LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Indivisible Copper Corridor announces regional Tax Day Caravan

Indivisible Copper Corridor, led by Indivisible Oracle, will visit every town in the region with their Tax Day Caravan on Saturday, April 15. Our trek is one of over 150 locally organized Tax March events around the nation. Our message? The President must show us his tax returns. With our Caravan, rural Arizona joins in issuing this clarion call.

By staging a multi-town caravan of vehicles filled with energized citizens, banners, signs, and leaflets, Indivisible Copper Corridor will show Trump that we will not settle for his deception and broken campaign promises. The Tax Day Caravan will start in Oracle, then visit San Manuel, Mammoth, Dudleyville, Winkelman/Hayden, and Kearny, and complete its journey in Superior.

Why are Trump's taxes so important? In Eastern Pinal County, we work hard to provide for our families and to build healthy communities. We pay our fair share to Uncle Sam year after year. But has our Commander in Chief paid his due? With no answer to our lingering questions, Americans are left to wonder what secrets lurk in Trump's financial records.

Trump's tax returns can reveal three kinds of information. First, what are his income sources, and how much does he make? Second, how does he structure his income for tax purposes? Third, what kinds of deductions does he take (including charitable contributions)? From this, we may learn the truth about his business partners, foreign bank accounts, overseas income, and other financial ties, all of which may reveal conflicts of interest between his business dealings and his presidency.

Ever since Richard Nixon set the precedent, candidates have voluntarily disclosed their tax records to the voters. While campaigning, Trump promised us over and over again that he would share his taxes, thus proving to us that "there's nothing there." Still we wait. By taking back these promises, Trump is concealing the truth. Our President needs to come clean. Is he indebted to any foreign entities, whether corporate or political? If he owes favors to one or many foreign powers (Russia is at the forefront), at best this is not in the interest of the American people. Who will he put first? Who will his policies benefit? We demand answers.

Our Caravan itinerary, with approximate arrival times in each community:

- Oracle: 7:30 a.m. rendezvous at the commuter parking lot by the lower Circle K.

- San Manuel: 8:30 a.m., at the upper shopping center. There will be a brief visit and an explanation of the importance of Trump releasing his tax returns.
- Mammoth: 9 a.m., at the Miners' Memorial.
- Dudleyville: 9:30 a.m., at Lionel D. Ruiz Park.
- Winkelman/Hayden: 10 a.m., at the Copper Corridor Ore Cart (corner of Hwy. 77 and Hwy. 177).
- Kearny: 10:30 a.m., at the IGA.
- Superior: 11 a.m., at the famous Los Hermanos

Restaurant (on Hwy 60), then lunch.

For updates to the caravan's itinerary, or to join Indivisible Copper Corridor, please visit www.indivisible.cc. We invite all Copper Corridor residents who are concerned about Trump's taxes to join the procession on Saturday April 15. Come out to meet us, or join us just in your town, en route, or from start to finish. We caravan for transparency!

Jelly Beans and Easter Egg Hunts

Here in the high desert of Arizona, most of the trees lose their leaves during the winter. It can look as though they have died without their bright green foliage. All winter the trees waited patiently as the seasonal rains watered their roots. They waited for the signal of spring and time for new life! It seems like overnight that the buds formed and then leaves are popping out everywhere, oh the wonder of spring time!

In our yard the rabbits come out, nibbling the vegetation popping up around the yard. Then the birds come out looking for seeds on the ground and start gathering at the watering pan, how do they know its spring?

I believe God Himself created them that way! All of the new life of spring and nature around us never ceases to amaze me.

It is at this time of year we celebrate spring, celebrate

Easter, along with winter being over and a rebirth of things around us. There are Eater bunnies of chocolate, marshmallow chicks, jelly beans and Easter egg hunts for the children to celebrate the day.

For myself, it is a time to thank God for the new life, to thank His Son Jesus for new life from Him. It is a reminder for me that God loves and cares that much for me and us all!

Here at Family First we are here to show God's love to everyone who comes into our doors. We are here to help, to encourage, to teach our moms and dads, to help them be the best parents they can be for their children. We are here to make our community a better place for us all to live in!

Springtime is a wonderful time of year, a time to appreciate that new life around us, a time to refresh and to give thanks for God's goodness for us all!

God Bless,

Pinal County seeking local opinion on Oracle Park redesign

By Joshua Delauder
San Manuel Miner

Do you want to have a say in the Oracle Park redesign? Do you have an idea that you could want implemented? The Tri-Community can now voice their comments, ideas and concerns about the Oracle Park on Nuestro online.

In January, several members of Oracle came together to write down what they liked and didn't like about the Oracle Park redesign plans that University of Arizona Architecture student Michael Cimino and his class drew up. Those comments were all put together and now Oracle Park is one step closer to a master plan.

Kent Taylor, Director of the Open Space and Trails Department for Arizona said the public comments that they receive through the website will go into the concept plan.

"We're going to take those comments and work those into the concept plan to develop the final master plan," Taylor said.

Taylor said that the project is going along at the rate they thought it would be.

