Waddell has been extraordinary at the plate and on the mound all season, but nothing has been more impressive than her performance against San Miguel last Thursday in a lopsided 19 – 0 victory last Thursday.

The phenom tossed a no-hitter in addition to going 4-for-5 at the plate – including a pair of doubles and homerun – with eight RBIs. She fanned 10 and did not issue a free pass in the five-inning outing.

The Lady Miners finished with 20 hits in the game, eight of them for extra-bases, including Waddell's three, a double and a homerun from Gabriella Estrada, a triple by Aubrey Encinas, and doubles from Samantha Waddell and Priscilla Ivy. Encinas and Estrada finished with three RBIs apiece and Ivy drove in two runs. Beatrice Gomez and Andrea Guerrero contributed with two hits apiece.

On April 5, the ladies posted a 22-1 win over Santa Rita.

Up next: Apr. 10 vs. Coolidge, Apr. 12 vs. Desert Christian, and Apr. 16 at Santa Rita. All games are scheduled for 4 p.m.

Andrea Guerrero (10) coming home one of 20+ runs against Santa Rita.

Annual Oracle Spring Run Car Show

The Oracle Historical Society's (OHS) annual fundraiser, the 33rd Oracle Spring Run Car Show, will be held on Saturday, April 13 in conjunction with Oracle Oaks Festival. Due to major construction at the Pinal County Courthouse Park, there will be change of venue. The temporary location has been generously made available by the Living Word Chapel on Highway 77, directly across from Oracle

Ford.

A representative of the OHS stated, "Because of this disruption in the parade, the cars will not be running through Oracle this year. Please accept our apologies for this upset; but, next year, the agenda will be back to normal."

Vehicles sparkled at

April in Arizona. It's the most perfect time of year. Perfect for spending time outdoors. Hiking. Biking. And it's absolutely perfect for taking in a car show. Not just any car show, mind you. But the 32nd annual Oracle Spring Run Car Show sponsored by the Oracle Historical Society. The weather was perfect. Just a little wind. No rain. In fact not a cloud in the sky. Just bright beautiful sunshine to lend a bit of more dazzle to the shiny array of cars, trucks and motorcycles on display in front of the Oracle Courthouse. The food was yummy: kettle corn, ice cream, shaved ice, hot dogs and Don Francisco's Coffee. The car parade ran through Oracle, starting at 9:30 a.m., ending

Best Engine: Brent Guyton (Oro Valley)

moves to Living Word Chapel April 13

The Spring Run is open to all cars, motorcycles and trucks. Participants may pick up entry forms at Carquest in Oracle or the OHS website:

oraclehistoricalsociety.org. Among the many vendors there will be Mexican food, hot dogs, kettle corn, beef jerky, lots and lots of homemade bread and baked goodies throughout the day from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. The cars will be awarded trophies at 2:30 p.m., after which they are free to leave. The vendors will also break down at the same time.

In addition to the temporary location, generous businesses and individuals donate funds to cover the Car Show t-shirts, dash plaques, trophies and door prizes.

Flower Power art exhibition open at Triangle L Ranch

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

Ten artists are celebrating flowers and nature in a tribute to the days of 'Flower Power.' The art exhibit is being held at the Triangle L Ranch in the Adobe Gallery.

The 1960s and early 70s were times of struggle with the civil rights movement and the Vietnam War in full swing. It was also a time of passive resistance and a counterculture social movement that created new hopeful ways of expressing ideas such as peace and love, non-violent protests and coming together through art, fashion, love, music and food.

These eras gave us some great music and social changes as well as Woodstock, the Age of Aquarius, Free Love, Psychedelia, and Earth Day. The exhibit brings back the free art style of the times and pays tribute to the importance of nature in our lives. Power to the people and Flower Power forever!

The artists: Helen Baribeau, Matilda Essig, Susan Daigneault, Anna-Maria Dickinson, Sharon Holnback, Valerie Galloway, Vanessa Galloway, Patricia Katchur, Karen Medley and Gary Swimmer.

The exhibit opened April 6 and will be at the Triangle L Ranch until May 18, 2019. If you're coming to the exhibit, "be sure to wear some flowers in your hair."
