Prevention is key when it comes to wildfire risk reduction

The adage is true. One spark can start a wildfire – just like the Sawmill Fire in Southern Arizona. And every year, people continue to be the number one cause of wildfires in the state. With the abundance of winter moisture across Arizona, the Department of Forestry and Fire Management wants to remind people not to get complacent. Sunday, April 7, kicked off Southwest Wildfire Awareness Week with this year's theme, 'Prevention today for protection tomorrow.' The goal of the week is to promote actions that prevent human-caused wildfires and reduce the risk of wildfire to homes and our Arizona communities. And prevention is key when it comes to wildfire risk reduction. Homeowners can do simple tasks to keep wildfire threat low by creating defensible space around their property. Oracle

Firewise suggests that the defensible space be 30 feet around your home. The Town of Kearny, this week, announced that on April 19 it will begin warning and citing homeowners for having weeds, dry shrubs or dead trees on their property. Drivers can help by ensuring tow chains are secure, never tossing cigarette butts out the window, and making sure the vehicle – and tires are in good condition before getting on the road.

To promote the week, DFFM will be focused on increased social media marketing and public service announcements. The Arizona Department of Transportation will also put up messaging on their highway signs, including "Don't Drag Chains, One Spark Can Start a Wildfire." Recently, DFFM released a mobile phone

Inaugural art fest a huge success for Superior

April 6 was a busy day in Downtown Superior with the inaugural Superior Arts Festival.

A self guided mural walk, silent auction, musicians, art rock hunt and a multitude of vendors and demonstrations made the event a hit with the many folks who attended.

Many new faces were in Town which is great for Superior.

Thanks to all who participated in this fun event.

Superior Superhero Stuff even had comic book art.

Pitchers dominating as Superior returns to top of 1A rankings

By Andrew Lubberda
Copper Area Sports

The Superior baseball team reclaimed its position at the top of the 1A rankings thanks in part to a couple of superb pitching performances last week, including a combined no-hitter against Duncan last Tuesday.

“Our pitchers have been throwing well, but what has been the key is our defense behind them,” Superior head coach Manuel Ortega told the Superior Sun. “We are making plays for our pitchers. When we do that it makes our pitchers relax and gives them confidence.”

Senior Jesus Castellanos threw a two-hitter against visiting Valley Union on Friday, Mar. 29, in the Panthers’

3 – 0 victory. Superior scored all its runs in the first inning and that was more than enough for Castellanos, who fanned 14 and issued only one walk in the complete-game shutout. He helped himself at the plate too, going 1-for-3 with a double and an RBI. Sophomore Joshua Marquez and junior Daniel McConnell were each 2-for-3 with an RBI apiece.

Senior Kale Major and freshman Matthew Cruz combined to no-hit Duncan in the Panthers’ 13 – 0 road win on Apr. 2. The duo had 10 strikeouts and walked only two Wildkat batters. Superior slugged five extra-base hits against Duncan, including a solo homerun by McConnell – his first of the season. Gabe Otero, Nathan Duarte, Cruz, and Castellanos each doubled in the game. Otero, Duarte, Cruz, and Castellanos each finished with two hits in the win. Cruz drove in a game-high four RBIs while Duarte and Otero had two RBIs each.

Superior is now 7 – 0 in region games and a step closer to one of its season goals.

“One of our goals is to win the region,” Ortega said. “That will help us head towards the right direction to achieve our main goal, which is bringing home the right trophy this time.”

Pantherettes extend winning streak to five

By Andrew Lubberda
Copper Area Sports

The fourth-ranked Superior softball team has won six of its last seven games, including five-straight following wins against Duncan and 10th-ranked Hayden last week. The only setback in the last seven was a 1 – 0 loss to top-ranked Ray.

The Pantherettes third-straight win during the streak was a 20 – 1 mercy-rule win against Valley Union on Mar. 29.

Superior pounded out 24 hits, including eight doubles – two each by Lindsay Ketron, Juliana Navarro and Marisa Estatico – in a game that 12 Pantherettes had hits. Marlee Estatico, Ketron, Navarro, and Marisa Estatico led the way with three hits apiece while Anisah Cardenas, McKenna Duarte, Korinna Romero, and Makayla Martinez finished with two hits each. Navarro had a game-high four RBIs.

On the mound, Duarte and freshman Danika Bryant combined to allow one run on two hits with 10 strikeouts and three walks.

Up next: Apr. 16 vs. Ray at 4 p.m.

Oracle State Park named to top three hiking trails to explore in April PHOENIX – Spring weather and Arizona State Parks and Trails go hand-in-hand! This is the perfect time of year to lace up your boots, grab your water bottle, and hit the trails.

Because there's an extensive network of trails in the more than 30 parks around the state, we narrowed it down to our top three springtime hikes that are sure to please with views and adventure alike.

1. Red Rock State Park: Head north for cooler weather, later blooming wildflowers, and trails amid the red rocks. Eagle's Nest Trail is 1.53 miles of easy-to-moderate hiking with jaw-dropping views of the Sedona area and the riparian areas of the park.

2. Oracle State Park: April is the perfect time to catch the later-blooming wildflowers at Oracle's higher elevation. The Nature Loop Trail also provides great chances to see wildlife and birds, and is a 1.2-mile loop with amazing views of the Galiuro Mountains and San Pedro River Valley.

3. Buckskin Mountain State Park: Head south from the popular Lake Havasu State Park to this quieter spot along the Colorado River. The Buckskin Trail is a one-mile loop that connects to additional trails if you want to extend your hike. The trail crosses over Interstate 95 and provides an opportunity to check out vegetation and views near the river.

No matter which trail you pick, always make sure to bring plenty of water, wear sunscreen, and dress appropriately, including wearing sturdy, closed-toe shoes.

"Managing and conserving Arizona's natural, cultural and recreational resources for the benefit of the people, both in our parks and through our partners."