"We're on the schedule that we kind of determined when we first reached out to U of A," Taylor said.

Mary Ellen Kazda, a resident of Oracle and someone who has been to all the meetings for the park, thinks it's very important for more families to voice their opinions and concerns for the park.

"I've been telling people what the plan looks like and they think it looks good and they do have some questions and concerns," she said.

Kaz said that getting the word out to families and getting them to voice their opinions is "critical."

Comments are being taken into consideration until April 21. The website will be asking for email and other info, but that information will not be given out.

The website for public comments can be reached here: <http://bit.ly/2pnzfH2>.

Oracle Farmers Market getting bigger and better

By John Hernandez
San Manuel Miner

The Oracle Farmers Market opened for the season on Wednesday, April 5. The market had new vendors as well as their regular line up of Dave and his produce, Isaac and his famous salsa and barbecue sauce, Jim and his blade sharpener, Dirty Sno with their sno cone concoctions and Terry selling her unique jewelry. Dan and Wendy of Just Tacos were there providing tacos, tostadas and Navajo tacos.

Some of the new vendors included the White Bell Soap Company selling handcrafted goat's milk soap, lotions and soy candles; Dawn Degara was there with her massage chair; Karen Lombardi was selling her "Artwork Enhancing the Frame" and Jewelry by Guatemala; Nicki Herdrick had handmade aprons and art embellished flip flops for sale; the Peppersauce Kitchen from Arizona Zipline Adventures brought their chuckwagon where they were selling fresh baked artisan breads; Kathryn had jars of ready to cook dry soup mixes; and Gloria, Crazy Grandma and the Cupcake Lady had delicious cupcakes and other items for sale.

JJ's A Gift Gallery is open with a variety of gift items and art. Jimmie has selected Cara Sprouls as this month's Artist of the Month. Cara has Autism Spectrum Disorder. She is an accomplished artist. April is Autism Awareness Month and to help bring attention to autism, Jimmie chose Cara's remarkable art work. Come by and take a look. Sue & Jerry's is also open during the Farmers Market.

Jennifer Rinio and Ric Volante provided the entertainment playing a variety of music including bluegrass, classic rock, folk and country. They are a popular duo in the area. The Oracle Farmers Market seems to be growing and is now known as a place to go on Wednesday evenings, have fun, get something to eat and purchase some unique items. The Oracle Farmers Market is open on Wednesdays 5 to 8 p.m. It is located at Sue & Jerry's Trading Post, 1015 W. American Ave. Everyone is welcome! Vendors can set up at 4:30. Cost for vendors is $5 to set up a table and $10 if you need electricity.

Come and support the community and have fun.

Miners' baseball team gives back to community, hosts skills camp for younger players

By Andrew Luberdia
San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel baseball team is playing some of its best baseball of the season on the field and now they're giving their best off the field too.

Head coach Freddy Burnham and the Miners' players hosted a skills camp for youths, ages 4 – 14, on Apr. 1. For the players, it was an opportunity to participate in some community service and for the youths, an opportunity to meet the players they might one day emulate.

"We had a total of 26 kids participate in the skills camp," Burnham wrote in an email to the Miner. "The baseball team had a good time working with the kids of the community, and teaching them fielding and batting skills."

Campers and their parents shared a meal with the Miners' players, indulging in hot dogs and drinks.

Ten campers won prizes at the event, including four who won Chilly Willy's and six others who won a hat and t-shirt.

"It was a great opportunity for the baseball players," Burnham said. "We hope to continue this as a new tradition to give back to the community."

Young scientists wow at Tucson science fair

Mountain Vista School has great showing at SARSEF; Elena Hendrix wins grand award and project heads to state science fair

The winning Science Fair projects from Mountain Vista School were entered in the regional SARSEF Science Fair in Tucson, March 30-April 1. The students' projects did amazingly well.

From Mrs. Formo's class, the pie project won second place, and the essential oil sanitizer won first. The pie and transpiration projects also won from the Tucson Cactus and Succulent Society. They won $25 each and certificates and memberships. The Climate Change project won $25 each and a certificate. The Stomach Acid project won third place. Altogether, the fourth graders won a total of $240.

Mrs. Maki's first grade class won second place and a class trophy and $25.

Elena Hendrix, a sixth grade student, won first place grand award for her project, $50 and a trophy. Elena's project will now be entered in the AzSEF (state science fair).

Congratulations, Elena!

A big thank you to Mrs. Formo, who teaches fourth grade, Mrs. Smith, who teaches middle school science, and Suzi Fairbanks for taking the projects and setting them up.

Congratulations to all the winners!

Mammoth Elementary STEM fares well at SARSEF

By Joshua Delauder
San Manuel Miner

The Mammoth Elementary School attends the Southern Arizona Research, Science and Engineering Foundation Fair (SARSEF) every year. They won big this year.

This year, the fair had 95,000 students from Southern Arizona. The kids took home five prizes out of only 683 picked winners.

Mr. Chavez said SARSEF gives the students a list of project ideas that they can choose to do.

