Council approves new mural for downtown

The Superior Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with Rebuild Superior Inc. - Business Attraction Retention program submitted a plan to the Town of Superior to install and create a new mural in Downtown Superior. The vintage postcard Greetings from Superior mural will be installed on the Northwest wall of the Superior Senior Center at Lobb Ave. and Main St.

The mural will be a Welcome to Superior mural with a vintage design similar to those in cities like Tucson, Chicago and Austin. The letters will all depict traditions and land marks of Superior. Local artists and artists from the region submitted ideas to the BAR Committee and from there the letters were chosen and submitted to the Town of Superior Planning and Zoning Commission. Local artists contributing the to the mural are Chuck Davidson, Marilee Lash, Deb Kay, Augie Hing, David Drennon, Pete Casillas and Sal Cordero.

The mural followed the Town of Superior Public Art Policy which requires approval from the Planning and Zoning Commission with final approval coming from the Town Council. On Thursday the Town Council approved the design.

one of three extra-base hits by the Panthers in the win. Junior Steven Ybarra was 3-for-3 with three RBI, including a double.

Major, who had a hit and two RBI at the plate, pitched three innings for the win. He fanned eight while walking one, allowing four runs – three earned – on three hits.

Superior Sun

Superior Player-of-the-Year candidate Kiki Arriola had two hits and an RBI at the plate and dominated the visiting Bears on the mound, pitching a complete game in the Lady Panthers' 8 – 2 win on Monday, Apr. 9.

Arriola, a senior, went 2-for-3 with a triple and tossed 112 pitches in the complete-game outing, where she allowed two runs on six hits with 10 strikeouts and four walks. In 11 starts this season, Arriola is 11 – 0 with six complete games. She's fanned 100 in 60 IP and walked only 18, a strikeout-to-walk ration of more than 5-to-1.

Anisah Cardenas, a junior, went 3-for-4 and hit one of two doubles in the game by Superior batters. She also drove in a run. Korrina Romero had a hit and two RBI while freshman McKenna Duarte went 2-for-3 at the plate.

Since its loss to the top-ranked Ray on Apr. 3, the Lady Panthers have won four-straight with an average of victory of nearly 12 runs per game.

"The team is playing well, and mentally I think we're in a good place," head coach Martin Navarrette told the Superior Sun. "It's not a secret, we know what we have to do to be successful."

A firefighter checks for hot spots after dousing a blaze on Main St. Monday.

Superior Firefighters battle blaze on Main St.

Superior Fire and Police were kept busy Monday night containing a fire that eventually engulfed two buildings and sparked a brush fire.

Superior Police received a report Monday at 4:16 p.m. of smoke and flames in the 600 block of Main St.

"Superior PD quickly arrived on scene and found a fully engulfed abandoned building on fire with fire spread to the adjacent building and brush," Captain Richard Drennan, public information officer for Superior Fire Department, told the Superior Sun in an email.

Superior Fire crews arrived in an engine a few minutes later and they immediately began to contain the fire. The spread in the brush was contained, but the first building was still fully engulfed with heavy fuels and the fire had spread into the second building, Drennan said.

Off-duty and reserve firefighters responded from home and brought additional fire vehicles to the scene to assist. Queen Valley Fire District responded with an engine as part of a mutual aid agreement.

"Firefighters aggressively attacked the fire for over an hour, which was difficult to engage with limited access to the building and several hazards including burning overhead electrical lines and the building being structurally unstable," Drennan added.

Drennan said there were no injuries and the fire's cause is under investigation.