In order from kindergarten to 6th grade: Mrs. Vender's class won 2nd under the category Animal and Plant Sciences for their project, Are You a Bad Egg; Mrs. Garcia's class won 2nd under the category Energy and Environmental Engineering for their project, Any Juice Left; Mrs. Cazares's class won 1st under the category Earth and Environmental Sciences for their project, Salt of the Earth; and Mr. Chavez's class won 1st and 3rd for their 8 projects under the categories Animal and Plant Sciences and Energy and Environmental Engineering for their projects, Recycle, Reuse, Reclaim, and Tree of Life.

Chavez said the upper classes got to do more than one project per class, and two students chose to do their project separate. Julie Garcia and Andres Zazueta got to do their project and win their own trophy.

Congratulations to Mammoth Elementary School and the kids for their success.

Mrs. Garcia's first and second grade class.

Mrs. Cazares's third and fourth grade class.

Mrs. Vender's kindergarten class.

Mr. Chavez's fifth and sixth grade class.

Lady Miners remain perfect in region

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

The sixth-ranked San Manuel softball team improved to 5 – 0 in 2A South-region games after a lopsided 20 – 1 home victory against San Carlos last Tuesday.

The Lady Miners scored at least four runs in each of the first four innings, leading to the rout.

Nikki Baldenegro was a single short of the cycle, hitting a double, triple and a homerun in addition to driving in five runs. Dionne Ruiz added two hits – both triples – and two RBI while Selena Cruz hit a double and had a pair of RBI in the win.

Baldenegro was again dominant from the circle, allowing only an unearned run on three hits with 13 strikeouts and no walks in the five-inning, complete-game victory. The win was the junior's 12th of the season.

Miners win fifth straight, move up in rankings

By Andrew Luberda
San Manuel Miner

The San Manuel baseball team defeated San Carlos last Tuesday, 15 – 5. The win was the Miners fifth straight and helped propel them to No. 18 in most recent 2A baseball rankings that were released on Apr. 9. Alejandro Camacho had four hits, including a pair of doubles, and drove in three runs to lead the Miners' offensive attack. Angel Barriga, a sophomore, also had three RBI in the win. Christian Estrada and Javy Tamayo each had two hits and two RBI against the Braves.

In all, nine Miners' hitters combined for 14 hits in the game.

Josh Sharp, Ceazar Guerrero and Angel Barriga combined on the mound to allow five runs on four hits with eight strikeouts and four walks.

Forest Service hosts Apache Leap Management Plan meeting

The Tonto National Forest hosted an open forum to hear public comments regarding the Apache Leap Management plan that is being created. The plan was required as part of the legislation that approved the Resolution Copper Southeast Arizona Land Exchange and Conservation Act in 2014. According to the legislation the Forest Service must issue a Notice of Decision by the end of December 2017.

The Apache Leap Management Plan addresses current and future recreational needs, Native American concerns and overall preservation of the escarpment of Apache Leap for the life of the mine. The legislation requires the plan to manage 807 acres of Apache Leap but does not affect the Cross or S monuments on the mountain.

Local leaders and community members have expressed concern that the Forest Service could restrict access for hiking or recreation in the area of Apache Leap. The Cross

Canyon trails are used by locals and visitors. Climbing groups have also requested that there be vehicular access to the base of the escarpment to allow for easy access to climbing. The plan does address the need to limit vehicle access on the Apache Leap mountain.

The public is invited to comment on the proposed plans through May 1, 2017. You can view the plan online at www.ApacheLeapSMA.us. You may also contact the Forest Service Project Manager, Mary Rasmussen via email at info@ApacheLeapSMA.us.

Many concerned about the outcome of the Apache Leap Escarpment turned out for a meeting hosted by the Tonto National Forest District. Cat Brown | Copper Area

Arizona Trail Gateway Community Advisory Committee meets in Oracle

By Mila Besich-Lira
Copper Area News

Over the past decade more and more attention has been given to the Arizona Trail. The 800 mile trail that travels from Arizona's southern boarder with Mexico goes through the entire Copper Corridor before it makes it way through northern Arizona and the Grand Canyon before it reaches the Utah border.

As the popularity of the trail grows so does the need for the Gateway Communities along the trail to meet, collaborate and discuss how the communities can harness the economic benefits of the trail as well as support the maintenance and development of the trail.

The ATA has formed an Arizona Trail Gateway Community advisory committee.

The advisory group meets three times a year and their Spring meeting was held in March at the Oracle Historical Society. Trail champions from Summerhaven, Pine, Sierra Vista, Superior, Pinal County, and Kearny were all in attendance.

The group discussed the launch of several new products that are being sold with a revenue share to support the Arizona Trail including a new blend of coffee by Oracle based Sky Island Roasters called the Arizona Trail blend. The coffee will be packaged for both home use as well as in convenient packaging for those using their coffee on the trails.

The group is focussing efforts on how all of the communities can work together to support hikers and promote the communities along the trail.

The next meeting is scheduled to be held in Pine in August.
